All moneys, investments and credits in excess of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500.00) remaining in the state treasury to the credit of the commission in the earmarked revenue fund at the close of the license year on December 31st of each year, after the payment of all expenses for that year, shall on or before the fifteenth day of the succeeding month be determined by the commission and shall be transferred from the earmarked revenue fund to the general fund to become available for general governmental purposes.

(c) Each applicant for a salesman's license shall be at least twenty-one (21) years of age and must file an application for license with the commission. His application shall be accompanied by the recommendation of the licensed broker by whom the applicant will be employed or placed under contract, certifying that the applicant is of good repute and that the broker will actively supervise and train the applicant during the period the requested license remains in effect. 66-1930. Written examination—contents—time and place—exemptions. (a) In addition to proof of honesty, trustworthiness and good reputation, each applicant whose application is then pending shall satisfactorily pass a written examination prepared by or under the supervision of the commission. The examination for a salesman's license shall include business ethics, writing, composition, arithmetic, elementary principles of land economics and appraisal, a general knowledge of the statutes of this state relating to deeds, mortgages, contracts of sale, agency and brokerage and the provisions of this act. The examination for a broker's license shall be of a more exacting nature and scope and more stringent than the examination for a salesman's license. An applicant who has failed twice in succession to pass the same class of examination shall be ineligible for a further examination until six months have passed; provided, however, that any resident of the state of Montana who was at the effective date of this act actively engaged in the real estate business as a licensed broker in this state may, upon complying with the other requirements for a broker's license, obtain a broker's license without examination if application therefor is made within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this act; and provided further that any person who has acted as a licensed salesman upon complying with the other requirements for a salesman's license may obtain a salesman's license without an examination if application is made within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this act.

The license of each real estate salesman shall be delivered or mailed to the real estate broker by whom the real estate salesman is employed, and shall be kept in the custody and control of such broker. It shall be the duty of each broker to display his own license conspicuously in his place of business. The commission shall annually prepare and deliver a pocket card certifying that the person whose name appears thereon is a registered real estate broker or a registered real estate salesman, stating the period for which fees have been paid and including, on real estate salesman's cards only, the name and address of the broker employing such real estate salesman.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 250, L. 1963.

66-1933. Bond of brokers and salesman. No license shall be issued or renewed until the applicant for a broker's license or salesman's license has filed a bond with the commission in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), running to the state of Montana and executed by a surety company duly authorized to do business in the state of Montana. The bond shall be in a form approved by the commission and conditioned that the applicant shall conduct his business and himself in accordance with the provisions of this act. All bonds given by licensees under the provisions of this act, after approval, shall be filed and held in the office of the commission.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 250, L. 1963.

66-1934. Fees—when due. To pay the expense of the maintenance and operation of the office of the commission and the enforcement of this act, a fee not to exceed the amount indicated below shall be charged by the commission and paid into the earmarked revenue fund for each of the following:

- (b) For each original resident broker's license issued, a fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00).
- (c) For each annual renewal of a resident broker's license, a fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00).

(d) For each original nonresident broker's license issued, a fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00).

(e) For each annual renewal of a nonresident broker's license, a fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00).

(f) For each original salesman's license issued, a fee not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(i) For each change of place of business or change of employer or contractual associate, a fee not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(j) For each duplicate license, where the original license is lost or destroyed and affidavit is made thereof, a fee not to exceed ten dollars ($10.00).

(k) For each duplicate pocket card, where the original pocket card is lost or destroyed and affidavit is made thereof, a fee not to exceed ten dollars ($10.00).

The commission shall at its first meeting prepare a schedule of fees within the limits set by this section. The commission may from time to time revise such schedule of fees within the limits herein provided; provided, however, a fee once set for any one of the items herein for which a fee is charged cannot be increased or decreased until at least one year has passed since the fee for that particular item was last increased or decreased.

All annual fees shall be due and payable for the ensuing year during the month of December of each year. Failure to remit annual fees before January 1 will automatically cancel such license, but otherwise said license will remain in full force and effect continuously from the date of issuance, unless suspended or revoked by said commission for just cause.

66-1935. Requirements for office—employment of salesmen—issuance and display of license. (a) Each resident licensed broker shall maintain a fixed office within this state. The original license of the broker and the original license of each salesman in the employ of or under contract with such broker shall be prominently displayed in the office. The address of the office and any branch office shall be designated on the broker's license. In case of removal from the designated address, the licensee shall notify the commission before such removal or within ten days thereafter, designating the new location of this office, and paying the required fee, whereupon a license for the new location for the unexpired period shall issue.

(b) A salesman shall not be employed by or under contract to more than one licensed broker nor shall he perform services for any broker other than the one designated upon the license issued to the salesman. Whenever a licensed salesman desires to change his employment or contractual relationship from one licensed broker to another, he shall notify the commission promptly in writing of the facts attendant thereon, pay the required fee, and return his license and pocket card, and a new license and pocket card shall thereupon be issued. No salesman shall directly or indirectly work for or with a broker until he has been issued a license to work for or with that broker. Upon termination of a salesman's employment or contractual relationship he shall surrender his license and pocket card to his broker, who shall return them to the commission for cancellation.

(c) Only one license shall be issued to any salesman to be in effect at one time.

66-1936. Transactions with nonresidents and with nonlicensed brokers or salesmen—consent to legal process. (a) It is unlawful for any licensed broker to employ or compensate directly or indirectly any person for performing any of the acts regulated by this act who is not a licensed broker or licensed salesman; provided, however, that a licensed broker may pay a commission to a licensed broker of another state so long as such nonresident broker has not conducted and does not conduct in this state any service for which a fee, compensation or commission is paid; provided, further, this subsection shall not limit the provisions of the subsection following.

(b) A nonresident of this state, who is actively engaged in the real estate business, who maintains a place of business in another state and who has been duly licensed in such other state to conduct such business in that state, may obtain a license as a broker in this state by complying with all provisions of this act; provided, however, that this section shall apply only to those brokers of other states which offer the same privileges to the licensed brokers of this state. Such nonresident licensee need not maintain a place of business within this state. The commission may license such nonresident broker without examination, provided that he files with the said commission a duly authorized or certified copy of the license issued to such nonresident for the conducting of such business in any other state, and by paying to the said commission the same license fee as is herein provided for the obtaining of a broker's license in this state. The commission may in its discretion refuse to issue a broker's license to an applicant who is not a resident of this state.

(c) Every nonresident broker shall file an irrevocable written consent that legal actions arising out of any commenced or completed transaction may be commenced against such nonresident broker in any county of this state which may be appropriate and designated by section 93-2904; and such consent shall provide that service of summons in any such action may be served upon the chairman of the commission, for and on behalf of said nonresident broker, and such service shall be held to be sufficient to give the court jurisdiction over such nonresident broker and his salesman or agent conducting any such transaction in any county. The consent shall be duly acknowledged, and if made by a corporation, shall be authenticated by its seal. Any service of process or pleading made upon the commission shall be by duplicate copies, one of which shall be filed in the office of the commission and the other forwarded by registered mail to the last known principal address of the nonresident broker against whom said process or pleading is directed. In any action in which service of process or pleading is made upon the commission no default shall be taken except upon certification of the chairman of the commission that a copy of said process or pleading was mailed to the defendant as herein provided. In actions in which service of process or pleading is made upon the commission, defaults may be entered and default judgments taken in the manner provided as in the case where publication of summons is had; provided the method of service of process or pleadings provided for by this section shall in no way limit section 93-2702, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947. (Rule 4, M.R. Civ. P.)

(3) Pursuing a continued and flagrant course of misrepresentation, or making false promises through agents or salesmen, or any medium of advertising, or otherwise;

(9) Offering real property for sale or lease without the knowledge and consent of the owner or his authorized agent or on any terms other than those authorized by the owner or his authorized agent;

(10) Inducing any party to a contract of sale or lease to break such contract for the purpose of substituting, in lieu thereof, a new contract with another principal;

(11) Accepting employment or compensation for appraising real property contingent upon the reporting of a predetermined value or issuing an appraisal report on real property in which he has an undisclosed interest;

The hearing shall be held after twenty (20) days' notice to the applicant or licensee. In case of filing of charges against a licensee, a copy of such charges shall be attached to the notice and be sent by registered mail to the last known address of the licensee. The licensee shall file an answer to the charges, in triplicate, within twenty (20) days after notice has been mailed by the commission. The commission shall thereupon notify the parties to the dispute of the time and place of hearing, which shall be held in accordance with rules promulgated by the commission and in conformity with the laws of this state. If the applicant or license holder is a salesman, the commission shall also notify the broker employing him or in whose employ he seeks to enter by mailing such a notice to the broker's last known business address.

(b) The applicant or licensee shall have full authority to be heard in person or by counsel before the commission in reference to the denial of application on charges filed against him.

(c) In the preparation and conduct of such hearing, the chairman shall have power to issue and sign subpoenas to require the attendance and testimony of any witness and the production of any papers or books. He may administer oaths, examine the witnesses and take any evidence he deems pertinent to the determination of the charges. Any witness so subpoenaed shall be entitled to the same fees and mileage as is prescribed by law in judicial proceedings in the district courts of this state in civil actions, but the payment of such fees and mileage must be paid out of and kept within the limits of the funds created from such license fees. The party against whom such charges may be filed shall have the right to obtain from the chairman a subpoena for any witnesses whom he may desire at such hearing. The chairman shall issue such subpoenas as desired by the party against whom the charges have been filed. Depositions may also be taken and used as in civil court cases in the district courts.

(d) Where, in any proceeding before the commission, any witness shall fail or refuse to attend upon the subpoena issued, or shall refuse to testify, or shall refuse to produce any records or documents, the production of which is called for by the subpoena, the attendance of the witness and the giving of his testimony, and the production of the documents and records may be enforced in the same manner as courts of competent jurisdiction enforce the attendance, testimony of witnesses and production of records in civil cases in the courts of this state.

(b) Notice of appeal shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court, which shall issue a writ of certiorari directed to the commission, commanding it, within ten (10) days after service thereof, to certify and file with the court a certified copy of the records of the case in which the appeal has been taken, including all documents and papers and a transcript of all testimony taken in the matter, together with the commission's findings, conclusions, and orders therein. The appeal shall be heard in due course without a jury by the court, which shall review the record, and after hearing thereon, make its determination of the cause.

(c) Any person taking an appeal to the district court shall post a bond in the amount of three hundred dollars ($300.00) for the payment of any costs which may be taxed against him.

The commission may modify its findings and decision by reason of the additional evidence and shall file that evidence and any modifications, new findings or decisions with the reviewing court.

(e) An appeal may be taken to the supreme court from a district court by the commission or by any person aggrieved from an adverse ruling, order or decision of the district court. Such appeal shall be taken within sixty (60) days after the order is made and entered in the minutes of the court filed with the clerk. The method and procedure of taking an appeal, together with the amount of the undertaking or deposit on appeal, shall be governed by Chapter 80 of Title 93, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947.

In all cases where suit is brought against the broker or the salesman, and his surety, the court shall, upon entering judgment for the plaintiff, allow as a part of the costs of suit a reasonable amount as attorney's fees.

Amendments

The board shall charge a fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for the filing of such application by any person, and it shall not act upon any application until such fee has been paid. All fees collected hereunder shall be deposited with the state treasurer in the earmarked revenue fund for the use of the water well contractor's examining board. Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, once by Ch. 147 and once by Ch. 234. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Since the two amendments do not appear to conflict, however, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating both amendments.

Title of Act

An act relating to the disposition of unclaimed property and making uniform the law with reference thereto; making provision for classifying such property as abandoned and setting up provisions of law for handling such property so as to protect the interests of the original owners, relieve the holders of annoyance, expense and liability, preclude multiple liability, and preserve any windfalls that may result from abandonment to the state of Montana; providing that the funds becoming available to the state under the provisions of this act shall be deposited in the public school fund; and providing penalties for violations of this act.

67-2202. Property held by banking or financial organizations. The following property held or owing by a banking or financial organization is presumed abandoned:

(a) Any demand, savings, or matured time deposit made in this state with a banking organization, together with any interest or dividend thereon, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has, within seven (7) years:

(1) Increased or decreased the amount of the deposit, or presented the passbook or other similar evidence of the deposit for the crediting of interest; or

(2) Corresponded in writing with the banking organization concerning the deposit; or

(3) Otherwise indicated an interest in the deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the banking organization.

(b) Any funds paid in this state toward the purchase of shares or other interest in a financial organization, or any deposit made therewith in this state, and any interest or dividends thereon, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has within seven (7) years:

(a) It may be claimed as abandoned or escheated under the laws of such other state; and

(b) The laws of such other state make reciprocal provision that similar specific property is not presumed abandoned or escheatable by such other state when held for or owed or distributable to an owner whose last known address is within this state by a holder who is subject to the jurisdiction of this state.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 244, L. 1963.

(d) The report shall be filed before November 1 of each year as of June 30 next preceding, but the report of life insurance corporations shall be filed before May 1 of each year as of December 31 next preceding. The state treasurer may postpone the reporting date upon written request by any person required to file a report.

(e) If the holder of property presumed abandoned under this act knows the whereabouts of the owner and if the owner's claim has not been barred by the statute of limitations, the holder shall, before filing the annual report, communicate with the owner and take necessary steps to prevent abandonment from being presumed. The holder shall exercise due diligence to ascertain the whereabouts of the owner.

(f) Verification, if made by a partnership, shall be executed by a partner; if made by an unincorporated association or private corporation, by an officer; and if made by a public corporation, by its chief fiscal officer.

(g) The initial report filed under this act shall include all items of property that would have been presumed abandoned if this act had been in effect during the ten-year period preceding its effective date.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 244, L. 1963.

67-2212. Notice and publication of lists of abandoned property. (a) Within one hundred twenty (120) days from the filing of the report required by section 11 [67-2211], the state treasurer shall cause notice to be published at least once each week for two successive weeks in an English language newspaper of general circulation in the county in this state in which is located the last known address of any person to be named in the notice. If no address is listed or if the address is outside this state, the notice shall be published in the county in which the holder of the abandoned property has his principal place of business within this state.

(b) The published notice shall be entitled "Notice of Names of Persons Appearing to Be Owners of Abandoned Property," and shall contain:

(1) The names in alphabetical order and last known addresses, if any, or person listed in the report and entitled to notice within the county as hereinbefore specified.

(2) A statement that information concerning the amount or description of the property and the name and address of the holder may be obtained by any persons possessing an interest in the property by addressing an inquiry to the state treasurer.

(3) A statement that if proof of claim is not presented by the owner to the holder and if the owner's right to receive the property is not established to the holder's satisfaction within sixty-five (65) days from the date of the second published notice, the abandoned property will be placed not later than eighty-five (85) days after such publication date in the custody of the state treasurer to whom all further claims must thereafter be directed.

(c) The state treasurer is not required to publish in such notice any item of less than twenty-five dollars ($25) unless he deems such publication to be in the public interest.

(d) Within one hundred twenty (120) days from the receipt of the report required by section 11 [67-2211], the state treasurer shall mail a notice to each person having an address listed therein who appears to be entitled to property of the value of twenty-five dollars ($25) or more presumed abandoned under this act.

(e) The mailed notice shall contain:

67-2214. Relief from liability by payment or delivery. Upon the payment or delivery of abandoned property to the state treasurer, the state shall assume custody and shall be responsible for the safekeeping

Any holder who has paid moneys to the state treasurer pursuant to this act, and after exhausting his legal remedies, is compelled by authority of another jurisdiction to make a second payment to any other state, upon certified proof thereof and upon proof that the state treasurer was notified in writing of the claim of such other state within thirty (30) days after such claim has been asserted, the state treasurer shall refund to such holder the amount of such second payment not in excess of the amount paid to the state treasurer under this act.

67-2217. Sale of abandoned property. (c) The purchaser at any sale conducted by the state treasurer pursuant to this act shall receive title to the property purchased, free from all claims of the owner or prior holder thereof and of all persons claim-

The record shall be available for public inspection at all reasonable business hours.

(b) Before making any deposit to the credit of the public school fund, the state treasurer may deduct: (1) any costs in connection with sale of abandoned property, (2) any costs of mailing and publication in connection with any abandoned property, and (3) reasonable service charges.

The proceeding shall be brought within ninety (90) days after the decision of the state treasurer or within one hundred eighty (180) days from the filing of the claim if the state treasurer fails to act. The action shall be tried de novo without a jury.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 244, L. 1963.

67-2222. Election to take payment or delivery. The state treasurer, after receiving reports of property deemed abandoned pursuant to this act, may decline to receive any property reported which he deems to have a value less than the cost of giving notice and holding sale, or he may, if he deems it desirable because of the small sum involved, postpone taking possession until a sufficient sum accumulates.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 244, L. 1963.

67-2223. Examination of records. The state treasurer may at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice examine the records of any person if he has reason to believe that such person has failed to report property that should have been reported pursuant to this act.

It is declared the public policy of this state to extend the present laws controlling water supply and sewage disposal to include individual wells that may be affected by adjoining sewage disposal and individual sewage systems that may affect adjoining wells.

When any subdivision map or plat calls for both a public water and public sewage system and the design and construction of such is not complete a conditional approval shall be given and recorded by the state board of health; provided, however, that permanent buildings as described above shall not be occupied in such subdivision until such restriction has been removed or modified as provided hereafter.

(c) Any such subdivision map or plat or revision thereof filed by the county clerk and recorder subject to a sanitary restriction shall have such restriction removed or modified with such restriction removal or modification being made and recorded by the county clerk and recorder on or attached to said map or plat upon receipt of state board of health notice that (a) the state board of health approves plans and specifications for a public water facility and a public sewage facility under existing law pertaining to such facilities and such facilities are under construction or (b) the subdivision map or plat is approved as provided for under the rules and regulations for subdivisions not providing public water or public sewage systems.

An act to authorize, in certain instances, the boards of county commissioners to levy an additional tax of not to exceed eleven and one-half (11.5) mills for the county poor funds, providing for an effective date and repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith.

Section 1. Section 2. On or before the second Monday in July, the boards of county commissioners of counties desiring to avail themselves of the provisions of this act shall submit a certified copy of their county poor fund budget to the state examiner and a like certified copy of such budget to the state department of public welfare. The state department of public welfare shall examine such budget and if it finds the expenditures and revenues of the previous year are correct and the estimated expenditures and revenues for the current year are approximately correct, then such department shall transmit such copy, together with its certificate, to the state board of equalization.

Section 3. County v. State Board of Public Welfare,

71-217. Staff personnel—how selected, paid and controlled—dismissal. Each county board shall select and appoint from a list of qualified persons furnished by the state department such staff personnel as are necessary. The staff personnel in each county shall consist of at least one qualified staff worker (or investigator) and such clerks and stenographers as may be decided necessary. If conditions warrant, the county board, with the approval of the state department, may appoint some fully qualified person listed by the state department as supervisor of its staff personnel. The staff personnel of each county department are directly responsible to the county board, but the state department shall have the authority to supervise such county employees in respect to the efficient and proper performance of their duties. The county board of public welfare shall not dismiss any member of the staff personnel without the approval of the state department; but the state department shall have the authority to request the county board to dismiss any member of the staff personnel for inefficiency, incompetence or similar cause.

Public assistance staff personnel attached to the county board shall be paid from state public welfare funds, both their salaries and their actual and necessary traveling expenses, and their necessary subsistence expenses when away from the county seat in the performance of their duties; but the county board of public welfare shall reimburse the state department of public welfare, from county poor funds, one-half of the payments so made to its public assistance staff personnel, except that, under circumstances prescribed by the state department of public welfare, the reimbursement by the county board of public welfare may be less than one-half. All other administrative costs of the county department shall also be paid from county poor funds.

On or before the 20th day of the month following the month for which the payments to the public assistance staff personnel of the county were made, the state department of public welfare shall present to the county department of public welfare a claim for the required reimbursements. The county board shall make such reimbursements within twenty (20) days after the presentation of the claim and the state department shall credit (add) all such reimbursements to its account for administrative costs.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment added, at the end of the first sentence in the second paragraph, the clause permitting the state

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 44, Laws 1963 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

71-222. Per capita and millage taxes to be levied—expenditures—budgets. It is hereby made the duty of the board of county commissioners in each county to levy the per capita tax of two dollars ($2.00), and the six (6) mills for the county poor fund as provided by law, or so much thereof as may be necessary. The board shall budget and expend so much of the funds in the county poor fund for all purposes of this act as will enable the county welfare department to pay the general relief activities of the county and to reimburse the state department of public welfare for the county's proportionate share of the administrative costs of the county welfare department and of all public assistance and its proportionate share of any other welfare activity that may be carried on jointly by the state and the county.

The amounts set up in the budget for the reimbursements to the state department shall be sufficient to make all of these reimbursements in full. The budget shall make separate provision for each one of these public assistance activities, and proper accounts shall be established for the funds for each and all of such activities.

As soon as the preliminary budget provided for in section 16-1903 has been agreed upon, a copy thereof shall without delay be mailed to the state administrator of public welfare, and it shall be his duty, at any time before the final adoption of the budget, to make such recommendations with regard to changes in any part of the budget relating to the county poor fund as is deemed necessary in order to enable the county to discharge its obligations under the Public Welfare Act.

The state administrator shall promptly examine the preliminary budget so submitted to him in order to ascertain if the amounts provided for reimbursements to the state department are likely to be sufficient, and shall notify the county clerk of his findings. It is hereby made the duty of the board to make such changes in the amounts provided for reimbursements, if any are required, that the county will be able to make the reimbursements in full.

The board of county commissioners shall not have the right to make any transfer from the amounts budgeted for reimbursing the state department without having first obtained a statement in writing from the state administrator of public welfare to the effect that the amount to be transferred will not be required during the fiscal year for the purposes for which the amounts were provided in the budget.

No part of the county poor fund, irrespective of the source of any part thereof, shall be used directly or indirectly for the erection or improvement of any county building so long as the fund is needed for general relief expenditures by the county or is needed for paying the county's proportionate share of public assistance, or its proportionate share of any other welfare activity that may be carried on jointly by the state and the county; provided, however, that expenditures for improvement of any county buildings used directly for care of the poor may be made out of any moneys in the county poor fund, whether such moneys are produced by the per capita tax or the six (6) mill levy provided for in paragraph one of this section or from any additional levy authorized or to be authorized by law. Such expenditure shall be authorized only when any county building used for the care of the poor must be improved in order to meet legal standards required for such buildings by the state board of health, and, when such expenditure has been approved by the state public welfare department.

to the first sentence of the final paragraph and the entire second sentence of the final paragraph.

Repealing Clause

CHAPTER 3—PUBLIC WELFARE ACT PART 2—GENERAL RELIEF—TO PROVIDE AID TO THE UNEMPLOYABLE, DESTITUTE AND THOSE MADE DESTITUTE THROUGH LACK OF EMPLOYMENT AND ALL THOSE IN NEED OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE NOT ELIGIBLE OR OTHERWISE CARED FOR UNDER OTHER PARTS OF THIS ACT

Section 71-302. Eligibility requirements for general relief.
71-307. Relief by check or disbursing orders.

71-302. Eligibility requirements for general relief. An applicant to be eligible for general relief must have resided in the state of Montana for at least one (1) year immediately prior to the date of receipt of this assistance. Any person otherwise qualified who has resided in a county for one (1) year shall thereby acquire residence in that county, which residence shall be retained until residence is acquired in another county by residing there for one (1) year. If a person has resided in the state for one (1) year but does not have county residence, he shall make application for this assistance in the county in which he is residing, which county shall bear the cost of his assistance until he has acquired a county residence. If a person is absent from the state voluntarily he shall thereby be ineligible for general relief in the state of Montana. Time spent as a patient in a licensed nursing home or hospital, or a private charitable institution, shall not in any case be counted in determining the matter of county residence.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment added the last sentence.

71-307. Relief by check or disbursing orders. All relief disbursements by county departments of public welfare shall be by warrant or check; provided, however, that if the county welfare department finds that a recipient is in the habit of dissipating relief allowances instead of using them for the purposes intended, or that for any other reason it is better for the recipient and his family to receive the allowance through disbursing orders, then disbursing orders shall be used instead of cash payments; but all such disbursing orders must be written in such form that the goods and merchandise to be provided may be furnished by any regular dealer in such goods and merchandise within the county. It is further provided, however, that if the county has work available which a recipient of general relief is capable of performing, then the county department of public welfare may require the recipient to perform such work at the prevailing rate of wages paid by that county for similar work to be paid from the county poor fund in place of granting him general relief.

The county department of public welfare shall provide coverage under the Workmen's Compensation Act for those recipients of general relief working under the provisions hereof, and is authorized to enter into such agreements with the industrial accident board as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Any recipient of general relief who is subject to the provisions of this section and who without cause refuses to perform work assigned to him as herein provided, shall lose his eligibility for general relief for a period of one (1) week for each refusal.

History: En. Sec. 5, Part 2, Ch. 82, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 129, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 180, L. 1963.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "a recipient of" and "recipient" for "an applicant for" and "applicant" in the second sentence of the first paragraph; inserted "paid by that county for similar work" after "prevailing rate of wages" near the end of the first paragraph; and added the second and third paragraphs.

71-308. Medical aid and hospitalization.Wandering Child

mately one month, without means of support, when she threw herself in front of a moving automobile and sustained the injuries for which the county paid the expenses. State ex rel. Lewis and Clark County v. State Board of Public Welfare, — M —, 376 P 2d 1002, 1004.

(2) Make purchases on a time or installment basis.

(3) Issue bonds, notes and other securities, negotiable or otherwise, secured as provided in this section, including bearer bonds with appurtenant interest coupons, which shall be fully negotiable notwithstanding any limitation on the source of payment thereof, or fully registered bonds, or bonds registered as to ownership of principal only.

(4) Pledge for the payment of the purchase price of any facility or of the principal and interest on bonds, notes or other securities authorized in this chapter or otherwise obligate:

(a) The net income received from rents, board or both in housing, food service and other facilities.

(b) Receipts from student building, activity, union and other special fees prescribed by the regents for all students.

(c) Other income in the form of gifts, bequests, contributions, federal grants of funds, including the proceeds or income from grants of lands or other real or personal property, receipts from athletic contests and collections of admissions and other charges for the use of facilities.

(5) Make payments on loans or purchases from any other available income not obligated for such purposes, including receipts from sales of materials, equipment and fixtures of such facilities, or from sale of the facilities themselves other than land.

(6) Secure any bonds authorized hereunder by a trust indenture between the regents and any bank or trust company within or without the state of Montana, or by a resolution establishing covenants of the regents with the holders of such bonds, relating to the construction, operation, use and insurance of the facilities, the segregation, expenditure and audit of accounts of the bond proceeds and of the income pledged, the establishment and collection of rents, charges, admissions and fees sufficient to provide net income adequate for prompt payment of principal and interest on bonds and creation and maintenance of reserves for that purpose, and such other matters as the regents may determine to be necessary or desirable for the security and marketability of the bonds.

(7) Issue and sell or exchange bonds, secured as provided in this section, for the refunding of any outstanding bonds or other obligations heretofore or hereafter issued by the regents, subject to the following provisions:

(a) Refunding bonds may, with the consent of the holders of the bonds to be refunded thereby, be exchanged at par plus accrued interest for all or part of such bonds, or may be sold at a price not less than par plus accrued interest. Nothing herein shall require the holder of any outstanding bond to accept payment thereof or the delivery of a refunding bond in exchange therefor, except in accordance with the terms of such outstanding bond. Bonds may be issued to refund interest as well as principal actually due and payable, if the revenues pledged therefor are not sufficient, but not to refund any bonds or interest due which can be paid from revenues then on hand.

(b) Refunding bonds may bear interest at a rate lower or higher than the bonds refunded thereby, if they are issued to refund matured principal or interest for the payment of which revenues on hand are not sufficient, or if the refunding bonds are combined with an issue of new bonds for replacements, repairs, betterment or new facilities, and the lien of such new bonds upon the net income and receipts pledged must be junior and subordinate to the lien of the outstanding bonds refunded, under the terms of the resolution or indenture authorizing the outstanding bonds, as applied to circumstances existing on the date of refunding. Except as authorized in the preceding sentence, refunding bonds shall not be issued unless their average annual interest rate, computed to their stated maturity dates and excluding any premium from such computation, is at least three eighths of one per cent ($\frac{3}{8}$ of 1%) less than the average annual interest rate on the bonds refunded thereby, computed to their respective stated maturity dates.

(c) In any case where refunding bonds are issued and sold six (6) months or more before the earliest date on which all bonds refunded thereby mature or are prepayable in accordance with their terms, the proceeds of the refunding bonds, including any premium and accrued interest, shall be deposited in escrow with a suitable bank or trust company, having its principal place of business within or without the state, which is a member of the federal reserve system and has a combined capital and surplus not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000), and shall be invested in such amount and in securities maturing on such dates and bearing interest at such rates as shall be required to provide funds sufficient to pay when due the interest to accrue on each bond refunded to its maturity or, if it is prepayable, to the earliest prior date upon which such bond may be called for redemption, and to pay and redeem the principal amount of each such bond at maturity or, if prepayable, at its earliest redemption date, and any premium required for redemption on such date; and the resolution or indenture authorizing the refunding bonds shall irrevocably appropriate for these purposes the escrow fund and all income therefrom, and shall provide for the call of all prepayable bonds in accordance with their terms. The securities to be purchased with such escrow funds shall be limited to general obligations of the United States, securities whose principal and interest payments are guaranteed by the United States, and securities issued by the following United States government agencies: banks for co-operatives, federal home loan banks, federal intermediate credit banks, federal land banks, and the federal national mortgage association. Such securities shall be purchased simultaneously with the delivery of the refunding bonds.

(d) Revenues or other funds on hand, in excess of amounts pledged by resolutions or indentures authorizing outstanding bonds for the payment of principal and interest currently due thereon and reserves securing such payment, may be used to pay the expenses incurred by the regents for the purpose of such refunding, including but without limitation the cost of advertising and printing refunding bonds, legal and financial advice and assistance in connection therewith, and the reasonable and customary charges of escrow agents and paying agents. Revenues and other funds on hand, including reserves pledged for the payment and security of outstanding revenue bonds, may be deposited in an escrow fund created for the retirement of such bonds and may be invested and disbursed as provided in subsection (c) hereof, to the extent consistent with the resolutions or indentures authorizing such outstanding bonds.

(8) Sell bonds and sell or exchange refunding bonds issued hereunder in such manner and upon such terms as to maturities, interest rates and redemption privileges, and for such price, as the regents shall determine with the approval of the state controller.

Amendment

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 104, Laws 1963 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 104, Laws 1963 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 1, 1963.

75-1630. (1013) Transfer of funds. Children may attend public elementary schools in districts in the county outside of the district in which they reside, or in a district in an adjoining county, or in a district in a county in another state when the district in such other state adjoins the district in which they reside, or is situated in a county in such other state, which county adjoins the state of Montana, when written permission is secured from the board of trustees of the district in which they are to attend school and when written permission has been given by the county superintendent of schools of the county in which the children reside. Permission must be granted for such attendance in another district within or without the county of such children's residence when the following conditions exist:

1. When a child lives less than three (3) miles from a public elementary school in another district or county and three (3) or more miles from a public elementary school in the district or county of his own residence.

2. When a child resides more than three (3) miles distance from a public elementary school within his own district or county and no transportation is furnished by the home district or county to such school.

3. When regular bus transportation is furnished by a public elementary school in another district or county and his own district or county does not furnish transportation.

Such distances mentioned above shall be measured from the point where the private family dwelling house is situated to the schoolhouse by the shortest traveled route.

4. When a family has children who must attend high school outside of its own district or county and such family also has elementary school children who can more conveniently attend the elementary grades in the same district where the high school is located, provided such elementary children live more than three (3) miles from the home school or that a parent must move to town to provide high school education for his children.

5. When the county superintendent of schools of the county where the child resides, for any other reason than stated above shall approve the attendance of any child in a public elementary school in another county. In approving such attendance in another district or county, the county superintendent shall take in consideration such items as distance to school, road conditions, trading center of parents, opportunity to live with relatives, dormitory facilities, living conditions, transportation and type of educational program.

If the board of trustees of the district to be attended shall find that, due to insufficient room and overcrowding the accreditation of the receiving school in the ensuing school year would be adversely affected by acceptance of a transfer pupil from another school district, the board may disapprove the attendance provided it mails written notice of disapproval to the parents or guardian of the pupil within fifteen (15) days after written notification by the county superintendent of the proposed attendance.

In the event that the residence, for determining tuition obligations, of such child is in dispute, then the rules for determining residence as outlined in section 83-303, shall be used by the county superintendent of the county of the child's residence, or in case the dispute is between districts of two counties by the county superintendents of such counties, to finally determine the residence of such child.

When approval of attendance in another district within or without the county has been granted, the district in which such child resides shall pay to the school district where such child attends, an amount based on the following tuition rates: in the case of attendance at an elementary school with an average number belonging up to one hundred (100), the tuition to be paid shall be two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225); where the school attended has an average number belonging between one hundred one (101) and three hundred (300), the tuition shall be two hundred dollars ($200); and where the school attended has an average number belonging over three hundred (300), the tuition rate shall be one hundred seventy-five dollars ($175) per pupil.

It is hereby made the duty of the board of school budget supervisors in approving the budgets, to include therein an item to care for the above tuition, if this has not already been done by the board of trustees in preparing the budget for the district.

Applications for permission to attend a school outside the district or county shall be made to the county superintendent before July 1, previous to the year of attendance, excepting in those cases where circumstances prevent such application. These applications are to be approved or disapproved, except as otherwise provided by law, by the county superintendent, and by the trustees of the district the pupil wishes to attend. However, nothing in this section shall be so construed as to deny a parent whose children cannot qualify under this section the right to send his children, at his own expense, to a public elementary school of any other district willing to accept them. Such parent must pay to the receiving district, tuition in the amount set forth herein.

At the close of the school term of the year in which such pupil attends this school outside the district, the clerk of such district shall transmit to the county superintendent the names of pupils from other districts attending his school, together with the number of days attended. This information in turn shall be transmitted by the county superintendent to the districts affected and such district shall reimburse the school attended for all pupils of its district; provided such pupil has attended at least forty (40) days. This amount of reimbursement shall be made an item of the budget for the coming year and reimbursement shall be made to the district of attendance out of the first funds available to the budget; provided, however, that the trustees of the district receiving pupils from another district may waive any or all tuition; provided, however, that such waiver must apply equally to all pupils, and provided, further, that the amount of this tuition shall not reduce the foundation program of the school paying it, but shall be an additional item added to it to be raised without a vote of the people; and provided further, that the district receiving the tuition may apply it against the needs of the budget after the regular district, county and state aid have been received.

In the case of a district which does not operate a school, the amount of this tuition can be raised without a vote of the people if the five (5) mill district levy and other local revenue is insufficient to raise the amount needed.

It shall be the responsibility of the superintendent of schools and the board of trustees of the public elementary school receiving the pupils and county superintendent of schools of the county of the pupils' residence to determine and agree upon eligibility of pupils transferring under the provisions of this act; provided, that an appeal may be taken to the state superintendent of public instruction.

Whenever elementary pupils residing in Montana are approved for attendance in an elementary school in an adjoining state; and whenever elementary pupils in an adjoining state are approved for attendance in an elementary school in Montana, the above schedule of tuition payments may be waived and payments arrived at on a reciprocal basis with the state involved. The state superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to negotiate with the state superintendent of public instruction of each state involved in arriving at tuition payments, which may either be on a per pupil basis of a flat amount or on an actual cost basis.

Whenever a child has been declared by a district court of the state of Montana a dependent and neglected child as defined in section 10-501, or a juvenile delinquent child, as defined in section 10-602, and has been ordered to be placed in a duly licensed child care institution in the state of Montana, which institution is approved by the state department of public welfare, and as a result of such order such child is required to attend a public elementary school in a school district outside of the district in which he resides, the district receiving such pupil shall be entitled to receive tuition on the basis of the schedule established in this act, provided that the geographical relationship of the receiving district to the district of residence shall be of no consequence. All other provisions of this section, excepting solely the geographical relationship of the districts, shall be applicable to the payment of tuition for the education of such child.

CHAPTER 17—BUDGET SYSTEM

Section 75-1706. Preparation and adoption of preliminary budget.

75-1713.1. Changes in budget by budget board when in excess of foundation program—restrictions on budgets.

75-1723. Fixing tax levy.

75-1706. (1019.6) Preparation and adoption of preliminary budget.

At the regular meeting of the board of trustees of each school district on the fourth Monday in June such board must consider, prepare and adopt a preliminary budget for the next ensuing school year. Any taxpayer in the district may appear at such meeting and be heard in regard to the preliminary budget or any item or amount proposed to be included therein. Such meeting may be continued from day to day, but not exceeding three (3) days in all; provided, that in first and second class districts such meeting may be continued over a period of not more than five (5) days. When the board has determined the amount necessary to be expended for each item contained in such budget form there shall be entered in column 2 of section I and in column 2 of section II of the budget form the amount proposed to be expended during the ensuing fiscal year for each item contained in such form, and such preliminary budget shall then be signed by a majority of the trustees and the clerk of the district, and the clerk of the district must deliver or transmit such preliminary budget, when so filled in and signed, to the county superintendent of schools on or before the first day of July. If the estimated expenditures set forth in either lines 2 or 4 shall provide for payment of salary or compensation to more than one (1) person, there shall be set forth on a separate sheet but attached to and made a part of such preliminary budget, each position or employment with the salary or compensation to be paid to each person filling the same.

The elementary school budget for any school district in which no elementary school will be operated in the next ensuing school year shall consist of a single budget for the nonoperating fund, which fund shall incorporate all previously existing funds of the school district. Such budget for the nonoperating fund shall include all budgeted items of the district for the ensuing year, including any tuition payments to be made to the other districts, any transportation obligations, any maintenance of school district property and any other items deemed necessary by the board of trustees of the school district.

75-1713.1. Changes in budget by budget board when in excess of foundation program—restrictions on budgets. If the total amount of the proposed elementary general fund expenses in the preliminary budget of any district shall exceed the foundation program of such district, the budget board shall, in the manner and subject to the limitations prescribed by section 75-1713, reduce such proposed general fund expenses to a total equal to said foundation program unless the board of trustees of said district shall establish to the satisfaction of the budget board that special circumstances exist which justify such additional expenses, and in such event a statement of the reasons for the allowance of such additional expenses shall be attached to said budget and signed by the chairman of the budget board, but the entire amount of such excess expense over the foundation program shall be paid solely from levies upon the property in such district and shall not in any manner increase the amounts to be apportioned hereunder from the county common school levy or from the moneys available for state equalization aid; and provided, that, except in the case of the existence of the emergencies specified in section 75-1716, the entire amount of such additional expense over the foundation program shall not be greater than the maximum amounts in accordance with the following schedules: provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed as preventing the voting of an additional levy in accordance with the general school laws pertaining to the voting of additional levies.

Elementary Schools

(1) For each elementary school having an ANB of nine (9) or fewer pupils, the maximum shall be fifty-three hundred twelve dollars ($5,312.00), if said school is approved as an isolated school; if said school is not approved as an isolated school, then the maximum shall be twenty-six hundred fifty-six dollars ($2,656.00).

(2) For schools with an ANB of ten (10) pupils, but less than eighteen (18) pupils, the maximum shall be fifty-three hundred twelve dollars ($5,312.00) plus one hundred fifty-six dollars ($156.00) per pupil on the basis of the average number belonging over nine (9).

(3) For schools with an ANB of eighteen (18) pupils and employing one teacher, the maximum shall be sixty-seven hundred sixteen dollars ($6,716.00) plus sixty-two dollars and fifty cents ($62.50) per pupil on the basis of the average number belonging over eighteen (18), not to exceed an ANB over twenty-five (25).

(4) For schools with an ANB of eighteen (18) pupils and employing two full-time teachers, the maximum shall be twelve thousand sixty-two dollars ($12,062.00) plus sixty-two dollars and fifty cents ($62.50) per pupil on the basis of the average number belonging over eighteen (18), not to exceed an ANB over fifty (50).

(5) For schools having an ANB in excess of forty (40) the maximum on the basis of the total pupils (ANB) in the district for elementary pupils will be as follows:

For a school having an ANB of more than forty (40) and employing a minimum of three (3) teachers, the maximum of four hundred twenty-five dollars ($425.00) shall be decreased at the rate of thirty-two cents ($.32) for each additional pupil until the total number (ANB) shall have reached a total of one hundred (100) pupils. For a school having an ANB of more than one hundred (100) pupils, the maximum of four hundred six dollars ($406.00) shall be decreased at the rate of thirty-eight cents ($.38) for each additional pupil until the ANB shall have reached three hundred (300) pupils. For a school having an ANB of more than three hundred (300) pupils, the maximum shall not exceed three hundred thirty dollars ($330.00) for each pupil; provided that the maximum per pupil, for all pupils, ANB, shall figure on the basis of the amount allowed herein on account of the last eligible pupil, ANB, and provided further that all schools operated within the incorporated limits of a city or town shall be treated as a school unit for the purpose of this schedule.

The maximum per pupil for all pupils (ANB) and for all schools shall be computed on the basis of the amount allowed herein on account of the last eligible pupil, ANB.

On or before January 1 of odd-numbered years, the state superintendent of public instruction shall transmit to the legislative assembly of the state of Montana a revised schedule for elementary schools in accordance with classifications by size as set forth in this section. This revised schedule will be based on the median general fund budgeted expenditures for the current year, by ascertaining the median of the general fund budgets for each classification of elementary schools, and the total number of pupils (ANB) for all schools in each classification, and by computing the revised schedule therefrom.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "moneys available for state equalization aid" for "state public school equalization fund" immediately before the first proviso; inserted "plus the foundation program" before "to be included in the budget" in the first proviso; substituted "the maximum amounts in accordance with the following schedules" at the end of the first proviso for "thirty per cent (30%) of the foundation program of any school"; and added everything after the first paragraph.

75-1723. (1019.19) Fixing tax levy. The county superintendent of schools, as clerk of the school budget board, shall, when the board of county commissioners meet on the second Monday in August for the purpose of fixing tax levies, lay before such board the elementary school budgets for all school districts in the county, as finally adopted and approved by the school budget board.

It shall further be the duty of the county commissioners of each county in the state to fix and levy a tax for each school district in the county within the limitations prescribed by this act in such number of mills as will produce the amount shown by the final budget to be raised by tax levy which may also include a reserve fund, not to exceed thirty-five per cent (35%) of the amount appropriated in the final and approved budget for the then current school year, for the purpose of maintaining the elementary and high school of the district from July 1 to November 30 of the next succeeding year; provided that such school district tax plus federal reimbursements in lieu of taxes shall not, unless approved by a vote of the taxpaying electors, exceed the maximum budgets set forth in section 75-1713.1, R.C.M. 1947.

To finance the approved nonoperating budget of any school district in which no elementary school will be operated, the county commissioners shall fix and levy a tax for such school district in such number of mills as will produce the amount shown by the approved budget to be raised by tax levy, after deducting from the total amount to be financed the following:

(1) any net nonoperating fund cash balance; provided, that whenever a nonoperating district did not have a nonoperating fund the preceding year, the net cash balances in all of the regular funds of the district shall be combined to form a single balance which shall be called the nonoperating fund cash balance; provided, further, that any district which operated at least one (1) school in the year immediately preceding the budget year may retain separately any cash balance previously designated as its general fund cash reserve, if in the judgment of the trustees of such district the retention of such general fund cash reserve is essential to the operation of a school anticipated for the year following the budget year, and any such retained cash reserve shall not be deducted from the total amount required for the nonoperating budget;

(2) the amount of any transportation reimbursement anticipated from the county;

(3) the amount of any transportation reimbursement anticipated from the state public school equalization fund; and

(4) any miscellaneous revenues available to the district. The remainder of the nonoperating budget amount, after deduction of the above revenues, shall be financed by a tax levied on the taxable valuation of the property of the school district.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, once by Ch. 182 and once by Ch. 267. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Since the two amendments do not appear to conflict, however, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating both amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 182, Laws 1963, added the third paragraph, including the clauses numbered (1) to (4).

Chapter 267, Laws 1963, deleted from the end of the first paragraph clauses reading, "and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of each county in the state to fix and levy a tax of five (5) mills on the dollar of the taxable value of all school districts within the county, provided that if a levy of less than five (5) mills will be sufficient to meet the approved budget of any school district, then such lesser levy shall be made, but no school district levying less than five (5) mills shall receive any apportionment from the state public school equalization fund"; and substituted "the maximum budgets set forth in section 75-1713.1, R. C. M. 1947" at the end of the second paragraph for "the rate of levy required to produce an amount equal to the foundation program and the additions thereto, within the limitations of thirty per cent (30%), hereinbefore specified, and provided, further, that such last mentioned additional school district tax shall not, in any event, exceed fifteen (15) mills unless the excess above said fifteen (15) mill limitation shall first have been authorized at an election held in accordance with the general school laws pertaining to the voting of additional levies, save and except that in any district wherein more than fifteen (15) mills is required to reach the thirty per cent (30%) limit above the foundation program, such increase above the fifteen (15) mill limit may be financed by federal reimbursements in lieu of taxes without a vote of the taxpayers up to the thirty per cent (30%) limit above the foundation program."

In districts of the first class the number of trustees shall be seven (7); in districts of the second class the number of trustees shall be five (5), and in districts of the third class the number of trustees shall be three (3).

Whenever the population of any school district shall increase beyond or decrease below the number required as specified above for a certain class of school district, the county superintendent of schools shall declare such school district to be changed to the proper class. The county superintendent may compute the population by multiplying by three the number of school census children in the district. No school district shall be changed in classification more than once in any five (5) year period. The county superintendent of schools shall take the necessary steps to provide that at the next school election to elect the proper number of school trustees as designated above and to fill all vacancies due to any change of classification. Section 3 of Ch. 140, Laws 1963 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 2, 1963.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment added the proviso.

75-1816. (1036.1) Budget and tax levy in joint districts. The board of school trustees of each joint school district shall consider, prepare and adopt a preliminary budget according to the provisions of section 75-1706, provided that a copy of such budget shall be transmitted to the county superintendent of schools of each county in which any part of such joint school district is situated. The county superintendents of all such counties must, either by correspondence, meetings, or in some other manner, ascertain and determine the number of mills which should be levied in such joint school district for each fund for which a levy is to be made. After ascertaining and determining the number of mills which should be levied for each said fund, in the manner herein provided, all such county superintendents of schools shall make and sign a joint statement, addressed to the board of county commissioners of each county in which a part of the joint school district is situated, setting forth the number of mills which should be levied for each fund, as so ascertained and determined by such county superintendents, by the boards of county commissioners of such counties, and shall deliver or transmit one copy of such statement to each such board of county commissioners not later than the Saturday immediately preceding the second Monday in August.

The number of mills to be levied on all of the property of such joint district for each tax-supported fund shall be determined in accordance with the general laws pertaining to tax levies for school districts, provided that the following exceptions to general financing procedures shall be made:

(a) In the general fund budget and solely for the purpose of determining the amounts of county equalization aid to be allocated to the joint district for its foundation program, the total foundation program amount of the joint district shall be considered as consisting of as many separate foundation programs as there are counties in which any portion of the joint district is situated. The amount of each such separate foundation program shall bear to the total amount of the foundation program the same relationship that the number of ANB pupils in the joint district residing in each such county bears to the total ANB of the joint district. To the requirements of each such separate foundation program shall be applied the estimated state interest and income payment based on the number of census pupils in such portion. The amount of county equalization aid to be allocated to such separate foundation program shall then be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 75-3618. Following the determination of the amount of county equalization aid from each county in which any portion of the joint district is situated, the total remaining requirements of the general fund budget shall be financed in accordance with the general laws, provided that, to receive state equalization aid, such joint district must apply to its foundation program all district revenue from the state permanent school fund.

(b) In the transportation fund budget and solely for the purpose of apportioning among the counties wherein any portion of the joint district is situated the amount of county reimbursement for elementary transportation to be allocated to the joint district, the obligation for the total amount of such county reimbursement shall be distributed among such counties in the same proportion as the ANB of the joint district is distributed by residence in each such county.

The 1963 amendment deleted from the end of the third sentence of paragraph (a) the words "plus the estimated revenue to be derived from a levy of five mills on the dollar of the taxable value of the property in such portion"; and deleted from the end of paragraph (a) the words "and a district-wide five-mill levy."

After the election of any teacher or principal for the fourth consecutive year in any school district in the state, such teacher or principal so elected shall be deemed re-elected from year to year thereafter at the same salary unless the board of trustees shall by majority vote of its members on or before the first day of April give notice in writing to said teacher or principal that he has been re-elected or that his services will not be required for the ensuing year, but in this written notice, the board of trustees, if requested by the teacher or principal, must declare clearly and explicitly the specific reason or reasons for the failure of re-employment of such teacher. The teacher or principal, if he so desires, shall be granted a hearing and reconsideration of such dismissal, before the board of trustees of that school district. The request for a hearing and reconsideration must be made in writing and submitted to the board of school trustees within ten (10) days after receipt of notice of dismissal. The board of trustees of any school district or county high school may terminate the services for the ensuing year of any teacher who has attained, or will attain the age of sixty-five (65) years before the following first day of September, by giving notice in writing before the first day of April that his services will not be required for the ensuing year, provided, however, that a board of trustees may in its discretion continue to employ a teacher until the age of seventy (70) years has been attained.

75-3414. Budgets and levies for transportation. (a) The board of trustees of any school district maintaining an elementary school, or schools, or providing for the transportation of its pupils to attend an elementary school or schools, outside the district, or furnishing services in lieu thereof, shall have the authority and it shall be its duty to provide and adopt a complete transportation budget therefor, which budget shall show in detail and by items the estimated expenditures and receipts for the school year for which it is provided. The estimated expenditures may include a contingency item for the purpose of enabling the trustees of the district to fulfill any obligation to provide transportation in accordance with the provisions of the transportation act for any pupils not residing in the district at the time of adoption of the transportation budget who subsequently become residents of the district during the budget year. The amount of such contingency item shall not exceed ten per cent (10%) of the total amount of the regularly budgeted expenditures of the district arrived at in accordance with the schedule established in section 75-3407, provided, however, that when ten per cent (10%) of the budgeted schedule amount will provide less than one hundred dollars ($100), the ten per cent (10%) limitation shall not apply and the district may budget for a contingency item of up to but not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100). The form of such transportation budget shall be prescribed by the state superintendent of public instruction. The total amount of the estimated expenditures, as shown by such transportation budget, shall be shown and included in the elementary school budget form and the estimated receipts from reimbursements, as shown in such transportation budget, shall be shown and included in the elementary budget form as provided. A copy of the elementary transportation budget adopted, together with a duly signed copy of each and every contract form pertaining thereto shall be transmitted by the county superintendent of schools to the state superintendent of public instruction at the same time copies of the elementary school budgets are required to be so transmitted.

(1) When the total elementary transportation budget has been presented in detail on approved forms including duly signed contract forms for the contracting, operation, maintenance, rent or purchase of school buses, individual transportation, and increased transportation due to isolation, and after deducting all estimated receipts including reimbursements, the balance of the budget shall be paid out of receipts from a tax levied upon all the taxable property of the school district.

(2) The board of trustees of every school district maintaining a high school, or furnishing transportation for its pupils to another high school, or services in lieu thereof, and the board of trustees of every county high school, shall have the authority and it shall be its duty to provide a complete transportation budget therefor, including duly signed contract forms for the contracting, operation, maintenance, rent or purchase of school buses, individual transportation, and increased transportation due to isolation, or any service in lieu of transportation. The budget shall show in detail and by items the estimated expenditures and receipts, including the state transportation reimbursements, for the school year for which it is provided. The estimated expenditures may include a contingency item for the purpose of enabling the trustees of the high school to fulfill any obligation to provide transportation in accordance with the provisions of the transportation act for any high school pupils not residing in the high school territory under the jurisdiction of the trustees at the time of adoption of the transportation budget who subsequently become residents of said territory during the budget years. The amount of such contingency item shall not exceed ten per cent (10%) of the total amount of the regularly budget[ed] expenditures of the high school arrived at in accordance with the schedule established in section 75-3407, provided, however, that when ten per cent (10%) of the budgeted schedule amount will provide less than one hundred dollars (\$100), the ten per cent (10%) limitation shall not apply and the high school may budget for a contingency item of up to but not exceeding one hundred dollars (\$100). The form of such transportation budget shall be prescribed by the state superintendent of public instruction. A copy of the high school transportation budget adopted for each high school, together with a duly signed copy of each and every contract form pertaining thereto, shall be transmitted by the county superintendent of schools to the state superintendent of public instruction at the same time copies of the final high school budgets are required to be so transmitted. For each high school transportation budget arrived at according to the schedule set up in section 75-3407, the amount remaining after deducting all estimated local receipts, and state transportation reimbursements from the total amount required for the transportation budget according to the schedule, shall be the amount required to be raised by tax levy for such high school transportation budget, and the total of all such amounts required to be raised by tax levy for all such high school transportation budgets shall be the total amount required to be raised by county-wide transportation levy, and the county commissioners, except as hereinafter provided, shall make a county-wide levy of such number of mills as will raise such total amount; provided that this amount shall not be more than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the total of each high school transportation budget according to the schedule as set forth in section 75-3407. The amount remaining in each high school transportation budget over and above the amount arrived at according to the schedules in section 75-3407, as amended, shall be the amount required to be raised by tax levy for each such high school transportation budget and all such amounts required to be raised by tax levy for each such high school transportation budget shall be the total amount required to be raised by high school transportation levy on the high school district if there be one; and in case of a county high school by a county levy, excluding those districts maintaining high schools, otherwise on the common school district, of which each particular high school is a part, and the county commissioners shall make a levy of such number of mills as will raise such needed amount; provided that the amount budgeted for high school transportation in any high school budget shall not be deemed or considered as a part of or included within the maximums for high school budgets as fixed and determined by chapter 199, Laws of 1949, as amended, and the county-wide high school transportation levy herein provided for shall not be deemed or construed as a part of the county-wide high school levy authorized by section 75-4516.1, unless the trustees making such budget so desire and the board of county commissioners find that such high school transportation levy is not required to raise the amount necessary for such budget for all purposes including transportation or services in lieu thereof. Cash balances on hand at the end of the fiscal year shall be used to reduce the district levy for the ensuing year, provided that if there is a cash balance on hand at the end of a fiscal year and no district levy is required for the ensuing fiscal year under the foregoing provisions, then said cash balance shall be used to reduce the amount to be raised by county-wide levy as herein provided.

75-3611. Definitions—schedules of financial program. The term "average number belonging" or "ANB" shall mean the average number of regularly enrolled, full-time pupils attending a public school, or attending public schools in a school district as a whole, which average number shall be computed by dividing the sum of the aggregate days of attendance by regularly enrolled pupils and the aggregate days of absence by regularly enrolled pupils during the last completed school year, by the number one hundred eighty (180); provided that attendance for a part of a morning session or part of an afternoon session shall be counted as one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) day's attendance in either case, and provided further, when any regularly enrolled pupil has been absent, with or without excuse, for more than three (3) consecutive school days in such school year, his absence after the third day and until his return to school shall not be included in the aggregate days of absence. The average number belonging of secondary pupils of a school district or of elementary pupils of a school district does not include the pupils of any high school or of any elementary school which has not been accredited by the state board of education. Pupils of a junior high school which has been duly approved and accredited as such by the state board of education are to be deemed secondary school pupils for the purpose of computing average number belonging of the district in which the junior high school is situated.

Any school district may reopen a school which was not in operation the previous year, which such reopening is approved by the county budget board and the state superintendent of public instruction, and when the county superintendent estimates the probable enrollment for such school to be at least five (5), and the parents of at least three (3) of these five (5) children petition for such reopening; such approved reopened school shall be eligible for county and state aid on its foundation program. Any school district which opens a new school shall comply with at least the minimum requirements for reopening a closed school as herein provided, and no foundation program shall be established for any new school not meeting the minimum requirements for opening.

Should a school district anticipate an increase in ANB, above the normal state-wide increase of the past year, due to the closing of any private or public school in the district or in neighboring districts, such district shall be allowed an increase in ANB for budget purposes, based on an estimate arrived at by the district superintendent, board and county superintendent and approved by the state superintendent.

The terms, "minimum foundation program" and "foundation program," shall mean the amount required to operate and maintain an adequate and efficient school, as fixed and established by the schedules of minimum operating revenues set forth in section 75-3612.

The term "isolated school," shall mean an elementary school having an ANB of nine (9) or less pupils, the maintenance and operation of which as an isolated school has been approved in the manner hereinafter provided in section 75-3617; and the term, "isolated high school," shall mean a high school having an ANB of twenty-four (24) or less pupils, the maintenance and operation of which as an isolated school has been approved in the manner hereinafter provided in section 75-3617.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment increased the maximum size of isolated elementary schools, as defined in the next to last paragraph, from eight to nine pupils; increased the size of nonisolated elementary schools, as defined in the last paragraph, from less than nine to less than ten pupils; and increased the size of nonisolated high schools, as defined in the last paragraph, from less than 20 to less than 24 pupils.

75-3612. Foundation program. The moneys available for state equalization aid shall be distributed and apportioned to provide an annual minimum operating revenue for the elementary and high schools in each county, exclusive of revenues required for debt retirement, and for the payment of any and all costs and expense incurred in connection with any adult education program, kindergarten, recreation program, school lunch and cafeteria program, new buildings, new grounds, and transportation, in accordance with the following schedules:

75-3612.1. Increase in foundation program in anticipation of unusual increase in enrollment—formulas for computation. A school district or county high school which anticipates an unusual increase in enrollment in the ensuing year may increase its foundation program for the ensuing year in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) For the school district or county high school, the average number belonging approved for foundation program purposes for the current year and each of the immediately preceding three (3) years shall be used to compute the annual percentage increase in average number belonging of each of the years over the immediately preceding year. The three (3) increases shall be averaged to obtain the average annual percentage increase in average number belonging.

(2) On or about May 1 of the current year, the estimated average number belonging for the entire current school year shall be computed, based on pupil attendance and absence records through April 30, increased by the ratio that the total number of school days in the current term bears to the number of school days completed through April 30.

(3) On or about May 1, the board of trustees shall estimate the probable average number belonging to be attained in the ensuing school year, based on such factual information as may be available to the board. The board of trustees shall submit such estimated average number belonging to the county board of school budget supervisors on or before May 10, for approval of the estimate as the probable average number belonging to be attained during the ensuing year. The estimate shall be accompanied by such data as the county board of budget supervisors may require. The county board of budget supervisors shall act to approve or disapprove the estimated average number belonging on or before May 25, and may adjust any estimate submitted. The county board of budget supervisors shall immediately notify the superintendent of public instruction of the action taken by the board, together with such facts and information as the superintendent of public instruction may deem necessary. The superintendent of public instruction shall approve, disapprove, or adjust the estimate and so notify the board of trustees.

(4) The percentage increase of the average number belonging estimated for the ensuing year approved as in (3) above, over the estimated average number belonging for the current year computed as in (2) above, shall be computed.

(5) Whenever the increase computed in (4) above is at least twice the average annual increase computed in (1) above, the school district or county high school, for the purpose of determining the amount of its foundation program for the ensuing year, may increase the actual average number belonging for the current year by a number to be computed as follows:

(a) Apply the average annual percentage increase as computed in (1) above to the actual average number belonging of the current year to determine the usual average number belonging which would be attained in the ensuing year under normal conditions;

(b) Deduct from the estimated average number belonging for the ensuing year approved as in (3) above, the usual average number belonging for the ensuing year as determined in (a) above. The difference shall be the maximum additional average number belonging which may be added to the actual average number belonging for the purpose of establishing the ensuing year's foundation program.

trict or county high school anticipates an unusual increase in enrollment in the ensuing year; and providing the procedure for determining the average number belonging.

75-3612.2. Minimum increase required for application of act. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any district or high school in which the average annual percentage increase in average number belonging as computed in subsection (1) of section 1 [75-3612.1(1)] is less than three per cent (3%).

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 265, L. 1963.

75-3612.3. Provisions supplemental. The provisions of this act shall be in addition to, and not a limitation upon, the provisions of section 75-3611 with respect to anticipated increases in average number belonging.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 265, L. 1963.

75-3613. State equalization aid to public schools—enumeration of sources—definition. There shall be paid into the earmarked revenue fund, for state equalization aid to the public schools of the state, the present allocation equal to twenty-five per cent (25%) of all moneys received from the collection of income taxes under sections 84-4901 to 84-4935; and twenty-five per cent (25%) of all moneys received from the collection of corporation license taxes under sections 84-1501 to 84-1519, as provided in section 84-1901; and one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the funds received from the treasurer of the United States as the state's share of oil and gas royalties under the act of Congress of February 25, 1920. The term "state equalization aid" as used in the code includes moneys coming to the state from the sources referred to above, plus any legislative appropriation of moneys from other sources for distribution to the public schools.

The 1963 amendment substantially rewrote this section. For previous text, see parent volume.

75-3614. State board of education to administer state public school equalization aid. The state board of education shall administer and distribute state equalization aid in the manner and with the powers and duties provided in this act. Said board shall have the power to require such reports from the county superintendent of schools, county budget boards, county treasurers and school trustees as it may deem necessary, and shall provide rules and regulations for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 199, L. 1949; amd. Sec. 54, Ch. 147, L. 1963.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "shall administer and distribute state equalization aid" in the first sentence for "is hereby declared to be the public school equalization board to administer and distribute said public school equalization fund."

75-3615. State superintendent of public instruction to compile data and make reports concerning state equalization aid. The state superintendent of public instruction shall keep in his office full and complete data concerning moneys available for state equalization aid and, in addition thereto, after July 1, 1949, the requirements of the various school districts of the state for aid from said funds to maintain the foundation financial program herein provided. The state superintendent of public instruction shall report to the state board of education at its meetings to be held in the months of July and December in each year the estimated amount which will be available for state equalization aid for the succeeding six months period, commencing January 1, and July 1. In any year when a session of the state legislative assembly convenes, the state superintendent of public instruction shall report to both branches of the assembly all figures and data available in his office concerning disbursements of state equalization aid during the preceding two years, the amount then available for state equalization aid, and apportionment made of the moneys available for state equalization aid but not yet paid out, and the latest estimate of accruals of moneys available for state equalization aid.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "moneys available for state equalization aid" in the first sentence for "accruals and credits to the state public school equalization fund"; substituted "available for state equalization aid" near the end of the second sentence for "in the state public school equalization fund"; substituted "disbursements of state equalization aid" in the third sentence for "disbursements from said fund"; substituted "available for state equalization aid" in the third sentence for "standing to the credit of said fund" and for "of said fund"; and substituted "of moneys available for state equalization aid" at the end of the section for "to said fund."

75-3616. Distribution of funds—reports required. After July 1, 1949, the state board of education shall, in the months of December and April of each year, order disbursements of state equalization aid within the limitations hereinafter specified and upon the basis of reports made to the state superintendent of public instruction, to any county treasurer who controls the fund of any school district or joint school district which, as established by its budget duly approved for the current school year, will not have sufficient funds to maintain the foundation financial program after receipt by it (or) its apportioned share of interest and income moneys, if any, and from the basic county levies provided for by section 75-3706 and section 75-4516.1.

Each order of the state board of education for disbursements of state equalization aid, shall be certified to the state auditor and state treasurer, whereupon the state auditor shall draw his warrants in accordance with such order and the state treasurer shall pay the same to the several county treasurers for credit to the school districts as provided in such order.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, once by Ch. 147 and once by Ch. 267. Chapter 267 incorporated some but not all of the changes made by Ch. 147. Since the two amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating both amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 147, Laws 1963, substituted "of state equalization aid" for "from the state public school equalization fund" after "disbursements" near the beginning of the section; substituted "apportioned share of interest and income moneys" in the first paragraph for "apportioned share from the permanent school fund of the state, from other constitutional sources"; substituted "amount of state equalization aid apportioned to any school district" in the former proviso to the first paragraph for "amount apportioned to any school district from said state public school equalization fund"; substituted "amount of interest and income moneys apportioned to such school district" in the former proviso to the first paragraph for "amount apportioned to such school district from the permanent school fund"; deleted "acting as the public school equalization board" which followed "state board of education" near the beginning of the second paragraph; and substituted "state equalization aid" for "funds from the state public school equalization fund" after "disbursements of" in the second paragraph.

Chapter 267, Laws 1963, incorporated the first change made by Ch. 147, Laws 1963; substituted "and from the basic county levies provided for by section 75-3706 and section 75-4516.1" at the end of the first paragraph for "from the district levy of five mills for the foundation program provided for by section 75-1723, the county levies provided for by this act, and from all other regular sources of revenue required to be used to finance the foundation program as provided in sections 75-1723 and 75-4516.1"; deleted from the end of the first paragraph a proviso which (after amendment by Ch. 147, Laws 1963) read: "provided, however, that the amount of state equalization aid apportioned to any school district, when added to the amount of interest and income moneys apportioned to such school district, shall not exceed fifty per cent (50%) of the total foundation program of such district, computed at the rates and amounts set forth in section 75-3612"; and incorporated the changes made in the second paragraph by Ch. 147, Laws 1963.

75-3617. Application for approval as isolated schools—circumstances to be considered in acting upon application. Before any elementary school having an ANB of nine (9) or less may be approved as an isolated school, and before any high school having an ANB of twenty-four (24) or less may be approved as an isolated high school, the board of trustees of the district wherein said school is located shall, on or before the first day of May in each year, make written application to the budget board for such approval. Such application shall be acted upon on or before the fifteenth day of June, and such application shall be granted if transportation of the pupils of such school to another school is impractical by reason of the existence of obstacles to travel, such as mountains, rivers, poor roads, distance of pupils' homes from county roads or highways, or the distance of such isolated school from the nearest open school having room and facilities for the pupils of such isolated school or other conditions resulting in unusual hardship to the pupils, such school shall be approved as an isolated school upon a finding and determination by said budget board, approved by the county superintendent of schools and by the state board of education, and if none of the above-mentioned circumstances exist, such application shall be denied.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "nine (9)" for "eight (8)" near the beginning of the section in the phrase pertaining to elementary schools; deleted "said budget board shall find and determine that" before "transportation of the pupils" near the beginning of the second sentence; and substituted "or other conditions resulting in unusual hardship to the pupils, such school shall be approved as an isolated school upon a finding and determination by said budget board, approved by the county superintendent of schools and by the state board of education" near the end of the section for "and an elementary school may also be approved as an isolated school upon a finding and determination by said budget board, approved by the county superintendent of schools and by the state superintendent of public instruction of the existence of conditions other than obstacles to travel which would result in unusual hardship to the pupils of such isolated school if they were transported to another school."

75-3618. Distribution of money available to districts—formula for apportionment of county funds. After the deduction of transportation reimbursements provided by law, the proceeds of the basic county twenty-five (25) mill common school levy as provided for in section 75-3706 and the proceeds of the basic special tax for high schools, as provided for in section 75-4516.1 shall each be separately distributed by the county superintendent to the respective districts in the county, and the county high school if there be one, in proportion to their needs under the foundation financial program. In all cases in which the proceeds of such basic county levy when added to interest and income moneys available to the respective districts, and other funds which must be used in support of the foundation financial program are insufficient to finance the foundation financial program, the proceeds of the basic county common school levy and the proceeds of the basic county special tax for high schools shall each be separately distributed in accordance with the following procedure; provided, however, that cash balances to the credit of the district at the end of the school year, after authorized reserves have been subtracted as well as outstanding warrants, shall be used by the district to reduce the levies on the district for the general fund after county and state equalization aid have been received:

1. Determine the ratio that the total funds available to all districts in the county in support of the foundation program (including proceeds of the basic county levy) bears to the total costs of the foundation program for all such districts.
2. Determine the ratio that the total funds available to each district in support of the foundation program (excluding all proceeds of the basic county levy) bears to the cost of the foundation program of each such district.
3. Districts in which the ratio as determined in (2) above exceeds the ratio in (1) above shall not be entitled to distribution of such county funds but shall be excluded from further consideration under this section.
4. After elimination of districts referred to in (3) above, determine the ratio that the total funds available to all remaining districts in the county in support of the foundation program (including proceeds of the basic county levy) bears to the total cost of the foundation program of all such remaining districts. Each remaining district shall then be entitled to distribution of funds from the basic county levy, which, when added to all other funds available to such district in support of the foundation program shall be sufficient to finance such proportionate part of its foundation program.

5. No district school shall be deprived of its needful share of either county levy by reason of it being nonaccredited.

6. No territory situated within the county shall be excluded from the distribution of the school funds of the county solely because such territory lies within the boundaries of a joint district.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, once by Ch. 147 and once by Ch. 267. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Since the two amendments do not appear to conflict, however, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating both amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 147, Laws 1963, substituted "interest and income moneys available to the respective districts" in the second sentence of the first paragraph for "all other funds available to the respective districts from the permanent school fund."

Chapter 267, Laws 1963, substituted "the proceeds of the basic county twenty-five (25) mill common school levy as provided for in section 75-3706 and the proceeds of the basic special tax for high schools, as provided for in section 75-4516.1" near the beginning of the section for "the proceeds of the county ten (10) mill common school levy and the proceeds of the county ten (10) mill special tax for high schools"; inserted "basic" before "county levy" near the beginning of the second sentence, before "county common school levy" and before "county special tax" later in the second sentence, and before "county levy" in each of paragraphs 1 and 2 and two places in paragraph 4; deleted "and the five (5) mill tax for elementary schools provided for in section 75-1723" after "county levy" near the beginning of the second sentence; deleted "the uniform district levy and" before "county and state equalization aid" near the end of the preliminary paragraph; and inserted "such" before "county funds" in paragraph 3.

75-3619. Formula for distribution of state funds. At any time when the total requirements of the several counties of the state for state equalization aid in support of the elementary school and high school foundation financial programs of the school districts within said counties shall exceed the funds available, the funds on hand shall, subject to the limitation hereinafter specified, be apportioned and paid out to the several county treasurers in accordance with the following procedure:

Provided that seventy per cent (70%) of state equalization aid shall be set aside for the common schools and thirty per cent (30%) of state equalization aid shall be set aside for high schools, and provided further that such allocation shall not prevent a transfer of funds if revenues for the common schools shall be in excess of the foundation program requirement for common schools.

(1) Determine the ratio that the total funds available to all counties in the state in support of the foundation financial program (including the funds available for state equalization aid) bears to the total cost of the foundation financial program in all counties.

(2) Determine the ratio that the total funds available to each county in support of the foundation financial program (excluding any payment for state equalization aid) bears to the cost of the foundation financial program of all school districts of the county.

(3) Counties in which the ratio, as determined in (2) above, exceeds the ratio in (1) above, shall not be entitled to distribution of state equalization funds but shall be excluded from further consideration under this section.

(4) After elimination of counties referred to in (3) above, determine the ratio that the total funds available to all remaining counties in support of the foundation financial program (including the total amount available for state equalization aid), bears to the total cost of the foundation financial program of all such remaining counties. Each remaining county shall then be entitled to distribution of funds for state equalization aid, which, when added to all other funds available to such county in support of the foundation financial program, shall be sufficient to finance such proportionate part of the total foundation financial program of all school districts in the county.

The county superintendent of schools shall distribute the funds received by such county from the state for state equalization aid to the respective elementary districts and high schools in proportion to the needs of each respective elementary district and high school under the foundation financial program, such distribution to be made by applying to the receipts from the state for state equalization aid the formula provided in section 75-3618 for the distribution of the proceeds of basic county levies.

Amendments

Chapter 147, Laws 1963, substituted "state equalization aid" near the beginning of the section for "payment from the state public school equalization fund"; deleted "in said equalization fund" after "funds available" in the preliminary paragraph; substituted "for state equalization aid" for "in the equalization fund," "from the equalization fund," or "from the public school equalization fund" in paragraphs (1) and (2), twice in paragraph (4), and twice in the final paragraph; and substituted "of state equalization aid apportioned to any school district, when added to the amount of interest and income moneys apportioned to such school district" in the former proviso to paragraph (4) for "apportioned to any school district from said state public school equalization fund, when added to the amount apportioned to such school district from the permanent school fund, shall."

Chapter 267, Laws 1963, incorporated the changes made by Ch. 147, Laws 1963; inserted the proviso constituting the proviso before the numbered paragraphs; deleted from the end of paragraph (4) a proviso which (after amendment by Ch. 147, Laws 1963) read, "provided, however, that the amount of state equalization aid apportioned to any school district, when added to the amount of interest and income moneys apportioned to such school district not exceed fifty per cent (50%) of the total foundation program of such district"; and inserted "basic" before "county levies" at the end of the section.

75-3620. State superintendent to give notice if state funds inadequate. On or before June 1, 1949, if the requirements of the several school districts of the state for state equalization aid shall exceed the moneys available, as soon as such facts shall have been ascertained, the state superintendent of public instruction shall certify to each county superintendent of schools the amount which will be available for state equalization aid for the school districts of his county, and the estimated deficiency of funds for state aid in support of these foundation financial programs and transportation budgets. The county superintendent, upon receipt of such certificate shall notify each school district clerk in his county of the information contained therein.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "for state equalization aid" in two places in the first sentence for "for aid from the state public school equalization fund" and for "from said equalization fund"; and deleted "to said fund" after "exceed the moneys available" in the first sentence.

75-3621. Resolution to issue warrants—hearing. After July 1, 1949, the boards of trustees of any school district which will have insufficient funds to meet its approved budget for operating expense; including transportation expense, because of a deficiency in state equalization aid, may, by majority vote, adopt a resolution authorizing the issuance of warrants in excess of funds on hand for payment of budgeted expenses which shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the deficiency in payments of state equalization aid.

Such resolutions must be adopted at a regular or special meeting of the board, and notice of the time and place of such meeting and the text of the proposed resolution shall be given ten (10) days prior to the meeting by posting copies of such notice at three (3) public places in the district and by one (1) publication of such notice in a newspaper generally circulated in the district not less than ten (10) days prior to said meeting.

Any taxpayer on property within the district, and any parent or guardian of a school child residing in the district, may attend such meeting and be heard in support of or in opposition to such resolution. The deficiency of state equalization aid, evidenced by the certificate of the state superintendent, as provided for in section 75-3620 shall be sufficient cause for adoption of the resolution.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "in state equalization aid" or "of state equalization aid" for "in the state public school equalization fund" after "deficiency" in the first paragraph, for "from said state fund" at the end of the first paragraph, and for "of the state public school equalization fund" in the second sentence in the third paragraph.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment rewrote the first sentence, which previously read: "The principal of the state school fund shall remain irreducible and permanent."

75-3706. (1202) Common school levy. In addition to the provisions for the support of the common schools, hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of each county in the state to levy an annual basic tax of twenty-five (25) mills on the dollar of the taxable value of all taxable property within the county, which levy shall be made at the time and in the manner provided by law for the levying of taxes for county purposes, which tax shall be collected by the county treasurer at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes are collected; provided that if a basic levy of less than twenty-five (25) mills should be sufficient to meet the total of the approved budgets of all school districts within the county, then such lesser basic levy shall be made, but no school district within a county levying less than the basic twenty-five (25) mills shall receive any apportionment from the state public school equalization fund; it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners to levy, if necessary, an additional tax in such number of mills on the taxable value of all taxable property within each school district as shall be required to provide the foundation program for such school district.

For the further support of the common schools, there shall also be set apart by the county treasurer all moneys paid into the county treasury arising from all fines for violations of law, unless otherwise specified by law. Such moneys shall be forthwith paid into the county treasury by the officer receiving the same, and be added to the yearly school fund raised by taxation.

75-3722. (1213) Duties of county treasurer. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer of each county:

1. To receive and hold all school moneys and to keep a separate account of their disbursements to the several school districts which shall be entitled to receive them according to the apportionment of the county superintendent. CHAPTER 38—EXTRA TAXATION FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES

Section 75-3801. District school taxes—election.

75-3801. (1219) District school taxes—election. Such election shall be called by resolution in the same manner as provided for other school elections, and shall be held prior to August first.

(2) Whenever the board of trustees of any district or county high school shall deem it necessary to raise money by taxation in excess of the levy required to meet its maximum budgets as specified in section 75-4518.1 for the purpose of maintaining the high schools of said district or the county high school, or building, altering, repairing or enlarging any schoolhouse or houses of such district or county high school, for furnishing additional school facilities for said district, or county high school, or for any other purpose necessary for the proper operation and

In the case of the county high school the board shall submit the question of an additional levy to raise said amount to the qualified electors residing within the county, exclusive of those residing within any district maintaining a district high school in the county, who are taxpayers and whose names appear upon the last completed assessment roll of the county for state, county and school taxes, either at the regular annual elections held in said districts, or special elections called for that purpose by the board of trustees of said county high school. Such election shall be called by resolution in the same manner as provided for other school elections, and shall be held prior to August first; and provided, further, that the provisions of this act shall not prevent the voting of a special levy on a high school district as provided for in chapter 130, Laws of 1949 (75-4609).

The appraisers shall be allowed their necessary expenses, including mileage at the rate of ten (10) cents per mile from their respective residences to the place where the property of the county high school is found, and return, expenses and mileage to be paid out of any moneys belonging to the county high school, or, if none, out of the general fund of the county, upon the order of the district court. bonds and other outstanding indebtedness and to make such annual tax levies according to law as may be necessary to pay and retire such warrants, bonds and/or other outstanding obligations, all in the same manner and by the same means as though the said county high school had not been abolished; and for such purpose and until such indebtedness be fully paid and discharged the board of trustees of the said county high school shall be continued in existence and shall function, and together with the board of commissioners of the county shall exercise and have the same powers for retiring and paying such indebtedness as though the said county high school were still functioning and in existence. When a county high school is unified with and made a part of the public school system of the school district in which it is located, all outstanding bonds shall remain the liability of the county or that portion of the county against which the bonds were originally issued. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners and the board of trustees of the school district with which the county high school was unified to ascertain annually the amount of such bonds and to make such annual tax levies according to law as may be necessary to pay and retire such bonds in full, all in the same manner and by the same means as though the said county high school had not been unified.

has made a composite section incorporating the changes made by both.

Amendments

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, once by Ch. 152 and once by Ch. 261. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Since the two amendments do not appear to conflict, however, the compiler

Chapter 152, Laws 1963, inserted "or a county high school," "or the board of trustees of the county high school," and "for the district or a branch of the county high school" in the first part of the section; and made a minor change in phraseology.

Chapter 261, Laws 1963, substituted the proviso for two former provisos, for text of which see parent volume.

Repealing Clause

Section 14 of Ch. 261, Laws 1963 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Date

Section 15 of Ch. 261, Laws 1963 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 13, 1963.

75-4139. (1262.38) Approval of superintendent of public instruction—how secured. When the board of trustees of any school district desires to establish a high school, or a county high school desires to establish a branch of the county high school, it shall petition the superintendent of public instruction, prior to June first of the current year for the permission to do so, setting forth in writing the facts regarding the enrollment in the elementary grades, the distance to other high schools, the road conditions, the taxable valuation of the district, the building facilities and such other information as the state superintendent may require. An investigation shall be made thereafter by a designated representative of the superintendent of public instruction and his report on the petition filed with it before the petition is acted upon. The superintendent of public instruction must have passed favorably on any such petition before the high school or branch of the county high school proposed may be established by the district.

When the establishment of a high school or a branch of the county high school has been approved in accordance with the provisions of this section, the county superintendent of schools shall immediately investigate to find the number of students who will probably attend such newly established high school or branch of the county high school. This number of students shall be used as a basis for making out the budget for the first year of operation. He shall then assist the board of trustees of the school district establishing such high school or the trustees of a county high school establishing a branch, in preparing and submitting a budget for the maintenance of such high school or branch of the county high school. Said budget shall, otherwise than specified above, be prepared, submitted, approved and distributed in the same manner as other high school budgets are prepared, submitted, approved and distributed.

Whenever any eligible high school pupil has been authorized to attend a high school situated in a county in another state and which county adjoins the state of Montana, as provided in section 75-4230, the board of trustees of the county high school, if there be a county high school for the county in which the pupil resides, or if there be no such county high school then the board of trustees of the school district in which such pupil resides, may expend any moneys belonging to the county high school, or school district, as the case may be, for the purpose of either paying for transportation of such pupil from the home of such pupil to the high school in the other state which is to be attended, or for board, rent or tuition for such pupil while actually attending such school, in the same manner and to the same extent as such money might be expended for transportation, board, rent or tuition of such pupil if permission were given for attending a high school in another district in the county in which the pupil resides in accordance with the provisions of law.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 217, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 21, L. 1963.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "the state of Montana" for "the county in which such high school pupil resides" after "adjoins" near the beginning of the section; and, at the end of the section, substituted "provisions of law" for "provisions of section 75-4145."

CHAPTER 42—HIGH SCHOOLS—COUNTY—JUNIOR AND DISTRICT—JOINT SCHOOL SYSTEMS CONTINUED—VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Section 75-4230. Attendance outside of county of pupil's residence—transfer of apportionment.

75-4230. Attendance outside of county of pupil's residence—transfer of apportionment. The attendance of any eligible high school pupil at an accredited high school outside of the county of his residence, either within or without the state, must be authorized by the county superintendent of schools of the county of his residence when a pupil lives closer to a high school of another county than to any high school located in the county of his residence, or when due to road or geographical conditions it is impractical to attend the high school of his own district, and when proper application has been made to the county superintendent of schools by the parent or guardian of the pupil for whom such transfer is desired; provided, that the county superintendent of schools may at his discretion require a pupil obtaining such transfer to attend the high school nearest his residence.

In all other cases the county superintendent of schools may authorize at his discretion any eligible pupil to attend a high school in a county outside of his residence.

No payment shall be made for attendance in another state except where such attendance is in a high school in a county adjacent to the state of Montana.

Application for permission to attend a high school outside the county of residence shall be made to the county superintendent of the county of the pupil's residence before July 1, previous to the year of attendance, except in those cases where circumstances make this impossible. The county superintendent must then approve or disapprove these applications and notify the individuals concerned, and the high school to be attended, and the county superintendent of the county where the pupil will attend school. At the end of the school year attended and before

July 15, the clerk of the school district operating the high school attended shall send to his county superintendent the name of all pupils from outside of the county attending his school, together with such pupils' home addresses and the number of days such pupils actually attended his high school, who in turn will transmit this information to the county superintendent of the pupils' residence.

Tuition for the year attended is hereby made an obligation of the county of residence for the following year. Before August 1 each year, the county superintendent of the county of residence of the pupils concerned shall make out a high school transfer budget. The total of such transfer budget shall be determined by multiplying the number of pupils attending high school outside of his county by two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) in the case of attendance at a high school with an average number belonging up to one hundred (100) pupils; two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225.00) in case of attendance at a high school with an average number belonging from one hundred one (101) to four hundred (400); and two hundred dollars ($200.00) in case of attendance at a high school with an average number belonging over four hundred (400); provided further, that the pupil has attended at least forty (40) days.

The total of the transfer budget shall be subtracted from the receipts from the basic special tax for high schools as provided for in section 75-4516.1 before the remainder of such receipts is distributed to the high schools of the county. Such total of the transfer budget shall be held in a transfer fund separate and apart from other school funds and shall be allocated by the county treasurer upon instructions from the county superintendent.

In December of each year the county superintendent of the county of the pupil's residence shall notify his county treasurer of the amount to be transferred to each high school educating the pupil concerned, and the said county treasurer shall forthwith remit said amounts to the county treasurer of the county in which such high schools are located. The county treasurer receiving such transfers of money shall place the amount to the credit of the general fund of the high school concerned. Receipts by any high school for tuition are to be used against the needs of the budget after county and state aid have been received.

Whenever pupils are inmates of the Montana children's center at Twin Bridges and attend the public high school in Twin Bridges, the latter school shall receive from moneys available for state equalization aid four hundred dollars ($400.00) for each such pupil; provided, however, that this amount of tuition is not considered as a part of regular state equalization aid. Application for this tuition from the state is to be made in the same manner and at the same time as for regular state equalization aid.

Whenever pupils residing in Montana are approved for attendance in a high school in an adjoining state, and whenever pupils in an adjoining state are approved for attendance in a high school in Montana, the above schedule of tuition payments may be waived, and payments arrived at on the reciprocal basis with the state involved. The state superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to negotiate with the state superintendent of public instruction of each state involved in arriving at tuition payments, which may either be on a per pupil basis of a flat amount or on an actual cost basis.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended three times in 1963, once by Ch. 21, once by Ch. 162, and once by Ch. 267. Chapter 267 included one of the changes made by Ch. 162, but otherwise none of the amendatory acts mentioned nor included the changes made by either of the others. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, however, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating the changes made by all three amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 21, Laws 1963, substituted "another county" for "an adjoining county" after "lives closer to a high school of"

near the middle of the first paragraph; and substituted "the state of Montana" for "the county of the student's residence" at the end of the third paragraph.

Chapter 162, Laws 1963, substituted "children's center" for "state orphans' home" in the eighth paragraph; and increased the reimbursement specified in the eighth paragraph from $250 to $400 per pupil.

Chapter 267, Laws 1963, substituted "the basic special tax for high schools as provided for in section 75-4516.1" near the beginning of the sixth paragraph for "the county ten (10) mill levy for high schools"; incorporated in the eighth paragraph the change in the reimbursement rate made by Ch. 162, Laws 1963; substituted "shall receive from moneys available for state equalization aid" in the eighth paragraph for "shall be reimbursed from the state public school equalization fund at the rate of"; and inserted "regular" in the proviso to the first sentence in the eighth paragraph.

CHAPTER 43—DESIGNATION OF HIGH SCHOOLS AS VOCATIONAL TRAINING CENTERS

Section 75-4303. Eligibility and procedure for admission.

75-4304. Attendance of persons residing outside county.

75-4303. Eligibility and procedure for admission. Vocational training centers designated by the state board for vocational education shall admit for training any resident of the state of Montana, between the ages of sixteen (16) and twenty-one (21) years, provided that any such resident of the state, residing out of the county wherein a vocational center is located, shall make application for admission to training on or before the first day of June of the school year preceding the opening of the next school year. Notice of the acceptance or rejection of such applicant shall be given by the local authority of the training center on or before the first of July, following receipt of the application. forthwith direct the county treasurer to pay from the high school transfer fund to the board of trustees of the school district, high school district or county high school designated as a vocational training center at which attendance has been authorized the sum of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) a year. The names of all applicants entitled to admission to the training center who are residents of the county wherein such center is located, shall be added to the list of those eligible to be counted for high school attendance.

each attendant for each school year shall not exceed the sum of $90.00."

CHAPTER 45—HIGH SCHOOL BUDGET ACT

Section 75-4516.1. Levy of taxes.

75-4518.1. Reduction in budget by budget board—allowance of additional expenses over foundation program.

75-4507 to 75-4510. Repealed.

Repeal

These sections (Secs. 1 to 4, Ch. 133, L. 1945), constituting temporary and obsolete authority for special increases in high school budgets, were repealed by Sec. 16, Ch. 267, Laws 1963.

75-4516.1. Levy of taxes. (1) Basic high school levy. On or before the first day of August in each year, the state superintendent of public instruction shall compute and determine the sum of money which, when added to the moneys available for the state equalization aid shall provide seventy-five per cent (75%) of the maximum high school budgets for all high schools as set forth in sections 75-4518.1 and 75-3612, plus the amount of high school tuition. Such information shall be given to the state board of equalization who shall compute and determine the number of mills of a tax (herein called the basic high school tax) on the taxable value of all property within all the counties of the state which is calculated to produce the aforesaid sum of money.

If a levy of less than the number of mills so determined is sufficient to provide the total foundation programs from the general fund budgets of all school districts within one or more counties, the state board of equalization shall recompute the basic high school tax to be levied in the remaining counties, excluding in the computations the amount of the foundation programs in the county or counties requiring a lesser levy, thus determining as the adjusted basic high school tax the number of mills required to produce the sum of money which, when added to all the moneys available for state equalization aid to be distributed to all high schools except those which as hereinafter provided are not entitled to apportionment of state equalization aid, shall equal the total of the foundation programs of all high schools except those not entitled to apportionment of state equalization aid. In no event shall the adjusted basic high school tax exceed fifteen (15) mills.

In addition to the provisions for the support of the high schools hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of each county in the state to levy on the taxable valuation of all taxable property in the county the number of mills determined by the board of equalization as the adjusted basic high school tax, except that the board in any county in which a levy of less than the number of mills so determined is sufficient to provide the total foundation programs from the general fund budgets for all high schools within the county shall levy such lesser number of mills.

The levy in each county shall be made at the time and in the manner provided by law for the levying of taxes for county purposes, and the tax shall be collected by the county treasurer at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes are collected.

No county levying less than the adjusted basic high school levy shall receive any apportionment of state equalization aid.

(2) Additional high school levy. The county commissioners shall, if necessary, levy an additional tax in such number of mills on the taxable value of all taxable property within the county as shall be required to provide the foundation program for all school districts and county high schools within the county. The county superintendent shall apportion the proceeds of such additional tax levy to each school district and county high school within the county after apportionment of the basic special tax for high schools as provided in section 75-3618 and the state public school equalization funds as provided in section 75-3619.

(3) Permissive high school levy. If the revenues for the operation and maintenance of any high school, including the amount apportionable from said basic special tax for high schools and the amount, if any, produced by said additional high school tax, shall be less than the foundation program of such high school and the approved additions thereto included in its budget, within the limitations hereinbefore specified, it shall be the further duty of the board of county commissioners to fix and levy a tax, in such number of mills as will produce the amount shown by the final budget to be raised by tax levy plus federal reimbursements in lieu of taxes, which tax shall, in the case of a county high school not located within a building district, be levied upon all property in the county, excepting the property of any district supporting a district high school, and shall, in the case of a county high school located within a high school building district, be levied upon all property in such building district and which tax shall, in the case of a district high school not located within a building district, be levied upon all property within the school district, and shall, in the case of a district high school located within a building district, be levied upon all property in such building district, provided, however, that such last mentioned additional tax shall not, in any event, be used to raise funds in excess of the maximum budgets as specified in section 75-4518.1 when considered with all other sources of revenues, unless approved by a vote of the taxpaying electors.

The 1963 amendment completely rewrote this section. For previous text, see parent volume.

75-4518.1. Reduction in budget by budget board—allowance of additional expenses over foundation program. If the total amount of the proposed general fund expenses in the preliminary budget of any district or county high school shall exceed the foundation program thereof, the budget board shall, in the manner provided by section 75-4518, reduce such proposed general fund expenses to a total equal to said foundation program unless the board of trustees of said district or county high school shall establish to the satisfaction of the budget board that special circumstances exist which justify such additional expenses, and in such event a statement of the reasons for the allowance of such additional expenses shall be attached to said budget and signed by the chairman of the budget board, but the allowance of such excess expense over the foundation program shall not in any manner increase the amounts of state equalization aid to be apportioned hereunder; and provided that, except in the case of the existence of the emergencies specified in section 75-4521, the entire amount of such additional expense over the foundation program to be included in any high school budget including any reserve fund, not to exceed thirty-five per cent (35%) of the amount appropriated in the final and approved budget for the then current school year, for the purpose of maintaining the elementary and high school of the district from July 1 to November 30 of the next succeeding year, plus the foundation program shall not be greater than the maximum amounts in accordance with the following schedules, provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed as preventing the voting of an additional levy in accordance with the general school laws pertaining to the voting of additional levies.

High Schools

(1) For each high school having an ANB of twenty-four (24) or fewer pupils, the maximum shall be twenty-five thousand five hundred dollars ($25,500.00).

(2) For a secondary school having an ANB of more than twenty-four (24) pupils, the maximum ten hundred sixty-two dollars ($1,062.00) shall be decreased at the rate of seven dollars ($7.00) for each additional pupil until the ANB shall have reached a total of forty (40) such pupils. For a school having an ANB of more than forty (40) pupils, the maximum of nine hundred fifty dollars ($950.00) shall be decreased at the rate of four dollars and seventy-five cents ($4.75) for each additional pupil until the ANB shall have reached one hundred (100) pupils. For a school having an ANB of more than one hundred (100) pupils, a maximum of six hundred sixty-five dollars ($665.00) shall be decreased at the rate of one dollar and fifty-five cents ($1.55) for each additional pupil until the ANB shall have reached two hundred (200) pupils. For a school having an ANB of more than two hundred (200) pupils, the maximum of five hundred ten dollars ($510.00) shall be decreased by thirty-five cents ($0.35) for each additional pupil until the ANB shall have reached three hundred (300) pupils. For a school having an ANB of more than three hundred (300) pupils, the maximum of four hundred seventy-five dollars ($475.00) shall be decreased at the rate of nine cents ($0.09) until the ANB shall have reached six hundred (600) pupils. Schools having an ANB in excess of six hundred (600) pupils shall receive four hundred forty-eight dollars ($448.00) per pupil.

The maximum per pupil for all pupils (ANB) and for all schools shall be computed on the basis of the amount allowed herein on account of the last eligible pupil, ANB.

In computing the amount for the foundation program and the maximum program only junior high schools which have been approved and accredited by the state board of education shall be considered a part of the secondary enrollment.

On or before January 1 of odd-numbered years, the state superintendent of public instruction shall transmit to the legislative assembly of the state of Montana a revised schedule for secondary schools in accordance with classifications by size as set forth in this section. This revised schedule will be based on the median general fund budgeted expenditures for the current year, by ascertaining the median of the general fund budgets for each classification of secondary schools, and the total number of pupils (ANB) for all schools in each classification, and by computing the revised schedule therefrom.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "of state equalization aid to be apportioned hereunder" for "to be apportioned hereunder from the state public school equalization fund" immediately before the first proviso; inserted "plus the foundation program" after "July 1 to November 30 of the next succeeding year" near the end of the first paragraph; substituted "the maximum amounts in accordance with the following schedules" near the end of the first paragraph for "thirty per cent (30%) of the foundation program of any high school, having an ANB of 100 or less pupils, and shall not be greater than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the foundation program of any high school having an ANB of more than 100 pupils"; added the final proviso to the first paragraph; and added everything after the first paragraph.

CHAPTER 46—HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICTS—PUBLIC WORKS

Section 75-4601. High school trustees may undertake public works program—additional trustees—division of taxable valuation—commencement of proceedings.

75-4601. High school trustees may undertake public works program—additional trustees—division of taxable valuation—commencement of proceedings. In any county having a high school the board of trustees of the county high school, if there be one, and the boards of trustees of any school districts maintaining district high schools, are hereby designated as the boards of trustees of the respective high school districts established under this act, provided that additional members may be elected to the board of trustees of districts maintaining district high schools in the number and manner as follows: When a majority of the boards of the common school districts in the high school district so request, such requests shall be directed to the county superintendent of schools, who shall proceed as directed in this act.

The taxable valuation of the district in which the high school is located shall be divided by the number of trustees on the high school board. In the case of a first class district this number shall be seven (7), for a second class district five (5), and for a third class district three (3). This figure obtained shall then be divided into the remaining valuation of the high school district, and the resulting number, to the closest whole number, shall be the number of additional board members to be elected; provided, that the number of these additional board members shall not exceed four (4) in districts of the first and second class or two (2) in districts of the third class.

(a) Following the determination of the number of additional board members to be elected, the county superintendent of schools shall district the territory of the high school district, excluding the common school district wherein the high school is located, into a number of trustee nominating districts equal to the number of additional board members to be elected, and each trustee nominating district so established shall be entitled to one (1) member on the board of trustees of the high school.

The election of the additional trustees shall be held on the first Saturday in April of every year to fill the expired terms of such additional trustees, and the term of office of such additional trustees after the first election of such trustees shall be for three (3) years.

The additional trustees so elected shall be residents of the respective trustee nominating districts established by the county superintendent of schools, and shall meet the general qualifications for school district trustees provided by section 75-1601, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947.

At the first election the additional trustees elected from the trustee nominating districts established by the county superintendent of schools, if there be more than one, shall cast lots to determine the length of time each shall hold office. If there is one (1) additional trustee, he shall hold office for three (3) years. If there are two (2) additional trustees, one shall hold office for three (3) years and one for two (2) years. If there are three (3) additional trustees, one shall hold office for three (3) years, one for two (2) years and one for one (1) year. If there are four (4) additional trustees, two shall hold office for three (3) years, one for two (2) years and one for one (1) year.

The procedure for calling and holding elections, and for the assumption of office, for the school district wherein the high school is located shall govern the election of the additional trustees herein provided for.

At least twenty (20) days preceding the election, any ten (10) electors of any trustee nominating district established as provided for in this act, who are qualified to vote in the election for such additional trustee, shall file with the district clerk of the school district wherein the high school is located the nomination of any qualified person to be a candidate for such trustee from such nominating district. Ballots for the election of such additional trustees shall be prepared in the same form and manner as ballots are prepared for other trustees, providing that such ballots for additional trustees shall show clearly the trustee nominating district from which each nominee is a candidate.

Any qualified elector of any nominating district, excluding the district where the high school is located, may vote for the additional trustees so nominated, at the time and place of the annual election of school trustees in the common school district in which he is entitled to vote, provided that each elector may vote for no more than one such additional trustee from each trustee nominating district.

A vacancy in the office of additional trustee shall be filled by appointment by the county superintendent of schools; provided, that such appointment shall be subject to confirmation by a majority of the remaining members of the high school district board including the additional members. The trustee so appointed shall hold office until the next annual election, at which election there shall be elected a trustee from the same nominating district for the unexpired term.

CHAPTER 50—EDUCATION CLASSES FOR MENTALLY AND PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED CHILDREN

Section 75-5001. Special education—mentally retarded children—physically handicapped children.

75-5003. Local boards of trustees—powers—determination of children requiring special education and the type of education responsibility of state superintendent—reimbursement by state—computation.

75-5001. Special education—mentally retarded children—physically handicapped children. Within the meaning of this act special education is that type of education requiring special facilities or instruction because of physical or mental deviation from the average on the part of some children. These handicapped are defined as follows:

(1) Mentally retarded children are children who are not capable of profiting from the general educational program of the public schools. These children may be considered in three groups as follows: (a) Educable mentally retarded. Those children who, at maturity, cannot be expected to attain a level of intellectual functioning greater than that commonly expected from an eleven-year-old, but not less than that of a seven-year-old. (b) Trainable mentally retarded. Those children who, at maturity, cannot be expected to attain a level of intellectual functioning greater than that commonly expected of a seven-year-old and who, for entrance into a training program, are capable of walking, of clean bodily habits, and of obedience to simple commands. (c) Custodial mentally retarded. Those children who do not show a likelihood of attaining clean bodily habits, responsiveness to directions, or means of intelligible communication. The public schools are to assume responsibility for the educable group, and may assume responsibility for the trainable group.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "mentally retarded" for "mentally handicapped" throughout paragraph (1); deleted "handicapped" after "educable" in the final sentence of paragraph (1); and added the words "and may assume responsibility for the trainable group" at the end of paragraph (1).

75-5003. Local boards of trustees—powers—determination of children requiring special education and the type of education responsibility of state superintendent—reimbursement by state—computation. The board of trustees in each school district, when it appears that there are not less than ten (10) educable mentally retarded or physically handicapped children in the district, must maintain special classes for educable mentally retarded children or for physically handicapped children, (and may provide classes for the trainable mentally retarded children,) or may arrange to use the services of such approved mentally retarded or physically handicapped children's classes as may exist within the state, or may provide transportation services from home to school and return for all handicapped children enrolled in a state approved special education program of such ages as it deems wise; provided, that the local board has the right to exclude persons of low intelligence or severe delinquent behavior. The determination of the children requiring special education and the type of special education needed by these handicapped children shall not be the responsibility of local boards of trustees but shall be the responsibility of the state superintendent of public instruction in cooperation with appropriate medical, psychiatric and psychological advice listed above. Two (2) or more districts may combine to provide such educational facilities.

Reimbursements on the part of the state for such programs shall be computed on the basis of counting each such mentally retarded child in such special classes as three (3) in average number belonging, and each physically handicapped child according to a schedule to be prepared by the state superintendent of public instruction, but in no case shall it be over three (3) average number belonging for each such child, prorated according to time and number in these special classes, or in home tutoring. Transportation reimbursements shall be made on a schedule arrived at by the state superintendent of public instruction, and such expenditures shall be added to the transportation budget of the district. The state shall reimburse two-thirds of such approved transportation and the county shall reimburse the remainder of such approved transportation according to said schedule.

Any child who is mentally retarded, or physically handicapped, or both, who is enrolled in a state-approved elementary school special education program which is maintained by a district other than the district in which such child resides, shall be included in the computation of average number belonging to the district maintaining the special education program, according to the provisions herein. The district in which such child resides shall pay to the district where such child attends an amount of tuition based on the tuition rates established in section 75-1630, and such payment shall be made in the manner prescribed by section 75-1630.

Any such child who is enrolled in a state-approved high school special education program which is maintained by a high school located in a county other than the county in which such child resides, shall be included in the computation of the average number belonging to the high school maintaining the special education program, according to the provisions herein. The county in which such child resides shall pay to the high school where such child attends an amount of tuition based on the tuition rates established in section 75-4230, and such payment shall be made in the manner prescribed by section 75-4230.

When children are sent to an institution supported solely by funds of the state of Montana the home district or county will not be required to pay tuition for such child.

A and B. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

C. The appropriate corrective methods. That to conserve soil resources and control and prevent soil erosion, and prevent floodwater and sediment damages and further the conservation, development, utilization and disposal of water, it is necessary that land-use practices contributing to soil wastage and soil erosion be discouraged and discontinued, and appropriate soil-conserving land-use practices and works of improvement for flood prevention and the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water be adopted and carried out; that among the procedures necessary for widespread adoption, are the carrying on of engineering operations such as the construction of water spreaders, terraces, terrace outlets, check dams, desilting basins, floodwater retarding structures, channel improvements, floodways, land drainage, dikes, ponds, ditches, and the like; the utilization of strip cropping, lister furrowing, contour cultivating, and contour furrowing; land drainage; land irrigation; seeding and planting of waste, sloping, abandoned, or eroded lands to water-conserving and erosion-preventing plants, trees and grasses; forestation and reforestation; rotation of crops, restriction of number of livestock grazed, deferred grazing, rodent eradication; soil stabilization with trees, grasses, legumes, and other thick-growing, soil-holding crops; retardation of run-off by increasing absorption of rainfall; and retirement from cultivation of steep, highly erosive areas and areas now badly gullied or otherwise eroded.

D. Declaration of policy. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the legislature to provide for the conservation of soil and soil resources of this state, and for the control and prevention of soil erosion, and for the prevention of floodwater and sediment damages, and for furthering the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water, and thereby to preserve natural resources, control floods, prevent impairment of dams and reservoirs, preserve wildlife, protect the tax base, protect public lands and protect and promote the health, safety, and general welfare of the people of this state.

Amendment

The 1959 amendment in subd. C inserted the words "and prevent floodwater and sediment damages and further the conservation, development, utilization and disposal of water"; inserted the words "and works of improvement for flood prevention and the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water"; inserted the words "desilting basins, floodwater retarding structures, channel improvements, floodways, land drainage" and inserted the words "land drainage" after the words "contour furrowing." In subd. D the amendment inserted the clause beginning with the words "and for the prevention" and ending with the words "and disposal of water."

76-103. Definitions. Wherever used or referred to in this act, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(1) "District" or "soil and water conservation district" means a governmental subdivision of this state, and a public body corporate and politic, organized in accordance with the provisions of this act, for the purposes, with the powers, and subject to the restrictions hereinafter set forth;

(2) to (11). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 72, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 73, L. 1961.

Amendment

The 1961 amendment in subd. (1) inserted between the words "soil" and "conservation" the words "and water."

76-105. Creation of soil conservation districts. A. Any ten (10) occupiers of land lying within the limits of the territory proposed to be organized into a district may file a petition with the state soil conservation committee asking that a soil and water conservation district be organized to function in the territory described in the petition. Such petition shall set forth:

(1) The proposed name of said district;

(2) That there is need, in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare, for a soil and water conservation district to function in the territory described in the petition;

(3) A description of the territory proposed to be organized as a district, which description shall not be required to be given by metes and bounds or by legal subdivisions, but shall be deemed sufficient if generally accurate;

(4) A request that the state soil conservation committee duly define the boundaries for such district; that a referendum be held within the territory so defined on the question of the creation of a soil and water conservation district in such territory; and that the committee determine that such a district be created.

Where more than one petition is filed covering parts of the same territory, the state soil conservation committee may consolidate all or any part of such petitions.

B. Within thirty (30) days after such a petition has been filed with the state soil conservation committee, it shall cause due notice to be given of a proposed hearing upon the question of the desirability and necessity, in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare, of the creation of such district, upon the question of the appropriate boundaries to be assigned to such district, upon the propriety of the petition and other proceedings taken under this act, and upon all questions relevant to such inquiries. All occupiers of land within the limits of the territory described in the petition, and of lands within any territory considered for addition to such described territory, and all other interested parties, shall have the right to attend such hearings and to be heard. If it shall appear upon the hearing that it may be desirable to include within the proposed district territory outside of the area within which due notice of the hearing has been given, the hearing shall be adjourned and due notice of further hearing shall be given throughout the entire area considered for inclusion in the district, and such further hearing held. After such hearing, if the committee shall determine, upon the facts presented at such hearing and upon such other relevant facts and information as may be available, that there is need, in the interest of the public health, safety and welfare, for a soil and water conservation district to function in the territory considered at the hearing, it shall make and record such determination, and shall define, by metes and bounds or by legal subdivisions, the boundaries of such district. In making such determinations and in defining such boundaries, the committee shall give due weight and consideration to the topography of the area considered and of the state, the composition of soils therein, the distribution of erosion, the prevailing land-use practices, the desirability and necessity of including within the boundaries the particular lands under consideration and the benefits such lands may receive from being included within such boundaries, the relation of the proposed area to existing watersheds and agricultural regions, and to other soil conservation districts already organized or proposed for organization under the provisions of this act, and such other physical, geographical, and economic factors as are relevant, having due regard to the legislative determination set forth in section 76-102. The territory to be included within such boundaries need not be contiguous. If the committee shall determine after such hearing, after due consideration of the said relevant facts, that there is no need for a soil and water conservation district to function in the territory considered at the hearing, it shall make and record such determination and shall deny the petition. After six (6) months shall have expired from the date of the denial of any such petition, subsequent petitions covering the same or substantially the same territory may be filed as aforesaid and new hearing held and determinations made thereon.

C. After the committee has made and recorded a determination that there is need, in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare, for the organization of a district in a particular territory and has defined the boundaries thereof, it shall consider the question whether the operation of a district within such boundaries with the powers conferred upon soil and water conservation districts in this act is administratively practicable and feasible. To assist the committee in the determination of such administrative practicability and feasibility, it shall be the duty of the committee, within a reasonable time after entry of the finding that there is need for the organization of the proposed district and the determination of the boundaries thereof, to hold a referendum within the proposed district upon the proposition of the creation of the district, and to cause due notice of such referendum to be given. The question shall be submitted by ballots upon which the words "For creation of a soil and water conservation district of the lands below described and lying in the county (ies) of _____, _____, and _____" and "Against creation of a soil and water conservation district of the lands below described and lying in the county(ies) of _____ and _____" shall appear, with a square before each proposition and a direction to insert an "X" mark in the square before one or the other of said propositions as the voter may favor or oppose creation of such district. The ballot shall set forth the boundaries of such proposed district as determined by the committee. All occupiers of lands lying within the boundaries of the territory, as determined by the state soil conservation committee, shall be eligible to vote in such referendum. Only such land occupiers shall be eligible to vote.

D and E. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

F. If the committee shall determine that the operation of the proposed district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible, it shall appoint two (2) supervisors to act with the three (3) supervisors elected as provided hereinafter, as the governing body of the district. Such district shall be a governmental subdivision of this state and a public body corporate and politic, upon the taking of the following proceedings:

The two (2) appointed supervisors shall present to the secretary of state an application signed by them, which shall set forth (and such application need contain no detail other than the mere recitals): (1) That a petition for the creation of the district was filed with the state soil conservation committee pursuant to the provisions of this act, and that the proceedings specified in this act were taken pursuant to such petition; that the application is being filed in order to complete the organization of the district as a governmental subdivision and a public body, corporate and politic, under this act; and that the committee has appointed them as supervisors; (2) the name and official residence of each of the supervisors, together with a certified copy of the appointments evidencing their right to office; (3) the term of office of each of the supervisors; (4) the name which is proposed for the district; and (5) the location of the principal offices of the supervisors of the district. The application shall be subscribed and sworn to by each of the said supervisors before an officer authorized by the laws of this state to take and certify oaths, who shall certify upon the application that he personally knows the supervisors and knows them to be the officers as affirmed in the application, and that each has subscribed thereto in the officer's presence. The application shall be accompanied by a statement by the state soil conservation committee, which shall certify (and such statement need contain no detail other than the mere recitals) that a petition was filed, notice issued, and hearing held as aforesaid; that the committee did duly determine that there is need, in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare, for a soil and water conservation district to function in the proposed territory and did define the boundaries thereof; that notice was given and a referendum held on the question of the creation of such district, and that the result of such referendum showed sixty-five (65) per cent of the votes cast in such referendum to be in favor of the creation of the district; that thereafter the committee did duly determine that the operation of the proposed district is administratively practicable and feasible; the said statement shall set fourth the boundaries of the district as they have been defined by the committee.

The secretary of state shall examine the application and statement and, if he finds that the name proposed for the district is not identical with that of any other soil and water conservation district of this state or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion or uncertainty, he shall receive and file them and shall record them in an appropriate book of record in his office. If the secretary of state shall find that the name proposed for the district is identical with that of any other soil and water conservation district of this state, or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion and uncertainty, he shall certify such fact to the state soil conservation committee, which shall thereupon submit to the secretary of state a new name for the said district, which shall not be subject to such defects. Upon receipt of such new name, free of such defects, the secretary of state shall record the application and statement, with the name so modified, in an appropriate book of record in his office. When the application and statement have been made, filed, and recorded, as herein provided, the district shall constitute a governmental subdivision of this state and a public body corporate and politic. The secretary of state shall make and issue to the said supervisors without cost a certificate, under the seal of the state, of the due organization of the said district, and shall record such certificate with the application and statement. The boundaries of such district shall include the territory as determined by the state soil conservation committee as aforesaid, but in no event shall they include any area included within the boundaries of another soil and water conservation district organized under the provisions of this act.

G to I. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 72, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 73, L. 1961.

Amendment

The 1961 amendment substituted "soil and water conservation district" for "soil conservation district" each time it appears in the section and in the last paragraph of subd. A inserted the word "part" between "any" and "of."

76-107. Appointment, qualifications and tenure of supervisors. The governing body of the district shall consist of five (5) supervisors, elected as provided hereinabove.

The supervisors shall annually elect a chairman from their members. The term of office of each supervisor shall be three (3) years, except that the supervisors who are first appointed shall be designated to serve for terms of one (1) and two (2) years, respectively, from the date of their appointment. A supervisor shall hold office until his successor has been elected and has qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of supervisor shall be filled by appointment by the remaining supervisors until the next regular election, when a successor shall be elected to serve the unexpired term. A majority of the supervisors shall constitute a quorum and the concurrence of a majority in any matter within their duties shall be required for its determination. A supervisor shall receive no compensation for his services, but he shall be entitled to expenses, including traveling expenses, necessarily incurred in the discharge of his duties.

The supervisors may employ a secretary and such other officers, agents, and employees, permanent and temporary, as they may require, and shall determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation. The supervisors may call upon the attorney general of the state for such legal services as they may require, or may employ their own counsel and legal staff. The supervisors may delegate to their chairman, to one or more supervisors, or to one or more agents or employees, such powers and duties as they may deem proper. The supervisors shall furnish to the state soil conservation committee, copies of such ordinances, rules, regulations, orders, contracts, forms, and other documents as they shall adopt or employ, and such other information concerning their activities as may be required in the performance of its duties under this act.

The supervisors shall provide for the execution of surety bonds for all employees and officers who shall be entrusted with funds or property; shall provide for the keeping of a full and accurate record of all proceedings, and of all resolutions, regulations, and orders issued or adopted; and shall provide for an annual audit of the accounts of receipts and disbursements. Any supervisor may be removed by the state soil conservation committee upon notice and hearing, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, but for no other reason.

The supervisors may invite the legislative body of any municipality or county located near the territory comprised within the district to designate a representative to advise and consult with the supervisors of the district on all questions of program and policy which may affect the property, water supply, or other interests of such municipality or county.

The selection of successor to fill an unexpired term, or for a full term shall be by election."

Amendment

The 1959 amendment substituted the sentence in the second paragraph beginning with the words "Any vacancy * * *" for two sentences which read: "Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term.

Amendment

The 1959 amendment made numerous changes in this section. For section prior to amendment see parent volume.

76-117. Change of district name—division and combination of districts. (1) Petitions for changing the name of a district organized under this act may be filed with the state soil conservation committee. Any such petition shall be signed by [a] majority of the district supervisors and shall state the present name of the district and the proposed new name. If the committee determines that the proposed new name is not identical with or so similar to that of any other district in the state as to lead to confusion or uncertainty, it shall present a statement of such determination to the secretary of state, who shall issue to the district a certificate, under the seal of the state, evidencing the change of name of the district. Upon the issuance of such certificate, the supervisors of the district shall cause due notice to be given of the change of the name of the district.

(2) A petition may be filed with the state committee for the division of any district or the combination of any two or more districts, or for the division of a district and the combination of any divided part thereof with any other district. Any or all of such actions may be initiated by the filing of a single petition with the committee. Any such petition shall be signed by a majority of the members of each of the governing bodies of the affected districts. The committee shall prescribe the form for such petition. Upon the filing of any such petition, the committee shall within thirty (30) days give due notice of public hearing upon such petition. All occupiers of lands within the affected districts, and all other interested parties, shall have the right to attend such hearing and to be heard. Upon the failure of the supervisors to make, or to agree upon, such allocation, it shall be made by the committee after such hearings as the committee may deem necessary, and with due regard for the standards set out in this paragraph for making such allocations.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, once by Ch. 147 and once by Ch. 271. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. The compiler has made a composite section incorporating the changes made by both sections, and 79-306. (192) State treasurer as treasurer of state agencies—deposits of moneys. (1) The state treasurer is hereby designated the treasurer of each and every state board, commission, bureau, department and state institution, now existing or hereafter to be created or established. All departments of the state government located at the capitol shall deposit with the state treasurer daily all moneys, credits, evidences of indebtedness and securities received.

(2) All state boards, commissions, bureaus, departments and state institutions not located in the capitol shall deposit daily all moneys, credits, evidences of indebtedness and securities in banks located in the city or town in which such boards, commissions, bureaus, departments and state institutions are situated, provided there is a qualified bank in such city or town, to be designated by the state treasurer with the approval of the state depository board, or with the state treasurer. Such banks shall furnish indemnifying bonds or pledge securities in amounts sufficient to cover all such deposits at all times, and such deposits shall be made in the name of the state treasurer, and shall be subject to withdrawal at his option, and such deposits shall draw interest as other state moneys. Indemnifying bonds and pledged securities shall be subject to the approval of the state depository board.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted from the end of subsection (1) clauses reading, "and the state treasurer shall give such departments credit on their suspense accounts, which the state treasurer is hereby directed to set up, and such deposits shall be subject to the final payment of all items, and the state treasurer is directed to charge back against such suspense accounts all items unpaid for any reason"; and deleted a former subsection (3), for text of which see parent volume.

79-410. Fund structure. There are in the state treasury only the following funds:

(1) General fund. The general fund consists of all moneys deposited in the state treasury which are available to defray the general costs of state government and which do not fall into one of the categories enumerated below.

(2) Earmarked revenue fund. The earmarked revenue fund consists of moneys from state sources deposited in the state treasury which are specifically earmarked by law for the purpose of defraying the costs of a particular agency, program, or function of state government.

(3) Sinking fund. The sinking fund consists of moneys deposited in the state treasury for the payment of principal and interest, and the accumulation of reserves for bonded or other indebtedness.

(4) Federal and private revenue fund. The federal and private revenue fund consists of all expendable moneys deposited in the state treasury from federal or private sources, including trust income, which are to be used for the operation of state government.

(5) Federal and private grant clearance fund. The federal and private grant clearance fund consists of all expendable moneys deposited in the state treasury from federal or private sources, including trust income, which the state disburses to persons, associations or units of local government. When the final disposition of expendable federal or private moneys is unknown at the time of receipt, they shall be deposited in the federal and private grant clearance fund; but those moneys to be used for the operation of state government shall be transferred to the federal and private revenue fund prior to disbursement.

(6) Bond proceeds and insurance clearance fund. The bond proceeds and insurance clearance fund consists of

(a) Moneys deposited in the state treasury obtained from the sale of bonds, certificates of indebtedness or similar obligations.

(b) Moneys indemnifying the state for loss or damage of property.

(7) Revolving fund. (a) The revolving fund consists of moneys used to

- (i) Defray reimbursable expenditures, and
- (ii) Supply working capital for enterprise-type operations.

(b) An appropriation of a specific amount from the revolving fund is not a limitation on total expenditures for the period for which the appropriation is made, but is the maximum amount that may be withdrawn at any given time.

(8) Trust and legacy fund. The trust and legacy fund consists of moneys deposited in the state treasury which the state administers as a trustee pursuant to a law or a trust agreement restricting the use of the money for a specified purpose and prohibiting the expenditure of the principal for a period of at least five (5) years.

(9) Agency fund. The agency fund consists of moneys deposited in the state treasury which are held and disbursed by the state as a custodian or agent, and includes, but not limited to moneys held for the purpose of paying insurance or retirement benefits, moneys arising from lost or unclaimed property, and other moneys of a similar nature.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 147, L. 1963.

79-411. Previous definitions of funds—future provisions for segregation of moneys. (1) It is the intent of the legislative assembly that the definitions in section 2 [79-410] of this act supersede all previous definitions of public funds which are inconsistent with the definitions found in this act.

(2) Any laws enacted in the future, or any contracts entered into in the future in pursuance of law, that require the segregation of moneys in the state treasury by means of a separate treasury fund, shall be interpreted as permitting the segregation of such moneys by means of a subfund or account within one of the funds created by section 2 [79-410] of this act.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 147, L. 1963.

79-412. Additional accounts authorized. The enumeration of treasury funds in section 2 [79-410] of this act does not prohibit the state treasurer from establishing and maintaining

(1) Clearance or suspense accounts for the purpose of paying refunds, for the purpose of grouping payments from different funds or accounts prior to disbursement, or for the purpose of conveniently processing receipts before crediting the proper fund.

(2) Investment funds authorized under the "Unified Investment Plan."

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 147, L. 1963.

79-413. Creation and abolition of new accounts. Moneys deposited in each fund except the general fund shall be segregated by the state controller by specific accounts based on source, function or department. When moneys deposited in the state treasury cannot logically be credited to an existing account, or when it is impractical or undesirable for an agency of state government to segregate moneys in its own accounts, the controller, in his discretion, may create new accounts consistent with the definitions in section 2 [79-410] of this bill [act]; however, the controller shall create as few new accounts as practicable. The controller shall periodically examine all accounts, and shall abolish or consolidate inactive or unnecessary accounts.

79-414. Maintenance of fund and account records—accounting procedures. (1) The state treasurer shall record receipts and disbursements for treasury funds, and shall maintain fund records in such a manner as to reflect the total cash and invested balance of each fund. The state treasurer shall also maintain records of individual subfunds within the sinking fund, bond proceeds and insurance clearance fund, and trust and legacy fund in such a manner as to reflect the total cash and invested balance of each subfund. When necessary to meet federal or other requirements that moneys be segregated in the treasury, the state treasurer may establish subfunds within any funds listed in section 2 [79-410] of this act.

(2) The state controller shall record receipts and disbursements for treasury funds and for accounts within treasury funds, and shall maintain records in such a manner as to reflect the total cash and invested balance of each fund and each account. The controller shall adopt the necessary procedures to insure that interdepartmental or intradepartmental transfers of money do not result in inflation of figures reflecting total governmental costs and revenues.

79-415. Appropriation and disbursement of moneys from the treasury.

(1) Moneys deposited in the general fund, the earmarked revenue fund, the revolving fund, and the federal and private revenue fund, with the exception of trust income, shall be paid out of the treasury only on appropriation made by law.

(2) Moneys deposited in the federal and private grant clearance fund, the sinking fund, the bond proceeds and insurance clearance fund, the trust and legacy fund and the agency fund may be paid out of the treasury under general laws, or contracts entered into in pursuance of law, permitting such disbursement.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 147, L. 1963.

79-416. Special funds abolished—transfer to general fund. The armory physical plant fund, post war planning and construction reserve fund, state fire insurance fund, Carey land act fund and photographers' license fund are abolished. All moneys in these funds are transferred to the general fund.

Forfeiture of Good Time Allowance

A prisoner who, by virtue of section 80-740.1, is earning good time under section 80-739, the prior law, is subject to the provisions of section 80-741, the forfeiture statute which existed under the old law. Hill v. State, 139 M 407, 365 P 2d 44, 45; In re Pelke's Petition, 139 M 628, 365 P 2d 936.

A convict, by escaping, forfeits all his good time. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 557.

Second Conviction

Relator was convicted of crime of burglary in the first degree. After serving one year and six days he was released from prison pending his appeal. The conviction was reversed upon such appeal and a new trial ordered. Upon the new trial he was again convicted and sentenced for the same period as the first, ten years. During his second incarceration he was not entitled to credit against the second sentence for time served under the first sentence. State ex rel. Nelson v. Ellsworth, — M —, 375 P 2d 316, 318.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 213, L. 1963.

The state of Montana may sue such resident or responsible person for such payments due; and any judgment obtained is a lien upon the real property of such person, and shall be collected as other judgments. Any claim arising under this act has the same force and effect against the real and personal property of a deceased person as other debts of a decedent, and shall be ascertained and recovered in the same manner.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 213, L. 1963.

80-1306. Moneys deposited in treasury. All moneys received by the department under this act shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the general fund, unless otherwise specifically provided by law.

The purpose of such appraisals shall be to determine the rental value of agricultural lands and town and city lots, the general condition of the lands, and the carrying capacity of grazing lands.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 207, L. 1945; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 260, L. 1963.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "but not less than once during the term of every lease by competent appraisers" at the end of the first sentence, and the entire second sentence, for "as to their rental value, by competent appraisers, or appraiser, and the fair rental value of such lands so determined from time to time"; and deleted other clauses reading, "and that agricultural lands be hereafter leased, or lease term renewed or extended, only upon a crop share basis, and that no lease be made or renewed, or the lease term

81-402. (1805.20) Lease of state lands—crop share rental basis used.
 (1) Under the general direction and control of the state board of land commissioners, the commissioner shall lease all agricultural and grazing lands and all town and city lots open to leasing upon proper application, provided that, as to agricultural lands, all leases shall be continued or made upon a crop share rental basis of not less than one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the annual crops to the state, or the usual landlord's share prevailing in the district, whichever is greater.

(2) In unusual cases the board may authorize a lease upon other basis than crop share, but in all such unusual cases the board shall set forth in its minutes of approval the unusual conditions of the case and the rental to be charged, and by unusual conditions is meant a proposed use of the land for other than the annual production of agricultural crops justifying, in the opinion of the board, a greater money rental of the land than the value of the usual landlord share of annual agricultural crops in the area in which the land is situated, and provided further that, the rental rate for all state grazing lands leased and to be leased shall be based upon the appraised animal-unit-month carrying capacity of the land as provided in section 81-433, R.C.M. 1947, as amended, and provided further that, as to town and city lots owned by the state, the fair rental value thereof shall be determined from time to time under the direction of the commissioner and with the approval of the state board of land commissioners and record made thereof, and such town or city property may be leased at its current appraised rental value for terms of not to exceed five (5) years.

(3) All leases of agricultural or grazing lands, or town or city lots shall be upon condition that the state board of land commissioners may in its discretion, offer said land for sale at any regular public sale of state lands held in the county where the land is situated, upon the same terms, and in the same manner as land not under lease.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted the words "not outstanding (for the next and succeeding years hereafter) and all leases hereafter made, and all renewals of leases" which followed "all leases" in subsection (1); deleted "from and after February 28, 1952" which appeared at the beginning of the first proviso in subsection (2); and substituted "as provided in section 81-433, R.C.M. 1947, as amended" in the first proviso to subsection (2) for "multiplied by the rate per animal-unit-month as fixed in this act."

81-405. (1805.21) Renewal leases—preference right of lessee. A lessee of state land classed as agricultural, grazing, town lot or city lot, or in any of those classes, who has paid all rentals due from him to the state and who has not violated the terms of his lease shall be entitled to have his lease renewed for a five (5) or ten (10) year period at the rental rate provided by law for the renewal period, and subject to any other conditions, at the time of the renewal as may by law be imposed as terms of such leases, at any time within thirty (30) days prior to its expiration if no other application or applications for lease of the land have been received thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of his lease. In case such other application or applications have been received, the holder of the lease shall have the preference right to lease the land covered by his former lease to the extent that he may take the lease at the highest bid made by any other applicant. Applications for lease of lands in this section referred to shall be given preference in the order of their receipt at the office of the commissioner in Helena.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the state board of land commissioners shall have the power to withdraw any agricultural or grazing state land from further leasing for such period as the board may determine to be in the best interest of the state of Montana. All bids for leases and applications for renewals of leases of state agricultural lands or state grazing lands shall be in writing and sealed and shall be submitted to the state board of land commissioners at the office of the commissioner.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment rewrote this section, dividing it into two paragraphs and several sentences, rearranging the language, and making substantial changes; for previous text, see parent volume.

81-406. (1805.22) Arbitrators to fix value of improvements—appeal.

If the owner of any improvements on state lands of the type authorized by law at the time they were placed thereon desires to sell such improvements to the new lessee and they are unable to agree on the value thereof, such value shall be ascertained and fixed by three (3) arbitrators, one of which shall be appointed by the owner of the improvements, one by the new lessee and the third by the two (2) arbitrators so appointed. The reasonable compensation that such arbitrators may charge shall be paid in equal shares by the owner of the improvements and the new lessee. The value of such improvements so ascertained and fixed shall be binding on both parties; provided, however, that if either party is dissatisfied with the valuation so fixed, he may within ten (10) days appeal from their decision to the commissioner who shall thereupon cause the chief field agent or assistant field agent to examine such improvements and whose decision shall be final. The commissioner shall charge and collect the actual cost of such re-examination to the owner and the new lessee in such proportion as in his judgment justice may demand. The value of such improvements shall be ascertained and fixed as hereinafter and in this act provided.

81-407. (1805.23) Who may lease—how much and for what length of time. No person^{single or} shall be qualified to lease state lands except one who is the head of a family unless he or she has attained the age of twenty-one (21) years. Any such person and any association, company or corporation authorized to hold lands under lease may lease state lands, and there may be included under one lease, tracts of lands embracing more than one (1) section. Any such person, association, company or corporation may hold more than one (1) lease to such lands. No lease to agricultural or grazing lands shall be for a period other than five (5) or ten (10) years. Leases for city and town lots shall not exceed five (5) years. When a lease expires or is cancelled the commissioner shall immediately so notify the holder of the lease and all persons who have expressed an interest in leasing the land during, or immediately preceding the term of such expired or cancelled lease. If the legislature raises the rentals for state grazing lands during the term of any leases of grazing land hereafter issued which are not issued as a result of competitive bidding the lessee shall, for the years after such increase becomes effective, pay such increase rental and the terms of grazing leases hereafter issued shall so provide.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted the words "whether the lands have been received by the state through federal land grants or consist of so-called 'mortgage lands'" which followed "section" at the end of the second sentence; substituted the present fourth and fifth sentences for a sentence reading, "No lease to agricultural or grazing lands, or town or city lots shall be for a longer period of time than ten (10) years"; inserted the sixth sentence (providing for notice of expiration or cancellation of lease); and made minor changes in punctuation.

81-414. (1805.28) Change in terms of lease. Whenever any land is leased for grazing purposes, and the lessee desires to cultivate any part of the land, he shall before doing any such cultivation, make application to the commissioner stating how much land he desires to cultivate, showing the location in the section of such land, send his lease to the commissioner to have the necessary changes made therein, and shall agree that for the remainder of the term of the lease the annual rental shall be at the rate of the original lease until such time as the first crop is harvested from the cultivated portion of the lease. At the time of the first harvest, the lease shall be at the original rate for that portion remaining as grazing land plus the crop share rental for that portion cultivated. In case any person shall cultivate lands leased for grazing purposes, without having first secured the right to do so in the manner herein provided, the lease shall be subject to cancellation or the lessee shall be liable for twice the regular agricultural rental on the land so cultivated in addition to the grazing rental thereof as may be decided by the board. The provisions of this section shall be incorporated in every lease.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "the original lease until such time as the first crop is harvested from the cultivated portion of the lease" for "the full rate for the whole of the leased land for grazing purposes, plus the crop share rental on the basis in this act provided for, the portion of the land designated in the application to be cultivated, whether the lessee continues to cultivate such part or not, it being the intention of this provision to protect the interests of the state and to induce lessees to have the leases originally issued for the usage intended to be made of the land" at the end of the first sentence; and added the second sentence.

81-433. Formula for fixing annual rental. When used in this section: "Animal unit" means one cow, one horse, five sheep or five goats.

"Animal-unit-month carrying capacity" means that amount of natural feed necessary for the complete subsistence of one animal unit for a period of one (1) month.

The state board of land commissioners shall establish the per annum rental rate per section of all grazing lands which are the property of the state of Montana upon the animal-unit-month basis as hereinafter provided.

In fixing the minimum annual rental per section, the following formula shall be used:

The base rental shall be computed by multiplying thirty-two cents (32¢) plus two (2) times the average price per pound of beef cattle on the farm in Montana for the previous year times the animal-unit-month carrying capacity of the land.

(a) The minimum annual rental for grazing lands with an annual carrying capacity of more than fourteen (14) and less than twenty (20) animal units per section is the base rental.

(b) The minimum annual rental for grazing lands with an annual carrying capacity of more than nineteen (19) animal units per section is ten cents (10¢) more than the base rental.

(c) The minimum annual rental for grazing lands with an annual carrying capacity of less than fifteen (15) animal units per section is ten cents (10¢) less than the base rental.

The carrying capacity of the land, to be used in the above formula, shall be in accordance with the determinations of the commissioner of state lands and investments made pursuant to section 81-404, R.C.M. 1947.

The average price per pound of beef cattle on the farm in Montana shall be taken from statistics published by the bureau of agricultural economics of the United States department of agriculture current at the time of computation of the rental, or from other reliable sources current at such time.

81-701. (1805.52) The board may issue leases. Whenever there are found upon state lands to which the title is vested in the state, and which lands have not been sold by the state under certificate of purchase, or otherwise, deposits of stone, limestone, oil shale, clay, bentonite, calsite, talc, mica, ceramic, asbestos, marble, diatomite, gravel or sand, or phosphate, sodium, potash, sulphur, fluorite or barite, or any other nonmetallic minerals, but not including coal, oil or gas, valuable for building, mining or other commercial purposes, the state board of land commissioners may, in its discretion, issue to private persons permits or leases for the removal and disposition of such stone, limestone, oil shale, clay, bentonite, calsite, talc, mica, ceramic, asbestos, marble, diatomite, gravel, sand, phosphate or other said deposits; upon such terms and conditions as the board may determine; provided, however, that all such leases shall be upon a royalty basis calculated upon a gross value by weight or cubic measurement as is most favorable for the particular substance being mined or extracted from the lands, such gross value to be determined at the mine or site of operation, and the rates shall be the same that ordinarily would be charged by private owners under similar circumstances, or as in the determination of the board may be determined fair and reasonable, and the fee for issuing the lease shall be the same as for an oil and gas lease. No such lease shall be made for longer term than ten (10) years, and the board may demand a cash deposit to guarantee the payment of the royalties, or demand a surety bond, or both such cash deposit and bond, as the board may determine.

Compiler's Note

The compiler has inserted the bracketed words "such lands" in the fourth sentence.

Amendment

The 1961 amendment deleted from the end of the third sentence clauses reading, "except that where the oil and gas have not been reserved by the United States the purchaser of mortgage lands shall be entitled to receive a royalty of six and one-fourth per centum (6¼%) of all gas or oil produced from such mortgage lands, such royalty to be payable directly to him by the lessee either in gas or oil or in cash as the purchaser may desire and determine; provided, however, that the purchaser of the mortgaged land shall not have any right to lease such land or any part thereof for oil and gas exploration or production; the state shall have the sole power to lease the land for all mineral purposes"; deleted from the fourth sentence the words "such lands" which now appear in brackets; and deleted a second paragraph, for text of which see parent volume.

81-908. (1805.71) Who may purchase and how much. State lands shall be sold only to citizens of the United States or to persons who have declared their intentions to become citizens, or to corporations organized under the laws of this state. No person shall be qualified to purchase state land who has not reached the age of twenty-one (21) years. As far as possible to determine the lands shall be sold only to actual settlers or to persons who will improve the same, and not to persons who are likely to hold such lands for speculative purposes intending to resell the same at a higher price without having added anything to their value.

No person or corporation shall be entitled to purchase more than one section of state land, and this area shall not include more than one hundred and sixty (160) acres of land susceptible of irrigation. These limitations as to area and irrigableness shall not apply to lands within a federal irrigation project wherein the Congress of the United States of America now or hereafter authorizes water to be furnished to an area exceeding one hundred and sixty (160) irrigable acres.

State lands may be sold to any sovereign state of the United States or to any board of trustees or public corporation or agency of such state created by such state as an agency or political subdivision thereof. Said lands may be purchased in the quantities set forth in this section for use by such state, board of trustees, public corporation, agency, or political subdivision for educational or scientific purposes.

The title to any state lands which have been heretofore purchased by a sovereign state or a board of trustees or public corporation, agency or political subdivision thereof qualified under the provisions of this act is hereby ratified and confirmed.

The commissioner shall cause notice of every such sale to be given by publication in the official county paper of the county where the sale is to be held once each week through four consecutive weeks next preceding the date of sale. Such notice, shall give the day, date and time of day of the beginning of the sale; shall contain a list of all the tracts to be offered for sale showing the township and range in which they are located, describing the same with reference to section number and subdivision of the section, or with reference to block and lot if surveyed, the number of acres in unplatted lands and the appraised value per acre and also the appraised value of each lot. As a general rule nonirrigable farming lands shall be listed in quarter sections; grazing lands may be listed in larger tracts not exceeding one (1) section.

For the convenience of the bidders, the commissioner may assign the tracts advertised a consecutive series of sales numbers and show the sales number of each tract in the notice of sale.

The notice shall also give the terms and conditions of sale, and such additional information as the commissioner may deem useful.

relating to inclusion of mortgage lands, 1961.

81-912. (1805.75) Regulations concerning sale—forfeiture for non-payment—disposition of proceeds. At the time fixed for the sale, the lands shall be offered for sale at auction, in the order they appear in the notice of sale under the personal direction of the commissioner or the assistant commissioner, one of whom shall be present at the sale, and sold to the highest qualified bidder under the following restrictions: No lands shall be sold for less than the appraised value; tillable lands capable of producing agricultural crops shall not be sold for less than ten dollars ($10.00) per acre, and lands principally valuable for grazing purposes shall not be sold for less than five dollars ($5.00) per acre.

It is further provided that the lessee of the land need not make a higher bid than others, but shall if bidding an equal amount be given the preference. The lands shall be sold as nearly as practicable according to the subdivisions in which they are advertised, and care shall be taken not to subdivide any tract in such a way as to separate remaining portions from a water supply or from section lines or public highways. The sale may be adjourned from day to day until all the lands advertised have been offered for sale.

If any successful bidder at such sale refuses or neglects to make the initial payment required to be made on the land purchased by him, he shall forfeit to the state not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1000.00) to be determined by the state board of land commissioners according to the circumstances of the case. If such forfeiture is not paid when notice of the amount of the forfeiture has been served by the commissioner, the attorney general shall institute a suit for the recovery thereof in the name of the state of Montana.

The proceeds from the lands sold, including all subsequent payments on the principal, shall be credited to the permanent fund arising from the grant to which it belongs and shall become and forever remain an inseparable and inviolable part thereof. All payments on interest shall be credited to the proper income fund and shall be available for use as provided by law.

Records of converting factors, units of measure and the scale of logs shall be kept as a permanent public record showing the date of scale or measurement, the designation of the scale and the name of the scaler. Where the volume of timber involved is not in excess of one million (1,000,000) board feet log scale, the state forester is authorized to designate each tree to be cut and make a tree scale measurement of all trees to be sold.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment combined the former third and fourth sentences into the present third sentence by inserting the word "or" between them; inserted "converting factors, units of measure and" near the beginning of the present fourth sentence; and corrected an apparent typographical error originating in the Laws of 1925.

81-1410. (1830.10) Authority to receive moneys. The state treasurer is hereby authorized to receive moneys that may be appropriated or allotted for the purposes named in section 81-1409, by the state, counties, municipalities, the United States government or any department thereof, or other organization or individual.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 179, L. 1925; amd. Sec. 216, Ch. 147, L. 1963.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted a second sentence reading, "The state treasurer shall deposit such moneys in a special fund to be known as the forester's co-operative work fund, and the state auditor is hereby directed to draw his warrant or warrants for payments from said fund for the purposes aforesaid upon receipt of vouchers approved by the state forester."

CHAPTER 16—TIMBER SALES—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 81-1601. Sale of timber—fees for brush disposal and timber stand improvement.

81-1601. (1872) Sale of timber—fees for brush disposal and timber stand improvement. The state board of land commissioners shall have the power to sell timber on state lands, at such price per thousand feet as in its judgment shall be for the best interest of the state, but not otherwise; but no such sale of live timber shall be made at a less price than three dollars ($3.00) per thousand feet for white pine, yellow pine and spruce and at a less price than one dollar and a half ($1.50) per thousand feet for all other timber species. All timber sold or cut from state lands shall be cut and removed under such rules and regulations for the preservation of standing timber and the prevention of fires as the state board of land commissioners shall prescribe; in all cases the board must require the person cutting the timber to pile and burn or otherwise dispose of the brush and slashings in such manner as may be required. Before any sale shall be granted, the timber shall be estimated and appraised under the direction of the state forester, upon the request and subject to the approval of the state board of land commissioners, which estimates and appraisals shall show as nearly as may be the amount and values per thousand feet of all merchantable timber, together with a statement of the situation of the timber relative to risk from fires or damage of any kind, its distance from the nearest lake, stream or railroad, and its value and position as a protection to a watershed.

The state board of land commissioners may set fees for brush disposal on state lands. The board may also establish a fee for timber stand improvement on timber cut on state lands. Such fees shall be deposited in the earmarked revenue fund to the credit of the state forester.

CHAPTER 17—OIL AND GAS ON STATE LANDS—DISPOSAL OF

Section 81-1701. State oil and gas leases—reservations—royalty—waste.

81-1705. Reports of lessees.

81-1707. Rules and regulations—printing—distribution.

81-1709. Bond of lessees.

81-1701. (1882.1) State oil and gas leases—reservations—royalty—waste. The state board of land commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to lease in such manner as it may determine, not inconsistent with the enabling act and the constitution, any state lands to which the title has vested in the state and in which the oil and gas rights are not reserved by the United States, for prospecting and exploring for oil and gas, mining, drilling, developing and removing the same upon the terms and conditions herein prescribed, to any person, association, corporation, domestic or foreign, or municipality qualified under the constitution and the laws of the state of Montana. This power and authority to lease state lands for such purposes shall extend to and include all lands owned by the state under navigable lakes and streams, and shall also extend to and include all those state lands which have been sold but in which the oil and gas rights have been reserved by the state of Montana; but in such cases and in all cases where the lands are under lease for grazing, agriculture or similar purposes, care shall be taken in issuing the oil and gas leases to protect the rights of the purchaser or lessee.

In every oil and gas lease granted pursuant to the terms hereof there shall be reserved unto the state of Montana the right to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the surface of the lands covered thereby, subject always to the rights and privileges granted unto the lessee under such oil and gas lease.

Oil and gas leases issued under the provisions of this act shall all be subject to the conditions that the lessee in conducting his explorations and mining or drilling operations shall use all reasonable precautions to prevent waste of oil or gas developed in the land or the entrance of water through wells drilled by him to the oil or gas sands or oil or gas bearing strata to the destruction or injury of the oil or gas deposits. Violations of any of these conditions shall constitute grounds for the forfeiture of the lease after hearing had thereon before the state board of land commissioners.

Amendment

The 1961 amendment deleted the former third and fourth paragraphs which read, "In the case of mortgage lands sold by the state on or subsequent to March 14, 1935, or hereafter sold by it, in which the oil and gas rights belong to and are reserved by and for the state, when the state leases such lands for oil and gas purposes, the holder of such lands under certificate of purchase or other contract, or deed from the state, shall be allowed a royalty of six and one-quarter per centum ($6\frac{1}{4}\%$) of the oil and gas produced by such lands, as provided by section 81-902, to be calculated on the same basis as the royalty to be paid to the state as hereinafter provided, and to be paid by the lessee directly to the person or persons entitled thereto, said six and one-quarter per centum ($6\frac{1}{4}\%$) royalty to be deducted from the royalty reserved to the state.

"After the date of this act, all such certificate of purchase holders of mortgage lands shall be entitled to one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of all oil or gas lease rentals, bonus or penalty thereafter received by the state, and such one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the oil or gas lease rentals, bonus or penalty shall be credited to the certificate of purchase until such certificate of purchase is paid in full, and thereafter such one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the oil or gas rentals collected by the state board of land commissioners shall be paid to the owner."

Constitutionality

This section is not unconstitutional on the grounds that it does not obtain the full market value of the estate or interest disposed of as required by the constitution. State ex rel. Strandberg v. State Board of Land Commrs., 131 M 65, 307 P 2d 234. (Dissenting opinion, 131 M 65, 307 P 2d 234, 238.)

Royalty Rate

When oil lands are leased on a royalty basis and a cash bonus, the bonus constitutes rental for an estate or interest in the land and the legislature in leasing oil lands is under obligation to obtain the full market value of the estate or interest disposed of on a rental basis, as well as for the sale of the land itself. State ex rel. Strandberg v. State Board of Land Commrs., 131 M 65, 307 P 2d 234, 237. (Dissenting opinion, 131 M 65, 307 P 2d 234, 238.)

Where in the leasing of lands for oil and gas, there was a bid carrying a royalty of $16\frac{2}{3}\%$ with a bonus of \$39,040 and another bid carrying a royalty of $12\frac{1}{2}\%$ with a bonus of \$68,000, the board of land commissioners was not authorized to accept the bid carrying the royalty of $16\frac{2}{3}\%$ since the legislature has the responsibility of determining the method of arriving at the market value of leases, and by this section the legislature has determined that the royalty basis shall be $12\frac{1}{2}\%$. In the instant case it is impossible to determine whether the bid carrying the higher royalty but lesser bonus to be better than the bid carrying the $12\frac{1}{2}\%$ royalty but a higher bonus, in advance of drilling. State ex rel. Strandberg v. State Board of Land Commrs., 131 M 65, 307 P 2d 234, 236. (Dissenting opinion, 131 M 65, 307 P 2d 234, 238.)

The state controller shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. He shall be responsible to the governor and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. Said state controller (hereinafter referred to as the controller) shall be a qualified elector of Montana and shall be selected with special reference to his training, experience, ability, and knowledge of the principles and practices of public finance and governmental accounting.

he shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint a competent person to fill such office. Succeeding appointments shall be made on or before the last day of January during the biennial session of the legislative assembly next preceding the commencement of the term for which the appointment is made"; and substituted "public finance" for "public budgeting" near the end of the section.

(b) It shall be the duty of the controller to apply expenditures against cash funds wherever possible before using the general fund appropriations.

(c) The controller may, when authorized by the governor, require a quarterly allotment system of expenditure for any office, department, bureau, commission, institution or agency. The amount of the respective appropriation made by the legislative assembly shall then, except with respect to items of capital outlay and repairs and replacement, be made available to such office, department, bureau, commission, institution or agency in quarterly allotments, provided, however, that the quarterly allotment shall be based on the requirements of that office, department, bureau, commission, institution or agency during that quarter based on previous experience of that office, department, bureau, commission, institution and agency and not on a pro rata quarterly basis.

All authorizations for salary payments, operating expenditures, including all travel, or capital expenditures, including repairs and replacements, shall be given by the officer or governing board of the department concerned, and a record shall be kept by such officer or governing board of all such authorizations and expenditures. Claims for any such expenditures must be submitted to the state controller and must bear the signature of the authorizing officer or employee, certifying the following: "This claim is approved for the sum of $_____. It is mathematically and clerically correct, a proper and necessary expense, and a legal charge against appropriation or fund No. _____."

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 97, L. 1961.

Title of Act

An act to relieve the state board of examiners of the duty to approve liquidated claims and to provide for the pre-audit of such claims by the state controller after authorization of the expenditure by the officer or governing board of the department concerned; to amend the following sections to delete the requirement that the board of examiners process claims for expenditures: section 79-104, Revised Code of Montana, 1947, relating to the state auditor, section 79-202, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, relating to the state treasurer, sections 82-1101, 82-1105, and 82-1152, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, relating to the state board of examiners, sections 93-306 and 93-314, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, relating to district judges, sections 94-9825 and 94-9826, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, relating to the board of pardons, section 44-410, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, relating to the state law library, sections 44-514 and 44-515, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, relating to the historical society library, section 19-121, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, relating to the

If the volume of claims will not permit such audit of each claim, item (2) above may be accomplished on a spot-check basis. The pre-auditing conducted by the state controller shall be concerned only with the form and accuracy of the claim and supporting documents, and the availability of the funds, and in no event shall the state controller interpose his judgment regarding the wisdom or expediency of any item or items of expenditure. If no appropriation is available for the payment of a settled or liquidated claim, the controller shall audit it and, if it is a valid claim, transmit it to the governor through the office of director of the budget for presentation to the legislative assembly.

Any unliquidated or unsettled claims submitted to the state controller shall be transmitted to the state board of examiners to be processed as provided by law.

All changes in personnel or salary status shall be authorized as provided by law, and the state controller shall alter his schedule accordingly when notified by the authorizing agency. However, no changes in personnel or salary status shall be authorized that will cause a department to exceed its appropriation or that will result in a deficiency or supplemental appropriation request to the legislative assembly.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 97, L. 1961.

82-110. Duties of controller—to act with state auditor and state examiner—uniform accounting system—examinations. The director of the budget shall then transmit said budget to the governor who shall approve the same or shall modify or alter it so as to meet his approval and shall submit the budget as approved by him to the legislative assembly; when the legislative assembly is not in session and additional and unanticipated federal aid becomes available, requiring an amended and/or supplemental appropriation request, then any agency, department or institution receiving such federal aid shall submit said amended and/or supplemental administrative appropriation request through the director of the budget to the governor for his approval before submission to the appropriate federal agency.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, once by Ch. 147 and once by Ch. 271. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, however, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating the changes made by both.

Amendments

Chapter 147, Laws 1963, substituted "in the earmarked revenue fund" in the second sentence for "in a separate and special fund to be designated as the 'veterans' memorial fund'"; deleted "made against the fund, first presented to and approved by the state board of examiners" from the end of the next to last sentence; and substituted "such moneys" for "money" near the beginning of the last sentence.

Chapter 271, Laws 1963, substituted "for the purposes and expenses above specified and as prescribed in section 78-302" at the end of the second sentence for "for the purposes herein provided" and a sentence reading, "The moneys so received and held by the state treasurer in such special fund shall be used and devoted for the expenses above specified and the balance to be held and retained exclusively for the use of the veterans' memorial fund commission as prescribed in section 78-302"; and deleted from the end of the next to last sentence the words "first presented to and approved by the state board of examiners."

82-1505. Reinsurance. The state board is hereby authorized to use moneys from hail insurance levies for the purchase of such reinsurance whenever it appears to the board that such reinsurance is necessary and advisable.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 37, L. 1943; amd. Sec. 74, Ch. 147, L. 1963.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment, in the first sentence, substituted "state hail insurance board" for "state hail insurance fund" and, in the second sentence, substituted "hail insurance levies" for "hail insurance fund."

82-1507. (352) Scope and object of levy—reserve. (1) In making the levy provided in the preceding section the state board of hail insurance shall provide for:

1. The payment of all expenses of administration, together with all interest owed or to be owing on registered warrants.

2. For that portion of the losses incurred during the current year which are not paid from funds drawn from the reserve.

3. For the maintenance of the reserve, a part or all of which may be used in any one year for the purpose of paying the costs of administration, interest on the warrants and losses as the same shall be settled and adjusted by the said board including the losses sustained in any prior year or years under the state hail insurance law during or subsequent to the year 1919 that have not been paid.

4. If at the end of any hail insurance season the state board of hail insurance determines and finds that more funds are accumulating from the current year's levies than were estimated when the levy was made, and which funds are in excess of the need for the payment of losses and expenses and maintenance of the reserve, the state board of hail insurance may, at its discretion, refund to the farmers insured for the said year, on a pro rata or percentage basis the excess.

(2) Each year when the hail board makes its annual levy for the payment of current losses, expenses of administration, and for an addition to the reserve if conditions permit, it shall not increase the levy enough in any year so that such addition to the reserve will exceed five per cent (5%) of the maximum risk written for that year and provided further, that the reserve shall not exceed the amount of one million two hundred thousand dollars ($1,200,000.00).

(3) The reserve hereby created shall be deposited in the agency fund and the state board of hail insurance is hereby granted the power to draw from its moneys in said fund such amounts as it may deem necessary for the purpose of paying costs of administration, interest and losses, and provided further, that whenever there are no unpaid losses for prior years and whenever in any one (1) year the cost of administration, interest and losses for the current year shall be less than the sum of sixty cents (60¢) per acre on nonirrigated grains and a proportionate amount on irrigated grains and other crops, the state board of hail insurance shall not draw on the reserve for any purpose unless the amount required for the payment of losses for the current year, including interest on warrants and costs of administration shall exceed the amount of the estimate made by the state board of hail insurance.

Amendments

The 1963 amendment substituted "reserve" for "reserve fund" at the end of paragraph 2 of subsection (1), near the beginning of paragraph 3 of subsection (1), in paragraph 4 of subsection (1), two places in subsection (2), and in the latter part of subsection (3); deleted from paragraph 4 of subsection (1) second and third sentences reading, "A list containing the names, addresses, and other information that the said board determines necessary shall be presented for the approval of the state board of examiners of the state of Montana. The state auditor of the state of Montana is hereby authorized to draw and issue warrants for the payment of the same"; substituted "deposited in the agency fund" for "a continuous fund" near the beginning of subsection (3); and inserted "its moneys in" before "said fund" in subsection (3).

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 20, Laws 1957 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

82-1511. (355) State treasurer's duty—transfer of funds—warrants—transfers to county and state general fund. The state treasurer shall receive all moneys paid to him under this act and shall place same to the credit of the agency fund and may from time to time transfer to the earmarked revenue fund such sums as the state board may deem necessary and proper to pay the expenses of administration. All moneys collected by the board shall be deposited in the agency fund and all losses shall be paid from that fund. All other costs are administrative expenses and shall be paid from the board's account in the earmarked revenue fund. If registered warrants be presented and there be no money to pay the same, such warrants shall be registered and thereafter bear interest at the rate of four per cent (4%) per annum until called for payment by the state treasurer. If at any time more funds are in the earmarked revenue fund than the board estimates are needed for administrative expense, the state treasurer may on the order of the state board of hail insurance transfer such funds back to the agency fund as the state board may direct.

Upon warrants drawn by order of the state board of hail insurance the state treasurer shall pay out of the board's account in the agency fund to the county treasurer of each county where state hail insurance coverage is in force one per cent (1%) of the gross annual levies made and collected in such county under the hail insurance act for the use of the county as the board of county commissioners may determine.

Upon authorization from the state board of hail insurance the state treasurer shall transfer out of the board's account in the agency fund to the general fund of the state of Montana two per cent (2%) of the gross annual levies made and collected in the state of Montana.

Amendments

The 1961 amendment added the second and third paragraphs.

The 1963 amendment substituted "the agency fund" for "a fund to be known as the state hail insurance fund" or "the hail insurance fund" in the first sentence of the first paragraph and near the end of the first paragraph; substituted "the earmarked revenue fund" for "the hail insurance administrative fund" or "the administrative fund" in the first and last sentences of the first paragraph; deleted from the end of the first sentence of the first paragraph the words "together with such sums as may be needed to pay all the warrants registered against the hail insurance administrative fund, plus the accrued interest thereon, and shall pay out of such funds on warrants drawn by the state auditor by order of the state board of hail insurance"; inserted the second and third sentences in the first paragraph; substituted "registered warrants" for "such warrants" near the beginning of the present fourth sentence of the first paragraph; deleted "in the said funds" after "no money" in the present fourth sentence of the first paragraph; deleted from the first paragraph a former next to last sentence reading, "All interest and earnings obtained by the state treasurer for such moneys shall be credited to the respective funds"; substituted "administrative expense" in the last sentence of the first paragraph for "the purposes mentioned above"; deleted "by the state auditor" after "warrants drawn" near the beginning of the second paragraph; and substituted "the board's account in the agency fund" for "the hail insurance fund" or "the state hail insurance fund" in the second and third paragraphs.

82-1516. (360) Appointment of appraisers in case of dissatisfaction with official adjustment. (1) In case the party that has sustained the loss is dissatisfied with and refuses to accept the adjustment made by the official appraiser then he shall have the right to appeal to the state board of hail insurance, provided however, he shall make such appeal by registered mail within ten (10) days after receiving the adjustment offer of the state board in writing. Also it is further provided that the state board of hail insurance may require the posting of a cash bond of ten dollars

($10.00) with the request for re-appraisal of the first adjustment. In cases where the board requires the posting of the ten dollar ($10.00) bond, the board may retain it if no increase is allowed. If an increase is obtained, the board will return the bond to the claimant. In case the adjuster who makes the second appraisal fails to secure an agreement the claimant may at his option submit the matter to arbitration as herein provided or sue the state board of hail insurance in the district court of the county where the loss occurred. Such actions shall be trials de novo and the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply. If the claimant elects to submit the matter to arbitration he shall then appoint one disinterested person as appraiser, and the official appraiser shall appoint another person as appraiser, and the two shall select a third disinterested person and the three shall then proceed to adjust the loss in the same manner as specified in section 82-1515 and the judgment of the majority shall be the judgment of said appraisers and shall be binding upon both parties as the final determination of said loss; provided, however, that if the insured does not recover a greater sum than allowed by the official appraiser in the first instance, he shall pay the expenses of the said three appraisers and their witnesses in making said adjustment, but if he is awarded a larger sum then the same shall be paid by the state board of hail insurance.

(2) If the insured shall be required to pay the expenses of such re-appraisement as above provided, the state board of hail insurance is hereby authorized to deduct the amount of such expenses from the amount allowed said insured before making settlement for said loss.

Provided, also, that where any claimant demands arbitration he shall, if required by the board, furnish a cash bond to the state board of hail insurance in the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) which shall accompany his application. If there is not sufficient allowance made to any claimant after arbitration to cover the cost of arbitration without the use of the twenty-five dollars ($25.00) bond, then the state board may use a part or all of said cash bond. In cases where the claimant secures an increase the bond shall be promptly returned to the claimant.

(3) The state board of hail insurance shall examine all reports of appraisers and verify the same, and adjust all losses, and for such purposes may order hearings, subpoena witnesses and conduct examinations and do all things necessary to secure a fair and impartial appraisement of losses by hail.

82-1517. (361) Payment of losses. (1) The state board of hail insurance shall, as soon as practicable after the loss has been sustained, arrange for the payment of the losses as follows: From the amount of the loss as adjusted for each claimant the state board of hail insurance shall deduct the amount the claimant then owes as delinquent hail insurance tax and the maximum amount assessed as hail insurance tax for the current year, and shall make settlement within forty (40) days from the time loss is sustained in the following manner: By paying, either by registered warrant or otherwise if funds are immediately available, fifty per cent of the total loss as agreed on, less, however, the maximum rate of assessment; balance to be paid at the expiration of the hail season.

(2) The state board of hail insurance shall, on or before November first, order payment for the amount so deducted, which payment shall be remitted to the county treasurer of the county in which the tax was assessed. The state board of hail insurance shall then order payment for the balance of the adjustment which payment shall be sent to the claimant; provided, however, that in no case shall the payment for loss exceed twelve dollars ($12.00) per acre for grain crops on nonirrigated lands, and twenty-four dollars ($24.00) per acre on irrigated lands, and not to exceed twelve dollars ($12.00) per acre on hay crops; provided, further, that no claimant shall receive payment for any loss incurred where said loss does not equal or exceed five per cent (5%) of the total value of the crop insured. Also if the losses in any year should exceed the current levy plus the reserve, if any, then the payment of all losses shall be prorated share and share alike among all grain growers having loss claims adjusted and approved, and the unpaid balance of said losses shall be paid out of the reserve without interest in such order as the state board of hail insurance shall direct, when in the judgment of the said board there are sufficient moneys to provide for the payment of the same and other items payable out of said reserve. In any year the state board of hail insurance may by resolution authorize its chairman and secretary to borrow as needed from any person, bank or corporation such sum or sums of money as the state board may deem necessary to carry on the business of the department and for the purpose of paying all warrants as issued.

(3) For any moneys borrowed under the provisions of this act, the state board of hail insurance shall cause warrants to be drawn and said warrants shall bear interest at not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum and said warrants and the interest thereon shall be paid out of funds from the state hail insurance department as they are collected from the various counties in the state. The state board of hail insurance shall not at any time borrow a total sum greater than the amount of levies as made for taxes for the current year together with such delinquent taxes as remain unpaid on the books of the county treasurer.

first two sentences of subsection (2); substituted "reserve" for "reserve fund" or "funds" in three places in the third sentence of subsection (2); deleted "in said fund" before "sufficient moneys to provide" in the latter part of the third sentence of subsection (2); deleted "against the state hail insurance fund" after "cause warrants to be drawn" in the first sentence of subsection (3); and deleted from subsection (3) a final sentence reading, "The state board of examiners is hereby empowered to invest surplus money belonging to any fund in the warrants of the hail insurance fund."

82-1519. (363) Compensation of chairman and officers—financial report. It shall be the duty of all public officers to perform the duties relative to hail insurance under this act, without other compensation than that allowed by law. The chairman of the state board of hail insurance shall receive a salary not in excess of five hundred fifty dollars ($550.00) per month and all appointed officers and employees under this act shall be allowed the per diem and mileage allowed state employees. CHAPTER 3—CLASSIFICATION OF PROPERTY FOR TAXATION—BASIS FOR TAXATION

- Section 84-301. Classification of property for taxation.
- 84-302. Basis for imposition of taxes.
- 84-308. Basis for imposition of taxes on moneys and credits, moneyed capital and bank shares.

84-301. (1999) Classification of property for taxation. For the purpose of taxation the taxable property in the state shall be classified as follows:

Class One. The annual net proceeds of all mines and mining claims, after deducting only the expenses specified and allowed by section 84-5403; also where the right to enter upon land, to explore or prospect, or dig for oil, gas, coal or mineral is reserved in land by any person or corporation, the surface title to which has passed to another, the assessor and the state and county boards of equalization shall determine the value of the right to enter upon said tract of land for the purpose of digging, exploring, or prospecting for gas, oil, coal or minerals, and the same shall be placed in this classification for the purpose of taxation.

Class Two. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence; all agricultural and other tools, implements and machinery, gas and other engines and boilers, threshing machines and outfits used therewith, automobiles, motor trucks and other power-driven cars, vehicles of all kinds, boats and all water craft, harness, saddlery and robes.

Class Three. Livestock, poultry and the unprocessed products of both; stocks of merchandise of all sorts, together with furniture and fixtures used therewith; and all office or hotel furniture and fixtures.

Class Four. All land, town and city lots, with improvements, and all trailers affixed to land owned, leased, or under contract of purchase by the trailer owner, manufacturing and mining machinery, fixtures and supplies, except as otherwise provided by the constitution of Montana, and except as such property may be included in Class Five or Class Seven.

Class Five. (a) All moneys and credits, secured or unsecured, including all state, county, school district and other municipal bonds, warrants and securities, without any deduction or offset; provided, however, that the terms "moneys and credits" as herein used shall not embrace the moneyed capital employed in the banking business by any banking corporation or individual in this state.

(b) All poles, lines, transformers, transformer stations, meters, tools, improvements, machinery and other property used and owned by cooperative rural electrical and co-operative rural telephone associations organized under the laws of Montana.

(c) All unprocessed agricultural products either on the farm or in storage, irrespective of whether said products are owned by the elevator, warehouse or flour mill owner or company storing the same, or any other person whomsoever, and excepting livestock and poultry and the unprocessed products of both.

Class Six. Property formerly included in this class is now classified by section 84-308 of the Revised Codes of Montana, 1947.

Class Seven. All new industrial property. New industrial property shall mean any new industrial plant, including land, buildings, machinery and fixtures which, in the determination of the state board of equalization, is used by a new industry during the first three (3) years of operation not having been assessed prior to July 1, 1961 within the state of Montana. New industry shall mean any person, corporation, firm, partnership, association, or other group which establishes a new plant or plants in this state for the operation of a new industrial endeavor, as distinguished from a mere expansion, reorganization, or merger of an existing industry or industries. Provided, however, that new industrial property shall be limited to industries that manufacture, mill, mine, produce, process or fabricate materials, or do similar work in which capital and labor are employed and in which materials unserviceable in their natural state are extracted, processed or made fit for use or are substantially altered or treated so as to create commercial products or materials; and in no event shall the term new industrial property be included to mean property used by retail or wholesale merchants, commercial services of any type, agriculture, trades or professions. And provided further, that new industrial property shall not be included to mean property which is used or employed in any industrial plant which has been in operation in this state for three (3) years or longer. Any person, corporation, firm, partnership, association or other group seeking to qualify its property for inclusion in this class shall make application to the state board of equalization in such manner and form as may be required by said board.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1961, once by Ch. 103, Laws 1961, approved March 1, 1961, and once by Ch. 239, Laws 1961, approved March 14, 1961. Neither act referred to or contained the amendments made by the other. Chapter 103 contained an emergency clause and provided that it should be in effect upon approval, but Ch. 239 did not. The two amendments do not appear to conflict, and if they do not conflict, both would be in effect. The section set out above incorporates the changes made by both acts.

Amendments

The 1957 amendment in Class Five, subd. (b) inserted the words "and co-operative rural telephone" and deleted a former subd. (d) which read "Industrial property included in Class Four, for a period of three years after such property is first assessed. Industrial property for the purposes of this act shall not be construed to include agricultural or commercial property" and rewrote Class Six, see Class Six above.

Chapter 103, Laws 1961, inserted in the paragraph defining Class Four the words "and all trailers affixed to land owned, leased, or under contract of purchase by the trailer owner."

Chapter 239, Laws 1961, added the reference to Class Seven at the end of the paragraph defining Class Four; inserted a new paragraph defining Class Seven; and redesignated former Class Seven as Class Eight.

Purpose of Amendment

Section 1 of Ch. 239, Laws 1961, read as follows: "STATEMENT OF PURPOSE. The legislative assembly of the state of Montana hereby declares that it is in the best interests of the people of this state to encourage and stimulate the establishment of new industry within Montana. It recognizes that a new industrial plant does not reach full productivity and competitive capacity during the initial years of its operation. Since taxation of property should be related to property in proportion to its use, productivity, utility, and general setting in the economic organization of society, the purpose of this act is to provide a separate classification for new industrial property which gives proper recognition to these factors and places such property in the proper class for taxation purposes."

Repealing Clauses

Section 2 of Ch. 88, Laws 1957 and Sec. 3 of Ch. 103, Laws 1961 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Dates

Section 3 of Ch. 88, Laws 1957 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 4, 1957.

Section 2 of Ch. 103, Laws 1961 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 1, 1961.

Bank Shares and Capital

All bank shares and "moneyed capital," of banks are subject to the same classification. Yellowstone Bank v. State Board of Equalization, 137 M 198, 351 P 2d 904, 908.

Pipelines

Pipelines should be classified in class 7 (now Class 8) of this section. Yellowstone Pipe Line Co. v. State Board of Equalization, 138 M 603, 358 P 2d 55, 69, 71.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

1951 Amendment Unconstitutional

Chapter 178 of Laws 1951 is an unconstitutional exercise of the legislative function to classify property for taxation. Victor Chemical Works v. Silver Bow County, 130 M 308, 301 P 2d 730, 737. (Concurring and dissenting opinion, 130 M 308, 301 P 2d 730, 737.)

Chapter 178 of Laws 1951, by permitting the reclassification of some industrial property into Class 5 while similar property is in Class 4 thwarts the mandate of sections 1 and 11 of Art. XII of the Constitution and is invalid. Victor Chemical Works v. Silver Bow County, 130 M 308, 301 P 2d 730. (Concurring and dissenting opinion, 130 M 308, 301 P 2d 730, 737.)

84-302. (2000) Basis for imposition of taxes. As a basis for the imposition of taxes upon the different classes of property specified in the preceding section, a percentage of the true and full value of the property of each class shall be taken as follows:

- Class 1. One hundred per cent of its true and full value.
- Class 2. Twenty per cent of its true and full value.
- Class 3. Thirty-three and one-third per cent of its true and full value.
- Class 4. Thirty per cent of its true and full value.
- Class 5. Seven per cent of its true and full value.
- Class 6. Forty per cent of its true and full value.
- Class 7. Seven per cent of its true and full value.
- Class 8. Forty per cent of its true and full value.

Amendment

The 1961 amendment inserted a new provision for Class 7 and redesignated former Class 7 as Class 8. See note under sec. 84-301 as to amendment of that section by Ch. 239, Laws 1961.

Separability Clause

Section 5 of Ch. 239, Laws 1961 read

"If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held unconstitutional, the remainder of the act, or the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby."

Repealing Clause

Section 4 of Ch. 239, Laws 1961 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

84-308. (2000.6) Basis for imposition of taxes on moneys and credits, moneyed capital and bank shares. As a basis for the imposition of taxes upon the different classes of property herein specified, a percentage of the true and full value of each class shall be taken as follows:

Moneys and credits, seven per centum (7%) of true and full value.

Moneyed capital and shares of banks, both national and state, thirty per centum (30%) of true and full value on that portion of the true and full value not represented by surplus, as shown on the books of the bank;

seven per centum (7%) on that portion of the true and full value represented by surplus as shown on the books of the bank; provided that on that portion of any of such surplus which is over and above the amount represented by the stated capital of a bank, the excess shall be subject to thirty per centum (30%) of true and full value. The state board of equalization shall prepare, distribute and cause to be used such forms as it may require to obtain from the banks doing business in this state reports of such facts and figures as may be necessary to ascertain the taxable value of bank shares as a basis for the imposition of taxes.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 64, L. 1929; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 172, L. 1957.

Amendment

The 1957 amendment added all that portion of the third paragraph beginning with the words "on that portion of the true and full value and not represented by surplus * * *" to end of section.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 172, Laws 1957 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 172, Laws 1957 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 8, 1957.

Effect of Amendment

Laws 1957, Ch. 172, which amended this section does not result in remitting, releasing, or diminishing an "obligation or liability" held or owned by the state or city. Yellowstone Bank v. State Board of Equalization, 137 M 198, 351 P 2d 904, 908.

Parties to Action for Taxes

Where the banks of county paid their 1957 taxes in accordance with the taxable value determined under this section before amendment by Laws of 1957, Ch. 172, as a part of a compromise settlement, an action by the state on relation of the county was dismissed as moot where banks of county were not made parties to the action. State ex rel. Cascade County v. Ryan, 137 M 379, 351 P 2d 916, 918.

an increase in the assessed value of the property over the preceding year. Treasure State Pipe Line Co. v. County of Toole, 136 M 108, 345 P 2d 162.

84-406. (2002) When assessment to be made—credits must be assessed, how. vision (2) hereof to be assessed as of the first day of January; but no mistake in the name of the owner or supposed owner of real property renders the assessment thereof invalid. Credits must be assessed as provided in section 84-101, subdivision 6.

(2) The assessor must ascertain and assess all motor vehicles in his county subject to taxation as of January 1st in each year, and the same shall be assessed to the persons by whom owned or claimed, or in whose possession or control such vehicle was at twelve o'clock M. of the first day of January in each year.

Additional Levy for Classification and Appraisal

Chapter 226, Laws 1963, authorized additional tax levies for completion of the classification and appraisal program under certain condition. M. 1957, due to lack of funds, county commissioners may levy up to two mills (2) in the 1963-64 fiscal year to complete the program.

"Section 1. In any county where the board of county commissioners has failed to complete the classification and appraisal as was made its duty in section 84-429.7, R. C. M. 1957, and is unable to do so because of insufficient funds from the levies which were authorized for said purpose under section 84-429.8, R. C. M. 1957, the board of county commissioners in such county is hereby authorized to levy, and it shall be its duty to so impose a tax upon all property in the county subject to taxation an amount not to exceed two mills (2) in the fiscal year 1963-64, to carry out the provisions of the classification and appraisal program as expeditiously as possible.

Any unexpended balance at the end of any fiscal year shall remain in such fund and shall be available to carry out the provisions of the classification and appraisal program as was provided in section 84-429.7, R. C. M. 1957. All costs and expenses incurred by the board of county commissioners for such work, labor, services and supplies required under the classification and

C. M. 1947.

"Section 2. No moneys collected under the provisions of this act shall be used other than for the purposes as herein provided, and no moneys collected under the provisions of this act shall be diverted in any way to any other funds which may now exist or which may hereafter be created in the county treasurer's office, except that the legislature may modify or repeal the restrictions herein contained. The provisions of this section shall in no way prohibit the deposit of moneys collected under this act to the credit of a classification and appraisal fund already in existence.

"Section 3. Any county official who shall violate the provisions of section 2, as regards the diversion or use of funds shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be fined not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and in addition may be imprisoned in the state prison for a period not to exceed one year (1).

"Section 4. The provisions of this act shall in no way be construed to apply to those counties which have completed the classification of all taxable lands, the appraisal of all taxable city and town lots, and the appraisal of all taxable rural and urban improvements.

"Section 5. This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage and approval." Approved March 9, 1963.

Amendments

The 1957 amendment substituted "five (5) per centum" for "three (3) per centum" both times it appears in the first paragraph and raised the minimum tax from $5 to $10.

The 1959 amendment, in the first paragraph, substituted the phrase "such percentage or percentages of total net income received by such corporation in the preceding fiscal year from all sources within the state of Montana as hereinafter set forth" each time it appears for the phrases "five (5) per centum upon the total net income received by such corporation in the preceding fiscal year from all sources within the state of Montana, including interest on bonds, notes or other interest bearing obligations of residents, corporate or otherwise, and including the income derived from dividends on capital stock or from net earnings of resident corporations whose net income is taxable under this title" and "five (5) per centum upon the total net income received by such corporation in the preceding fiscal year from all sources within the state of Montana, including the interest on bonds, notes or other interest bearing obligations of residents, corporate or otherwise, and including the income derived from dividends on capital stock, or from net earnings of resident corporations, joint stock companies or associations whose net income is taxable under this title." The amendment also added what is now the second paragraph with the exception of the last sentence in that paragraph.

The 1961 amendment redesignated with letters subdivisions which had been designated First, Second, etc.; deleted from the exemption paragraph two subdivisions which read "Second. Mutual savings bank not having a capital stock represented by shares;" and "Fourth. Domestic building and loan associations or cooperative bank without capital stock, organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit;"; and substituted subd. (i) for a subdivision which read:

"Eleventh. Labor, agricultural or horticultural cooperatives organized and operated on a cooperative basis; (a) for the purpose of marketing the products of members or other producers, and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary marketing expenses, on the basis of either the quantity or the value of the products furnished by them, or (b) for the purpose of purchasing supplies and equipment for the use of members or other persons, and turning over such supplies and equipment to them at actual cost, plus necessary expenses. Exemption shall not be denied any such association because it has capital stock, if the dividend rate of such stock is fixed at not to exceed the legal rate of interest in the state of incorporation or 6 per centum per annum, whichever is greater on the value of the consideration for which the stock was issued, and if substantially all such stock (other than nonvoting preferred stock, the owners of which are not entitled or permitted to participate, directly or indirectly, in the profits of the association, upon dissolution or otherwise, beyond the fixed dividends) is owned by producers who market their products or purchase their supplies and equipment through the association; nor shall exemption be denied any such association because there is accumulated and maintained by it a reserve required by state law or a reasonable reserve for any necessary purpose. Such an association may market the products of nonmembers in an amount the value of which does not exceed the value of the products marketed for members, and may purchase supplies and equipment for nonmembers in an amount the value of which does not exceed the value of the supplies and equipment purchased for members, provided the value of the purchases made for persons who are neither members nor producers does not exceed 15 per centum of the value of all its purchases. Business done with the United States, state of Montana or its political subdivisions shall be exempt under this act. Any cooperative association or corporation engaged in the business of operating a rural electrification system or systems for the transmission or distribution of electricity on a cooperative basis."

Separability Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 264, Laws 1959 read "If any portion, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remainder of the act."

Repealing Clauses

Section 3 of Ch. 232, Laws 1957, Sec. 4 of Ch. 264, Laws 1959 and Sec. 3 of Ch. 155, Laws 1961 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Dates

Section 2 of Ch. 232, Laws 1957 read "This act shall be effective as to all taxable periods ending on or after December 31, 1957, whether on the calendar or fiscal year basis."

Section 3 of Ch. 264, Laws 1959 read "This act shall be effective as to all taxable periods ending on or after December 31, 1958, whether on the calendar or fiscal year basis."

Section 2 of Ch. 155, Laws 1961 read "This act shall be in full force and effect as to all taxable periods ending after December 31, 1960, whether on a calendar or fiscal year basis."

Building and Loan Associations

Dividends paid by building and loan associations are deductible from gross income in determining corporation license taxes. Home Bldg. & Loan Assn. of Helena v. Fulton, — M —, 375 P.2d 312, 314.

Church Society Engaged in Agriculture

A corporation described as an international church society which devotes itself to farming, stock growing, and all other branches of agriculture, in which members live communal lives in colonies, which is devoted exclusively to agricultural pursuits for the livelihood of its members, and in which income is used to provide for the needs of its members and for the acquisition of additional property, is not exempt from the corporation license tax on the basis of the exemption granted to corporations organized exclusively for religious purposes or the exemption to corporations exclusively organized for holding title to and collecting income from property, or under the exemption granted to labor, agricultural or horticultural organizations. State v. King Colony Ranch, 137 M 145, 350 P 2d 841.

Construction

There is no conflict between this section and section 7-122 and 7-159, since they deal with separate and distinct taxes. Home Bldg. & Loan Assn. of Helena v. Fulton, — M —, 375 P 2d 312, 313.

Cooperative Corporations

Cooperative corporations doing business in Montana and subject to corporation license tax may exclude or deduct from gross income any amounts paid as patronage dividends. Fulton v. Farmers Union Grain Terminal Assn., — M —, 374 P 2d 231, 237.

Interest on United States Obligations

Interest on the obligations of the United States must be included in computing the corporate license tax since the United States is a "resident" within the meaning of the provision fixing the tax at a percentage of the net income received "from all sources within the state." Montana Bank v. Casey, 135 M 104, 337 P 2d 935.

An election under subsection (a) made by a small business corporation may be revoked by it for any taxable year of the corporation after the first taxable year for which the election is effective. 1. All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in the maintenance and operation of its business and properties, including reasonable allowance for salaries for personal services actually rendered, subject to the limitation hereinafter contained, rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession of property to which the corporation has not taken or is not taking title, or in which it has no equity. 4. The amount of interest paid within the year on its indebtedness incurred in the operation of the business from which its income is derived; but no interest shall be allowed as a deduction if paid on an indebtedness created for the purchase, maintenance or improvement of property or for the conduct of business unless the income from such property or business would be taxable under this act.

(2) Every corporation, subject to the license fee herein imposed, shall for each year hereafter, for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December, or for its fiscal year selected under the provisions hereof, render a true and accurate return of its annual net income in the manner and form to be prescribed by the state board of equalization, and containing such facts, data and information as are appropriate and in the opinion of the state board of equalization necessary to determine the correctness of the net income returned and to carry out the provisions of this act. The return shall be signed by the president, vice-president, or other principal officer, and by the treasurer, assistant treasurer, or chief accounting officer. If the corporation is reporting on a calendar year basis the return shall be filed with the state board of equalization on or before the fifteenth day of May in each year, and if reporting on a fiscal year basis the return shall be filed with said board on or before the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the close of its fiscal year. Upon application a corporation shall be allowed an automatic extension of time for filing its return to the fifteenth day of the third month following the date prescribed for filing of its tax return. The application is to be made on such forms as the board of equalization shall prescribe. The board of equalization may grant an additional extension of time for the filing of a return whenever in its judgment good cause exists. The term gross income means the income from all sources within the state of Montana recognized in the determination of the corporation's federal income tax liability; but shall include interest exempt from federal income tax. The term "net income" means the gross income of the corporation less the allowable deductions. However, the definitions of gross income and net income set forth in this section shall not be construed as allowing the deductions set forth in section 243 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code as now written, or as that section shall be labeled or amended. The term "fiscal year" means an accounting period of twelve (12) months ending on the last day of any month other than December.

84-1505. (2300) Assessment and collection of tax. (1) Assessment and payment of tax, penalty and interest. All taxpayers shall compute the amount of tax payable under this act and shall remit such amount to the state board of equalization on or before the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the close of the taxable period. If the tax is not paid on or before the due date, there shall be assessed a penalty of ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the tax, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not due to neglect. If any tax due under this chapter is not paid when due, by reason of extension granted, or otherwise, interest shall be added thereto at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the due date until paid.

(2) Levy upon and sale of property for payment of corporation license taxes. If any tax imposed by this act or any portion of such tax is not paid within sixty (60) days after the same becomes due, the board shall issue a warrant under its official seal directed to the sheriff of any county of the state commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the corporation owning the same, found within his county, for the payment of the amount thereof, with the added penalties, interest and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the board and pay to it the money collected by virtue thereof by a time to be therein specified, not more than sixty (60) days from the date of the warrant. The said sheriff shall thereupon proceed upon the same in all respects, with like effect, and in the same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant, to be collected in the same manner. In the discretion of the board a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to any agent authorized to collect income taxes, and in the execution thereof, such agent shall have the powers conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in excess of actual expenses paid in the performance of such duty. If a warrant be returned not satisfied in full, the board shall have the same remedies to enforce the claim for taxes against the taxpayer as if the people of the state had recovered judgment against the taxpayer for the amount of the tax.

(3) Action by attorney general. Action may be brought at any time by the attorney general of the state at the instance of the board, in the name of the state to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties and interest due under this act.

Section 2 of Ch. 102, Laws 1961 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 1, 1961.

Limitation on Action of Board

Under this section, the board of equalization is limited to going back no more than five years to recover corporation license taxes alleged to be due. State v. King Colony Ranch, 137 M 145, 350 P 2d 841.

84-1508. (2303) Regulations—attendance of witnesses—arbitrary assignment of net income. The state board of equalization shall have power to prescribe forms for the returns and notices and such other regulations as may from time to time be found necessary for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the district court of the first judicial district of the state of Montana, in and for the county of Lewis and Clark, to compel attendance of witnesses to testify before the state board of equalization, together with the production of books and such other testimony by appropriate process. When the state board of equalization has reason to believe that the business of any corporation is so conducted as either directly or indirectly to distort the true net income of the corporation and the net income properly attributable to this state, whether by the arbitrary shifting of income through price fixing, charges for service, or otherwise, whereby the net income is arbitrarily assigned to one or another corporation carrying on business under a substantially common control, it may require the disclosure of such facts as it deems necessary for the proper computation of the entire net income and the net income properly attributable to this state, and in determining the same, the board shall have regard to the fair profits which would normally arise from the conduct of the business.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 79, L. 1917; 4, Ch. 146, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 166, re-en. Sec. 2303, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. L. 1933; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 186, L. 1963.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted sentences reading, "If the state board of equalization has reason to believe that the amount of any income return is understated, it shall give notice in writing of not less than five (5) days to the corporation making the return to show cause why the amount of the return should not be increased, and upon proof of the amount understated may increase the same accordingly. Such corporations may furnish sworn testimony to prove any relevant fact bearing upon said return" and "Upon the determination by the state board of equalization of the amount of tax due from any and all corporations under the provisions of this act, the state board of equalization shall mail a notice of the amount of taxes thus determined to be due to the corporation making such return. Such corporation shall thereupon remit the amount of such tax to the state treasurer."

Effective Date

Section 6 of Ch. 186, Laws 1963 read "This act shall be in effect for taxable years ending on or after June 30, 1963."

Regulations of Board

Since the board of equalization has power, under this section, to prescribe regulations for enforcement of the chapter, a writ of prohibition issued by a district court is improper as a means of reviewing the regulations on the merits. State ex rel. Fulton v. District Court, 139 M 573, 366 P 2d 435, 437.

84-1508.1. Determination of tax liability—interest on deficiencies and overpayments. (a) Deficiency assessments. If, the state board of equalization determines that the amount of tax due is greater than the amount disclosed by the return, it shall mail to the taxpayer a notice of the additional tax proposed to be assessed. Within thirty (30) days after the mailing of the notice, the taxpayer may file with the state board of equalization a written protest against the proposed additional tax, setting forth the grounds upon which the protest is based, and may request in its protest an oral hearing or an opportunity to present additional evidence relating to its tax liability. If no protest is filed, the amount of the additional tax proposed to be assessed becomes final upon the expiration of the thirty (30) day period. If such protest is filed, the state board of equalization shall reconsider the proposed assessment, and if the taxpayer has so requested, shall grant the taxpayer an oral hearing. After consideration of the protest and the evidence presented in the event of an oral hearing, the state board of equalization's action upon the protest is final when it mails notice of its action to the taxpayer.

When a deficiency is determined and the tax becomes final, the state board of equalization shall mail notice and demand to the taxpayer for the payment thereof, and the tax shall be due and payable at the expiration of ten (10) days from the date of such notice and demand. Interest on any deficiency assessment shall bear interest from the date specified in section 84-1505 for payment of the tax. A certificate by the state board of equalization of the mailing of the notices specified in this subsection shall be prima facie evidence of the computation and levy of the deficiency in tax and of the giving of the notices.

(b) Overpayment of tax—refunds and credits. If the state board of equalization determines that the amount of tax, penalty or interest due for any year is less than the amount paid, the amount of the overpayment shall be credited against any tax, penalty or interest then due from the taxpayer and the balance refunded to the taxpayer or its successor through reorganization, merger or consolidation, or to its shareholders upon dissolution.

If the state board of equalization disallows any claim for refund, it shall notify the taxpayer accordingly. At the expiration of thirty (30) days from the mailing of the notice, the state board of equalization's action shall become final, unless within the said thirty (30) day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of said board. If such appeal is made, the state board of equalization shall reconsider its action, and if the taxpayer has so requested, shall grant the taxpayer an oral hearing. After consideration of the appeal and evidence presented in the event of an oral hearing, the state board of equalization shall forthwith mail notice to the taxpayer of its determination. The board's determination is final when it mails notice of its action to the taxpayer.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided for, interest shall be allowed on overpayments at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the due date of the return or from the date of overpayment (whichever date is later) to the date the board of equalization approves refunding or crediting of the overpayment. Interest shall not accrue during any period the processing of a claim for refund is delayed more than thirty (30) days by reason of failure of the taxpayer to furnish information requested by the state board of equalization for the purpose of verifying the amount of the overpayment. No interest shall be allowed (1) if the overpayment is refunded within six (6) months from the date the return is due or from the date the return is filed, whichever is later; or (2) if the amount of interest is less than one dollar ($1.00).

A payment not made incident to a bona fide and orderly discharge of an actual corporation license tax liability or one reasonably assumed to be imposed by this law, shall not be considered an overpayment with respect to which interest is allowable.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 186, L. 1963.

Title of Act

An act relating to the corporation license; providing for the determination of corporation license tax liability on deficiencies and overpayments; providing for periods of limitation—waiver; amending section 84-1504, R. C. M. 1947, to provide for an automatic extension; amending section 84-1505, R. C. M. 1947, to provide for computation of tax and return by the taxpayer by the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the close of the taxable period; providing for a ten per cent (10%) penalty; providing six per cent (6%) per annum interest rate; amending section 84-1508, R. C. M. 1947, to delete the procedure for handling tax understatements.

84-1508.2. Periods of limitation—waiver. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 84-1513, no deficiency shall be assessed or collected with respect to the year for which a return is filed unless the notice of additional tax proposed to be assessed is mailed within five (5) years from the date the return was filed. For the purposes of this section a return filed before the last day prescribed for filing shall be considered as filed on that day. Where before the expiration of the period prescribed for assessment of the tax, the taxpayer consents in writing to an assessment after the time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon.

(2) No refund or credit shall be allowed or paid with respect to the year for which a return is filed after five (5) years from the last day prescribed for filing the return or after one (1) year from the date of the overpayment, whichever period expires the later, unless before the expiration of such period the taxpayer files a claim therefor or the state board of equalization has determined the existence of the overpayment and has approved the refund or credit thereof. If the taxpayer has agreed in writing under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section to extend the time within which the state board of equalization may propose an additional assessment, the period within which a claim for refund or credit may be filed, or a credit or refund allowed in the event no claim is filed, shall automatically be so extended.

84-1511. (2303.3) Return and payment of tax by corporations on dissolution or cessation of business—declaration of policy. (1) It is hereby declared that the policy of the state of Montana, both at the time of the enactment of the corporation license tax law and at all times since, has been and still is that every corporation doing business in Montana shall pay an excise tax for the exercise of such privilege and that the amount of such tax shall be based upon the total taxable net income of such corporations during the entire period of time they are engaged in business in this state. No remission of that obligation for the last year in which a corporation engages in business in Montana was intended by the original enactment of this section.

(2) Therefore, every corporation which shall be dissolved or cease to do business in Montana at any time during any year, shall, before such dissolution or cessation of business, make a return and pay the corporation license tax determined on the basis of its net income for the final period in which it did business in this state at the rate provided in section 84-1501, in addition to all other corporation license taxes for which such corporation may then be liable.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "the corporation license tax determined on the basis of its net income for the final period in which it did business in this state at the rate provided in section 84-1501" in subsection (2) for "a corporation license tax in the amount of three per cent (3%) of its total taxable net income (as such income is defined by section 84-1501) during the last year in which it did business in this state"; and deleted from the end of subsection two sentences which read: "Such payment shall be deemed an accelerated payment of an additional tax for the last year in which such corporation did business in Montana, based on its net income up to the time of its dissolution or cessation of business, and which said income had not theretofore been used in measuring the license tax liability of such corporation. The state board of equalization may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing said return, upon good cause being shown."

84-1513. (2303.5) Action in case of false or fraudulent returns.

Limitation on Action of Board

Under section 84-1505, the board of equalization is limited to going back no more than five years to recover corporation license taxes alleged to be due. State v. King Colony Ranch, 137 M 145, 350 P 2d 841.

84-1515. (2303.7) Reviver of corporation after suspension or forfeiture. Any corporation which has suffered the suspension or forfeiture referred to in the preceding section may be relieved therefrom upon making application therefor in writing supported by a certificate from the state board of equalization showing that the required return has been made and filed and/or that the tax and interest and penalties have been paid, for which the suspension or forfeiture occurred. Application for reviver may be made by any stockholder or creditor of the corporation or by a majority of the surviving trustees or directors, and the same shall be filed with the secretary of state, for which he shall receive a filing and recording fee of five dollars ($5.00). In case the application is made in any taxable year other than the taxable year in which the suspension or forfeiture occurred the applicant shall pay twice the amount of the tax and penalties due the state for the taxable year in which the suspension or forfeiture occurred, and upon such payment the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of reviver for which he shall collect a fee of five dollars ($5.00) and thereupon the applicant shall be revived. The reviver shall be without prejudice to any action, defense or right which has accrued by reason of the original suspension or forfeiture. The certificate of reviver shall be prima facie evidence of the reviver. Any certificate of reviver provided for in this section may be recorded in the office of the county recorder in any county of this state.

Amendment

The 1961 amendment at the end of the second sentence inserted the words "for which he shall receive a filing and recording fee of five dollars ($5.00)" and near the end of the third sentence inserted "for which he shall collect a fee of five dollars ($5.00)."

(1) Each dealer shall, not later than the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each calendar month after this act has become effective, render a true statement to the state board of equalization, duly signed, of all gasoline handled by him in this state during the preceding calendar month, and containing such other information as the state board of equalization may require, and shall accompany such statement with the payment to the state board of equalization of license tax, in an amount equal to the lawful tax per gallon imposed by Section 1, of Chapter 230, the Laws of 1957, and acts amendatory, or such other lawful tax as may be imposed by law for each gallon of gasoline so handled, and upon which such license tax was not paid by any other dealer in this state, for engaging in and carrying on such business in this state. In making the computation of license tax due and in making payment thereof, two per centum (2%) of the amount of such tax shall be deducted by the dealer as an allowance for evaporation and other loss of gasoline handled by such dealer. The dealer may also deduct for each gallon of gasoline sold by him to any county, incorporated city or town, or school district of this state and for which he submits a valid gasoline tax exemption certificate, an amount equal to the tax per gallon. In addition a dealer may deduct for each gallon of aviation gasoline sold by him and for which he submits a valid aviation gasoline tax exemption certificate, an amount equal to the tax per gallon except the portion thereof allocated to the state aeronautics commission by section 1-501.

The board may require the payment of a fee not to exceed five dollars ($5.00) for each permit issued, and may provide that such permit shall be valid for a period not exceeding five (5) years. No permit shall be transferable. The permit shall be subject to revocation at any time by the board for any violation of law relating thereto and any false statement made by the holder in connection therewith.

So long as any governmental permit remains unrevoked, the holder thereof shall have the privilege to purchase gasoline from any seller without the payment of any part of the license tax, imposed by Section 1, Chapter 230, Laws of 1957, or any acts amendatory thereof, upon surrendering to the seller a governmental gasoline tax exemption certificate certifying that the gasoline is purchased for use directly by the governmental subdivision and not for resale. Any seller who sells gasoline either directly to the holder of such a permit and who receives a valid certificate directly from the permit holder covering the sale, or who sells to another seller who surrenders valid certificates held by him covering prior sales, shall be under no liability or obligation to collect or pay the tax on the number of gallons covered by such certificates.

All of the subdivisions of the state of Montana mentioned herein shall be subject to all the conditions, rules and regulations applicable to individuals, and as such subdivisions, can act only by their officer and agents in making application for permits and in issuing governmental gasoline tax exemption certificates, and they shall be responsible for and bound by the acts and declarations of such officers and agents.

(3) Any dealer at an established airport, who purchases aviation gasoline for resale directly to consumers using such gasoline in aircraft, or any consumer who purchases such gasoline in lots of not less than fifty (50) gallons for use in aircraft and not for resale and who purchases from a dealer other than at an established airport, may apply to the state board of equalization for a permit to issue aviation gasoline tax exemption certificates. The application for a permit, the permit itself, and any exemption certificates issued pursuant thereto shall all be in such form and shall contain such information as the board may from time to time require. The board may require the payment of a fee of not to exceed $5.00 for each permit issued and may provide that said permits shall be valid for a period not exceeding five years. No permit shall be transferable. The permit shall be subject to revocation at any time by the board for any violation of law relating thereto or any false statement made by the holder in connection therewith.

So long as his permit remains unrevoked, the holder thereof shall have the privilege to purchase aviation gasoline from any dealer without the payment of any part of the license tax, imposed by this section, except the part allocated to the state aeronautics commission, upon surrendering to the seller an aviation gasoline tax exemption certificate certifying, if the holder is a dealer at an established airport, that the gasoline purchased will be resold only to consumers for use directly in aircraft, and if the holder is a consumer purchasing from a dealer other than at an established airport and the purchase is fifty (50) gallons or more, that the gasoline is purchased for use directly in aircraft and not for resale; and any dealer who sells aviation gasoline either directly to the holder of such a permit and who receives a valid certificate directly from the permit holder covering that sale, or who sells to another dealer who surrenders valid certificates held by him covering prior sales, shall be under no liability or obligation to collect or pay the tax, on the number of gallons covered by such certificates, except the portion thereof allocated to the state aeronautics commission; but notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, no tax exemption certificate shall be valid for any purpose nor entitle any dealer to the deduction authorized in subsection (1) of this section unless submitted to the board prior to the end of the second calendar month immediately succeeding the month in which the sale was made with respect to which such certificate issued.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended three times in 1963, once by Ch. 64, once by Ch. 70, and once by Ch. 147. None of the amendatory acts mentioned nor included the changes made by either of the others. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, however, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating all three amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 64, Laws 1963 substituted the reference in subsection (1) to section 1, Chapter 230, Laws of 1957 for a reference to section 10, Chapter 39, Laws of 1945; inserted the third sentence in subsection (1); inserted a new subsection (2); and redesignated former subsection (2) as (3).

Chapter 70, Laws 1963, deleted the words "and sworn to" which followed "duly signed" near the beginning of subsection (1); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

If such books, papers, records and equipment are not maintained in this state at the time of demand they shall be furnished to the board for review or such dealer shall bear the reasonable cost of examination by an agent authorized or designated by the board at the place where such books or records are kept, provided the taxpayer shall not be liable for such costs for a period exceeding one (1) week or for such longer period as he may consent to in writing, unless the result of such examination is the payment of a tax deficiency.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 70, L. 1963.

Compiler's Note

The title to Chapter 70, Laws of 1963, indicates that this section is intended to apply to Chapter 18 of Title 84, R. C. M. 1947. However, the body of the act does not specifically so indicate. The title to Chapter 70, Laws of 1963, read as follows:

"An act providing that under Chapter 18 of Title 84, R. C. M. 1947, the date of mailing is deemed the date of filing of reports, notices, payments or claims for refunds; providing that the state board of equalization establish rules and regulations and authorizing the state board of equalization to examine records of gasoline dealers."

84-1805.1. Records maintained by local governmental agencies issuing exemption certificates. Each county, incorporated city or town, or school district of this state which is the holder of a permit to issue governmental gasoline tax exemption certificates, shall keep a record in such form as the state board of equalization shall require, showing the total number of gallons of gasoline purchased by the permit holder and such other information as the state board of equalization may require.

84-1807. (2381.17) Procedure in case of failure to file statement or pay tax—lien of tax. If any dealer or other person subject to the payment of such license tax shall fail, neglect, or refuse to make any statement required by this act, or shall fail to make payment of such license tax within the time herein provided, the state board of equalization shall, immediately after such time has expired, proceed to inform itself as best it may regarding the matters and things required to be set forth in such statement and from such information as it may be able to obtain, to make a statement showing such matters and things and determine and fix the amount of the license tax due the state from such delinquent dealer and shall add thereto a penalty of five per cent (5%) thereof for the first failure, neglect or refusal; ten per cent (10%) for the second; fifteen per cent (15%) for the third; and twenty-five per cent (25%) for the fourth, and each subsequent failure, neglect and refusal, which shall be in addition to the ten per cent (10%) penalty hereinbefore provided for non-payment of such license tax within the time herein provided. Said license tax and the penalties added thereto shall bear interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month from the date such statements should have been made and said license tax paid. The state treasurer of the state of Montana shall then proceed to collect such license tax with penalties and interest. Upon the request of the state treasurer it shall be the duty of the attorney general to commence and prosecute to final determination in any court of competent jurisdiction an action to collect such license tax. All license taxes due from any dealer under the provisions of this act, together with all penalties and interest thereon, shall be a lien upon any and all property of such dealer or other person upon the filing by the state board of equalization of a duplicate copy of the statement so made by the state board of equalization, or a certified copy of any statement filed with said board in the office of the county clerk of the county where such property is situated which lien shall have precedence over any other claim, lien or demand thereafter filed or recorded and which may be enforced in the name of the state of Montana in the same manner as judgment liens are enforced by law. No action shall be maintained to enjoin the collection of such license tax or any part thereof. When the amount due the state is paid in full and before the entry of foreclosure decree, the state treasurer shall release the said lien by filing in the office of the county clerk wherein is filed the said lien, a written release thereof. At any time prior to the payment of said taxes, penalty and interest, before the entry of foreclosure decree, the state treasurer may release from the operation of said lien a part of said property to enable the dealer to mortgage, sell or otherwise dispose of the same in order to procure funds with which to pay said taxes, penalty and interest, provided there remains in the judgment of the state treasurer, sufficient property subject to said lien to insure the payment of the whole of said unpaid taxes, penalty and interest.

Provided further that the expenditure for dissemination of public information shall not exceed an annual expenditure of one hundred and twenty-six thousand five hundred dollars ($126,500.00). Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, once by Ch. 126 and once by Ch. 223. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Because there is possible conflict between the two amendments, the compiler has set out both in full. The text above is section 84-1812(1) as amended by Ch. 126, Laws 1963. The section, as amended by Ch. 223, is set out as 84-1812(2) herein.

Amendments

The 1957 amendment deleted from the third paragraph a proviso which read "Provided further that the expenditure for dissemination of public information shall not exceed three and one-half per cent (3½%) not to exceed an annual expenditure of sixty-five thousand dollars ($65,000.00) of the above mentioned administrative fund; provided, however, that said expenditures for the dissemination of public information shall terminate June 30, 1955" and substituted as the second proviso to the third paragraph the following: "Provided further that the expenditure for dissemination of public information shall not exceed an annual expenditure of eighty-five thousand dollars ($85,000.00)."

At the close of each fiscal year, the state treasurer shall transfer all money remaining unexpended in said gasoline license tax drawback fund to the state highway fund. In the event, however, the money in said gasoline license tax drawback fund is in-

84-1817. (2396.3) Distribution of state highway construction funds.

(1) Allotment of state construction funds for federal aid highway systems. At the start of the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1957, and at the beginning of each fiscal year thereafter, the state highway commission shall allot available state construction moneys to the federal aid interstate highway system, the federal aid primary highway system, the federal aid secondary highway system and the federal aid urban highway system in proportion to the amounts necessary to match the respective amounts of federal aid available for expenditure on these systems at the beginning of each fiscal year.

(2) Apportionment of state construction moneys to the federal aid primary highway system. At the start of the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1953, and at the beginning of each fiscal year thereafter, the state highway commission shall compute from its records the percentage of incompleting mileage of the federal aid primary highway system within each of said districts which each district respectively bears to the total incompleting mileage of said federal aid primary highway system within this state at that time, and the actual respective percentages of incompleting mileage in each district as so computed and determined at the beginning of each fiscal year shall be used in apportioning construction moneys for that year to each of the said financial districts from the state highway fund as defined and provided by section 84-1816. As a basis for the determination of the amount of incompleting mileage of said federal aid primary highway system in this state for each fiscal year, the state highway commission shall adopt as the criterion the current definition, as prescribed by the bureau of public roads, for a fully and adequately completed federal highway in this state. This criterion shall be considered as a one hundred per cent (100%) completed federal highway; and federal highway mileage which is only partially completed under the application of this criterion, shall be considered as only partially completed on a percentage basis, this to be determined from the relative estimated percentage costs of construction already performed and of additional construction which must be performed to bring said mileage up to the standard of said criterion.

(3) Apportionment of state construction moneys to the federal aid secondary highway system. At the start of the fiscal year beginning July

1, 1953, and at the beginning of each fiscal year thereafter, state construction moneys for the federal aid secondary highway system shall be apportioned to each of the financial districts as defined in section 84-1815, on a percentage basis as determined in the following manner: One-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) in the ratio of land area in each financial district to the total land area in the state; one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) in the ratio of the rural population in each financial district to the total rural population in the state; and one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) in the ratio of the rural road mileage in each financial district to the total rural road mileage in the state; one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) in the ratio of value of rural lands in each financial district to the total value of rural land in the state. Said moneys to be further apportioned to the counties within each financial district in the same ratio of land area, rural population and rural road mileage; and value of rural lands, provided, that to the extent necessary to permit orderly programming and construction of projects, expenditures of construction money in any county may exceed the amount apportioned to that county with the provision that such excess expenditure shall not exceed three (3) times the amount of the last annual apportionment to that county and that any excess expenditures shall be deducted from future apportionments to that county.

For the purposes of this section, rural population is defined as total population less the population in cities over five thousand (5,000) persons and their unincorporated fringe urban areas as reported in the federal census. Decennial census figures for population shall be adjusted during the interim between censuses in accordance with the percentage of change occurring in annual motor vehicle registration figures for each county.

For the purposes of this section, rural road mileage is defined as all road mileage outside incorporated cities, exclusive of road mileage on the federal aid rural primary highway system. Rural road mileage figures reported by the road inventory of the state highway commission shall be used in determining rural road mileage as defined in this section.

For the purposes of this section, the value of rural lands, shall include the value of state owned lands from which the state derives grazing, timber and agricultural income.

The basis for the value of rural lands shall be computed from the figures in the latest biennial report of the Montana state board of equalization. The basis for the value of state owned lands shall be computed from the latest figures on the total grazing, timber and agricultural lands in each county, submitted by the commissioner of state lands and investments in his latest biennial report. The average value of privately owned lands shall be the average value of the state owned lands, if the actual values are not available.

(4) Apportionment of state construction moneys to the federal aid urban highway system. At the start of the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1953, and at the beginning of each fiscal year thereafter, state construction moneys for the federal aid urban highway system shall be apportioned to the cities in the state over five thousand (5,000) population in the ratio of urban population in each city to the total urban population in the state for all cities over five thousand (5,000) population.

For the purpose of this section, urban population is defined as population within the incorporated limits of cities over five thousand (5,000) population and also the population within unincorporated urban fringe areas as delineated and reported in the federal census.

To the extent necessary to permit orderly programming and construction of projects, expenditures of construction money in any urban city may exceed the amount apportioned to that city with the provision that such excess expenditures shall be deducted from future apportionments to that city.

(5) Apportionment of state construction moneys to the federal aid interstate highway system. At the start of the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1957, and at the beginning of each fiscal year thereafter, state construction moneys for the federal aid interstate highway system shall be apportioned to each of the financial districts, as defined in section 84-1815, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, in proportion to the estimated cost of constructing or reconstructing the system in each district as compared with the total estimated cost of constructing or reconstructing the entire system within the state. The cost estimates to be used for apportioning said state construction funds shall be those costs developed by the state highway commission in accordance with the provisions of subsection (d) of section 108 of title I of the federal aid highway act of 1956.

(6) The state highway commission may vary the expenditures made in any financial district under the provisions of this act to the extent of fifteen per cent (15%) above the amount of money allocated to such district in any year for the federal aid primary highway system or the federal aid secondary highway system, and to the extent of one hundred per cent (100%) above the amount of money allocated to such district in any year for the federal aid interstate highway system, provided that the allocation of construction money to such district for the next succeeding fiscal year shall be decreased by an amount equal to such increased expenditures.

84-1818. (2396.4) Refund of gasoline license tax—procedure. (1)

Any person who shall purchase and use any gasoline, with reference to which there has been paid into the treasury of the state of Montana, under the laws of this state licensing dealers in gasoline, a state gallonage tax, for the purpose of operating or propelling stationary gas engines, tractors used for purposes other than on the public highways or streets of this state, aeroplanes or aircraft, or for cleaning or dyeing, or for any commercial use other than propelling vehicles upon any of the public highways or streets of this state, and who has paid said tax either directly to the state of Montana or indirectly as a part of the purchase price of said gasoline, shall be allowed and paid as a refund or drawback an amount of money equal to the unit state gallonage tax, multiplied by the number of gallons of gasoline so purchased and used, provided that counties, incorporated cities, towns and school districts of this state shall be exempt from the payment of said tax by any such county, city, town or school district upon gasoline used by it in the performance of any of its governmental and proprietary functions, or either, imposed or authorized by law, including construction, maintenance and repair of all roads, highways and public places within the county limits and all streets, avenues, alleys and other public places within the corporate limits of such city or town and such exemption from payment of tax shall be allowed at the time of sale when purchaser furnishes to the seller a valid exemption certificate on a form approved by the state board of equalization; provided, that such refund or drawback shall in no instance exceed the total amount of the tax paid or to be paid, to the state of Montana, upon presenting to the board of equalization of the state of Montana, within the time allowed by law, a written statement, accompanied by the invoice or invoices issued to the claimant at the time of purchase and delivery of such gasoline showing such purchase and use, which statement shall set forth in words and figures, the total amount of the gasoline so purchased, and the purpose for which the same was actually used, the amount of the tax and such additional information as may be required by said board on forms to be furnished by them; each separate delivery shall constitute a purchase for the purpose hereof.

(2) All such applications for refunds or drawbacks shall be filed with the board of equalization of the state of Montana within twelve (12) months after the date on which such gasoline was purchased as shown by such invoices. The said board shall have one hundred twenty (120) days thereafter within which to make such investigation as it may desire, to ascertain the truths of the statements made. If the statement is found to be correct and is approved by said board a warrant shall be drawn upon the state treasurer for the amount of such claim and same shall be paid in the same manner as other claims against the state are paid. Such refund or drawbacks shall be made only to, and on the application of, the actual purchaser and user of the gasoline upon which refund is claimed and the burden of establishing the validity of the claim rests upon the claimant.

(3) Should the board of equalization, after investigation, find that the statement so made by said consumer contains errors which, in the opinion of the board were not inserted for the purpose of fraud, it may correct the statement and approve the same as corrected whereupon warrant shall issue, or the board may, in its discretion, require the claimant to file an amended statement before action is taken thereon. If, upon investigation, it shall be determined by the state board of equalization that any claim has been fraudulently presented or is supported, as to any item therein by invoice or invoices fraudulently made or altered in any manner, or that any statement in the claim contained or the affidavit thereto, is willfully false in any particular and so made for the purpose of misleading said board, the board may reject such claim in toto.

(4) Any person desiring to claim refund on gasoline purchased shall obtain from the state board of equalization a permit by application therefor, on such form as the board shall prescribe, which application shall be made under oath and shall contain, among other things, the name, address and occupation of the applicant, the nature of the business, and a sufficient description for identification of the machines or equipment in which the taxable motor fuel is to be used for which refund may be claimed under such permit.

(5) Each permit issued shall bear a permit number and each claim filed shall bear the permit number of the claimant. It shall be the duty of the state board of equalization to keep a record of all permits issued and a cumulative record of refund claimed and paid thereunder.

A fee of one dollar ($1.00) shall be collected from each person to whom a refund permit is issued after July 1, 1953. No refund shall be paid to any person after July 1, 1953, unless said person has first secured a refund permit and paid said fee. The refund permit must be renewed and the license fee paid every five years from the date of issuance.

(6) Whenever a claim shall be rejected, as herein provided, the state board of equalization may suspend the claimant's permit, for a period not exceeding one year, and no claim shall thereafter be approved or allowed for refund on any gasoline purchased by such claimant during such period of suspension.

(7) When gasoline is sold and delivered to a person who shall claim to be entitled to a refund with respect to the tax imposed, the seller of such gasoline shall make and deliver at the time of such sale and delivery separate invoices for each purchase on invoice forms approved by the state board of equalization showing the name and address of the seller and the name and address of the purchaser, the number of gallons of gasoline so sold in words and figures and the date of such purchase, and whether an aviation gasoline tax exemption certificate has been issued with respect to such sale, which invoice, attached to the claim presented shall be the only proof upon which a legal claim can be made for a refund based upon such purchase, and no refund shall be allowed on any sale with respect to which an aviation gasoline tax exemption certificate has been issued; provided, however, that in case the separate invoice delivered to the purchaser at the time of sale be either lost or destroyed he may make claim to the board of equalization for such refund, supporting the same by affidavit reciting the circumstances of such loss or destruction and produce such other evidence as may be required by the board including an actual duplicate carbon copy of the original invoice or invoices. If the board be satisfied as to the sufficiency of the claim and supporting evidence, proper refund shall be made six (6) months thereafter. Except where surrendered to the purchaser for such purpose, the seller shall retain the duplicate original invoices for the period of one year from and after the date of issuance, during which period they shall be open to inspection by the state board of equalization and its agents. Such invoices shall be legibly written and shall be void if any corrections or erasures appear on the face thereof. The seller shall, in filling out invoices, use double-faced carbons.

(8) Upon the effective date of this act, each seller of such gasoline upon which a refund may be claimed by the purchaser, shall obtain a permit from the state board of equalization to sell such gasoline upon application therefor to the board, upon such form as the board shall prescribe, which application shall be made under oath and shall contain among other things, the name and address of the applicant, the place or places of his or its business within the state of Montana. Such permit issued shall bear a permit number and the date of issuance. It shall be the duty of the state board of equalization to keep a record of all such permits issued to sellers, and the suspension or cancellation of any thereof. Such permits shall be issued for the calendar year upon payment of a fee of one dollar ($1.00). Such permit must be renewed annually on or before the first day of January, 1956, and each year thereafter, upon such application and fee paid. After the effective date of this act, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association to sell such gasoline upon which a refund may be claimed without a valid permit therefor. If any such person, firm, corporation or association shall sell any such gasoline without being the holder of a valid permit therefor, he shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00), or more than two hundred dollars ($200.00), or be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of not less than ten days (10) nor more than sixty (60) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended four times in 1963, by Ch. 17, by Ch. 64, by Ch. 126, and by Ch. 224. Chapter 224 incorporated the change made by Ch. 17; but, except for this, none of the amendatory acts mentioned nor included the changes made by any of the others. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, however, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating all four amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 17, Laws 1963, extended the filing period provided by the first sentence of subd. (2) from eight to twelve months.

Chapter 64, Laws 1963, substituted "exempt from the payment" for "entitled to said refund or drawback" before "of said tax" in the first proviso in subsection (1) (pertaining to counties, etc.); added at the end of said proviso the words "and such exemption from payment of tax shall be allowed at the time of sale when purchaser furnishes to the seller a valid exemption certificate on a form approved by the state board of equalization"; deleted a former subsection (7), for text of which see parent volume; and redesignated former subsections (8) and (9), respectively, as (7) and (8).

Chapter 126, Laws 1963, deleted "and the state board of examiners" after "approved by said board" in the third sentence of subsection (2); substituted "a warrant shall be drawn" for "the state auditor shall draw his warrant" in the third sentence of subsection (2); deleted "out of the gasoline license tax drawback fund" after "shall be paid" in the third sentence of subsection (2); and deleted "after approval by the state board of examiners, as above provided" after "warrant shall issue" in the first sentence of subsection (3).

Chapter 224, Laws 1963, deleted "motor boats" which preceded "aeroplanes or aircraft" in subsection (1); and repeated the amendment made by Ch. 17, Laws 1963.

Gasoline Lost—Refund

Since there has been no amendment to this law expressing disapproval of an earlier supreme court decision that gasoline lost or destroyed should be included in the provision for a refund of the tax paid, the legislature in effect approved the interpretation. State ex rel. Roeder v. State Board of Equalization, 133 M 393, 324 P 2d 1057, 1061.

Where gasoline was lost during a flood which tipped over storage tank, the purchaser was entitled to a refund of the tax paid. State ex rel. Roeder v. State Board of Equalization, 133 M 393, 324 P 2d 1057, 1061.

Where it has been decided that a claimant is entitled to a refund but the claim is such that it cannot be regularly itemized on prescribed forms, the board cannot set up the failure to comply with technical regulations as a reason for denying the claim. State ex rel. Roeder v. State Board of Equalization, 133 M 393, 324 P 2d 1057, 1061.

84-1818.1. Date of mailing deemed date of filing or receipt—timely mailing bars penalties and tolls—statutory time limitations. When any application, report, notice, payment or claim for credit or refund to be filed with or made to any officer, agent, or employee of the state under the provisions of this chapter has been deposited in the United States mail, addressed to such officer, agent or employee, it shall be deemed filed or received on the date shown by the postoffice cancellation mark on the envelope containing it, or on the date it was mailed, if proved to the satisfaction of said officer, agent or employee of the state, establishes that the actual mailing occurred on an earlier date; provided, however, that no penalty for delinquency shall attach, nor will the statutory period be deemed to have elapsed in the case of credit or refund claims, if it is established by competent evidence that such application, report, notice, payment, or claim for credit or refund was timely deposited in the United States mail, properly addressed to said officer, agent, or employee of the state, even though never received, if a duplicate of such document or payment is filed.

Compiler's Note

The title to Chapter 70, Laws of 1963, indicates that this section is intended to apply to Chapter 18 of Title 84, R. C. M. 1947. However, the body of the act does not specifically so indicate. For the title to Chapter 70, Laws of 1963, see Compiler's Note under section 84-1803.1.

84-1819. (2396.5) Penalty for false statements, unlawfully obtaining refunds, or unlawful use of gasoline tax exemption certificates. Any person

(a) who shall make any false statement in connection with the application for such refund or who shall collect or cause to be repaid to him, or to any other person, any such refund without being entitled to the same under the provisions of this act, or

(b) who shall make any false statement in any application for a permit to issue governmental gasoline tax exemption certificates or in any such certificate issued by him, or who shall use any gasoline for which such a certificate has been issued otherwise than for the purposes and business of said governmental subdivision, or who shall collect any part of the tax in connection with a sale covered by a valid certificate, or

(c) who shall make any false statement in any application for a permit to issue aviation gasoline tax exemption certificates or in any such certificate issued by him, or who shall use any aviation gasoline for which such a certificate has been issued otherwise than in aircraft or who shall collect that part of the tax, not allocated to the state aeronautics commission, in connection with a sale covered by a valid certificate shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, by Ch. 64 and by Ch. 147. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, however, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating both amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 64, Laws 1963, inserted a new paragraph (b) and redesignated former paragraph (b) as (c).

Separability Clause

Section 5 of Ch. 64, Laws 1963 read "If any clause, sentence, section, paragraph or part of this act shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or inoperative, such judgment shall not effect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this act, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, section, paragraph or part directly adjudged to be invalid or inoperative."

84-1831. Definitions. As used in this act, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) and (b). * * * [Same as parent volume.] ✓

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, once by Ch. 66 and once by Ch. 70. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Since the two amendments do not appear to conflict, however, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating both amendments.

Amendments

The 1959 amendment substituted present subd. (c) for one that read: "Highway" means every way or place generally open to the use of the public for the purpose of vehicular travel, notwithstanding that they may be temporarily closed or travel thereon restricted for the purpose of construction, maintenance, repair or reconstruction."

Chapter 66, Laws 1963, inserted the words "other than a county, incorporated city or town or school district of this state" in subd. (h).

Chapter 70, Laws 1963, completely rewrote paragraph (e), for previous text of which see parent volume.

84-1832. Tax imposed. There is hereby levied and imposed a tax on the use of each and every gallon of special fuel in any motor vehicle while operated upon the highways, equivalent to the lawful tax levied on motor fuel under section 84-1813, or on liquid petroleum gases under section 84-1802. Said tax, with respect to all special fuel delivered by a special fuel dealer into supply tanks of motor vehicles in this state, shall attach at the time of such delivery and shall be collected by such special fuel dealer from the special fuel user and shall be paid over to the board as hereinafter provided. Said tax, with respect to special fuel acquired by any special fuel user in any manner other than by delivery by a special fuel dealer into a fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle, shall attach at the time of the consumption of such fuel in the propulsion of a motor vehicle upon the highways of the state and shall be paid over to the board by the special fuel user as hereinafter provided. The various counties, incorporated cities and towns and school districts of this state shall be exempt from the levy and imposition of this tax.

Every special fuel user shall obtain from the board, prior to the use of such special fuel for the propulsion of a motor vehicle or vehicles in this state, a special fuel users' license, and a special fuel vehicle permit for each such vehicle or vehicles operated by him upon the highways as herein defined, which permit shall at all times be carried in the vehicle for which it was issued, and shall be exhibited for inspection on request of any checking station officer, Montana highway patrol officer, any member of the state

The total amount of the bond or bonds required of any special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall be equivalent to twice his estimated monthly tax payments as hereinafter provided, determined in such manner as said board may deem proper; provided, however, that the total amount of the bond or bonds shall never be less than five hundred dollars ($500.00), for a special fuel user and not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for a special fuel dealer.

(e) to (g). * * * [Same as parent volume.] ✓

(h) Revocation, suspension, cancellation and surrender of license and permit: The board may revoke the license of any special fuel dealer or special fuel user or any special fuel vehicle permit for reasonable cause. Upon revocation by the board of any such license or permit, the holder thereof shall immediately surrender the same to the board for cancellation; and the holder of any such permit, having permanently discontinued the use of any vehicle for which the permit was issued, for whatever reason, shall immediately surrender the same to the board for cancellation.

being requested so to do by the board, said board forthwith shall cancel his license.

(k) All special fuel taxes due from any dealer or user under the provisions of this act, together with all penalties and interest thereon shall be a lien upon any and all property of such dealer, user or other person upon the filing by the state board of equalization of a duplicate copy of the statement so made by the state board of equalization, or a certified copy of any statement filed by said board in the office of the county clerk of the county where such property is situated which lien shall have precedence over any other claim, lien or demand thereafter filed or recorded and which may be enforced in the name of the state of Montana in the same manner as judgment liens are enforced by law.

Amendments

The 1957 amendment in subd. (a) deleted a former second sentence which read "Except for special fuel which is delivered by a special fuel dealer into a fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle in this state, it shall be unlawful for any person to consume special fuel for the propulsion of a motor vehicle upon the highways of this state unless such person is the holder of an uncanceled fuel user's license issued to him by the board" and substituted the present second paragraph for one which read "Every special fuel user shall obtain prior to the use of special fuel for the propulsion of a motor vehicle or vehicles, in this state, a special fuel vehicle permit for such vehicle or vehicles operated by him upon the highways as herein defined"; in subd. (h) inserted in the caption to said subdivision the word "suspension" and deleted the reference to "bond"; in the first sentence substituted the word "any" for "a" and in the second sentence substituted the words "of its intention so to do, by either certified or registered mail, addressed to his last known address shown in the files of the board, requiring him to appear before the board on a day and hour specified in such notice, not more than thirty (30) days nor less than ten (10) days from date of such notice, and show cause, if any he has, why the license or the permit, or each of them," for the words "to show cause within thirty (30) days of the date of the notice why the license or permit" and added the second paragraph; in subd. (j) substituted the word "its" for "his" appearing before the word "opinion" and changed spelling of the word "therefor" to "theretofore."

The 1963 amendment increased the special fuel dealer's bond by adding "for a special fuel user and not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for a special fuel dealer" at the end of subsection (d); and added subsection (k).

84-1834. Special fuel dealers' and special fuel users' records. (a) Preparation of records and inspection of: Every special fuel dealer, special fuel user and every person importing, manufacturing, refining, dealing in, transporting or storing, special fuel in this state, shall keep such records, receipts and invoices and other pertinent papers, with respect thereto as the board may require, and shall produce them for the inspection of the board at any time during the business hours of the day.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 162, L. 1955; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 216, L. 1957.

Amendment

The 1957 amendment inserted the words "and inspection of" to the heading of subd. (a) and substituted the words "and shall produce them for the inspection of the board at any time during the business hours of the day" for a former last sentence of subd. (a) which read "The records, receipts, invoices and other pertinent papers shall be available at all times during the business hours of the day, to the board" and in subd. (b) substituted the word "on" for the word "of."

Such return shall contain a declaration by the person making the same, to the effect that the statements contained are true and are made under penalties of perjury, which declaration shall have the same force and effect as a verification. The return shall show such information as the board may reasonably require for the proper administration and enforcement of this act; provided, however, that if a special fuel dealer or user is also a wholesale distributor of special fuel at a location where special fuel is delivered into the supply tank of a motor vehicle, and if separate storage is provided thereat from which special fuel is delivered or placed into fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, the monthly return to the board need not include inventory control data covering bulk storage from which wholesale distribution of special fuel is made. The special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall file the return on or before the twenty-fifth (25th) day of the next succeeding calendar month following the monthly period to which it relates; provided, however, that for good cause the board may grant a taxpayer a reasonable extension of time for filing, but not to exceed thirty (30) days.

84-4132.1. Hospitals, charitable corporations, nonprofit associations—redemption of lands after 20 years where no assignment of certificate or no action for tax deed taken. That from and after the passage and approval of this act, any hospital, charitable corporation, or nonprofit association having an equitable or legal interest in real estate heretofore sold for taxes or assessments to any county, or which has been struck off to any county when the property was offered for sale, or to which real property a lien for taxes or assessments has attached, and where such sale or tax lien is more than twenty (20) years old, and no assignment of the certificate of such sale or of said tax lien has been made, and no action for the issuance of a tax deed has been taken, shall be permitted to redeem the same and pay such tax lien, by paying the original tax or assessment due thereon, without the payment of any penalty or interest thereon. Such redemption of tax sale or payment of tax lien must be made on or before the 1st day of December, 1957, if it is to be made without the payment of penalty or interest. This act shall not apply to the purchaser of any certificate of sale made prior to the passage and approval of this act.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 112, L. 1957.

Title of Act

An act to permit real property to be redeemed from tax sale or tax lien where such sale or lien is more than twenty (20) years old, and no assignment thereof has been made, and no proceedings for tax deed initiated, by paying the original tax or assessment, provided such original taxes or assessment be paid on or before December 1, 1957; providing for a constitutionality provision and providing for an effective date and repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith.

Separability Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 112, Laws 1957 read "If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this act is for any reason held unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this act."

Repealing Clause

Section 4 of Ch. 112, Laws 1957 read "All acts and parts of acts are hereby repealed."

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 112, Laws 1957 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 5, 1957.

Special Assessment by Irrigation District

Where irrigation district's purported special assessments were made en bloc, not individually, the assessments were insufficient to create a lien and district was not entitled to notice of application for tax deeds under this section. Vail v. Custer County, 132 M 205, 315 P 2d 993, 999.

Deposit of Taxes and Other Costs

Where order was entered in conformity with opinion of supreme court, requiring plaintiff to pay to defendant certain sum and reciting that if plaintiff refused to deposit sum by specified date, judgment would be entered for defendant quieting title in him and motion of plaintiff to vacate such order was not brought on for hearing for more than 12 years after it was made, laches of plaintiff barred relief. *State ex rel. Order Requiring Deposit

This section, requiring the court upon hearing to fix the amount of taxes, interest, penalties, and money spent in improving the property and requiring a deposit of such amount does not authorize the court to postpone such determination and merely requires a bond be deposited to cover such amount. The court's duty is to determine the amount necessary for plaintiff to deposit in court and then fix the time for its payment. *State ex rel. Johnson v. CHAPTER 42—COLLECTION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY TAXES
NOT A LIEN ON REAL ESTATE—ROAD AND POOR TAXES

Section 84-4202. Duty of treasurer.

84-4202. (2239) Duty of treasurer. The county treasurer must collect taxes on all personal property, and in the case provided in the preceding section, it shall be the duty of the treasurer immediately upon receipt of such report from the assessor to notify the person or persons against whom the tax is assessed that the amount of such tax is due and payable at the county treasurer's office. The county treasurer must, at the time of receiving the assessor's report, and in any event within thirty (30) days from the receipt of such report, levy upon and take into his possession such personal property against which a tax is assessed, or any other personal property in the hands of the delinquent taxpayer, and proceed to sell the same, in the same manner as property is sold on execution by the sheriff, and the county treasurer may for the purpose of making such levy and sale, direct the sheriff to make such levy and sale, and the sheriff, undersheriff, or any deputy sheriff of such county is, ex officio, a deputy county treasurer for such purposes, and either may act and receive payment of such taxes. Such sheriff shall be entitled to receive the same fees as he is entitled to in making a seizure and sale under execution.

The county treasurer and his sureties are liable on his official bond for all taxes on personal property remaining uncollected by reason of the wilful failure and neglect of such treasurer to levy upon and sell such personal property for the taxes levied thereon.

The tax on such personal property may be collected and the payment thereof enforced by the seizure and sale of any personal property in the possession of the person assessed at any time after the date the assessment is made or by the institution of a civil action for its collection in any court of competent jurisdiction; provided, however, that a resort to any one of the methods as herein provided for, shall not bar the right to resort to either or both of the other methods, but that any or all of the methods herein provided for may be used until the full amount of such tax is collected.

The county shall have a general lien, dependent on possession, upon any monies in its possession belonging to any taxpayer, for any amounts due said county for any delinquent personal property taxes not a lien on real estate, of said taxpayer; provided, however, that due notice must be given the lienholder, if any.

prevent the county treasurer from collecting taxes due on personal property by seizure and sale thereof at any time after the expiration of the period hereinbefore mentioned."

Section 84-4501. Payment of license fees under protest—action to recover.

84-4501. (2409) Payment of license fees under protest—action to recover. Whenever any license fee is demanded of any person for the use and benefit of the state of Montana, and the same is deemed unlawful by the person from whom the same is demanded, such person may pay the same, or so much thereof as may be deemed unlawful, under written protest, specifying the grounds of protest, to the state agency or officer responsible for collecting the tax. The person paying, or his legal representatives, may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the state agency or officer responsible for collecting the tax to recover the same, without interest; provided, that any action instituted to recover any license paid under protest shall be commenced, and summons and copy of complaint served, within sixty (60) days after the date of payment thereof to the state agency or officer responsible for collecting the tax. If such action be finally decided adversely to the state, the state treasurer shall, upon receiving a copy of the final judgment in said action, refund such license fee to the person in whose favor such judgment is rendered.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment rewrote this section. For section prior to amendment, see parent volume.

Prohibition as Remedy

District court should have denied application for writ of prohibition to restrain board of equalization from enforcing amendments to regulations relating to corporation license tax where tax could be paid under protest and action brought to recover under this section. State ex rel. Fulton v. District Court, 139 M 573, 366 P 2d 435, 437.

84-4502. (2269) Payment of taxes under protest—action to recover.Complaint Insufficient

Taxpayer's complaint to recover excessive taxes paid under protest failed to state a cause of action where it failed to allege that application to the county board of equalization for reduction in assessment before resorting to court, or appeared before county board, state board of equalization or anyone charged with the equalization of taxes, and defendant's demurrer should have been sustained. Blair v. Potter, 132 M 176, 315 P 2d 177, 178, 180.

Constitutionality

The 1955 amendment to this section properly included additional requirements for bringing actions based on the payment of taxes under protest and the amending act was not unconstitutional as being in contravention of section 23 of article 5 of the Montana constitution. Van Tighem v. Linnane, 136 M 547, 349 P 2d 569, 571.

Summons in Action for Refund

This section grants the taxpayer a choice of bringing the action against the officer to whom the tax was paid or against the county in whose behalf the tax was collected and the state board of equalization and, where both the county treasurer and the state board of equalization were named as parties defendant, the fact that the service of summons on the board was properly quashed did not justify dismissal of the action against the county treasurer. Van Tighem v. Linnane, 136 M 547, 349 P 2d 569, 572.

Time Limitations

The words "and summons served," inserted by the 1955 amendment made an additional condition to be fulfilled by taxpayers bringing an action to recover taxes paid under protest and the 60-day limitation applies to both commencing the action and serving the summons. Van Tighem v. Linnane, 136 M 547, 349 P 2d 569, 571.

Breeding Animals Not a Capital Asset

In 1951 no preferential treatment was accorded by any state statute to gains from the sale or exchange of breeding animals or any other property held for productive use in a trade or business. (Sec. 1, Ch. 148, Laws 1935, R. C. M. 1947, 84-4934, Repealed by Sec. 15, Ch.

260, Laws 1955.) In re Armstrong's Estate, 133 M 328, 323 P 2d 595, 596.

Under the former statute requiring that the final closing return of a decedent be made on an inventory basis the same as fixed for inheritance tax purposes, Sec. 1, Ch. 167, Laws 1947, unsold breeding animals valued in inventory were not to be treated as a capital asset but were to be treated as property held for sale in computing taxable income. In re Armstrong's Estate, 133 M 328, 323 P 2d 595, 596.

Constitutionality

This section, before the 1955 amendment, was not unconstitutional as taxing something which was not income or taxing accretion in capital asset items. State ex rel. Anderson v. State Board of Equalization, 133 M 8, 319 P 2d 221, 228, 231.

Not Retrospective

In the absence of any language in the 1955 Act warranting a retrospective application the court could not decide a 1951 tax case in accordance with federal statutes and decisions. In re Armstrong's Estate, 133 M 328, 323 P 2d 595, 597.

Purpose of Section

In enacting this section, before the 1955 amendment, the legislature was seeking tax equality. State ex rel. Anderson v. State Board of Equalization, 133 M 8, 319 P 2d 221, 230.

Interest will be computed at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum or fraction thereof on the additional assessment. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this subdivision, the interest shall in all cases be computed from the date the return and tax was originally due (as distinguished from the due date as it may have been extended) to the date of payment.

If the time for filing a return is extended, the taxpayer shall pay in addition, interest thereon at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum from the time when the return was originally required to be filed to the time of payment.

Amendments

The 1957 amendment designated the former section as subsection (1); reduced the minimum amounts requiring the filing of returns from $1,000 to $600 for single persons, from $2,000 to $1,200 for married persons, and from $2,500 to $1,200 gross income; substituted "shall be liable for an income tax return, to be filed on such forms and according to instructions set forth by the board" at the end of the first sentence of subsection (1) for "shall make a return stating specifically the items of his gross income and the deductions and credits allowed by this act"; deleted from the first paragraph of subsection (1) a second sentence, for text of which see parent volume; and added new subsections (2), (3), and (4) (now subsections (4), (5), and (6)).

The 1959 amendment substituted "taxpayer" for "person" in three places in subsection (1) now subsections (1) and (2); substituted "gross income" for "net income" near the beginning of subsection (1); and deleted the words "or a gross income for the taxable year of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200.00) or over, regardless of the amount of his net income" which followed "head of a family" in subsection (1).

The 1963 amendment rewrote the former first paragraph of subsection (1); inserted a new subsection (2); designated the former second paragraph of subsection (1) as subsection (3); redesignated former subsections (2), (3), and (4) as (4), (5), and (6); substituted "six per centum (6%) per annum" for "one per centum (1%) per month" in the first sentence of the first paragraph and the second sentence of the second paragraph of present subsection (6); and inserted "(as distinguished from the due date as it may have been extended)" near the end of the second paragraph of present subsection (6).

84-4915. (2295.15) Exemption allowed nonresident—effect of changing resident status. If a taxpayer changes his status from that of resident to that of nonresident, or from that of nonresident to that of resident, during the taxable year, he shall file a return covering the fraction of the year during which he was a resident. The exemptions provided in section 84-4910 shall be prorated on the ratio the Montana adjusted gross income bears to federal adjusted gross income. A Montana citizen moving out of the state; abandoning his residence in the state and establishing a residence elsewhere, must file a return on the fractional basis. If he obtains employment outside the state, without abandoning his Montana residence then income from such employment is taxable in Montana.

Construction Prior to Amendment

The provision of this section, before the 1955 amendment, commanding a particular act to be done for the protection of the taxpayer, viz., assessment within three years, must be construed in favor of the taxpayer. State ex rel. Anderson v. State Board of Equalization, 133 M 8, 319 P 2d 221, 224.

This section, before the 1955 amendment did not constitute a statute of limitations, but rather a limitation upon the authority of the state board of equalization to reassess returns after the expiration of three years from the date the return is made. State ex rel. Anderson v. State Board of Equalization, 133 M 8, 319 P 2d 221, 226.

Limitation on Reassessment

Although this section does not constitute a statute of limitations, it is a limitation upon the authority of the board of equalization to reassess returns after the expiration of three years from the date the return was filed. State ex rel. Conn v. Robinson, 133 M 549, 327 P 2d 390, 391.

84-4922. (2295.22) Revision—application—hearing—adjustment. If an application for revision be filed with the board by a taxpayer within five (5) years from the original due date of the return the board shall grant a hearing thereon, and if it is made to appear upon any such hearing by evidence submitted to it or otherwise, that any such computation includes taxes or other charges which could not have been lawfully demanded, or that payment has been illegally made or exacted of any such amount so computed, the board shall settle the same according to law and the facts, and adjust the computation of taxes accordingly, and shall send notice of its determination thereon to the taxpayer.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment extended the filing period from three to five years after the due date of the return; and deleted the words "or if the tax of such taxpayer has been recomputed, then from the time of such recomputation" which appeared after "due date of the return."

Filing of Claim

Respondent paid additional tax under protest on June 12, 1953. Within the two years granted by this section, he applied for a revision, filing claim on July 24, 1954, setting forth the contended invalidity of the assessment. The claim was filed on a form provided by the board of equalization for refund of tax illegally collected. This was a sufficient compliance with the statute. State ex rel. Conn v. Robinson, 133 M 549, 327 P 2d 390, 391.

review of board's findings on application for revision, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 212, Laws 1957.

84-4923.1. Review by court. The determination of the state board of equalization may be reviewed in the district court for Lewis and Clark county or the county in which the taxpayer resides or has his principal office or place of business, by a complaint filed by the taxpayer against the state board of equalization within six (6) months after the receipt of notice of the decision of the state board of equalization. Upon the serving of summons upon the state board of equalization as in civil action, the cause shall proceed as other civil cases. Service upon the state board of equalization may be made by serving one copy upon the secretary of the state board of equalization or one copy upon the chairman of the state board of equalization. The remedies provided by this chapter for the collection of the tax shall be stayed and no assessment, distraint or proceedings in court for collection of the taxes shall be made, begun or prosecuted until ninety (90) days after such court action is finally determined. From any determination of such court, an appeal to the supreme court may be taken by either party.

Title of Act

An act providing for review by the court of any determination of the board of equalization in respect to income taxes and repealing section 84-4923, Revised

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 212, Laws 1957 repealed section 84-4923 of the Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Review of Reassessment

Where board of equalization rejected claim of taxpayer, on August 18, 1954, for return of illegally collected tax, it constituted the determination of the board upon the application for revision made by respondent and was reviewable by district court under Sec. 23, Ch. 181, Laws 1933, where respondent applied for writ of certiorari on September 11, 1954, within the 30 day limitation provided in section 23. State ex rel. Conn v. Robinson, 133 M 549, 327 P 2d 390, 391.

84-4924. (2295.24) Penalties for violations of act. (1) If any person, without intent to evade any tax imposed by this act, fails to make a return of income or pay any tax if one is due at the time required by or under the provisions of this act, there shall be added to the tax an additional amount equal to five (5) per centum thereof, but not less than two dollars ($2.00), unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not due to neglect. Interest at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum shall be added to the tax for the entire period it remains unpaid.

for each month or fraction of a month during which the tax remains unpaid."

Amendment

Constitutionality

The double penalty imposed under subd. (2) of this section, before the 1955 amendment, did not violate sections 20, 27, article III, of the Montana Constitution as an excessive fine or the taking of property without due process of law. State ex rel. Hardy v. State Board of Equalization, 133 M 43, 319 P 2d 1061, 1063, 1065.

Inadvertent Failure to Pay when Filing Return

The provision of this section, prior to the 1955 amendment, that any person failing to pay tax on due date was allowed 60 days in which to pay tax with only a 5% penalty did not prevent assessment of the 100% penalty after the termination of such period, notwithstanding the fact that the taxpayer failed to include payment due to mistake, inadvertence, and excusable neglect. Subject to the following conditions, residents of this state shall be allowed a credit against the taxes imposed by this act for income taxes imposed by and paid to another state or country on income taxable under this act.

(1) The credit shall be allowed only for taxes paid to such other state on income derived from sources within such state which is taxable under the laws of such state or country irrespective of the residence or domicile of the recipient;

(2) The credit shall not be allowed if such other state or country allows residents of this state a credit against the taxes imposed by such state for taxes paid or payable under this act;

84-4956. Credits and refunds. If the board of equalization discovers from the examination of a return, or upon claim duly filed by a taxpayer, or upon final judgment of a court, that the amount of income tax is in excess of the amount due, or that any penalty or interest was erroneously or illegally collected, the amount of the overpayment shall be credited against any income tax, penalty or interest, then due from the taxpayer, and the balance of such excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

Effective with taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1959, no such credit or refund shall be allowed or made after five (5) years from the date prescribed by statute for filing the return, unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer, or the board of equalization has determined the existence of the overpayment and has approved the refund or credit thereof. Within six (6) months after a claim for refund is filed the state board of equalization shall examine said claim and either approve or disapprove it. If said claim is approved, the credit or refund shall be made to the taxpayer within sixty (60) days after the claim is approved; if the claim is disallowed, the state board of equalization shall so notify the said taxpayer and shall grant a hearing thereon upon proper application by the taxpayer. If the board disapproves a claim for refund, review of the determination of the board may be had as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Except as hereinafter provided for, effective with taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1962, interest shall be allowed on overpayments at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the due date of the return or from the date of the overpayment (whichever date is later) to the date the board of equalization approves refunding or crediting of the overpayment. With respect to tax paid by withholding or by estimate, the date of overpayment shall be deemed to be the date on which the return for the taxable year was due. No interest shall accrue on an overpayment if the taxpayer elects to have it applied to his estimated tax for the succeeding taxable year; nor shall interest accrue during any period the processing of a claim for refund is delayed more than thirty (30) days by reason of failure of the taxpayer to furnish information requested by the state board of equalization for the purpose of verifying the amount of the overpayment. No interest shall be allowed (a) if the overpayment is refunded within six (6) months from the date the return is due or the date the return is filed, whichever date is later; or (b) if the overpayment results from the carryback of a net operating loss; or (c) if the amount of interest is less than one dollar ($1.00). An overpayment not made incident to a bona fide and orderly discharge of an actual income tax liability, or one reasonably assumed to be imposed by this law, shall not be considered an overpayment with respect to which interest is allowable.

ing on or after December 31, 1959" at the beginning of the second paragraph; substituted "five (5) years from the date prescribed by statute for filing the return" in the first sentence of the second paragraph for "three (3) years from the time the tax was paid"; added to the first sentence of the second paragraph the words "or the board of equalization has determined the existence of the overpayment and has approved the refund or credit thereof"; substituted "upon proper application by the taxpayer" for "before the state board of equalization" at the end of the third sentence of the second paragraph; made minor changes in phraseology; and added the third paragraph.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "the earmarked revenue fund" in the first part of the section for "what shall be known as the state livestock sanitary board fund"; substituted "state controller" in the proviso for "state auditor"; substituted "in a separate account in the earmarked revenue fund such moneys" in the proviso for "and transfer from the state livestock sanitary board fund to what shall be known as the state livestock sanitary board emergency fund such funds"; and substituted "moneys" and "they" in the latter part of the proviso for "funds" and "it."

The moneys received from the tax levied by the second division of the preceding section, shall be placed in the earmarked revenue fund, to be used by the livestock sanitary board for the payment of indemnity for animals slaughtered and for the payment of expenses in investigating and suppressing diseases, including quarantine and all expenses connected therewith.

The state board of equalization of the state of Montana shall, under the authority of section 9, article XII of the constitution of Montana, and hereby, annually prescribe, make and levy an ad valorem tax on all livestock in the state of Montana for the purpose of protecting such livestock by all means of effective predatory animal destruction, extermination and control, including systematic hunting, trapping in planned campaigns, or otherwise, and payment of bounties, against destruction, depredation and injury by wild animals, whether on lands in private ownership, in the ownership of the state, or in the ownership of the United States, including open ranges and all lands in or of the public domain. The tax levy shall not exceed in any one (1) year (a) one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) mills on the assessed valuation of all sheep, and (b) one (1) mill on the assessed valuation of other livestock. The moneys received from such tax levies shall be transmitted monthly with other taxes for state purposes, by the county treasurer of each county, to the state treasury, and be by the state treasurer placed in and to the credit of the earmarked revenue fund (with other moneys in that fund under the provisions of section 46-1901) and such moneys shall thereafter be paid out only on claims duly and regularly presented to the Montana livestock commission, and thereafter approved by said commission, in accordance with the law applicable either to claims for bounties, when such claims are approved, or to claims for other expenditures necessary and proper for predatory animal control by other means and methods than payment of bounties, as may be determined by the Montana livestock commission. All such moneys shall be available for the payment of bounty claims and for expenditures in and for planned, seasonal, or other campaigns directed, or operated by the commission in co-operation with other agencies, for the systematic destruction, extermination and control of predatory wild animals, as may be determined by the commission and the advisory committee thereto. CHAPTER 54—MINES TAXATION—GENERAL PROPERTY AND NET PROCEEDS TAX

84-5408. Transmission of net proceeds to county assessor.

84-5409. Taxation and payment on royalty interests.

84-5401. (2088) Taxation of mines.Net Proceeds

In determining the net proceeds under the provisions of sections 84-5402 and 84-5403, the gross product received under section 84-5403 is the amount paid to the producer. Hence, where producer received price of $63 a ton from general services administration while the New York market price was only $35 a ton; the total amount received by the producer is to be used. The difference between the market price and the price received is not to be considered a government bonus or subsidy as the producer was not required to sell to the government. Minerals Engineering Co. v. Greene, 131 M 119, 308 P 2d 977, overruling Klies v. Linnane, 117 M 59, 156 P 2d 183.

Operation of One or More Mines

The considerations of paramount importance in determining whether an operation constitutes one mine, or more than one, are ownership, location, integration of mining system, and single management. United States Gypsum Co. v. Schreiner, 135 M 312, 340 P 2d 548.

84-5403. (2090) Net proceeds—how computed. The state board of equalization shall calculate and compute from said returns the gross product yielded from such mine, and its gross value in dollars and cents for the year covered by the statement, and also shall calculate and compute the net proceeds in dollars and cents of said mine yielded to such person, corporation or association so engaged in mining which said net proceeds shall be ascertained and determined by subtracting from the value in dollars and cents of the gross product thereof the following, to wit:

1. All royalty paid or apportioned in cash or in kind by the person, corporation or association so engaged in mining.

2. All moneys expended for necessary labor, machinery and supplies needed and used in the mining operations and developments.

3. All moneys expended for improvements, repairs and betterments necessary in and about the working of the mine, except as hereinafter provided.

4. All moneys expended for costs of repairs and replacements of the milling and reduction works used in connection with the mine.

5. Depreciation in the sum of six per cent (6%) of the assessed valuation of such milling and reduction works for the calendar year for which such return is made.

6. All moneys actually expended for transporting the ores, and mineral products or deposits from the mines to the mill or reduction works or to the place of sale, and for extracting the metals and minerals therefrom, and for marketing the product and the conversion of the same into money.

7. All moneys expended for fire insurance and workmen's compensation insurance, and for payments by mine operators to welfare and retirement funds when provided for in wage contracts between mine operators and employees.

In computing the deductions allowable for repairs, improvements and betterments to the mine, the state board of equalization shall compute and allow ten per cent (10%) of such cost each year for a period of ten (10) years.

No moneys invested in mines or improvements shall be allowed as a deduction unless all machinery, equipment and buildings represented by such moneys shall be returned to the county assessor of the county in which such mine is located for assessment purposes, at the level of assessment of all other property in such county.

No moneys invested in the mines and improvements during any year, except the year for which such statement is made, and except as hereinbefore provided in this section, shall be included in such expenditures; and such expenditures shall not include the salaries or any portion thereof, of any person or officer not actually engaged in the working of the mine or superintending the management thereof.

Gross Product—What Included In

Where producer received price of $63 a ton from general services administration while market price was only $35 a ton the difference between the market price and the price received is not to be considered a government bonus or subsidy since the producer was free to sell to anyone and the entire price was to be included in determining the value of the gross product. Minerals Engineering Co. v. Greene, 131 M 119, 308 P 2d 977, overruling Klies v. Linnane, 117 M 59, 156 P 2d 183.

Operation of One or More Mines

Where the evidence as to ownership, location, integration of mining system, and single management pointed to one mining operation for the purpose of net proceeds taxation, extension of operations to a second ridge of two parallel ridges did not constitute opening of second mine and expenditures for the extension were tax deductible in connection with the first operation. *United States Gypsum Co. v. 84-5408. (2091) Transmission of net proceeds to county assessor. On or before the first day of July in each year the state board of equalization shall transmit to the county assessor of each county in which such mines and mining claims are situated, the valuation of the net proceeds of such mines and mining claims for the purpose of taxation, as the same have been determined and fixed by such state board of equalization. The said valuation for the purpose of taxation shall be an amount equal to the average net proceeds from such mine for the five calendar years next preceding, or for as many years next preceding as the mine has produced gross yield, or for as many years next preceding as this act has been in effect, whichever is less. The average net proceeds for valuation shall be computed by dividing the total net proceeds for such period by the number of years for which such net proceeds were taken into account. In determining net proceeds of each individual year for averaging to determine valuation for purposes of taxation, the actual annual net proceeds as defined in section

84-5403 of the Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, including losses, if any, from such mines and mining claims shall be taken for each year rather than the average valuation for such year. In no event shall there be valuation for the purpose of taxation for a year when there has been no gross yield from such mines and mining claims for the preceding average years and such years shall not be taken into account in computing the net proceeds for any year. The county assessor shall immediately enter the same upon an assessment roll called "assessment roll of net proceeds of mines," alphabetically arranged, and in which shall be specified in separate columns and under the following heads:

1. The name and address of the owner or lessee of the mine.
2. The description and location of the mine.
3. The number of tons of ore or other mineral products or deposits extracted and treated or sold from the mine during the period covered by the statement.
4. The gross value of the ores, mineral products or deposits, in dollars and cents, extracted and treated, or sold during the year, to be determined as provided in the preceding section.
5. The net proceeds, in dollars and cents, of such mine or mining claims during the years, to be determined as provided in the preceding section.

The form of said assessment roll shall be prescribed by the state board of equalization in conformity with the provisions of this act.

The amendment by Ch. 44, Laws 1957 in the second paragraph of subdivision (2) (now subdivision (3)) inserted "under the authority of said Initiative No. 54 as hereby amended"; substituted "residents of Montana" for "residents of this state"; added "or in said Korean War" and added subdivision (3) (now subdivision (4)).

The amendment by Ch. 222, Laws 1957 in subdivision (1) (now subdivision (2)) increased the tax from 2¢ to 5¢ and in the last paragraph, carried the same change as made by Ch. 18 in the first sentence; reinstated the second sentence, which had been deleted by Ch. 18; substituted "insignia" for "stamps" in that sentence and substituted "insignia" for "stamp" in the third sentence.

Chapter 97, Laws 1963, incorporated all of the 1957 amendments; inserted a new subdivision (1); redesignated former subdivisions (1) to (3) as (2) to (4), respectively; and changed internal references accordingly.

Chapter 270, Laws 1963, added "or World War I" at the end of former Subdivision—(2) (now (3)); substituted "thirty-eighth legislative assembly" for "thirty-fifth legislative assembly" near the beginning of former Subdivision—(3) (now (4)); substituted "amendatory acts of the thirty-fifth and thirty-eighth legislative assemblies" for "this amendatory act of said thirty-fifth legislative assembly" near the end of the second paragraph of former Subdivision—(3) (now (4)); and made minor changes in phraseology.

[The remainder of Ch. 13, Laws 1959 read as follows:

Such bonds shall distinctly state that they are not and shall never be or become a general obligation of the state of Montana, but shall be payable only from the proceeds of a cigarette tax in the manner in this law provided; shall contain the pledge of the state of Montana to continue to levy and collect the cigarette tax in this law provided for and place the proceeds thereof in the War Veterans' Compensation Bond Retirement Fund, until all bonds issued hereunder, and the interest accruing thereon, shall have been paid; shall draw interest at the rate of not more than four and one-half per cent (4½%) per annum, payable semi-annually; but in all other respects the board of examiners is hereby empowered and directed to fix the terms thereof, as to dates of maturity, the time after which and the terms and condi-

The issuance of such bonds shall be made in the same manner and such bonds shall be subject to the same limitations, restrictions, and provisions as apply to said original issue of twenty-two million dollars ($22,000,000.00), except that such bonds shall draw not more than four and one-half per cent (4½%) interest and shall be payable only out of a cigarette tax as hereinafter provided in this amendatory act.

provided for as may be sold as herein provided shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the special fund created by said Initiative No. 54 and known as the "War Veterans' Compensation Fund," and the moneys now in said fund, after payment of all claims heretofore filed with and heretofore or hereafter allowed by the board of examiners under the original provisions of said Initiative No. 54, shall, together with such additional funds as may be derived from the sale of bonds under the said issue of six million dollars ($6,000,000.00) authorized by this amendatory act, be used to pay said honorarium granted by subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of section 2 hereof, and by section 3 of said Initiative No. 54 as hereby amended, and the expense of administration of this amendatory act. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this amendatory act there is hereby appropriated from the War Veterans' Compensation Fund, in addition to the appropriation made by section 14 of said Initiative No. 54 as originally enacted, the moneys now remaining in said fund and not needed for the payment of the honorarium to persons who served in World War II, and the sum of six million dollars ($6,000,000.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said honorarium to the persons who served in the military forces in said Korean War.

Such additional tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as the tax levied and imposed by subdivision (2) of said section 16 of said Initiative Measure No. 54. For the purpose of giving full legal effect to said increase of said excise tax, section 84-5606 of said Title 84 and section 84-5621 of said Title 84 are hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 84-5606. [See section as set out above.]

Section 8. There is hereby added to said Initiative No. 54 a new section to be numbered section 17-A to read as follows:

Section 17-A. Nothing in this amendatory act shall be construed as impairing the security of the twenty-two million dollars ($22,000,000.00) of bonds heretofore sold under the authority of said Initiative Measure No. 54, or of the interest thereon, but the provision made by said Initiative for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon shall remain inviolate.

Section 9. Except where such construction would conflict with express provisions of this amendatory act, said Initiative No. 54 shall be construed as though the amendments made hereby had formed a part of said Initiative at the time of its adoption on November 7, 1950. Nothing herein contained is to be construed as extending the time of filing claims under said Initiative No. 54 as originally adopted nor as amended by chapter 123 of the Laws of the Thirty-third Session of the Montana Legislative Assembly, nor as authorizing any payments from said War Veterans' Compensation Fund except expenses of administration of said Initiative as hereby amended, of claims for the honorarium filed on or prior to January 1, 1954, and the expenses of administration in connection therewith, and of the payments provided for in subdivisions (b), (c) and (d), of section 2, and in sections 3 and 5, of said Initiative No. 54 as amended.

Section 11. If any provision contained in this amendatory act shall for any reason be held invalid, such decision shall not invalidate the remaining provisions of this act.

Section 12. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 13. This act will take effect and be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 26, 1957.

Submission to Voters

Statute amending initiative act providing for honorarium for World War II veterans so as to make Korean veterans eligible to receive honorariums was not required to be submitted to the voters under the constitution of Montana. Cottingham v. State Board of Examiners, 134 M 1, 328 P 2d 907, 915, 916.

84-5606.1. Legislative intent. The Legislative Assembly hereby declares that its intent in enacting Section 1 of this act is to enable those who are subject to the taxes imposed by the federal tax laws to avail themselves of the deductions respecting state and local taxes specified in section 164 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954 in computing their taxable income.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 97, L. 1963.

84-5607. Affixing of insignia. Insignia shall be affixed to packages of cigarettes only by licensed distributors and dealers. Provided, however, the provisions of this act shall not apply to public warehouses acting as agents of manufacturers.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 289, L. 1947; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 18, L. 1957.

Amendment

The 1957 amendment completely rewrote this section. For section prior to amendment see parent volume.

84-5608. Insignia purchased at discount. Every licensed distributor and dealer will be entitled to purchase said insignia at a discount of eight per cent (8%) of their face value, upon payment therefor. This discount is not applicable to that portion of the tax collected for any veterans' honorarium.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 289, L. 1947; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 18, L. 1957; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 222, L. 1957.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in the 1957 Session. Once by chapter 18 and once by chapter 222. Neither law contained a specific effective date. Chapter 18 was signed by the Governor February 18 while chapter 222 was signed March 12. As the acts are not in conflict with each other the Compiler has made a composite section. For specific changes see Amendments below.

Amendments

The 1957 amendment by Ch. 18 substituted "dealer will" for "retailer shall" and "insignia" for "stamps" in the first sentence and added the second sentence.

The 1957 amendment by Ch. 222 made the same changes as the amendment by Ch. 18 and also decreased the discount from 10% to 8%.

Repealing Clause

Section 3 of Ch. 222, Laws 1957 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

84-5609. Use of tax stamping meters. The board may authorize any manufacturer, distributor or dealer of cigarettes to use a tax stamping meter machine with which to place an insignia upon each package of cigarettes imported, sold or delivered in this state. The insignia shall be one approved by the board. Each individual package of cigarettes imported into this state, delivered or sold therein shall be marked with the proper insignia of such tax stamping meter machine and thereafter any original package of cigarettes so marked may be lawfully possessed and sold within the state by any distributor or dealer licensed under this act. The board shall supervise and check the operation of such tax stamping meter machines. The operator of such machine, before using the same, shall take the meter thereof to the county treasurer, of the county in which the machine is operated, who is authorized to, and shall set said meter for the number of packages specified and required by the operator. Prior to setting said meter the county treasurer shall collect from said operator the amount of money proper for said setting, less a discount of ten per cent (10%) on that portion of the tax not being collected for any veterans' honorarium. The county treasurer shall immediately report to the board on forms prescribed by it, the name of the operator and the number of packages for which said meter was set and shall immediately forward to the board the amount collected from said operator.

Amendment

The 1957 amendment in the first sentence substituted "dealer" for "retailer" and deleted the words "in lieu of said stamps" which appeared at the end of this sentence; in the fifth sentence inserted the words "before using the same"; added the sixth sentence; in the seventh sentence substituted "shall immediately forward to the board the amount collected from said operator" for "the distributor or retailer, using such tax stamping meter machine, within ten (10) days from the first day of the month of the following month, shall remit to the board the amount of the tax due on the packages of cigarettes for which said tax stamping meter machine was set to stamp for the preceding month" and deleted a former last paragraph which read "That any distributor or retailer using such tax stamping meter machine shall be required to furnish a surety bond, to be approved by the board, in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) conditioned for the payment of the tax due on packages of cigarettes stamped by said tax stamping meter machines."

Separability Clause

Section 7 of Ch. 18, Laws 1957 read "The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its sections, provisions, exceptions, sentences, clauses, phrases or parts be held unconstitutional or void, the remainder of this act shall continue in full force and effect."

Repealing Clause

Section 8 of Ch. 18, Laws 1957 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

84-5617. Appeals from decision of the board.

Cross-Reference

Application of Montana Rules of Civil Procedure to this section, see Table A, M. R. Civ. P. (sec. 93-2711-7).

84-5621. Clerical and field assistants. The board is hereby authorized to employ such clerical and field assistants as may be necessary to properly administer the provisions of this law. All moneys collected under the provisions of subdivision (1) of section 84-5606 of the Montana Revised Codes of 1947, less the expense of collecting all the taxes levied, imposed and assessed by said section 84-5606, shall be paid to the state treasurer and deposited in the general fund of the state. All taxes levied, imposed and assessed under the provisions of subdivision (2) of said section 84-5606 shall, when collected, be paid to the state treasurer and credited to a subfund in the sinking fund and shall, while any of the bonds hereafter issued and sold for the purpose of paying an honorarium, or adjusted compensation, to the residents of Montana who were in military service in the military forces of the United States in World War I or World War II, or any of the interest thereon, remain unpaid, be available for the payment thereof.

All taxes levied, imposed and assessed under the provisions of subdivision (3) of said section 84-5606 shall, when collected, be paid to the state treasurer and credited to a subfund in the sinking fund, which shall, while any of the bonds hereafter issued and sold, in addition to the bonds authorized by said Initiative Measure No. 54, as originally enacted, or any of the interest upon such additional bonds, remain unpaid, be used only for the payment thereof, and of the expenses of administration of this act.

The War Veterans' Compensation Fund established by Initiative No. 54, as amended by Chapter 44, Laws of 1957 is abolished and all moneys in the fund are transferred to a subfund in the bond proceeds and insurance clearance fund. When all veterans' honoraria authorized by law have been paid, such moneys shall be transferred to the two accounts in the sinking fund established by this section.

Compiler's Note

This section was amended twice in 1963, once by Ch. 147 and once by Ch. 270. Chapter 270 contained some but not all of the changes made by Ch. 147; other than this, neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Since the two amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating both amendments.

Amendments

The 1957 amendment added a third paragraph which now appears, as amended in 1963, as the second paragraph.

Chapter 147, Laws 1963, substituted "and credited to a subfund in the sinking fund" after "state treasurer" in the third sentence of the first paragraph for "and credited to a special fund known as the War Veterans' Compensation Bond Retirement Fund, which fund shall be kept segregated from all money in the state treasury"; deleted the former second paragraph, for text of which see parent volume; substituted "and credited to a subfund in the sinking fund, which" after "state treasurer" in the present second paragraph for "and credited to a special fund to be known as the War Veterans' Compensation Bond Retirement Fund No. 2, which fund shall be kept segregated from all other money in the state treasury and"; and added the third paragraph.

Chapter 270, Laws 1963, deleted the words "credited to a special fund known as the War Veterans' Compensation Bond Retirement Fund, which fund shall be" which appeared after "state treasurer and" in the third sentence of the first paragraph; inserted "World War I or" near the end of the first paragraph; deleted the former second paragraph, for text of which see parent volume; deleted the words "credited to a special fund to be known as the War Veterans' Compensation Bond Retirement Fund No. 2, which fund shall be" which followed "state treasurer and" in the present second paragraph; and substituted "bonds" for "twenty-two million dollars ($22,000,000.00)" before "authorized by said Initiative Measure No. 54" in the present second paragraph.

CHAPTER 9—DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDICIAL OFFICERS

Section 93-901. Cases in which judge may be disqualified—calling in another judge.
93-902. Certain officers not to practice law.

93-901. (8868) Cases in which judge may be disqualified—calling in another judge. Any justice, judge, or justice of the peace must not sit or act as such in any action or proceeding:

1. To which he is a party, or in which he is interested;
2. When he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the sixth degree, computed according to the rules of law;
3. When he has been attorney or counsel for either party in the action or proceeding, or when he rendered or made the judgment, order, or decision appealed from;
4. When either party makes and files an affidavit as hereinafter provided, that he has reason to believe, and does believe, he cannot have a fair and impartial hearing or trial before a district judge by reason of the bias or prejudice of such judge. Such affidavit may be made by any party to an action, motion, or proceeding, personally, or by his attorney or agent, and shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in which the same may be pending. In any judicial district having only one judge the affidavit of disqualification with reference to any action or proceeding to be tried before a jury must be filed at least one day before the day appointed or fixed by the court for setting the trial calendar; provided, however, this limitation shall not apply unless notice of such setting date shall be given to all parties by the clerk of the district court at least fifteen (15) days prior thereto. In all other cases the affidavit must be filed at least fifteen (15) days before the day appointed or fixed for the hearing or trial of any such action, motion, or proceeding (provided such party shall have had notice of the hearing of such action, motion, or proceeding for at least the period of fifteen (15) days and in case he shall not have had notice for such length of time, he shall file such affidavit immediately upon receiving such notice). Upon the filing of the affidavit, the judge as to whom said disqualification is averred shall be without authority to act further in the action, motion, or proceeding, but the provisions of this section do not apply to the arrangement of the calendar, the regulation of the order of business, the power of transferring the action or proceeding to some other court, nor to the power of calling in another district judge to sit and act in such action or proceeding, providing that no judge shall so arrange the calendar as to defeat the purposes of this section. No more than two judges can be disqualified for bias or prejudice, in said action or proceeding, at the instance of the plaintiff, and no more than two at the instance of the defendant, in said action or proceeding, and this limitation shall apply however many parties or persons in interest may be plaintiffs or defendants in such action or proceeding. If there be more than one judge in any judicial district in which said affidavit is made and filed, upon the first disqualification of a judge in the cause, another judge, residing in the judicial district wherein the affidavit is made and filed, must be called in to preside in such action, motion, or proceeding; and upon the second or any subsequent disqualification of a judge in the cause, a district judge of another judicial district of the state must be called in to preside in such action, motion, or proceeding, or the action, motion, or proceeding transferred to a district judge of another judicial district of the state; when another judge has assumed jurisdiction of an action, motion, or proceeding, the clerk of the district court in which the same was pending, shall at once notify the parties or their attorneys of record in the same, either personally or by registered mail, of the name of the judge called in, or to whom such action, motion, or proceeding was transferred. Such second or subsequent affidavit of disqualification shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in which such action, motion or proceeding may be pending within three days after the party or his attorney of record, filing such affidavit, has received notice as to the judge assuming jurisdiction of such action, motion, or proceeding.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "fifteen (15) days" for "five days" in two places in the fourth sentence of subd. 4.

Filing of Affidavit—Effect

Widows and Orphans Home, Veterans of Foreign Wars, of Eaton Rapids, Mich.*, — M —, 373 P 2d 948, 949.

Where the original defendants who disqualified one judge, and the interveners, who had disqualified another judge, had become parties or persons in interest within the meaning of this section, a third disqualifying affidavit was invalid. Allman v. Potts, — M —, 371 P. 2d 11, 13.

An intervener, being a party to the action, is entitled to avail himself of the provisions of this section and in a proper situation may file an affidavit of disqualification. Allman v. Potts, — M —, 371 P 2d 11, 13.

93-2015. (8950) Fees on application for admission to bar. Every applicant for admission to the bar, by examination or otherwise, must pay to the clerk of the supreme court, at the time he files his application for examination or his petition for admission, the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Should the applicant fail in the examination taken by him, he may take another examination before the said board at any time within one year thereafter without further payment. No other fee shall be exacted for admission of any applicant, if admitted within one year after the payment of the fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) hereinabove designated. All money collected from fees herein provided for shall be deposited with the state treasurer by the clerk of the supreme court, and placed in the general fund.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "the general fund" at the end of the section for "said attorneys' license tax fund, and shall be paid out and disbursed only as herein provided."

93-2020. (8955) Witnesses on behalf of complainant, fees and mileage of. Witnesses on behalf of the complainant in any such action or proceeding shall be entitled to the fees and mileage provided by law for witnesses in civil actions in the district court.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted a final clause reading, "and such fees and mileage and other costs necessarily incurred in the prosecution of any such action or proceeding shall be paid by the state treasurer out of the attorneys' license tax fund, upon warrants duly drawn by the state auditor."

transfer of unexpended license tax funds, was repealed by Sec. 242, Ch. 147, Laws 1963.

93-2038. (8973) Judgment.

Negligence of Attorney

Attorney was deprived of the right to practice in the courts of Montana for 45 days where he was guilty of deliberate falsehood in telling client that case filed in April 1956 was at issue and was awaiting trial, the debtor in the action having entered no appearance and default judgment such as was entered on April 11, 1961, could have been entered in June of 1956. In re Hirst, — M —, 368 P 2d 157, 158.

Improper Representation

Where prisoner was represented in a second case by court-appointed counsel who had formerly prosecuted him while serving as county attorney in a case resulting in the prior conviction with which he was charged in the second case, the error, if any, should have been raised in the district court by a writ of error coram nobis and not by habeas corpus proceeding in the supreme court. Butler v. State, 139 M 437, 365 P 2d 822, 823.

CHAPTER 22—JUDICIAL REMEDIES, ACTIONS AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

93-2203. (8997) Action defined.

Cause of Action

A cause of action is ordinarily considered as involving the combination of two elements, first, a right on the part of the plaintiff, and second the violation or infringement of such right by the defendant. Duffy v. Lipsman-Fulkerson & Co., 200 F Supp 71, 72.

The right to maintain an action depends upon the existence of what is termed a cause of action. Duffy v. Lipsman-Fulkerson & Co., 200 F Supp 71, 72.

Loss of Consortium

A wife can maintain an action for loss of consortium when such loss is the result of negligent injury to her husband. Duffy v. Lipsman-Fulkerson & Co., 200 F Supp 71, 72.

CHAPTER 25—LIMITATION OF ACTIONS FOR RECOVERY OF REAL PROPERTY

93-2504. (9015) Seizin within five years, when necessary, etc.

Easement by Prescription

Plaintiffs, who acquired prescriptive easement in road across property of defendants by use for thirty-five years before defendants acquired title to the land and attempted to obstruct use, were entitled to enjoin defendants from interfering with use of right of way over road. Scott v. Weinheimer, — M —, 374 P 2d 91, 96.

To establish the existence of an easement by prescription, the party so claiming must show open, notorious, exclusive, adverse, continuous and uninterrupted use of the easement claimed for the full statutory period. Scott v. Weinheimer, — M —, 374 P 2d 91, 95.

Title to an easement acquired by prescription is as effective as though evidenced by a deed. Scott v. Weinheimer, — M —, 374 P 2d 91, 94.

CHAPTER 26—LIMITATION OF OTHER ACTIONS

93-2607. (9033) Two-year limitation.

Subd. 1

Violation of Antitrust Laws

Federal district court properly dismissed counterclaims charging deliberate course of conduct on the part of a utility aimed at destroying business of one of the defendants, failure of utility to operate its pipelines as a common carrier as required by the Federal Leasing Act and the Natural Gas Act, and seeking damages for violations of antitrust laws, which were barred by this section. Wight v. Montana-Dakota Utilities Co., 299 F 2d 470, 480.

When Action Accrues

An action to reform and enforce contract of sale of corporate assets on the ground of mutual mistake, commenced in April of 1955, was promptly brought where facts constituting the mistake were discovered in December of 1954. Favero v. Wynaecht, — M —, 371 P 2d 858, 866.

CHAPTER 27—TIME OF COMMENCEMENT OF ACTIONS—GENERAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING

93-2706. (9052) Actions concerning personal property, etc.

Operation and Effect

Action by an administrator, appointed on May 3, 1960, for estate of decedent who died August 5, 1946, for an accounting to recover estate property, was barred under this section. Cocanougher v. Cocanougher, — M —, 375 P 2d 1014, 1016.

The purpose of this section is to fix a definite point of time from which an applicable statute of limitations commences to run rather than have an applicable statute of limitations start to run when an administrator is appointed no matter how long a period has elapsed after the death of an intestate. Cocanougher v. Cocanougher, — M —, 375 P 2d 1014, 1015.

Under this section, where decedent died on August 5, 1946, letters of administration were deemed to have been issued on or before August 5, 1951. Cocanougher v. Cocanougher, — M —, 375 P 2d 1014, 1015.

93-2719. (9065) Repealed.

Repeal

This section (Sec. 558, C. Civ. Proc.), relating to objections on the basis that action was not commenced in time, was repealed by Sec. 1, Ch. 7, Laws 1963.

CHAPTER 28—PARTIES TO CIVIL ACTIONS

Section 93-2802. Assignment of thing in action not to prejudice defense.

93-2801. (9067) Action to be in name of party in interest.

Assignee under Security Device

The assignee of ranch tenant's net proceeds from the sale of livestock was not a necessary party to an action on the lease by the tenant against the landlord, where the assignment was not absolute and the instrument was clearly a security device on its face. Green v. Wolff, — M —, 372 P 2d 427, 432.

Wrongful Death Action

District court was directed to deny petition of decedent's divorced wife, guardian ad litem of decedent's and her children, to intervene in action for wrongful death under section 93-2810 commenced by the widow as administratrix and trustee for the decedent's minor children, and to strike from the files the complaint in intervention as an attempted substitution of party plaintiffs in a wrongful death action. State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court, 139 M 367, 364 P 2d 739, 742.

93-2802. (9068) Assignment of thing in action not to prejudice defense.
 In the case of an assignment of a thing in action, the action by the assignee is without prejudice to any set-off or other defense existing at the time of, or before, notice of the assignment; but this section shall apply only to the extent not otherwise provided for in the Uniform Commercial Code. Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "shall apply only to the extent not otherwise provided for in the Uniform Commercial Code" at the end of the section for "does not apply to a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, transferred in good faith and upon consideration, before maturity."

93-2805. (9071) Infant, etc., to appear by guardian.

Injury to Minor

Damages awarded for injury to a minor cover both the child's cause of action, pursuant to this section, and the parents' cause of action, pursuant to section 93-2809. Chavez v. United States, 192 F Supp 263, 270.

In the case of an injury to a minor, there arises two causes of action, one in favor of the minor under this section and the other in favor of the parents under section 93-2809. Chavez v. United States, 192 F Supp 263, 270.

93-2809. (9075) Parent or guardian may sue for injury, etc.

Allowance of Interest

Where the amount due a father for the wrongful death of his minor son was not ascertained (or ascertainable) until after the jury had returned its verdict, interest was allowable only from the date the verdict was rendered. Wyant v. Dunn, — M —, 368 P 2d 917, 924. (Dissenting opinion, — M —, 368 P 2d 917, 924.)

Injury to Minor

Damages awarded for injury to a minor cover both the child's cause of action, pursuant to section 93-2805, R. C. M. 1947 (repealed by Laws 1961, ch. 13, sec. 84, effective January 1, 1962), and the parents' cause of action, pursuant to this section. Chavez v. United States, 192 F Supp 263, 270.

In the case of an injury to a minor, there arises two causes of action, one in favor of the minor under section 93-2805, R. C. M. 1947 (repealed by Laws 1961, ch. 13, sec. 84, effective January 1, 1962), and the other in favor of the parents under this section. Chavez v. United States, 192 F Supp 263, 270.

Amount of Verdict

A verdict of $15,195 was not excessive in an action by father for wrongful death of his five-year-old son. Wyant v. Dunn, — M —, 368 P 2d 917, 921. (Dissenting opinion, — M —, 368 P 2d 917, 924.)

Argument of Counsel

In an action by a father for the wrongful death of his infant son it was not reversible error for the trial court to permit the plaintiff's counsel, over objection, in their argument to the jury, to suggest a mathematical basis for fixing damages for loss of love, affection, and companion-

93-2810. (9076) When representative may sue for death, etc.

Allocation of Amount of Recovery

In the event of a recovery for the wrongful death of the deceased the district court may then take requisite action to allocate the amount of recovery in a proper pro rata share among the surviving heirs, but it is clearly not for any jury to decide what amount should be awarded to each of the several plaintiffs in such an action. State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court, 139 M 367, 364 P 2d 739, 741.

One Action for Wrongful Death

This section specifically provides that there can be but one action for a wrongful death and that such action must be prosecuted and maintained by the personal representative. State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court, 139 M 367, 364 P 2d 739, 741.

Substitution of Parties

District court was directed to deny petition of decedent's divorced wife, guardian ad litem of decedent's and her children, to intervene in wrongful death action, commenced by the widow as administratrix and trustee for the decedent's minor children, and to strike from the files the complaint in intervention as an attempted substitution of party plaintiffs in a wrongful death action. State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court, 139 M 367, 364 P 2d 739, 742.

Compiler's Note

This section was originally listed as repealed by section 84 of Chapter 13, Laws 1961. However, Chapter 14, Laws 1963, repealed the repealer and reinstated section 93-2824, retroactive to January 1, 1962. Section 1, Chapter 14, Laws 1963, contained the following recital of purpose: "Under the provisions of Chapter 255, Laws of 1959, the supreme court of the state of Montana was authorized and empowered to have prepared and submit proposed rules of pleading, practice and procedure in civil cases in the courts of this state to the next succeeding legislative session for their consideration; that under the provisions of such chapter, a Civil Rules commission was appointed by the supreme court to make a study and thereafter to submit proposed rules to the court; that thereafter and in accordance with Chapter 255, Laws of 1959, and the order of the supreme court, proposed new rules covering pleading, practice and procedure were submitted to and approved by the supreme court and transmitted to the legislature for its consideration. Such proposed rules were adopted by Chapter 13, Laws of 1961, to be effective January 1, 1962. Inadvertently listed in the tables of statutes superseded by the new rules was section 93-2824, R. C. M. 1947, which was shown as superseded by Rule 25, M. R. Civ. P. Section 93-2824, R. C. M. 1947, dealt with substantive law in that it provided for the survivorship of certain causes of action upon death of the party, whereas Rule 25, M. R. Civ. P. provides for substitution upon the death of a party to an action in which the claim is not thereby extinguished, being purely a procedural rule and in no way carried into the rules the provisions of substantive law set forth in section 93-2824, R. C. M. 1947, and it is necessary that such mistake be corrected retroactive to the date of such inadvertent purported repeal."

Title of Act

An act to correct a mistaken and inadvertent purported repeal of R. C. M. 1947, section 93-2824, known as the "General Survival Statute" which was shown as superseded by Rule 25, M. R. Civ. P., adopted as Chapter 13, Laws of 1961, effective January 1, 1962; re-enacting said section 93-2824, R. C. M. 1947; and making the same retroactive to accomplish the purpose of correcting the mistake contained in Chapter 13, Laws of 1961, Section 79, Rule 86, and Section 82, Table B, Section 83, Table C, and Section 84, and amending Tables B and C of M. CHAPTER 34—ANSWER

Section 93-3403. Counterclaim—rules thereof.

✓ 93-3403. (9139) Counterclaim—rules thereof. A counterclaim on a contract is subject to the following rules:

1. Except as otherwise provided by the Uniform Commercial Code: If the action is founded upon a contract, which has been assigned by the party thereto, a demand existing against the party thereto, or an assignee of the contract, at the time of the assignment thereof, and belonging to the defendant, in good faith, before notice of the assignment, must be allowed as a counterclaim, to the amount of the plaintiff's demand, if it might have been so allowed against the party, or the assignee, while the contract belonged to him.

2. If the plaintiff is a trustee for another, or if the action is in the name of the plaintiff, who has no actual interest in the contract upon which it is founded, a demand against the plaintiff shall not be allowed as a counterclaim; but so much of a demand existing against the person whom he represents, or for whose benefit the action is brought, as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand, must be allowed as a counterclaim, if it might have been so allowed in an action brought by the person beneficially interested. Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "A counterclaim on a contract" at the beginning of the section for "But the counterclaim, specified in subdivision 2 of the last section"; inserted "Except as otherwise provided by the Uniform Commercial Code" at the beginning of paragraph 1; deleted the words "other than a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange" which followed "assigned by the party thereto" in paragraph 1; deleted former paragraph 2, for text of which see parent volume; and redesignated former paragraph 3 as 2.

CHAPTER 37—VERIFICATION OF PLEADINGS

Section 93-3702. Verification of pleadings.

✓ 93-3702. (9163) Verification of pleadings. In any case in which an affidavit of verification is required, except as otherwise specifically provided, such affidavit of verification must be to the effect that the pleading is true to the knowledge of the deponent, except as to the matters therein stated on information and belief, and that as to those he believes it to be true. Such verification must be made by the party, or, if there are several parties united in interest or pleading, by one at least of such parties acquainted with the facts, if such party is in the county and capable of making the affidavit. The verification may also be made by the agent or attorney of the party, if the party is absent from the county where the attorney resides, or is from any other cause unable to verify the pleading, and in such case the verification must state that the deponent is the agent or attorney of the party, and the reason why such verification is made by such agent or attorney, and that the matters stated in the pleading are true to the best knowledge, information and belief of such agent or attorney. Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "mortgage or lien upon real property" in the second paragraph for "mortgage or lien upon real or personal property, or any pledge of personal property."

93-4302. (9257) Affidavit—what to contain. The clerk of the court must issue the writ of attachment, upon receiving an affidavit by or on behalf of the plaintiff, showing:

1. That such defendant is indebted to the plaintiff (specifying the amount of such indebtedness over and above all legal counterclaims) upon a contract, express or implied, for the direct payment of money, and that the payment of the same has not been secured by any mortgage or lien upon real property, or, if originally so secured, that such security has, without any act of the plaintiff, or the person to whom the security was given, become valueless; and

2. That the attachment is not sought, and the action is not prosecuted, to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant. [Effective January 1, 1965.]

4. Investment securities as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code may be attached or levied upon only by seizure by the officer making the attachment or levy; provided, that such a security which has been surrendered to the issuer may be attached or levied upon by leaving with the president, or other head of the same, or the secretary, cashier, or other managing agent thereof, a copy of the writ, and a notice stating that the security of the defendant is attached in pursuance of such writ. Stocks or shares, or interest in stocks or shares, of any corporation or company, other than such investment securities, may be attached either by seizure or by leaving with the president, or other head of the same, or the secretary, cashier, or other managing agent thereof, a copy of the writ, and a notice stating that the stock or interest of the defendant is attached in pursuance of such writ. Amendment

93-4338. (9291) Attachment of personal property subject to a security interest. Personal property subject to a security interest may be taken on attachment or execution issued at the suit of a creditor of the debtor under the security agreement; but before the property is so taken, the officer levying the writ must pay or tender to the secured party the amount of the security agreement debt and interest, or must deposit the same with the county treasurer of the county in which the financing statement covering the security agreement is filed, if such statement is filed with a county clerk and recorder, or if such statement is filed with another filing officer pursuant to law, then with such other filing officer, payable to the order of the secured party; and when the property then taken is sold under process, the officer levying the writ must apply the proceeds of the sale as follows:

1. To the repayment of the sum paid to the secured party, with interest from the date of such payment; and,
2. The balance, if any, in like manner as the proceeds of sales under execution are applied in other cases.

The secured party under any security agreement of record shall, upon fifteen days' notice in writing served upon him in person by any creditor of the debtor seeking to satisfy a judgment or demand of such creditor against the debtor, be required to make and file in the office of the county clerk and recorder or other filing officer with whom the financing statement covering the security agreement is filed, an affidavit showing the amount of the indebtedness then actually due and owing to the secured party, and such affidavit shall state the amount of the original obligation for which the security agreement was given as security, and all additional advancements of money or property on the principal obligation since the date of the execution of the security agreement, and all payments of whatsoever kind, whether on principal or interest, made by the debtor to the date of the execution of such affidavit by the secured party, and showing the balance then remaining due and unpaid to the secured party. If within fifteen days from the service of any such demand in writing on the secured party by any creditor of the debtor the secured party shall fail, refuse, or neglect to file the affidavit herein required, the security agreement shall be of no force or effect as against such creditor upon the seizure of any such personal property on attachment or execution. In the event the amount shown to be due is paid to the county treasurer, or to a filing officer as aforesaid, or to the secured party, in satisfaction of the security agreement by any attaching or execution creditor against the debtor, the secured party shall be required to surrender to the county treasurer or such filing officer the security agreement and any note or other evidence of indebtedness secured thereby, which said security agreement or other evidence of indebtedness shall be delivered by the secured party, county treasurer, or filing officer to the attaching or execution creditor. In the event the property is sold under attachment or execution, such attaching creditor shall be required to deliver to the debtor the security agreement and any note or other evidence of indebtedness secured thereby obtained from the secured party when the property is sold for the amount of the indebtedness under the security agreement, or an amount in excess thereof. Amendment

gaged and pledged personal property, was repealed by Sec. 10-102, Ch. 264, Laws 1963, effective January 1, 1965.

93-4344. (9297) Possession under a mortgage—how acquired. In all cases where it is necessary, under the laws of this state, for a party to any mortgage, assignment, bill of sale, or other contract, between the first day of November and the next succeeding fifteenth day of May, to take possession of any such cattle or horses in order to preserve his rights under any such mortgage, assignment, bill of sale, or other contract, it is sufficient for such party to file a copy of the instrument under which he claims, with a notice of such claim appended thereto, with the general recorder of marks and brands within five days after it becomes necessary for him to so take custody and possession of the same. [Effective January 1, 1965.]

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "general recorder of marks and brands" near the end of the section for "county clerk of the county wherein such property is running at large."

93-4346. (9299) Duty of county clerk and recorder of marks and brands to record papers. It is the duty of the county clerk and of the general recorder of marks and brands to file all papers deposited with them for that purpose, and required to be filed under the provisions of the three preceding sections, and preserve the same as other records of their offices are preserved, and furnish to persons making inquiry about such files all necessary information concerning the same. Amendment

The 1963 amendment inserted "and of the general recorder of marks and brands" near the beginning of the section; and made minor changes in phraseology.

CHAPTER 51—TRIAL—CONDUCT OF THE TRIAL

93-5101. (9349) Order of trial.Argument of Counsel

In an action by a father for the wrongful death of his infant son it was not reversible error for the trial court to permit the plaintiff's counsel, over objection, in their argument to the jury, to suggest a mathematical basis for fixing damages for loss of love, affection, and companionship on a per diem basis, where the trial judge instructed the jury that any remark of counsel not sustained by the evidence should be disregarded. Wyant v. Dunn, — M —, 368 P 2d 917, 920. (Dissenting opinion, — M —, 368 P 2d 917, 924.)

93-5102. (9350) View by jury of the premises.Discretion of Trial Court

Refusal of trial court to permit jury to view premises will not be reviewed by the supreme court in the absence of a showing of an abuse of discretion. Puetz v. Carlson, 139 M 373, 364 P 2d 742, 747.

CHAPTER 52—THE VERDICT—GENERAL AND SPECIAL—DIRECTED WHEN

93-5205. (9364) Directed verdict—when.Motion for Directed Verdict

Star Transfer Co., — M —, 376 P 2d 504, 507.

CHAPTER 53—TRIAL BY THE COURT

93-5306. (9370) Exception for defective findings, etc.When Not Applicable

This rule does not apply where defendants attack the findings for what they declare, not for the absence of findings or because of omission in the findings. Enott v. Hinkle, — M —, 369 P 2d 413, 414.

CHAPTER 55—EXCEPTIONS—SETTLEMENT AND ALLOWANCE OF BILL

93-5505. (9390) Exceptions not presented at time of ruling, etc.Extending Time for Preparation of Bill—Rule of District Court

A district court may not condition the extension of time authorized by this section by requiring an order for a transcript from the court reporter and a deposit of his estimated cost. State ex rel. Ryan v. District Court, — M —, 368 P 2d 802, 804.

Juvenile Appeal

A juvenile who appeals from a commitment by virtue of the provisions of section 10-630 has the right to have the evidence presented in the district court settled in a bill of exceptions and brought before the supreme court for a review. In re Gonzalez, 139 M 592, 366 P 2d 718, 720.

CHAPTER 56—NEW TRIALS—GROUNDS AND MOTIONS FOR—RECORD ON APPEAL FROM FINAL JUDGMENT

93-5603. (9397) When a new trial may be granted.Subd. 1*Irregularity in the Proceedings

When a party to a lawsuit threatens a witness, there has been an irregularity in the proceedings of the court which prevents a fair trial. Herren v. Hawks, 139 M 440, 365 P 2d 641, 644.

Waiver of Irregularity in the Proceedings

If plaintiff is unable to expose the misconduct of the defendant because of a reasonably based fear for the safety of a witness, then failure to do so is not a waiver of the irregularity in the proceedings of the court. Herren v. Hawks, 139 M 440, 365 P 2d 641, 645.

Subd. 4Misconduct of Defendant

In an action for injuries from a dog bite the district court did not abuse its discretion in granting a new trial because of threats of defendant to plaintiff's witness just prior to trial where the affidavit of the plaintiff alleged that misconduct of defendant could not be exposed at the trial because of a reasonably based fear for the safety of the witness. Herren v. Hawks, 139 M 440, 365 P 2d 641, 645.

CHAPTER 58—THE EXECUTION

Section 93-5811. Execution against one of a partnership.

93-5811. (9425) Execution against one of a partnership. If execution is levied upon the interest of one or more parties in the goods and property of a partnership, the same proceedings shall be had as in attachments, provided in sections 93-4336 and 93-4337. [Effective January 1, 1965.]

Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted a second sentence reading, "Personal property mortgaged or pledged may be taken on execution as provided in section 52-309."

only by clear, unequivocal, and convincing evidence. Husky Hi Power, Inc. v. Schmidt, — M —, 372 P 2d 142, 144.

CHAPTER 59—PROCEEDINGS SUPPLEMENTARY TO EXECUTION

93-5901. (9454) Debtor required to answer concerning his property.

Attendance Outside County

A debtor may not be required to attend court outside the county of his residence in a proceeding initiated under this section. Belote v. Bakken, 139 M 43, 359 P 2d 372.

93-5902. (9455) Proceedings to compel debtor to appear, etc.

Property To Be Specified

A creditor's affidavit on information and belief that the debtor had property that could be applied to the judgment, but not specifying any such property, was insufficient to initiate a proceeding under this section; such affidavit, if sufficient at all, initiates a proceeding under section 93-5901. Belote v. Bakken, 139 M 43, 359 P 2d 372.

93-5906. (9459) Judge may order property to be applied on execution.

Judgment against Associates

In supplemental proceedings in aid of execution, district court had no authority to render judgment ordering plaintiff to recover against all doctors, copartners, doing business as a medical clinic, a co-partnership, so that judgment against one doctor became a judgment against his three associates, where his associates were not served with process, were not present, were not parties to the proceedings, and were not represented. Hoopes v. District Court, — M —, 375 P 2d 691, 695.

93-5907. (9460) Proceedings upon claim of another party to property, etc.

CHAPTER 60—FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGES—ACTIONS FOR—SALES UNDER POWERS

Section 93-6001. Proceedings in foreclosure suits.

93-6004. Power of sale.

93-6005. Sale of real estate under power in mortgage—posting notices.

93-6006. Rights of redemption applicable.

93-6007. Allowance of attorneys' fees—petition and notice.

93-6010. Instruments—negotiability and remedies.

93-6001. (9467) Proceedings in foreclosure suits. There is but one action for the recovery of debt, or the enforcement of any right secured by mortgage upon real estate, which action must be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. In such action the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the encumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the application of the proceeds of the sale, and the payment of the costs of the court and the expenses of the sale, and the amount due the plaintiff; and if it appear from the sheriff's return that the proceeds are insufficient, and a balance still remains due, judgment can then be docketed for such balance against the defendant or defendants personally liable for the debt, and it becomes a lien upon the real estate of such judgment debtor, as in other cases on which execution may be issued. No person holding a conveyance from or under the mortgagor of the property mortgaged, or having a lien thereon, which conveyance or lien does not appear of record in the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, need be made a party to such action; and the judgment therein rendered, and the proceedings therein had, are as conclusive against the party holding such unrecorded conveyance or lien as if he had been made a party to the action. Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted "or personal property" following "real estate" in the first sentence.

93-6004. (9470) Power of sale. When a real estate mortgage confers a power of sale, either upon the mortgagee or any other person, to be executed after a breach of the obligation for which the mortgage is a security, either an action may be maintained under this chapter to foreclose, or proceedings may be had under the provisions of the mortgage. Amendment

The 1963 amendment inserted "real estate" before "mortgage" near the beginning of the section.

93-6005. (9471) Sale of real estate under power in mortgage—posting notices. Hereafter real estate sold under a power of sale given and contained in a mortgage of real estate, except in a trust indenture as defined in the "Small Tract Financing Act of Montana," shall be advertised for sale at least thirty days before the date fixed for such sale, in a newspaper in the county in which such real estate is situated, and in case there is no newspaper printed and published in said county, then by posting notices in at least five conspicuous places in said county, one of which notices must be posted on the land so advertised for sale. Two other of said notices must be posted in conspicuous places in the township in which said land is situated, one in such conspicuous place in said county as will be most likely to give notice to all persons interested in said sale, and one of said notices must be posted in a conspicuous place at the front door of the county courthouse of the county in which said land is located, and in addition to the said publication or posting, as hereinbefore provided, notices of such sale must be served personally at least thirty days before the date fixed for such sale upon the occupant of the property so advertised for sale, and upon the mortgagor if within the state of Montana, and upon every person or persons having or claiming an interest of record in the said real estate so advertised for sale who may be found within the said state of Montana.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment inserted "except in a trust indenture as defined in the 'Small Tract Financing Act of Montana'" after "mortgage of real estate" in the first sentence.

93-6006. (9472) Rights of redemption applicable. All of the rights, powers, and privileges, concerning the redemption from sales of real estate applicable to the sales of real estate under foreclosure proceedings or sales under execution, shall be granted and allowed to sales of real estate under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in any mortgage or deed of trust in this state except to sales of real estate under and by virtue of the power of sale conferred upon a trustee under a trust indenture as defined in the "Small Tract Financing Act of Montana."

re-en. Sec. 9472, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec.
19, Ch. 177, L. 1963.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment added the final clause of the section, beginning with "except to sales of real estate."

93-6007. (9473) Allowance of attorneys' fees—petition and notice. If the mortgagee shall demand attorneys' fees in case of the sale of real estate under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in any mortgage or deed of trust in this state, except in case of the sale of real estate by virtue of a power of sale conferred upon a trustee under a trust indenture as defined in the "Small Tract Financing Act of Montana," he shall petition the district court of the county in which said real estate, or any part thereof, may be situated to fix the amount of such attorneys' fee, and a copy of such petition shall be served upon all parties having or claiming an interest of record in the property to be sold, or such of them as may be found within the state, which said copy of said petition must be served at least ten days before the day fixed for hearing, and notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be served at the same time as the copy of said petition is served; such petition shall be acted upon by the said district court before the notice of sale by publication or posting, as hereinbefore provided for, shall be given.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment inserted the words

"except in case of the sale of real estate by virtue of a power of sale conferred upon a trustee under a trust indenture as defined in the 'Small Tract Financing Act of Montana'" in the first part of the section.

93-6010. Instruments—negotiability and remedies. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to affect the negotiability of an instrument, and nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to limit remedies otherwise available to the purchaser of a promissory note secured by a mortgage unless such purchaser at the time of purchase had notice that the note was so secured. [Effective January 1, 1965.]

CHAPTER 62—QUIETING TITLE TO PROPERTY, REAL AND PERSONAL AND OTHER ACTIONS CONCERNING REAL ESTATE

93-6204. (9480) Parties defendant—unknown claimants.

Quiet Title Action

In an action to quiet title to a house and lot, which included unknown claimants as defendants, where the scrivener of the deed erred in misnaming the corporate grantee, it was error to strike demurrer of corporate defendant alleging that the complaint failed to state a cause of action against the defendant and defendant was not required to intervene. Williams v. Widows and Orphans Home, Veterans of Foreign Wars, of Eaton Rapids, Mich., — M —, 373 P 2d 948, 950.

93-6206 to 93-6208. (9482, 9483, 9485) Repealed.

CHAPTER 64—QUO WARRANTO

Right to Hold Office of Clerk of School District

In an action to test the right of defendant to occupy office of clerk of school district board of trustees, wherein plaintiff contended that as clerk of school district board of trustees, she was a public officer and could only be removed on notice and hearing, application for leave to file a complaint in quo warranto was properly denied by the district court, plaintiff being only an employee and the rule for removal of public officers being inapplicable. State ex rel. Running v. Jacobson, — M —, 370 P 2d 483, 486.

CHAPTER 80—SUPREME COURT—APPEALS

Subd. 1—Final Judgments

Dismissal of Action

An appeal to the supreme court may be taken from a judgment dismissing an action which is based on an order sustaining a demurrer to the complaint. Monarch Lumber Co. v. Haggard, 139 M 105, 360 P 2d 794.

A judgment of dismissal entered following the sustaining of a demurrer, when the appellant has elected to stand upon his pleading, is appealable under this section. Cahill-Mooney Constr. Co. v. Ayres, — M —, 373 P 2d 703, 704.

Order Sustaining Demurrer to Petition for Revocation of Probate of Will

An order sustaining a demurrer to petition for revocation of the probate of a subsequent will is an appealable order under this section as amended by Chapter 41, Session Laws 1941. In re Maricich's Estate, — M —, 371 P 2d 354, 355.

93-8005. (9733) Appeal—how taken.

Service of Notice

Service of transcript on appeal containing notice of appeal did not constitute service of notice of appeal under this section. State v. Alexander, — M —, 372 P 2d 426, 427.

Motion to dismiss appeal must be granted by the supreme court where failure to serve the notice of appeal as required by this section deprives the supreme court of jurisdiction. State v. Alexander, — M —, 372 P 2d 426, 427.

CHAPTER 85—NOTICES AND FILING AND SERVICE OF PAPERS

Section 93-8505. Appearance—notice after appearance.

93-8505. (9782) Appearance—notice after appearance. A defendant appears in an action when he answers, files a motion, or gives the plaintiff written notice of his appearance, or when an attorney gives notice of appearance for him, or has such appearance entered in open court. After appearance, a defendant or his attorney is entitled to notice of all subsequent proceedings of which notice is required to be given.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "files a motion" for "demurs" in the first sentence, and deleted a third sentence which read, "But where a defendant has not appeared, service of notice or papers need not be made upon him unless he is imprisoned for want of bail."

CHAPTER 86—COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS—COST BILL—SUIT IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Section 93-8613. Counsel fees on foreclosure.

93-8606. (9791) Costs of appeal discretionary with the court, etc.Printing of Briefs

prices within the state, is not unreasonable. A. T. Klemens & Son v. Reber Plumbing & Heating Co., 139 M 433, 365 P 2d 525, 526.

93-8613. (9798) Counsel fees on foreclosure. In an action to foreclose a mortgage of real property, or a security interest in personal property, the court must allow as a part of the costs a reasonable attorney's fee, which shall be fixed by the court, any stipulation in the instrument or any agreement between the parties to the contrary notwithstanding. [Effective January 1, 1965.]

History: En. Sec. 1862, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7165, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9798, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 11-169, Ch. 264, L. 1963.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "mortgage of real property, or a security interest in personal property" for "mortgage or pledge"; and substituted "instrument" for "mortgage" in the latter part of the section.

Priority

The cost of extending abstract and attorney fees borne by mortgagee seeking foreclosure took priority over federal tax liens, which attached after the mortgage was in default. Streeter Bros. v. Overfelt, 202 F Supp 143, 146.

93-8618. (9802) What are costs and disbursements.Depositions for Defendant's Benefit

Discovery depositions or depositions for defendant's benefit cannot be charged to plaintiff. Davis v. Trobough, 139 M 322, 363 P 2d 727, 729.

Printing of Briefs

The going rate charged by the only printing establishments in Great Falls, Montana, for printing briefs, even though more than double other available printing prices within the state, is not unreasonable. A. T. Klemens & Son v. Reber Plumbing & Heating Co., 139 M 433, 365 P 2d 525, 526.

What are Allowable Costs

Persons named as defendants, but who were not served with process and did not enter an appearance, were not parties to the action, so were entitled to per diem and mileage for attendance as witnesses. Nelson v. Montana Iron Mining Co., — M —, 371 P 2d 874, 878.

The list of items under this section is exclusive in respect to allowable costs except as to cases taken out of its operation by special statute, by stipulation of the parties, or by rule of court. Roseneau Foods, Inc. v. Coleman, — M —, 374 P 2d 87, 91.

In an action by a landlord for unlawful detainer attorney's fees are not recoverable as damages or costs. Roseneau Foods, Inc. v. Coleman, — M —, 374 P 2d 87, 91.

93-8619. (9803) Bill of costs.Computation of Five-day Period

The five-day period, prescribed by this section, is computed from the day the court enters judgment, not from the day the court orally announces its decision. Davis v. Trobough, 139 M 322, 363 P 2d 727, 729.

Where judgment of nonsuit was entered by defendant on May 31, 1960, memorandum of costs, served by mail pursuant to section 93-8504, R. C. M. 1947 (repealed by Laws 1961, ch. 13, sec. 84, effective January 1, 1962), postmarked June 5, 1960 met the requirements of this section since June 5th was the fifth day. In the computation of the time the first day is excluded as prescribed by section 90-407. Davis v. Trobough, 139 M 322, 363 P 2d 727, 730.

93-8622. (9806) Interest and costs included in judgment.Wrongful Death

Where the amount due a father for the wrongful death of his minor son was not ascertained (or ascertainable) until after the jury had returned its verdict, interest was allowable only from the date the verdict was rendered. Wyant v. Dunn, — M —, 368 P 2d 917, 924. (Dissenting opinion, — M —, 368 P 2d 917, 924.)

CHAPTER 87—GENERAL PROVISIONS93-8704. (9819) Successive actions on the same contract, etc.*Ranch Lease

Tenants, after bringing action against landlords for breach of contract at end of 1957-1958 season, could treat each year of the ranch lease contract as a divisible part of the contract, where it contained several divisible parts and ran for four successive years; each year of the farm operation and each year of the livestock operation was a separate phase to be separately performed and settled. Green v. Wolff, — M —, 372 P 2d 427, 434.

CHAPTER 89—UNIFORM DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS ACT93-8901. (9835.1) Scope.*Application

The Uniform Declaratory Judgments Act (93-8901 to 93-8916) does not apply to criminal cases. Goff v. State, — M —, 374 P 2d 862.

Denial of Writ of Prohibition

District court should have denied application for writ of prohibition to restrain board of equalization from enforcing amendments to regulations relating to corporation license tax allegedly due on patronage dividends of farm co-operatives where action for declaratory judgment could have been brought under sections 93-8901 to 93-8916. State ex rel. Fulton v. District Court, 139 M 573, 366 P 2d 435, 437.

93-8902. (9835.2) Power to construe, etc.Persons Entitled to Bring Action

rural electric co-operative and an electric power company as to the right of the cooperative to supply service to an addition to a city, the co-operative could have brought an action to determine its legal position before proceeding to install facilities to service the addition. Montana Power Co. v. Park Electric Co-operative, — M —, 371 P 2d 1, 6.

93-8911. (9835.5) Parties.

Intimate Connection of Parties

In an action under the Declaratory Judgments Act (93-8901 to 93-8916) by insured against insurer, which had issued a policy covering commercial hauling of trailer homes, the insurer's general agent, and local insurance agent, district court did not err in overruling insurer's demurrer on grounds of misjoinder of causes of action and parties defendant, contending that action against local agent being one for tort and action against the insurer and general agent being based on a contract could not be combined, which defect could not be cured by a declaratory judgment, since the rights of all of the parties were intimately connected by the one transaction and the presence of all of the parties was necessary to a determination of their rights. The liability of the insurer depended upon the existence of an amendment to the contract and the liability of the local agent depended upon an absence of that same amendment. Adams & Greig, Inc. v. National Indemnity Co., — M —, 375 P 2d 112, 115.

CHAPTER 90—CERTIORARI (WRIT OF REVIEW)

93-9002. (9837) When and by what courts granted.

Not Available Where Error may be Reached by Appeal

A writ of certiorari is not available in Montana to review question of alleged violations of federal constitutional rights of petitioner concerning voluntariness of guilty plea, where he had not moved to withdraw the plea. Brown v. State of Montana, 202 F Supp 29, 30.

CHAPTER 91—MANDAMUS (WRIT OF MANDATE)

Cancellation of Tax Deeds

Writ of mandamus to require county treasurer to cancel tax deeds upon certain real property to which petitioners asserted ownership was denied it being apparent that the county treasurer had no clear legal duty to cancel the tax deeds since the petitioners were involved in a quiet title action, to which county and tax debtors were parties, in the district court touching the gist of their petition for a writ of mandamus. Sullivan v. Treasurer of Silver Bow County, — M —, 370 P 2d 762.

Claim against County

District court properly quashed writ of mandate to compel county commissioners to allow claim of hospital since there existed a plain, speedy and adequate remedy at law under section 16-1801 [16-1808], which provides for an appeal to the district court from a disallowed claim. State ex rel. Montana Hospital Assn. v. Pitch, — M —, 372 P 2d 90, 91.

Denial of Writ

Mandamus is an extraordinary remedy and will not issue if there is a plain, speedy and adequate remedy at law. Moran v. Board of County Commrs., 139 M 351, 363 P 2d 1073, 1074.

Judgment of district court quashing writ of mandate was well founded where property owner, who brought action in mandamus to compel county commissioners to refund sum paid to redeem land on ground that taxes had been erroneously collected, had adequate remedy at law to recover taxes under section 84-4176. Moran v. Board of County Commrs., 139 M 351, 363 P 2d 1073, 1074.

When Mandamus Lies

The writ of mandamus is issued where there is not a plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. Sullivan v. Treasurer of Silver Bow County, — M —, 370 P 2d 762.

A person seeking a writ of mandamus must be entitled to have the defendant perform a clear legal duty. Sullivan v. Treasurer of Silver Bow County, — M —, 370 P 2d 762.

CHAPTER 92—PROHIBITION—WRIT OF

93-9201. (9861) Prohibition defined.Jurisdiction

District court had no jurisdiction to issue an alternative writ of prohibition to restrain board of equalization from enforcing amendments to regulations relating to corporation license tax allegedly due on patronage dividends of farm co-operatives, until after hearing before said court, where tax could be paid under protest and action brought to recover as provided in section 84-4501 or an action for declaratory judgment could be brought under sections 93-8901 to 93-8916. State ex rel. Fulton v. District Court, 139 M 573, 366 P 2d 435, 437.

CHAPTER 97—FORCIBLE ENTRY AND UNLAWFUL DETAINER—ACTIONS FOR

93-9703. (9889) Unlawful detainer defined.Notice to Quit

Subdivision 2 of this section, which provides that in the case of agricultural lands there must be a "demand of possession or notice to quit" if the tenant "retained possession for more than sixty days after the expiration of his term" does not apply where there is a failure to establish the term of an oral farm lease. Enott v. Hinkle, — M —, 369 P 2d 413, 415.

An action in unlawful detainer cannot be maintained under this section if the tenant is lawfully in possession under a tenancy from year to year as provided by section 42-203 without first giving notice thirty days prior to the anniversary date of the tenancy as prescribed in section 42-206. Roseneau Foods, Inc. v. Coleman, — M —, 374 P 2d 87, 91.

Stay of Action

A stay should have been granted in unlawful detainer action by landlord pending determination of tenant's action against landlord for specific performance of alleged option to re-lease premises. Stanisich v. State Highway Commission, — M —, 375 P 2d 1019, 1021.

In condemnation proceedings instituted by a mutual irrigation company, insolvency of plaintiff, which had acquired canal of defendant mutual irrigation company by contract containing covenants, as consideration for conveyance, under which it obligated itself to furnish defendant company and its users with the same amount of water they had been receiving, was not a "good cause" or "necessity" for condemnation of such covenants by plaintiff. Cove Irrigation Co. v. Yellowstone Ditch Co., 139 M 281, 362 P 2d 543, 545.

93-9912. (9944) Appointment and meeting of commissioners.Supervision by Presiding Judge

Although this section as amended in 1961 gives the presiding judge supervision over the commissioners, it does not grant to the court the right to amend or alter their award. State ex rel. Frelich v. District Court, — M —, 375 P 2d 1016, 1018.

Submission of Verdict to Jury

The district court did not err in submitting verdicts to the jury by which damages were fixed in one sum and without separately stating the amount of damage for the taking and the damage to the remainder where all other witnesses testified as to one figure only, and gave their basis for it; state's counsel, on cross-examination, did not attempt nor could he, segregate the two items, they being interwoven in the very nature of the methods of appraisal; and it would not have been practical, even if possible, to have asked the jury to separately fix the figures because of the manner in which the testimony was produced by both sides. State v. Heltborg, — M —, 369 P 2d 521, 525.

Valuation of Property

Income could be used as a basis for arriving at market value in condemnation case where testimony of the various witnesses for both the landowners and the state, who explained their method of valuation, used the same general approach in determining the loss in value, which approach was labeled the "capitalization of income" approach. State v. Heltborg, — M —, 369 P 2d 521, 523.

case where testimony of the various witnesses for both the landowners and the state, who explained their method of valuation, used the same general approach in determining the loss in value, which approach was labeled the "capitalization of income" approach. State v. Heltborg, — M —, 369 P 2d 521, 523.

93-9914. (9946) Report of commissioners.Alteration of Award

A district court cannot alter or amend a commissioners' award after it has been filed with the district court and notice thereof given to the parties by the clerk. State ex rel. Frelich v. District Court, — M —, 375 P 2d 1016, 1018.

93-9915. (9947) Appeal from assessment of commissioners.Alteration of Award

Improper order of district court in striking certain damages from commissioners' award could not be corrected where an appeal had been taken from the award. State ex rel. Frelich v. District Court, — M —, 375 P 2d 1016, 1018.

of the commissioners appointed to appraise damages, it was reversible error for the state to try to impeach the witness by using the commission award in order to get the whole commission award before the jury. State v. Bare, — M —, 377 P 2d 357, 359.

Expert Testimony

On appeal by state from condemnation award in proceeding to acquire land for interstate highway right of way where it was made clear on direct examination that expert witness for landowner had been one

Right to Receive Damages

This section applies to costs recognized and allowed by statute but it does not add expert witness fees other than as an ordinary witness. State v. Heltborg, — M —, 369 P 2d 521, 525.

Section 93-401-22. Writings—how construed.

93-401-6. (10510) Declarations of predecessor in title evidence.

Water Rights

Defendants failed to establish a prescriptive water right regardless of priority of rights, where depositions which were self-serving declarations were not admissible as ancient documents or public records as exceptions to hearsay rule and no other satisfactory proof of possession or use of the water was shown. King v. Schultz, — M —, 375 P 2d 108, 110.

93-401-13. (10517) An agreement reduced to writing deemed the whole.

Mistake and Imperfection of Writing

In action by sellers of hotel business, including personal property, against buyers for balance due on contract, answer setting up affirmative defenses, which pleaded representations and warranties of seller concerning the leasing of the premises which the buyers relied on, was sufficiently clear to comply with this section as against motion to strike on the ground that the allegations tended to vary the terms of a written contract. Swecker v. Badura, — M —, 377 P 2d 752, 754.

93-401-17. (10521) The circumstances to be considered.

Peerless Casualty Co. v. Mountain States Mut. Casualty Co., 283 F 2d 268, 278.

93-401-18. (10522) Terms to be construed in their general acceptance.

Reinsurance Contract

Where amended agreement between automobile insurer and reinsurer was the same as that contained in prior agreement, which the parties had interpreted as contended for by the insurer, findings that agreement was ambiguous, and that the parties did not intend to give the words in the amendment a different meaning than that given in the agreement, being supported by substantial evidence, warranted judgment in favor of insurer. Peerless Casualty Co. v. Mountain States Mut. Casualty Co., 283 F 2d 268, 276.

93-401-22. (10526) Writings—how construed. A written notice, as well as every other writing, is to be construed according to the ordinary acceptance of its terms. Thus, a notice to the drawers or endorsers of a draft or promissory note, that it has been protested for want of acceptance or payment must be held to import that any necessary presentment for acceptance or payment has been made, that the instrument has been dishonored, and that the holder looks for payment to the person to whom the notice is given. [Effective January 1, 1965.]

for "bill of exchange" in the early part of the second sentence; substituted "any necessary presentment for acceptance or payment has been made, that the instrument has been dishonored" in the second sentence for "the same has been duly presented for acceptance or payment, and the same refused"; and made a minor change in punctuation.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "draft"

CHAPTER 501—EVIDENCE—JUDICIAL NOTICE OF FACTS AND FOREIGN LAWS

93-501-2. Judicial notice of laws of other states.

Foreign Law

Once the court has been invited to take judicial notice of particular foreign law, then the court must make an independent determination as to which is the correct foreign law. H. & J. Gross, Inc. v. Fraser, — M —, 368 P 2d 163, 165.

93-501-5. Notice to adverse party, when required.

Foreign Law

Where defendant invited the court to take judicial notice of certain Pennsylvania statutes to support his argument that a writ of summons must be served to gain jurisdiction over him, he could not complain that lack of notice prevented the introduction of other parts of that foreign law. Once the door was opened by the defendant there was no longer a question of notice. At that point it became the duty of the court to find the correct foreign law. H. & J. Gross, Inc. v. Fraser, — M —, 368 P 2d 163, 165.

CHAPTER 701—EVIDENCE—WITNESSES

93-701-3. (10535) Persons who cannot be witnesses.

Subd. 3

Purpose

The purpose of this subdivision is to prevent the living party by reason of the death of the adversary, gaining an undue advantage over the administrator, and to remove the temptation for the commission of perjury by a party in the instances noted being permitted to testify to a communication or transaction as to which in all probability there can be no denial by a living person. Novak v. Novak, — M —, 377 P 2d 367, 369.

Wife of Claimant

In an action by a son for care of his deceased father, where another witness had testified as to conversation with deceased, it was proper to permit wife of plaintiff to testify as to conversation between her husband and the deceased as she had no direct legal or pecuniary interest in the event. Not being a party to the action she had no direct right growing out of the marital relationship which would attach to the money recovered. Novak v. Novak, — M —, 377 P 2d 367, 369.

CHAPTER 1001—EVIDENCE—PUBLIC WRITINGS

93-1001-23. (10561) What deemed adjudged in a judgment.

Title to Corporate Stock

Denial by probate court of motion of brother of decedent to vacate decree of distribution, which confirmed in decedent's widow whatever title passed to her in certain stock by virtue of death of decedent, was not an adjudication of title to the stock as between the widow and the brother. Roberts v. Roberts, 286 F 2d 647, 650.

CHAPTER 1301—EVIDENCE—INDIRECT—INFERENCES AND PRESUMPTIONS

93-1301-5. (10604) Presumptions may be controverted, when.

Oral Lease

The presumption, under section 42-203, that when a tenant, pursuant to an oral agreement, enters into possession of real property his hiring of the property is presumed to be for one year, is rebuttable since it is not listed as a conclusive presumption in section 93-1301-6. Roseneau Foods, Inc. v. Coleman, — M —, 374 P 2d 87, 90.

93-1301-6. (10605) Specification of conclusive presumptions.

Oral Lease

Since the provision of section 42-203 that the hiring of real property under an oral lease is presumed to be for one year is not listed as a conclusive presumption in this section it is a rebuttable presumption under 93-1301-5. Roseneau Foods, Inc. v. Coleman, — M —, 374 P 2d 87, 90.

93-1301-7. (10606) All other presumptions may be controverted.Subd. 34*Ancient Documents

Defendants failed to establish a prescriptive water right regardless of priority of rights, where depositions which were self-serving declarations were not admissible as ancient documents or public records as exceptions to hearsay rule and no other satisfactory proof of possession or use of the water was shown. King v. Schultz, — M —, 375 P 2d 108, 110.

Ancient documents may be admitted in evidence in proof of the facts recited therein, provided the writers would have been competent to testify as to such facts. King v. Schultz, — M —, 375 P 2d 108, 110.

The ancient document rule, subd. 34 of this section, does not change the basis for admission of evidence other than as to the genuineness of the document. King v. Schultz, — M —, 375 P 2d 108, 110.

AGREEMENTS—CONCLUSIVE—UNANSWERABLE

93-1401-2. (10608) To prove perjury and treason, etc.Operation and Effect

This rule has no application where the accused admits on the stand, on the trial for the offense, that he has committed the offense. State v. Johnson, — M —, 374 P 2d 504, 506.

93-1401-7. (10613) Agreement not in writing—when invalid. In the following cases the agreement is invalid, unless the same or some note or memorandum thereof be in writing, and subscribed by the party charged, or by his agent; evidence, therefore, of the agreement cannot be received without the writing or secondary evidence of its contents:

1. An agreement that by its terms is not to be performed within a year from the making thereof.

2. A special promise to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another, except in the cases provided for in section 30-105.

3. An agreement made upon consideration of marriage, other than a mutual promise to marry.

4. An agreement for the leasing for a longer period than one year, or for the sale of real property, or of an interest therein; and such agreement, if made by an agent of the party sought to be charged, is invalid, unless the authority of the agent be in writing, subscribed by the party sought to be charged.

This section shall not apply to agreements subject to the Uniform Commercial Code. [Effective January 1, 1965.]

Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted former paragraph 4, for text of which see parent volume; redesignated former paragraph 5 as 4; and added the final paragraph.

Oral Lease

An oral lease for more than a year is invalid, and evidence of the agreement and secondary evidence of its contents cannot be introduced. Roseneau Foods, Inc. v. Coleman, — M —, 374 P 2d 87, 89.

of alleged accomplice for truth and veracity as such action was a denial of effort of impeachment of the state's only eyewitness to the burglary. State v. Laverdure, — M —, 370 P 2d 489, 492.

(d) to (f). * * * [Same as 1961 Supplement.]

(g) When Service by Publication or Outside State Complete. Service by publication is complete on the date of the last publication of the summons, or in case of personal service of the summons and complaint upon the defendant out of the state, on the date of such service.

(h). * * * [Same as 1961 Supplement.]

(6) Service on Secretary of State. Unless otherwise provided by statute, whenever the secretary of state of the state of Montana has been appointed, or is deemed by law to have been appointed, as the agent to receive service of process for any person who cannot with due diligence be found or served personally within Montana, the party, or his attorney, shall make an affidavit stating the facts showing that the secretary of state is such agent, and stating the residence and last known post-office address of the person to be served, and shall file such affidavit with the clerk of the court in which such action is pending, accompanied by sufficient copies of such affidavit and of the summons and complaint for service upon the secretary of state, or whenever service is to be made upon certain corporations as provided in section 93-3008 of these codes, and the requirements of said section 93-3008 have been complied with; and there has also been deposited with the clerk of the court in which such action is pending the sum of five dollars to be paid to the secretary of state as a fee for the receipt of such service; then the clerk shall forward three copies of the summons, complaint and affidavit, and the fee, to the sheriff of Lewis and Clark county for service on the secretary of state or his deputy by delivering thereto, and the sheriff shall make due return of such service.

Such service on the secretary of state shall be sufficient personal service upon the person to be served, provided that notice of such service and a copy of the summons and complaint are forthwith sent by registered or certified mail by the secretary of state to the party to be served at his last known address, marked "Deliver to Addressee Only" and "Return Receipt Requested," and provided further that such return receipt shall be received by the secretary of state purporting to have been signed by said addressee, or the secretary of state shall be advised by the postal authority that delivery of said registered or certified mail was refused by said addressee. The date on which the secretary of state receives said return receipt, or advice by the postal authority that delivery of said registered or certified mail was refused, shall be deemed to be the date of service, and the court in which the action is pending may order such continuance as may be necessary to afford reasonable opportunity to defend the action. As an alternative to sending the notice and summons and complaint by registered or certified mail, as here provided, the secretary of state may cause notice of the service and a copy of the summons and complaint to be served by any qualified law enforcement officer, in accord with the procedure set out in D(1), (2) and (3) of this rule ~~[section]~~.

The secretary of state shall make an affidavit as to the service on him, and as to his mailing a copy of the summons and complaint and notice of such service, and as to the receipt of the return receipt or advice of the refusal of registered mail, and the respective dates thereof, and shall transmit such affidavit to the clerk of the court in which the action is pending, and it shall be filed in the cause. The secretary of state shall keep on file in his office a copy of the summons and complaint, and of his affidavit, and also keep a record which shall show the day and hour and manner of such service.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substituted "claim for relief" for "cause of action" in paragraph B (1); added the second and third sentences to paragraph C (2); substituted paragraph D (4) for a paragraph reading, "(4) Other Service. Whenever a statute of this state or an order of the court made pursuant thereto provides for the service of a summons or of a notice or of an order in lieu of summons upon a party not an inhabitant of or found within the state, service shall be made under the circumstances and in the manner prescribed by the statute or order"; inserted the words "in situations defined in (5)(a)(i), (5)(a)(ii), (5)(a)(iii)" at the beginning of clause (ii) of paragraph D (5) (c); added the final clause to the next to last sentence in paragraph D (5) (c); added the final sentence of paragraph D (5) (c); substituted "on the date of" for "upon the expiration of 20 days after" and "upon the expiration of 20 days after the date of" in paragraph D (5) (g); inserted the words "or whenever service is to be made upon certain corporations as provided in section 93-3008 of these codes, and the requirements of said section 93-3008 have been complied with" in paragraph D (6); increased the secretary of state's fee specified in paragraph D (6) from $3.00 to $5.00; and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Appearance by Defendant

A voluntary appearance by a defendant is equivalent to personal service of the summons and a copy of the complaint upon him. Strnod v. Abadie, — M —, 376 P 2d 730, 733.

Defendants Not Served

Persons named as defendants, but who were not served with process and did not enter an appearance, were not parties to the action for the purpose of determining their entitlement to witness fees. Nelson v. Montana Iron Mining Co., — M —, 371 P 2d 874, 878.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Denial of Rehearing

Where notice denying rehearing, required by section 92-833, was mailed by industrial accident board to claimant on February 24, 1960 and received February 25, 1960, notice of claimant's appeal to the district court served and filed on March 21, 1960, upon attorneys for the employer and insurer, was filed within time. Antoff v. Greyhound Post Houses, Inc., 139 M 252, 362 P 2d 546, 547.

Notice by Mail

The supreme court lacked jurisdiction to entertain and determine an appeal when service of notice of appeal was made by mail and counsel for both parties resided in the same town. Green v. Dan Morrison & Sons, — M —, 368 P 2d 570, 571.

Memorandum of Costs

Where judgment of nonsuit was entered by defendant on May 31, 1960, memorandum of costs, served by mail postmarked June 5, 1960 met the requirements of section 93-8619 since June 5th was the fifth day. In the computation of the time the first day is excluded as prescribed by section 90-407. Davis v. Trobough, 139 M 322, 363 P 2d 727, 730.

Voidable Release

Where plaintiff, in his reply, alleged that the release pleaded by defendant's answer was procured through fraud, raising an issue of fact concerning a voidable release, whether or not there was sufficient fraud to avoid the release was a question for the jury to determine under proper instruction. Westfall v. Motors Ins. Corp., — M —, 374 P 2d 96, 99.

93-2703-6. (Rule 12) Defenses and objections—when and how presented—by pleading or motion—motion for judgment on pleadings. (a). * * *
[Same as 1961 Supplement.]

(b) HOW PRESENTED. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) insufficiency of process, (4) insufficiency of service of process, (5) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, (6) failure to join an indispensable party. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (5) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 56 ~~[93-2703-3]~~, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Rule 56 ~~[93-2703-3]~~.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted from the first sentence of subd. (b) a clause reading, "(3) improper venue"; and made the necessary other changes in numbering of clauses and internal references.

Motion to Dismiss

Upon motions to dismiss under subd. (b) of this rule the allegations of the complaint must be viewed in a light most favorable to plaintiffs, admitting and accepting as true all facts well-pleaded. Fulton v. Farmers Union Grain Terminal Assn., — M —, 374 P 2d 231, 236.

93-2703-9. (Rule 15) Amended and supplemental pleadings.

Failure of Proof

Where contract alleged was not proven but rather an attempt was made to prove an entirely different contract, there was not a variance but a failure of proof on behalf of the plaintiff within section 93-3903, R. C. M. 1947 (repealed by Laws 1961, ch. 13, sec. 84, effective January 1, 1962). Fraser v. Williams, — M —, 367 P 2d 769, 770.

Fatal Variance

In action by contractors against defendants to recover for work and labor alleged to have been performed and for materials alleged to have been furnished and delivered to defendants there was no fatal variance which misled or prejudiced defendants when the complaint although based on theory of quantum meruit, alleged that the labor and materials were furnished at the special instance and request of defendants, and an express contract, full performance of which was prevented by defendants, was proven at trial. Puetz v. Carlson, 139 M 373, 364 P 2d 742, 746.

Relief From Judgments, Orders, or Other Proceedings

Default Judgment

District court did not abuse its discretion by refusing to open default taken on April 28, 1960 where defendant did not move to open the default until December 15, 1960. Strnod v. Abadie, — M —, 376 P 2d 730, 732.

The portion of section 93-3905, which allowed answer within one year after rendition of judgment did not cover a case where the district court acquired jurisdiction over defendant when he voluntarily appealed to answer the original complaint through counsel. Strnod v. Abadie, — M —, 376 P 2d 730, 733.

Striking of Amended Pleading

Even though an amended pleading ordinarily renders the original pleading functus officio, the original pleading is reinstated if the amended pleading is stricken. Monarch Lumber Co. v. Haggard, 139 M 105, 360 P 2d 794.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Fraudulent Conveyance

Under section 29-101 et seq., the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyances Act, a creditor may join with his cause of action alleging indebtedness a second cause of action alleging that debtor's giving of mortgages and conveyance of certain property was without fair consideration and made him insolvent, and a third cause of action alleging that after executing the mortgages, he had unreasonably small capital in his business. Cahill-Mooney Constr. Co. v. Ayres, — M —, 373 P 2d 703, 709.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Quiet Title Action

In an action to quiet title to a house and lot, which included unknown claimants as defendants, where the scrivener of the deed erred in misnaming the corporate grantee, it was error to strike demurrer of corporate defendant alleging that the complaint failed to state a cause of action against the defendant and defendant was not required to intervene. Williams v. Widows and Orphans Home, Veterans of Foreign Wars of Eaton Rapids, Mich., — M —, 373 P 2d 948, 950.

93-2704-4. (Rule 20) Permissive joinder of parties.

Intimate Connection of Parties

In an action under the Declaratory Judgments Act (93-8901 to 93-8916) by insured against insurer, which had issued a policy covering commercial hauling of trailer homes, the insurer's general agent, and local insurance agent, district court was not in error in overruling insurer's demurrer on grounds of misjoinder of causes of action and parties defendant, contending that action against the local agent being one for tort and action against the insurer and general agent being based on a contract could not be combined, which defect could not be cured by a declaratory judgment, since the rights of all of the parties were intimately connected by the one transaction and the presence of all of the parties was necessary to a determination of their rights. The liability of the insurer depended upon the existence of an amendment to the contract and the liability of the local agent depended upon an absence of that same amendment. Adams & Gregoire, Inc. v. National Indemnity Co., — M —, 375 P 2d 112, 115.

93-2704-8. (Rule 24) Intervention.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Interest in the Matter in Litigation

A retail merchant, a citizen and resident of Montana, who competed with other merchants giving or not giving trading stamps, had an interest in an action by another retailer against the state board of equalization for a declaratory judgment that Chapter 153, Laws of 1961 (sections 84-2805 to 84-2812), providing for the licensing of any merchant advertising or giving trading stamps or devices defined in such act, was unconstitutional, and should have been permitted to intervene under this section in support of the constitutionality of such statute. State ex rel. Abel v. District Court, — M —, 368 P 2d 572, 576.

Right to Disqualify Judge

An intervener, being a party to the action, is entitled to avail himself of the provisions of section 93-901 and in a proper situation may file an affidavit of disqualification. Allman v. Potts, — M —, 371 P 2d 11, 13.

Wrongful Death Action

District court was directed to deny petition of decedent's divorced wife, guardian ad litem of decedent's and her children, to intervene in action for wrongful death under section 93-2810 commenced by the widow as administratrix and trustee for the decedent's minor children, and to strike from the files the complaint in intervention as an attempted substitution of party plaintiffs in a wrongful death action. State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court, 139 M 367, 364 P 2d 739, 742.

CHAPTER 2705—DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

93-2705-1. (Rule 26) Depositions pending action.

Admission of Deposition

District court did not err in failing to admit into evidence a deposition of witness which was taken before the trial where default had been entered at the time of trial, although he was a party to the record; his testimony at the trial did not materially deviate from that contained in the deposition; and material matters covered by the deposition were not omitted in his testimony at the trial. Walsh-Anderson Co. v. Keller, 139 M 210, 362 P 2d 533, 538.

Judgment of Nonsuit

Trial court did not err in granting a nonsuit against plaintiff in action by truck driver against automobile owner for injuries arising out of accident when the daughter of the owner of the automobile forced truck off the highway where plaintiff did not prove ownership or the identity of the automobile involved in the accident as belonging to defendant and the record was silent as to any proof upon the question of agency. Castle v. Thisted, 139 M 328, 363 P 2d 724, 726.

Re-examination of Adverse Witness

Where plaintiff in his case in chief called one of the defendants to the witness stand, and cross-examined him as permitted by section 93-1901-9, trial judge did not abuse his discretion in denying motion of counsel for defendants for right to re-examine such defendant, where he was called to the stand in defendants' case in chief, less than two hours after he had been excused as an adverse witness, and counsel for defendants completed their examination of him that same day. Wyant v. Dunn, — M —, 368 P 2d 917, 921. (Dissenting opinion, — M —, 368 P 2d 917, 924.)

Hypothetical Questions

Defendant tractor owner was not prejudiced by the court's allowing highway patrolman to answer hypothetical questions which assumed, among other facts, that a driver in a position the same as that of plaintiff's decedent was watching the right side of the road as he passed the glare of the tractor headlights where it had been previously established that decedent could not have avoided hitting the tractor-trailer had he been looking directly ahead. Modification of Judgment

In action by sellers of hotel business against buyers for balance due on contract, findings of district court that damages found for buyers would never exceed amount owed to sellers, and denial of recovery to sellers, did not void judgment and it was modified on appeal giving judgment to sellers for difference between that owed on the contract and total damages that buyers would sustain. 94-117. (10726) To constitute crime there must be unity of act, etc.Criminal Negligence

Insofar as the offense of involuntary manslaughter is concerned under section 94-2507, the proof of culpability is supplied by evidence of criminal negligence. State v. Strobel, 130 M 442, 304 P 2d 606, 617, overruled on another point, 333 P 2d 1021.

It is wholly unnecessary in involuntary manslaughter cases to superimpose upon the requirement of the element of criminal negligence the further requirement that a determination must be made as to whether the act resulting in death might ordinarily be classified as malum in se or merely malum prohibitum, for, if that act is done in a manner which is criminally negligent, it thereby becomes malum in se and thereby includes the element of mens rea. State

v. Strobel, 130 M 442, 304 P 2d 606, 617, overruled on another point, 333 P 2d 1021.

Under a prosecution for involuntary manslaughter, irrespective of the character of the unlawful act, whether malum in se or merely malum prohibitum, the criminality of the act resulting in death is established if that act was done negligently in such a manner as to evince a disregard for human life or an indifference to consequences. State v. Strobel, 130 M 442, 304 P 2d 606, 617, overruled on another point, 333 P 2d 1021.

Involuntary Manslaughter

CHAPTER 2—PERSONS LIABLE TO PUNISHMENT— PARTIES TO CRIME

94-201. (10729) Who are capable of committing crimes.Instructions

Refusal to give instruction under subd. 6 of this section was not reversible error in view of other instructions given. State v. Allison, 122 M 120, 199 P 2d 279, 289.

94-204. (10732) Who are principals."Accomplice" Defined

An accomplice is one who knowingly, voluntarily, and with common intent with the principal offender unites in the commission of a crime. State v. Harmon, 135 M 227, 340 P 2d 128.

Aiding and Abetting

While the statute defines larceny as the taking of property from the person of another yet it is sufficient to show the defendant's guilt that he aided or abetted in the commission of the crime. State v. Maciel, 130 M 569, 305 P 2d 335, 336.

Conspiracy

A coconspirator may be found guilty of a crime committed by his fellow conspirator whether the fellow conspirator is alive or dead, competent or incompetent, at the time of his trial. State v. Alton, 139 M 479, 365 P 2d 527, 535.

All participants in a conspiracy may be found guilty of any of the degrees of murder or one or more may be found guilty of each degree. State v. Alton, 139 M 479, 365 P 2d 527, 538.

All parties to a conspiracy are guilty whether their part in the conspiracy is large or small, and whether or not that part is to be carried out at a distance from the other conspirators. State v. Alton, 139 M 479, 365 P 2d 527, 538.

Felony Murder Rule

Where defendant hired two men to set fire and burn his service station, and during the course of the arson the two men were burned and subsequently died, the defendant was guilty of first degree murder under the felony murder rule since any death directly attributable to a plot to commit arson makes all the conspirators in the arson plot equally guilty of first degree murder. State v. Morran, 131 M 17, 306 P 2d 679.

Injury to Perpetrator of Crime

A bartender who worked after hours for the sole purpose of making illegal sales of liquor and signaling prostitutes as to the arrival of prospective customers was in pari delicto and could not recover from his employer for an injury received during such employment. Lencioni v. Long, 139 M 135, 361 P 2d 455.

Instructions

Where a verbal declaration of one co-defendant that he and the other codefendant were partners was given in evidence, it was error for the court to refuse defendant's instruction that such verbal declaration is insufficient to establish a partnership. Although a partnership was immaterial because of this section and section 94-6423, yet the jury may have given full consideration to the declaration and found defendant guilty on the strength thereof. State v. Keller, 126 M 142, 246 P 2d 817, 821.

Kidnaping

Defendant was guilty of confining prison guard secretly against his will in violation of section 94-2602 where the evidence showed that defendant, an inmate of the state prison, walked behind prison guard with a knife, after another inmate had disarmed the guard, until the inmates had placed the guard in isolation. State v. Frodsham, 139 M 222, 362 P 2d 413, 419.

Operation and Effect

Under this section and section 94-6423, evidence was sufficient to sustain a conviction of assault in the second degree where defendant was at the scene of the crime and was admittedly a participant therein; it is not necessary to show that he actually fired any one of the guns. State v. Simon, 126 M 218, 247 P 2d 481, 484.

CHAPTER 3—ABANDONMENT AND NEGLECT OF WIFE AND CHILDREN

Section 94-301. Abandonment or failure to support wife—penalty for.

94-304. Desertion or abandonment of child or ward a felony—suspension of sentence, when.

94-301. (11017) Abandonment or failure to support wife—penalty for. Every person, having sufficient ability to provide for his wife's support, or who is able to earn the means for such wife's support, who wilfully abandons and leaves his wife in a destitute condition, or who refuses or neglects to provide such wife with necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical attendance, unless in the judgment of the court or jury he is justified in abandoning her by her misconduct, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Amendment

The 1963 amendment deleted language which appeared near the beginning of the section and read, "who: 1. Having any child under the age of sixteen years, dependent upon him or her for care, education or support, wilfully omits, without lawful excuse, to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical attention for his or her child or children, or ward or wards; or"; and made minor changes in style and arrangement.

94-304. (11020) Desertion or abandonment of child or ward a felony—suspension of sentence, when. Any person who has a child or ward under the age of sixteen (16) years who is dependent upon him or her for care or support shall not:

(1) Desert or abandon such child or ward without providing necessary and proper shelter, food, clothing and medical care for such child or ward; or

(2) Wilfully omit, without lawful excuse, to provide necessary and proper shelter, food, clothing and medical care for such child or ward.

A person who violates this section is guilty of a felony and shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment for not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years in the state prison. The court may suspend such sentence if the defendant shall furnish a bond in such penal sum, and with such surety or sureties as the court may fix, conditioned that he will furnish his child or ward with necessary and proper shelter, food, care, and clothing. In case of failure to comply with the conditions of such bond, the court may order such person to appear before the court and show cause why sentence should not be imposed, whereupon the court may pass sentence or may modify the order and take a new bond and further suspend sentence as may be just and proper. The judge may declare a bond forfeited and may, in his discretion, order the face amount of such bond used to support the persons deserted, abandoned or neglected.

him this section making it a felony to desert and abandon children under 15 years of age, and also sections 94-301 and 94-302 which make it a misdemeanor to omit without lawful excuse to furnish necessary board, clothing, shelter or medical attention to children under the age of 16 years, the court abused its discretion in refusing to grant the defendant's motion to change his plea of guilty since there was a misunderstanding as to what the defendant pleaded guilty. State v. McBane, 128 M 369, 275 P 2d 218. (Dissenting opinion, 128 M 369, 275 P 2d 218, 222.)

Amendment

The 1963 amendment substantially re-wrote this section. For previous text, see parent volume.

CHAPTER 6—ASSAULTS

Section 94-602. Assault in second degree.

94-601. (10976) Assault in the first degree defined—penalty.

Criminal Intent

The element of felonious intent in every contested criminal case must necessarily be determined from the facts and circumstances of the particular case, this for the reason that criminal intent, being a state of mind, is rarely susceptible of direct or positive proof and therefore must usually be inferred from the facts testified to by witnesses and the circumstances as developed by the evidence. State v. Madden, 128 M 408, 276 P 2d 974, 978.

Operation and Effect

In a prosecution for assault in the first or second degree the prosecution had to prove by satisfactory evidence, that when the defendant pointed a gun at a person he intended to commit a felony upon that person; instructions defining the felony must be given to the jury so that the jury can determine if the evidence showed such intended felony. State v. Quinlan, 126 M 52, 244 P 2d 1058, 1059 (the court was not in agreement on this however, see the dissenting opinions of two judges on pages 1060, 1063).

Penalty

Defendant charged with assault in first degree was properly sentenced to state prison for 18 years which was within the statutory term for the offense of which the jury found him guilty and during trial on first day of assault charge he pleaded guilty to three prior felony convictions charged in same information charging assault in first degree. State v. McLeod, 131 M 478, 311 P 2d 400, 408.

Sufficiency of Information

Trial court did not err in overruling defendant's demurrer to amended information and in overruling his objection to the introduction of evidence and his motion to dismiss the information, where the amended information complied with the requirements of sections 94-6401, 94-6403 to 94-6405 and 94-6412. State v. McLeod, 131 M 478, 311 P 2d 400, 406.

94-602. (10977) Assault in second degree. Every person who, under circumstances not amounting to the offense specified in the last section:

(1) With intent to injure unlawfully, administers to, or causes to be administered to, or taken by another, poison, or any other destructive or noxious thing, or any drug or medicine, the use of which is dangerous to life or health; or,

(2) With intent thereby to enable or assist himself, or any other person, to commit any crime, administers to, or causes to be administered to, or taken, by another, chloroform, ether, laudanum, or any other intoxicating narcotic, or anesthetic agent; or,

(3) Wilfully or wrongfully wounds or inflicts grievous bodily harm upon another, either with or without a weapon; or,

(4) Wilfully and wrongfully assaults another by the use of a weapon, or other instrument or thing likely to produce grievous bodily harm; or,

(5) Assaults another with intent to commit a felony, or to prevent or resist the execution of any lawful process or mandate of any court or officer, or the lawful apprehension or detention of himself, or of any other person, is guilty of an assault in the second degree, and is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one nor more than six years, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or both.

History: En. Sec. 401, Pen. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 8313, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10977, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 129, L. 1961. Cal. Pen. C. Secs. 216, 222, and 245.

Amendment

The 1961 amendment increased the maximum term of imprisonment from five to six years.

Instructions on This Section

Instructions defining the felony intended to be committed must be given to the jury in a prosecution of assault in the first or second degree so that the jury may determine if the evidence showed an intended felony. State v. Quinlan, 126 M 52, 244 P 2d 1058, 1059.

Subd. 4

Operation and Effect

Evidence was insufficient to justify a conviction of second degree assault with a deadly weapon where it was disclosed that the defendant was hunting jack rabbits at the time; that he never knew the prosecuting witness prior to the day of the alleged assault; that the rifle was extremely sensitive and would fire upon being brushed against an object such as clothing or even a change in temperature might fire the gun; and that the defendant was an instructor in firearms in the army during the war and would not have missed from the distance of eight feet had he been aiming at the prosecuting witness. State v. Smith, 126 M 124, 246 P 2d 227, 228.

Evidence was sufficient to justify a conviction under this section when it was shown that defendant was with a group of boys who fired a barrage of shots at a house and some of the pellets hit the house; the fact that the prosecuting witness had moved to a position away from the line of fire did not prevent the attack from being an assault upon him and sustained the charge that the guns were fired toward him and in his direction. State v. Simon, 126 M 218, 247 P 2d 481, 482, 483, 484.

Proof of Offense Different Than That Charged

Where defendant was charged with assault in the second degree as defined in subd. 4, it was error to introduce evidence that the defendant in pointing the firearm was resisting a lawful arrest by the sheriff in violation of subd. 5. State v. Storm, 124 M 102, 220 P 2d 674, 675.

Specific Intent

Specific intent needs to be proved in second degree assault charges only under subdivisions 1, 2 and 5 of this section. State v. Straight, 136 M 255, 347 P 2d 482, 487.

Sufficiency of Evidence

Where evidence did not show that defendant pointed gun at sheriff after he was handed paper by deputy which purported to be a warrant, evidence was insufficient to support a conviction under either subd. 4 or 5 of this section. State v. Storm, 124 M 102, 220 P 2d 674, 678.

Sufficiency of Information

Information charging defendant with unlawfully threatening another by pointing a loaded revolver at him charged a criminal offense. State v. Storm, 124 M 102, 220 P 2d 674, 675.

An information charging that the defendant committed the crime of assault in the second degree by wilfully, wrongfully, unlawfully, and feloniously assaulting a human being by wounding and inflicting grievous bodily harm contrary to the form, force and effect of the statute, was sufficient to let the defendant know specifically the crime with which he was charged. State v. Straight, 136 M 255, 347 P 2d 482, 486.

Even though, in an information charging second degree assault, it was not charged specifically that a belt was used in the assault, admission of evidence that a belt was used was not error. State v. Straight, 136 M 255, 347 P 2d 482, 487.

94-603. (10978) Assault in third degree.

Instructions

It was error to refuse defendant's instructions defining assault in the third degree, and instead instructing the jury as to assault in the first and second degree but omitting any instructions defining what felony was intended to be committed by assaulting a person with a gun. Since the jury had no way of knowing what felony, if any, the defendant intended to commit upon a person by pointing a gun at him, the jury should have been allowed to consider whether or not defendant was guilty of third degree assault. State v. Quinlan, 126 M 52, 244 P 2d 1058, 1059.

94-605. (10980) Use of force not unlawful.Subd. 3*Operation and Effect

Evidence failed to justify a conviction of assault with a deadly weapon when it was shown that the defendant was merely exercising force in defense of his home, inasmuch as the prosecuting witness came to defendant's cabin in the company of another fellow who had intruded in defendant's home and lived there without defendant's permission and who the defendant had to forcibly evict, and also someone had been stealing log poles from the defendant. State v. Nickerson, 126 M 157, 247 P 2d 188, 192, 193.

Subd. 4Intent

Under this section, in order to convict one standing in loco parentis of assault upon a child, it is not necessary to prove either express or implied malice or permanent injury. It is up to the jury to determine from the facts and circumstances of each individual case whether the manner of punishment is reasonable and the degree moderate. State v. Straight, 136 M 255, 347 P 2d 482, 490.

CHAPTER 7—BIGAMY AND INCEST94-705. (11029) Incest.*Amendment of Information

There was no substantial change in the charge where the court allowed the state to amend an information charging defendant with incest by changing "fornication" to "adultery." Whether the defendant was married and unmarried at the time is not a material ingredient of the offense. In either event the defendant is guilty, if the intercourse charged is proved. State v. Kuntz, 130 M 126, 295 P 2d 707, 710.

CHAPTER 8—BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION94-804. (10856) Improper attempts to influence jurors, referees, etc.*Operation and Effect

Where the evidence discloses that the defendant conversed with a grand juror privately at the latter's home it cannot be construed to be in the regular course of proceedings and thus within the exception to this section. State v. Porter, 125 M 503, 242 P 2d 984, 990.

94-806. (10858) Embracery.Operation and Effect

After a person has been discharged as a grand juror, the crime of embracery could not be committed even though the defendant thought he was influencing a grand juror. State v. Porter, 125 M 503, 242 P 2d 984, 987.

CHAPTER 9—BURGLARY AND HOUSEBREAKING—POSSESSION OF BURGLARIOUS INSTRUMENTS AND DEADLY WEAPONS

Section 94-901. Burglary defined.

94-904. Word "enter" defined.

94-901. (11346) Burglary defined. Every person who enters any house, room, apartment, tenement, shop, warehouse, store, mill, barn, stable, out-house, or other building, tent, motor vehicle and aircraft, vessel, or railroad car, with intent to commit grand or petit larceny or any felony, is guilty of burglary.

The 1949 amendment inserted the word "automobile" and the word "or" before "railroad car."

Aiding Another in Entry

To support a conviction of two persons for burglary, it is not essential that the entry shall be by both, but if one of them entered and was aided by the other in so doing both are guilty, since burglary may be committed by being present and aiding another in entering. State v. Harmon, 135 M 227, 340 P 2d 128.

Burglary Tools as Evidence

Burglary tools may be introduced and received into evidence only after proof is made connecting the tools with the accused or the crime and, where it does not appear from the evidence that the tools were ever in the possession or under the control of the defendant or that they were in any way connected with the alleged crime, their admission as evidence is error. State v. Filacchione, 136 M 238, 347 P 2d 1000.

94-902. (11347) Degrees of burglary.Failure to Prove Time Crime Was Committed

Where the information alleges nighttime or first degree burglary it is essential that the state prove the crime occurred during the nighttime as provided in section 94-905. When the evidence is that

Proof of Intent—Circumstantial Evidence

An express intention to commit a felony or larceny does not have to be proved, but it may be manifested by circumstances connected with perpetration of the offense without any positive testimony as to express intent. State v. Board, 135 M 139, 337 P 2d 924.

Truck

The legislature has made it clear that an automobile and truck are to be considered two distinct and separate vehicles for registration and tax purposes. It does not make sense to hold that the legislature intended, in making entry into an automobile burglary, to have intended the word "automobile" as a general term, and to include automobiles, trucks, busses and the like. Had the legislature intended to use a general term, it would have used the term "motor vehicle." Certainly no interpretation should be given any word which would make an act a crime unless it is clear that the legislature intended that interpretation should be given such word. State v. Duran, 127 M 233, 259 P 2d 1051, 1052. (See, however, the dissenting opinion, 127 M 233, 259 P 2d 1051, 1054.)

the crime took place sometime between 3:15 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. and that on the particular day the sun rose at 5:56 a.m. a conviction of nighttime burglary cannot stand. State v. Fitzpatrick, 125 M 448, 239 P 2d 529, distinguished in 337 P 2d 927.

under this law for abatement of gambling nuisance, rather than under sections 94-2401 and 94-2404 for criminal punishment, is not a matter of which the defendant can complain on appeal. State ex rel. Replogle v. Joyland Club, 124 M 122, 220 P 2d 988, 1000.

94-1002. (11124) Certain buildings declared nuisances. Every building or place or tract of land under one ownership used for the purpose of lewdness, assignation, or prostitution, and every building or place or tract of land under one ownership wherein or upon which acts of lewdness, assignation, or prostitution are held or occur, and any building, place or tract of land under one ownership wherein or upon which gambling or those other illegal acts prohibited by chapter 24 and chapter 30, Title 94 Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, are carried on or occurs, contrary to any of the laws of the state of Montana, or wherein any wine rooms are conducted or maintained, contrary to the laws of the state of Montana, or wherein any opium or coca leaves, their salts, derivatives, and preparations thereof are sold or given away or used contrary to the laws of the state of Montana, is a nuisance which shall be enjoined, abated, and prevented as hereinafter provided, whether the same be a public or private nuisance.

Amendment

The 1959 amendment inserted the words "or tract of land under one ownership" the first two times it appears and substituted the words "place or tract of land under one ownership wherein or upon which gambling or those other illegal acts prohibited by chapter 24 and chapter 30, Title 94 Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, are" for the words "wherein gambling is."

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 268, Laws 1959 repealed all acts or parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 268, Laws 1959 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 16, 1959.

Permanent Injunction during Hearing

A permanent injunction against the use of defendant's premises as a house of prostitution and an order of abatement cannot be granted pursuant to this section while a motion to strike is pending and before issues have been finally joined. State ex rel. Harrison v. Baker, 135 M 180, 340 P 2d 142.

Punch Boards

Premises wherein punch boards are operated may be abated as a nuisance inasmuch as punch boards constitute a lottery and play at lottery is gambling. Sections 84-5701, 84-5702 (since repealed) and 94-2401 which assume to authorize the use of punch boards as trade stimulators violate § 2, Art. XIX of the Montana Constitution, which prohibits the legislature from authorizing lotteries, and therefore are invalid and do not prevent the abatement of the premises as a nuisance. State ex rel. Harrison v. Deniff, 126 M 109, 245 P 2d 140.

94-1003. (11125) County attorney to abate nuisance, etc.Procedural Rules Applicable

A suit under the provisions of this section is a civil suit, and is governed by the same rules applicable in other injunction suits where no other statutory direction is given as to the manner in which the court shall proceed. State ex rel. Harrison v. Baker, 135 M 180, 340 P 2d 142.

94-1004. (11126) Verification of complaint—temporary injunction.Law Applicable

The procedure for the abatement of a nuisance per se provided by the statute is that set forth by this law and the general procedure for the issuance of an injunction in ordinary civil cases has no application. State ex rel. Bergland v. Bradley, 124 M 434, 225 P 2d 1024.

Order Quashing Injunction Appealable

Where temporary injunction enjoining defendant from conducting the business constituting a nuisance as described in the complaint was quashed same day of issuance and an order issued enjoining defendant from operating "any of the games of chance described in the complaint contrary to the laws of the State of Montana," such order was appealable. State ex rel. Olsen v. 30 Club, 124 M 91, 219 P 2d 307, 309.

Quashing Injunction Prior to Hearing

Where complaint and affidavits showed prima facie that premises constituted a nuisance per se, it was error to quash the temporary injunction issued thereunder when defendant filed affidavit under provisions of section 93-4211, but injunction should have remained in effect until a hearing was had. State ex rel. Olsen v. 30 Club, 124 M 91, 219 P 2d 307, 309.

Verified Complaint

A complaint filed by a person other than the county attorney, if verified on information and belief pursuant to section 93-3702, is sufficient for the issuance of a temporary injunction. State ex rel. Bergland v. Bradley, 124 M 434, 225 P 2d 1024.

A coconspirator may be found guilty of a crime committed by his fellow conspirator whether the fellow conspirator is alive or dead, competent or incompetent, at the time of his trial. State v. Alton, 139 M 479, 365 P 2d 527, 535.

Insurance Business

Since this section prohibits conspiracies in restraint of trade in the insurance business, federal district court, because of the provisions of the McCarran Act (15 U. S. C. § 1 et seq.), would have no jurisdiction of a suit for violation of the Sherman and Clayton Acts involving the business of insurance, unless the suit fell within an exception to the McCarran Act. Professional & Business Men's Life Ins. Co. v. Bankers Life Co., 163 F Supp 274, 280.

CHAPTER 14—ELECTION FRAUDS AND OFFENSES—CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT

Section 94-1475. Political literature to contain name of officer of organization or person publishing and producing.

94-1476. Violation of preceding section a misdemeanor.

94-1454. (10800) Political criminal libel.

Compiler's Note

This section may be partially superseded by sec. 94-1475.

94-1475. Political literature to contain name of officer of organization or person publishing and producing. It shall be unlawful for any person to publish, print, mimeograph, type or otherwise produce any dodger, bill, handbill, pamphlet or other document which is designed to aid, injure or defeat any candidate or any political party or organization or measure before the people unless it is stated therein the name of the chairman or secretary, or the names of the other officers of the political or other organization publishing, printing, mimeographing, typing or otherwise producing such dodger, bill, handbill, pamphlet or other document or the name of some voter who is responsible therefor with his residence and street address, if any, together with the name of the publisher, printer or the producer thereof with his residence and street address, if any, or his place of business.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 74, L. 1951.

with his residence and street address, if any, or his place of business, and providing that violation thereof shall constitute a misdemeanor, and repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith.

CHAPTER 18—FALSE PERSONATION AND CHEATS

Section 94-1805. Obtaining money, property or services by false pretenses.

94-1822. Inducing engagement as an advertising agency for sale of real property by misrepresentation of fact concerning services—penalty.

94-1805. (11410) Obtaining money, property or services by false pretenses. Every person who knowingly and designedly, by false or fraudulent representation or pretenses, defrauds any other person of money or property, including evidence of indebtedness, or who knowingly and designedly obtains the service of another by false or fraudulent representation or pretenses, or who causes or procures others to report falsely of his wealth or mercantile character, and by thus imposing upon any person obtains credit, and thereby fraudulently receives services or gets into possession of money or property, is punishable in the same manner and to the same extent as for larceny of the money or the value of the property or services so obtained.

Amendment

The 1959 amendment inserted the words "or who knowingly and designedly obtains the service of another by false or fraudulent representation or pretenses"; inserted the words "receives services or" and substituted the words "the value of the property or services" for the word "property."

Application

A defendant charged under section 94-1806 with obtaining property by means of a confidence game cannot be convicted on evidence which shows that the defendant obtained such property "by false or fraudulent representation or pretenses" under this section because such crimes are separate and distinct offenses. State v. Allen, 128 M 306, 275 P 2d 200, 201. (Dissenting opinions, 128 M 306, 275 P 2d 200, 205, 206.)

Evidence of an Offense Not Charged in the Information

When a county officer is charged with collecting illegal fees, by presenting a claim under the name of another to the county for work which was within his duties as county surveyor it was prejudicial error for the court to admit evidence of another claim submitted by the county surveyor to the county which offense was not charged in the information (Justices Bottomly and Angstman dissenting). State v. Hale, 126 M 326, 249 P 2d 495, 496.

Information

Where a statute uses general or generic words in defining the offense the information or indictment bottomed upon that statute must specify the particular facts which constitute the offense. State v. Hale, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 232, distinguished in 135 M 449, 453, 340 P 2d 157, 160. (Dissenting opinion, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 236.)

An information may be drawn consistent with this section which is not vulnerable to the objection that it is bad for duplicity for charging an offense under section 94-3908 (presenting fraudulent claim to a county). State v. Hale, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 234. (Dissenting opinion, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 236.)

Information which avers only that the defendant made a "false" or "fraudulent" representation is not sufficient. It must expressly allege the facts which made the stated pretense false. State v. Hale, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 232. (Dissenting opinion, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 236.)

To characterize a representation as "false" or "fraudulent" does not suffice to state the offense. The particulars in which the representations relied upon are false must appear from facts directly and positively set out. State v. Hale, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 231. (Dissenting opinion, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 236.)

Operation and Effect

When a county officer is charged with collecting illegal fees by presenting a claim under the name of another to the county for work which was within his duties as county surveyor, the public policy of this state under section 94-5516 is that, as a matter of defense, the county officer is entitled to offer evidence of his good faith or honest mistake and the value received by the county. State v. Hale, 126 M 326, 249 P 2d 495, 496.

False representations as to income, profits, or productivity of property as fraud. 27 ALR 2d 14.

94-1806. (11411) Confidence games.

Application

Where evidence disclosed that all the defendant did, to induce the complaining witness to give him the ring, was, after she had broached the subject of oil wells, to say, in effect that he had an oil well in Louisiana from which he received $800 a month income, and that he would cut her in for $200 of that income. The jury could assume such statements were false, since, according to the complaining witness, neither the first $200 due July 15th, nor any other was ever paid to her. Defendant should have been prosecuted under section 94-1805 "obtaining money or property by false pretenses," not under this section "confidence games." State v. Allen, 128 M 306, 275 P 2d 200, 205. (Dissenting opinions, 128 M 306, 275 P 2d 200, 205, 206.)

Confidence or Bunco Game

It is a crime to obtain or attempt to obtain money by the use of a confidence game. State v. Hale, 134 M 131, 328 P 2d 930, 934.

Construction of Statute

The element of confidence must be present in order to maintain an action under this section. State v. Hale, 134 M 131, 328 P 2d 930, 934.

The confidence games described in this section are those whereby an elaborate scheme is developed to play upon the credulity or sympathy or some other trait of the victim. State v. Hale, 134 M 131, 328 P 2d 930, 934.

Operation and Effect

A defendant charged under this section with obtaining property by means of a confidence or bunco game cannot be convicted on evidence which shows that defendant obtained such property "by false or fraudulent representation or pretenses" under section 94-1805, because such crimes are separate and distinct offenses. State v. Allen, 128 M 306, 275 P 2d 200, 201. (Dissenting opinions, 128 M 306, 275 P 2d 200, 205, 206.)

Separate and Distinct Crime

This statute covers a separate and distinct crime from that covered by section 94-2406. State v. Hale, 134 M 131, 328 P 2d 930, 934.

94-1822. Inducing engagement as an advertising agency for sale of real property by misrepresentation of fact concerning services—penalty. Any person engaged or purporting to be engaged as an advertising agency for real property who accepts or solicits money or other considerations for himself or for any other person, in connection with the execution by an owner of real property of any contract whereby such owner authorizes such person to serve as an advertising agency for the sale of such property, and who for the purpose of inducing the owner of such property to enter into such a contract makes or procures the making of any oral or written representation of fact with respect to the nature or extent of the services to be rendered for or on behalf of such owner by any such person under such contract, with reasonable ground for belief that such representation is not true, or who refrains from disclosing to such owner, any matter of fact pertinent to the nature or extent of the services to be rendered for or on behalf of such owner by any such person under such contract is guilty of a felony and shall be imprisoned for not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 125, L. 1959.

Title of Act

An act declaring that the acceptance or solicitation of money or other considerations in connection with any contract for the advertising of real property by misrepresentation or by failing to disclose facts pertinent to such contract is a felony and prescribing a penalty; containing a repealing clause.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 125, Laws 1959 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Act Committed by Indian on Indian Reservation

State court was without jurisdiction to try an Indian for forgery of a check where the Indian attempted to cash the check on a store located within the boundaries of an Indian Reservation. The defendant is still a ward of the federal government and is still under the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal government for all acts and crimes defined and made punishable by the laws of Congress, when committed within the exterior boundaries of an Indian reservation. State ex rel. Bokas v. District Court, 128 M 37, 270 P 2d 396.

Non-negotiable Instruments

The fact that a warrant is non-negotiable does not affect the question as to whether one who passes it when containing a known forged indorsement is guilty of forgery. State v. Phillips, 127 M 381, 264 P 2d 1009, 1011.

Passing of Auditor's Warrant

The statute when speaking of indorsements while not specifically mentioning auditors' warrants does cover "orders."

Testimony of Person Forging Indorsement as Corroboration

The testimony of the person who forged the indorsement on a warrant and who was not implicated in the matter of passing or uttering the instrument is corroborating evidence to the testimony of an accomplice of the defendant charged with uttering the forged instrument, since the person who forged the indorsement is not an accomplice to the defendant who uttered the instrument as the making of the instrument and the uttering of it are two separate crimes although they both constitute forgery. State v. Phillips, 127 M 381, 264 P 2d 1009, 1014. (See, however, the dissenting opinions in 127 M 381, 264 P 2d 1009, 1016, 1018.)

94-2429. Slot machines—possession unlawful. History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 197, L. 1949.

Title of Act

An act prohibiting the licensing, use, operation, keeping or maintenance of slot machines within the state of Montana; defining certain terms used in this act; providing penalties for the violation of this act and repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith; providing for a referendum on this act; and providing for local option elections in counties on the question of the licensing and operation of slot machines and specifying the procedure for holding said election.

38 C.J.S. Gaming § 99.

94-2430. Slot machine defined. A slot machine is hereby defined as a machine operated by inserting a coin, token, chip or trade check therein by the player and from the play of which he obtains, or may obtain, money, checks, chips or tokens redeemable in money. Merchandise vending machines where the element of chance does not enter into their operation are not within the provisions of this act.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 197, L. 1949.

94-2431. Person or persons defined. In addition to their ordinary meaning, the word "person" or "persons," as used in this act, shall include both natural and artificial persons and all partnerships, corporations, associations, clubs, fraternal orders and societies, including religious, fraternal and charitable organizations.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 197, L. 1949.

94-2432. Penalty for possession or permitting use of slot machine. Any person, partnership, club, society, fraternal order, corporation, co-operative association or any other person, individual or organization who violates any of the provisions of this act, or who permits the use of any slot machine, as herein defined, on any place or premises owned, occupied or controlled by him or it, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00), nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 197, L. 1949.

Repealing Clause—Effective Date

Section 5 of Ch. 197, L. 1949 read, "All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith, particularly all laws of this state and all ordinances of cities and towns relating to the issuance of licenses for the operation of slot machines, are hereby repealed and this act shall take effect and be in force and effect on and after the 31st day of December, 1950, as to sections 1 to 6, inclusive, provided a majority of the votes cast on this issue are against the operation of slot machines, and if a majority of the votes so cast are for the operation of slot machines, the act shall be in effect on said date as to sections 8 to 15, inclusive." At the general election in November, 1950, the majority of votes was against the operation of slot machines. Sections 7 to 16 of Ch. 197, L. 1949 are therefore omitted.

Separability of Provisions

Section 6 of Ch. 197, L. 1949 read, "If any part of this act shall be declared by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this act."

CHAPTER 25—HOMICIDE

94-2501. (10953) Murder defined.

Conspiracy

A coconspirator may be found guilty of a crime committed by his fellow conspirator whether the fellow conspirator is alive or dead, competent or incompetent, at the time of his trial. State v. Alton, 139 M 479, 365 P 2d 527, 535.

All participants in a conspiracy may be found guilty of any of the degrees of murder or one or more may be found guilty of each degree. State v. Alton, 139 M 479, 365 P 2d 527, 538.

Operation and Effect

It is not necessary to show pre-existing malice against the deceased and malice may be shown directly or may be inferred from a lack of provocation. State v. London, 131 M 410, 310 P 2d 571, 582.

Malice may be express or implied and on proof of homicide by the defendant, malice is presumed, but the presumption does not exist in the presence of evidence tending to show that the act amounts only to manslaughter. State v. Rivers, 133 M 129, 320 P 2d 1004, 1006.

Felony-murder Rule

Where the evidence disclosed that the defendant hired two men to set fire and burn his service station, and during the course of the arson the two men were burned and subsequently died, the defendant was guilty of first degree murder under the felony murder rule since any death directly attributable to a plot to commit arson makes all the conspirators in the arson plot equally guilty of first degree murder. State v. Morran, 131 M 17, 306 P 2d 679.

Guilty of Lesser Offense

Where defendant was charged with murder in the second degree it was permissible for the jury to find him guilty of involuntary manslaughter. State v. Allison, 122 M 120, 199 P 2d 279, 288.

Commutation of Sentence

Inmate of state prison, who along with his codefendant had been sentenced to life imprisonment on plea of guilty to first degree murder, was not entitled to release from custody because his codefendant had been released from prison after commutation of his sentence by the governor. Goff v. State, 139 M 641, 367 P 2d 557, 558.

Operation and Effect

Where there is evidence sustaining finding by trial court of murder in the first degree supreme court will not interfere with trial court's determination and the sentence of death. State v. Palen, 120 M 434, 186 P 2d 223, 224.

94-2507. (10959) Manslaughter—voluntary and involuntary.

Acts of Omission

Omission to perform an act required by law can be the basis for manslaughter. Hence, where evidence disclosed that a child, 5 months old, died due to starvation, and that his weight at death was only 5 pounds 14 ounces which was but ten ounces over his birth weight, and that the father and mother had the means with which to care for the child, the evidence would be sufficient to support the conviction of the parents for manslaughter. State v. Bischoff, 131 M 152, 308 P 2d 969.

The failure to obtain medical aid for one who is owed a duty is a sufficient degree of negligence as to constitute involuntary manslaughter provided death results from the failure to act. State v. Mally, 139 M 599, 366 P 2d 868, 872.

Burden of Proof

The state in prosecuting for manslaughter because of the failure to provide medical aid is not required as an element of their proof to show the ability on behalf of the defendant to furnish such aid. If a defendant could not obtain aid either through normal procedure or the poor laws, this is a matter for his defense. State v. Mally, 139 M 599, 366 P 2d 868, 872.

Criminal Negligence

Insofar as the offense of involuntary manslaughter is concerned, the proof of culpability is supplied by evidence of criminal negligence. State v. Strobel, 130 M 442, 304 P 2d 606, 617, overruled on another point, 134 M 519, 525, 333 P 2d 1017, 1021.

It is wholly unnecessary in involuntary manslaughter cases to superimpose upon the requirement of the element of criminal negligence the further requirement that a determination must be made as to whether the act resulting in death might ordinarily be classified as malum in se or merely malum prohibitum, for, if the act is done in a manner which is criminally negligent, it thereby becomes malum in se and thereby includes the element of mens rea. State v. Strobel, 130 M 442, 304 P 2d 606, 617, overruled on another point, 134 M 519, 525, 333 P 2d 1017, 1021.

Wilful or evil intent is not an element of involuntary manslaughter. State v. Pankow, 134 M 519, 333 P 2d 1017, 1021.

Instructions

Where judge instructed the jury in the language of the statute thereby giving the jury the definitions of both voluntary and involuntary manslaughter, defendant could not complain on ground there was no evidence of voluntary manslaughter in the case where the jury found him guilty of involuntary manslaughter. State v. Allison, 122 M 120, 199 P 2d 279, 289.

Where defendant was charged with second degree murder but the court withdrew the murder charge from the jury and presented the question of the guilt or innocence of the defendant for the crime of manslaughter, an instruction charging the jury that the state must prove the "intent" alleged in the information could properly have been modified to apply to the crime of manslaughter, however, conviction will not be set aside where it appears that no prejudice resulted. State v. Allison, 122 M 120, 199 P 2d 279, 291.

Where evidence showed that defendant was drunk and that he drove his automobile at a high rate of speed into the rear of another automobile going the same direction, causing it to catch fire and killing the occupants, the contention of defendant that he could not remember the events which transpired at that time did not establish an accident and instruction on responsibility for deaths caused by accident was not necessary. State v. Souhrada, 122 M 377, 204 P 2d 792, 796.

In prosecution for involuntary manslaughter the issue is one of criminal negligence rather than intent and giving of instruction that "intent is not an element of involuntary manslaughter" was not erroneous. State v. Souhrada, 122 M 377, 204 P 2d 792, 797.

Since the word "feloniously" is not necessary in the information it was not necessary that the word "feloniously" be defined by the court's instructions and court's erroneous definition could not have been prejudicial particularly where other instructions clearly advised the jury of the elements of the crime. State v. Souhrada, 122 M 377, 204 P 2d 792, 797.

Where the court instructed the jury that in order to find the defendant guilty it must find that the defendant committed an unlawful act, not amounting to a felony, and that the unlawful act was the proximate cause of the injury and death; and then in a later instruction defined criminal negligence as such that amounts to a wanton, flagrant, or reckless disregard of consequences or wilful indifference of the safety or rights of others, the instructions taken as a whole are correct. For while the former may, standing alone, be inaccurate or even erroneous, yet as qualified and explained by other portions of the charge, in pari materia, it fully and fairly submits the case to the jury. State v. Bosch, 125 M 566, 242 P 2d 477, 480.

Intent

A wilful or evil intent is not a requirement of involuntary manslaughter. State v. Pankow, 134 M 519, 333 P 2d 1017, 1021.

Operation and Effect

This section is a recognition of the frailty of human nature, and has as its purpose to reduce a homicide committed under the circumstances therein contemplated to the grade of manslaughter. State v. Messerly, 126 M 62, 244 P 2d 1054, 1056.

Photographs in Evidence

In a prosecution of defendant for failure to provide food to an infant child which resulted in the child's death, it was error to admit into evidence photographs of the body of the child which showed ghastly and gruesome looking sores or scars alleged to have been caused by dermatitis. The charge was for failure to provide food and not for the failure to provide medical care and such photographs in no way went to the proof of starvation. Their purpose could only arouse the human feelings of the jury without aiding them in further understanding the crime charged. State v. Bischert, 131 M 152, 308 P 2d 969, 973.

Sufficiency of Evidence

Where defendant had invited another person to stay or "bunk" with him for the night, and thereafter, while in his tavern, shot through the screen and door of his bedroom striking such person who was on the other side of the door, jury was justified in returning a verdict of guilty of involuntary manslaughter. State v. Allison, 122 M 120, 199 P 2d 279, 289.

Defendant who deliberately drove his car around curve at a speed which he must have known was dangerous to human lives, those of himself and his passengers was properly convicted of involuntary manslaughter. State v. Pankow, 134 M 519, 333 P 2d 1017, 1019.

In order to convict a person for manslaughter because of failure to provide medical aid it must appear from the evidence that the defendant's failure to obtain medical aid was the proximate cause of death. State v. Mally, 139 M 599, 366 P 2d 868, 872.

Sufficiency of Information

Information for manslaughter against driver of death car was sufficient where it was in the form prescribed by section 94-6404, complied with the requirements of sections 94-6403, 94-6405, and met the tests provided by section 94-6412. State v. Haley, 132 M 366, 318 P 2d 1084, 1085.

Verdict of Manslaughter on Charge of Murder

Where defendant was charged with murder in the second degree it was permissible for the jury to find him guilty of involuntary manslaughter. State v. Allison, 122 M 120, 199 P 2d 279, 288.

CHAPTER 26—KIDNAPING

Section 94-2604. Prisoner holding hostage.

94-2601. (10970.1) Kidnaping—penalty—place of trial.

Seizure or detention for purpose of committing rape, robbery, or similar offense as constituting separate crime of kidnaping. 17 ALR 2d 1003.

94-2602. (10970.2) Kidnaping with intent to send person, etc.Question for Jury

Where defendant is charged with kidnaping with intent to secretly confine a prison guard it was a question for the jury whether defendant was acting under duress or coercion because of threats made to him by other convicts participating in riot. State v. Walker, 139 M 276, 362 P 2d 548, 550.

State v. Frodsham, 139 M 222, 362 P 2d 413, 419.

On the trial of defendant charged with kidnaping with intent to secretly confine a prison guard a showing of actual physical violence or threat of personal injury are not required to prove the force necessary to establish the crime. State v. Walker, 139 M 276, 362 P 2d 548, 550.

Sufficiency of Evidence

Defendant was guilty of confining prison guard secretly against his will where the evidence showed that defendant, an inmate of the state prison, walked behind prison guard with a knife, after another inmate had disarmed the guard, until the inmates had placed the guard in isolation.

Sufficiency of Information

An information under this section is sufficient if it contains a statement of facts constituting the offense charged in ordinary and concise language so as to enable a person of common understanding to know what was intended. State v. Randall, 137 M 534, 353 P 2d 1054, 1056.

94-2604. Prisoner holding hostage. Every person committed to the Montana state prison, who, while at such state prison or while being conveyed to or from the Montana state prison, or while at a state prison farm or ranch, or while being conveyed to or from any such place, or while under the custody of prison officials, officers or employees, or while escaping or attempting to escape therefrom, holds as hostage any person within the state prison or who, unlawfully, by force or threat of force holds any person or persons against their will shall be guilty of a felony and shall be imprisoned in the state prison for a term not less than ten (10) years, such term of imprisonment to commence from the time he would have otherwise been released from said prison.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 128, L. 1961.

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 128, Laws 1961 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 2, 1961.

Title of Act

An act prohibiting persons committed to the state prison from holding hostages or from unlawfully holding persons against their will and fixing the penalty therefor; and providing for an effective date.

CHAPTER 27—LARCENY AND FALSIFICATION OF PUBLIC RECORDS AND JURY LISTS

Section 94-2702. Uttering fraudulent checks or drafts—evidence.

Civil Liability

In action based upon indemnity bond issued by defendant to indemnify plaintiff against loss from fraud or dishonesty of its station agent, allegation in complaint that the agent while in possession of money and property belonging to plaintiff, had wrongfully and dishonestly appropriated plaintiff's products and cash money, sufficiently stated a cause of action on which to predicate civil liability. Waite v. Standard Accident Ins. Co., 132 M 220, 315 P 2d 989, 992.

Instructions

Conviction under this section requires proof of specific intent and an instruction that "when an unlawful act is shown to have been deliberately committed for the purpose of injuring another, it is presumed to have been committed with a malicious and guilty intent. The law also presumes that a person intends the ordinary consequences of any voluntary act committed by him" was erroneous. State v. Garney, 122 M 491, 207 P 2d 506, distinguished in 135 M 139, 147, 337 P 2d 924, 929.

Larceny by Indians on Indian Territory

A state district court was without jurisdiction to convict an Indian of larceny which occurred on Indian territory since under Acts of Congress (U. S. C. Tit. 18, §§ 1153, 3242) such an offense is within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States. State v. Pepion, 125 M 13, 230 P 2d 961.

Proof of Intent

The intent required may be found from the facts and circumstances surrounding the transaction, but the mere existence of an unpaid debt does not demonstrate any intent fraudulently to appropriate the property. State v. Smith, 135 M 18, 334 P 2d 1099, 1102.

Sufficiency of Information

An information charging grand larceny by defendant, laid in the terms of this section is sufficient without particularity, so long as it enables the defendant to prepare a defense. State v. Fairburn, 135 M 449, 340 P 2d 157.

An information which charges the offense of larceny by a selling agent in the language of this section is sufficient and not vulnerable to a general demurrer; there is no requirement that the agency be detailed, and, as between owners, the amount of money stolen from each need not be particularized. State v. Fairburn, 135 M 449, 340 P 2d 157.

94-2702. (11369) Uttering fraudulent checks or drafts—evidence.

Any person who for himself or as the agent or representative of another or as an officer of a corporation, wilfully, with intent to defraud shall make or draw or utter or deliver, or cause to be made, drawn, uttered or delivered, any check, draft or order for the payment of money upon any bank or depository, or person, or firm, or corporation, knowing at the time of such making, drawing, uttering or delivery that the maker or drawer has no funds or insufficient funds in or credit with such bank or depository, or person, or firm, or corporation, for the payment of such check, draft, or order in full upon its presentation, although no express representation is made with the reference thereto, shall upon conviction be punished as follows: If there are no funds in or credit with such bank or depository, or person, or firm, or corporation, for the payment of any part of such check, draft or order, upon presentation, then in that case the person convicted shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five (5) years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) or by both such fine and imprisonment; if such check, draft or order be for a sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or less, and there are some but not sufficient funds in or credit with such bank, or depository, or person, or firm, or corporation, for the payment of such check, draft or order in full, then in that case the person so convicted shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six (6) months, or by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300.00) or by both such fine and imprisonment; if such check, draft or order be for a sum greater than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and there are some but not sufficient funds in or credit with such bank, or depository, or person, or firm, or corporation, for the payment of such check, draft or order in full upon its presentation, then in that case the person so convicted shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five (5) years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) or by both such fine and imprisonment. As against the maker or drawer thereof, the making, drawing, uttering or delivering of such check, draft or order as aforesaid shall be prima facie evidence of intent to defraud and of knowledge of no funds or insufficient funds, as the case may be, in or credit with such bank, or depository, or person, or firm, or corporation, for the payment of such check, draft or order in full upon its presentation, provided such maker or drawer shall not have paid the drawee thereof the amount due thereon, within five (5) days after receiving notice that such check, draft, or order has not been paid by the drawee. The word "credit" as used herein shall be construed to mean an arrangement or understanding with the bank, depository, person, firm or corporation, for the payment of such check, draft or order.

Amendment

The 1957 amendment made numerous changes in this section. For section prior to amendment see parent volume.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 135, Laws 1957, repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Operation and Effect

Held, that where a person was convicted under this section, the proper procedure for review of errors was by appeal under the statutes and not by seeking at a later date the common-law writ of coram nobis. Were it shown that the defendant's case was exigent, as for example, that although innocent of any crime he was nevertheless arbitrarily sentenced and wrongfully imprisoned under that sentence, and if then the existing remedies by appeal as prescribed by our statutes and as well the usual writs to which this court customarily turns to prevent an injustice were found in truth inadequate, the court would not hesitate to design a further remedial writ so that the court could meet the emergency and attain the ends of justice, otherwise denied. State v. Zumwalt, 129 M 529, 291 P 2d 257, 260. (Dissenting opinion, 129 M 529, 291 P 2d 257, 262 based on the opinion that the defendant was innocent of the crime charged and arbitrarily sentenced.)

94-2704. (11371) Grand larceny defined.

Aiding and Abetting

While the statute defines larceny as the taking of property from the person of another yet it is sufficient to show defendant's guilt that he aided or abetted in the commission of the crime under section 94-6423 because all persons concerned in the commission of a crime are principals under section 94-204. State v. Maciel, 130 M 569, 305 P 2d 335, 336.

Disposal of Stolen Property

If the crime of larceny has been completed, i. e., the taking and carrying away of the property has come to an end, then anyone subsequently assisting the thieves in the disposal of the stolen property would not be guilty of larceny. State v. Guay, 138 M 362, 357 P 2d 19, 22.

Effect of Ownership Not Proven as Alleged

Where the information alleges the ownership of the property, such allegation must be proven; proof of a brand only is not sufficient proof of the ownership of an animal bearing such brand. State v. Elmore, 126 M 232, 247 P 2d 488, 492.

Larceny by Bailee

Where defendant charged with grand larceny by bailee did not deny that he received a check from the complaining witness, but his defense was that it was a loan instead of a payment for an automobile, evidence as to whether the check was a loan or payment for the automobile was admissible over objection that it permitted a witness to vary a written instrument by parol testimony. State v. Ahl, — M —, 371 P 2d 7, 9.

Defendant, who admitted title to automobile in the complaining witness and that he accepted and took custody of a check, and agreed that the money was to pay for the automobile, but failed to deliver the automobile, requiring the complaining witness to again pay for it, violated his trust as bailee by appropriating the money to his own use and was guilty of grand larceny by bailee. State v. Ahl, — M —, 371 P 2d 7, 10.

Operation and Effect

Conviction for larceny cannot be sustained where the evidence connecting the defendant with the hide and asportation of a live steer amounts to no more than suspicion and conjecture. State v. Elmore, 126 M 232, 247 P 2d 488, 492.

It is grand larceny to take money from the person of another with a felonious intent no matter what the amount is that is taken. State v. Peschon, 131 M 330, 310 P 2d 591, 595.

Conviction of defendant of grand larceny of an automobile was reversed where the actual taking and asportation of the car in question was not proven. State v. Fairbanks, — M —, 370 P 2d 497, 499. (Dissenting opinions, — M —, 370 P 2d 497, 500.)

Transporting of Stolen Property

Where one joins with a person, or persons in committing the crime of larceny and assists in the transporting and disposition of property which he knows to be stolen, he may be convicted of larceny. This is true even though the one assisting in the transporting and disposing of the stolen property was not in any manner connected with the initial taking of the property. State v. Guay, 138 M 362, 357 P 2d 19, 22.

94-2706. (11373) Punishment of grand larceny.Plea of Guilty

Defendant's plea of "guilty" to information charging him with grand larceny rendered him subject to a sentence of "not less than one nor more than fourteen years" imprisonment, depending upon the view taken by the trial judge of the evidence to be presented to him, in open court, showing circumstances either in aggravation or mitigation of punishment. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 351.

The extent of defendant's punishment on plea of guilty to grand larceny should have been determined by the exercise of a sound discretion on the part of the trial judge after the circumstances had been "presented by the testimony of witnesses examined in open court" specifically provided for in sections 94-7813 and 94-7814 subject to the provisions of section 94-7831. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 351.

Reduction of Sentence

The sentence of a defendant, who pleaded guilty to grand larceny, to four years in the state prison was reduced to one year by the supreme court where trial court passed sentence upon receipt of private reports without allowing defendant or his counsel to learn of the representations in the reports and a hearing to present evidence to refute such representations as provided in sections 94-7813 and 94-7814. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 365.

94-2717. (11384) Claim of title, ground of defense.Evidence of Intent

priating a customer's check under claim of right as a commission, testimony of clergyman concerning conversation had between himself and accused as to prior statements made by owner to agent, is inadmissible as hearsay since it is a self-serving declaration. State v. Fairburn, 135 M 449, 340 P 2d 157.

Essential Elements of Crime

Proof that the defendant knew the property was stolen is an essential element of the crime. The evidence is not sufficient where the state relies on a bill of sale which describes "3 cow hides red no brand" and in fact the hides had brands and cattle was missing from the brand owners, while the defendant proves that when he received the hides they were bundled up and so stiffly frozen that they could not be examined to see if they had brands. State v. Gilbert, 126 M 171, 246 P 2d 814, 815.

Operation and Effect

Conviction for receiving stolen goods cannot be sustained where the information charged that the defendant received a deepfreeze knowing the same to have been stolen from the true owner, Missoula County, while the facts were that the defendant was the county surveyor and he ordered a deepfreeze from a company and charged it to the county. Since the acts of the surveyor were unlawful, the county never purchased the freezer and never had it in its possession and at no time had title to the deepfreeze; therefore, Missoula County was never the owner from whom it was stolen as charged in the information. State v. Bourdeau, 126 M 266, 246 P 2d 1037, 1038.

CHAPTER 28—LIBEL

Section 94-2807. Publishing a true report of public proceedings privileged.

94-2807. (10995) Publishing a true report of public proceedings privileged. No reporter, editor, or proprietor of any newspaper, nor any owner, licensee, or operator of a visual or sound radio broadcasting station or network of stations, nor any agent or employee of any such owner, licensee, or operator, is liable to any prosecution for a fair and true report of any judicial, legislative, or other public official proceedings, or of any statement, speech, argument, or debate in the course of the same, except upon proof of malice in making such report, which is not implied from the mere fact of publication or broadcast.

CHAPTER 30—LOTTERIES

94-3001. (11149) Lottery defined.

Numbers Games

A numbers game, whether called Chinese lottery, "The Crown Game," "The Crown punchboard game" or any other game is a lottery. State ex rel. Olsen v. Crown Cigar Store, 124 M 310, 220 P 2d 1029, 1032.

Punch Boards

ex rel. Harrison v. Deniff, 126 M 109, 245 P 2d 140, 141.

In an action for violation of this section it was no defense that the defendant had offered to pay for the operation of such punch boards in accordance with Ch. 201, Laws 1951, which purports to license trade stimulators such as punch boards since it is not competent for the legislature to authorize lotteries in view of Const. Art. 19, sec. 2 and the case of State ex rel. Harrison v. Deniff. State v. Tursich, 127 M 504, 267 P 2d 641, 642.

Slot Machines

The operation of a slot machine is a lottery and banned by the criminal laws of this state. State v. Marek, 124 M 178, 220 P 2d 1017, 1019; State v. Read, 124 M 184, 220 P 2d 1020; State ex rel. Olsen v. Crown Cigar Store, 124 M 310, 220 P 2d 1029, 1032.

Valuable Consideration

Where one is required to make an outlay of money in order to participate in a scheme whereby an award is made by chance, the participant pays valuable consideration for the chance to participate, notwithstanding the fact he may also receive merchandise at the same time that the outlay is made. State v. Cox, 136 M 507, 349 P 2d 104. (State ex rel. Stafford v. Fox-Great Falls Theatre Corp., 114 M 52, 132 P 2d 689, distinguished.)

And it shall be unlawful for any person who, for nonpayment of dues, tolls, or other good and sufficient reasons, has been disconnected from service with any telephone, telegraph or electric light or power system in this state to connect

The 1963 amendment deleted the words "displaces, removes, injures, destroys or obstructs any telegraph, telephone or electric light line, wire, cable, pole or conduit belonging to another, or the material or property appurtenant thereto, or maliciously and wilfully cuts, breaks" which followed "wilfully and maliciously" in the first clause of the section; and inserted "or electric power line, wire or cable" after

"telephone line, wire, cable, or instrument" near the beginning of the section.

94-3576. (10988) False imprisonment, definition and punishment.Failure to Take Person Promptly before Magistrate

In an action for false imprisonment brought by plaintiff against a sheriff and the surety on his official bond based on unnecessary delay in taking plaintiff be-

Compiler's Note

The section appearing in the parent volume (Sec. 1, Ch. 122, Laws 1927 as amended Sec. 1, Ch. 124, Laws 1941 and appearing in Revised Codes 1935 as Sec. 11048.1) was held to have been impliedly repealed by Ch. 105, Laws 1933 in State v. Holt, 121 M 459, 194 P 2d 651, and was specifically repealed by Sec. 3, Ch. 143, Laws 1949, and therefore the law set out above (Sec. 1, Ch. 143, Laws 1949) covering the same subject-matter has been given the same section number.

Title of Act

An act preventing the selling or giving away of intoxicating liquor to persons under twenty-one (21) years of age; providing penalties therefor: and repealing Section 11048.1 as amended by Chapter 124 of the Laws of the Twenty-seventh Legislative Assembly of the State of Montana, 1941, and all other acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith.

Alcoholic Content of Beer

It is not necessary that the information or the evidence show the alcoholic content of the beer in order to obtain a conviction. State v. Winter, 129 M 207, 285 P 2d 149, 156.

Construction

Under the above statute the selling to a minor is an offense without regard to whether the defendant had a license to sell or not. State v. Winter, 129 M 207, 285 P 2d 149, 155.

Entrapment

Defense of entrapment would not be available to a bar owner in a prosecution for selling liquor to a minor where it was shown that the public officers had given a minor money and sent him into the bar to purchase the liquor in order to obtain evidence. State v. Parr, 129 M 175, 283 P 2d 1086, 55 ALR 2d 1313. (Dissenting opinion, 129 M 175, 283 P 2d 1086, 1090.)

Operation and Effect

Misrepresentation of age by a minor is not a defense and a seller of intoxicating beverages must know the age of the purchaser and whatever false representations are made or precautions taken are immaterial where, in fact, the purchaser is under the age of twenty-one. State v. Paskvan, 131 M 316, 309 P 1019, 1021.

The purchaser under the age of twenty-one is not an accomplice to the seller. The purchaser has committed a crime too, but his is knowingly misrepresenting his qualifications for the purpose of obtaining liquor under section 4-413 the penalty for which is found in section 4-439. State v. Paskvan, 131 M 316, 309 P 2d 1019, 1020.

Proof of Offense

Corpus delicti may be proved by evidence that the defendant poured minor a drink from a bottle marked "Vodka." State v. Moore, 138 M 379, 357 P 2d 346, 348.

94-35-106.1. Jurisdiction of offenses. In cases of prosecution for first offenses under this act, the justice courts and district courts of the state of Montana shall have concurrent original jurisdiction. In all other cases the district courts of the state of Montana shall have exclusive original jurisdiction for violation of the provisions of this act.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 143, L. 1949.

Repealing Clause

Section 3 of Ch. 143, Laws 1949 repealed section 11048.1, Revised Codes 1935, as amended by chapter 124, Laws 1941 and all other acts or parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Validity

This section was not repealed by implication by the amendment of section 4-413 by Ch. 71, Laws 1953. State v. Wild, 130 M 476, 305 P 2d 325, 328.

Any amendment of this section by Ch. 71, Laws 1953 (4-413) is governed by the

Amendment

The 1955 amendment completely rewrote this section. For section prior to amendment see parent volume.

Constitutionality

Justice Frankfurter in his dissenting opinion in the Winters Case considered this to be one of the statutes throughout the country that would fall under the majority decision in that case as "void for vagueness." Winters v. New York, 333 U S 523, 92 L Ed 853, 68 S Ct 674.

94-3602. (11135) Penalty. (1) Every person violating any of the provisions of the next preceding section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and provided further that upon the second and each subsequent conviction thereunder, a jail sentence is mandatory.

Repealing Clause

Section 4 of Ch. 214, Laws 1955 repealed all acts or parts of acts in conflict therewith.

CHAPTER 38—PERJURY—SUBORNATION OF PERJURY

94-3801. (10878) Perjury defined.

Venue

Where prosecution for perjury is founded upon a false affidavit which was notarized in Lake County and delivered to Lewis and Clark County, apparently by mail, by virtue of section 94-3809, the crime was completed when the affidavit left the defendant with the requisite intent. If upon having the affidavit notarized the defendant then gave it to some other person to mail or mailed it himself, then the crime was committed and the proper county for venue was Lake County and not Lewis and Clark County. State v. Rother, 130 M 357, 303 P 2d 393. (Dissenting opinions, 130 M 357, 303 P 2d 393, at 397 and 409.)

Crime—When Complete

Under this section the crime of perjury is complete when the instrument is delivered by the accused to "any other person, with the intent that it be uttered or published as true." State v. Rother, 130 M 357, 303 P 2d 393, 395. (Dissenting opinions, 130 M 357, 303 P 2d 393 at 397, 409.)

Venue

Where prosecution for perjury is founded upon a false affidavit which was notarized in Lake County and delivered to

Lewis and Clark County, apparently by mail, by virtue of this section the crime was completed when the affidavit left the defendant with the requisite intent. If upon having the affidavit notarized the defendant then gave it to some other person to mail or mailed it himself, then the crime was committed and the proper county for venue was Lake County and not Lewis and Clark County. *State v. 94-3908. (10828) Presenting fraudulent bills or claims for allowance, etc.

Operation and Effect

An information may be drawn consistent with section 94-1805 (obtaining money under false pretenses) which is not vulnerable to the objection that it is bad for duplicitly for charging an offense under this section. State v. Hale, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 234. (Dissenting opinion, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 236), distinguished in 135 M 449, 453, 340 P 2d 157, 160.

in damages. Annala v. McLeod, 122 M 498, 206 P 2d 811, 815.

CHAPTER 41—RAPE AND OTHER SEXUAL CRIMES

Section 94-4106. Lewd and lascivious acts upon children.

94-4120. Child under age of sixteen cannot be accomplice.

Evidence of Other Offenses

Where defendant was charged with attempted rape upon a female child under the age of 18 years, the admission of a transcribed statement in the form of questions by the county attorney and answers by the defendant showing that defendant had been warned about going out with girls under 18 and could have been charged with rape of a girl other than the prosecutrix, was prejudicial, was not waived by defendant's introduction of evidence to meet that of the state, and was of such nature that it could not be cured. State v. Tiedemann, 139 M 237, 362 P 2d 529, 532.

Federal Law as to Indians

In the prosecution of an Indian for the crime of rape committed upon a 13-year-old female Indian on a reservation, an information which failed to charge that force had been employed or that consent of the victim was lacking failed to state an offense under the federal law which adopted the state law definition of rape. United States v. Rider, 282 F 2d 476.

Where an Indian was charged with rape of an Indian girl under eighteen on a reservation, the indictment failed to state an offense under the federal statute (18 U. S. C. § 1153), providing that an Indian who commits rape as defined by state law shall be imprisoned at the discretion of the court, because "rape" does not include "carnal knowledge" as rape is defined in this section, and because the federal law distinguishes between rape and carnal knowledge. United States v. Red Wolf, 172 F Supp 168.

Partial Repeal

Since this section is repealed by implication by Laws of 1943, Ch. 227 (10-601 et seq.), and the amendments thereof, insofar as it is in conflict with the substance and intent thereof, district criminal court was prohibited from trying child under the age of 16 years charged with rape. He was solely under the exclusive jurisdiction of the juvenile court. State ex rel. Dahl v. District Court, 134 M 395, 333 P 2d 495, 497, 499.

Statutory Rape

Any man who accomplishes an act of sexual intercourse with a female under the age of 18 years, when such female is not his wife, is guilty of the crime of statutory rape. The corpus delicti is sufficiently proved by the testimony of the prosecutrix that she had sexual intercourse with the accused at the time and place set forth in the information. State v. Reid, 127 M 552, 267 P 2d 986, 991.

94-4102. (11001) When physical ability must be proved.

Partial Repeal

Laws 1943, Ch. 227 (10-601 et seq.), and the amendments thereof have repealed by implication this section and section 94-4101, insofar as they conflict with the substance and intent thereof and district criminal court was prohibited from trying child under the age of 16 years charged with rape. He was solely under the exclusive jurisdiction of the juvenile court. State ex rel. Dahl v. District Court, 134 M 395, 333 P 2d 495, 497, 499.

94-4106. (11005) Lewd and lascivious acts upon children. Any person over the age of eighteen (18) years, who shall wilfully and lewdly commit any lewd and lascivious act, other than the acts constituting other crimes provided in sections 94-4101 to 94-4108, upon or with the body or any part or member thereof, of a child under the age of sixteen (16) years, with the intent of arousing, appealing to, or gratifying the lust or passions or sexual desires of such person, or of such child, shall be guilty of a felony, and shall be imprisoned in the state prison not exceeding twenty-five (25) years.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 59, L. 1913; re-en. Sec. 11005, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 70, L. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 57, L. 1959.

Amendment

The 1959 amendment raised the penalty in this section from five years to twenty-five years.

Age as Defense

The portion of this section giving an exemption to prosecution to a person under the age of eighteen years is a matter of defense, and negation thereof is not a necessary part of the information. State v. Davis, — M —, 376 P 2d 727, 729.

Evidence of Similar Acts

Where alleged lewd and lascivious acts upon the person of a minor child below the age of 16 years were committed on or about March 19, 1955, it was improper to permit state to show similar acts to those charged as having been committed on August 4, 1951, and in June 1951 in the State of California because of the remoteness in time. State v. Nicks, 134 M 341, 332 P 2d 904, 905, 77 ALR 2d 836.

Information Held Sufficient

An information under this section was sufficient although it did not allege the age of the defendant. State v. Davis, — M —, 376 P 2d 727, 729.

Subsequent Offense

A defendant convicted of a lewd and lascivious act upon a child under this section was properly sentenced to a term of not less than 10 years on a subsequent offense, pursuant to subd. 1 of section 94-4713, where the jury found that he had previously been convicted of lewd and lascivious acts upon a child. In re Davis' Petition, 139 M 622, 365 P 2d 948, 949.

94-4109. (11008) Importation and exportation of females, etc.

Constitutionality

This section (94-4109) is void since Congress has legislated upon this matter in the Mann Act (U. S. C. Tit. 18, §§ 2421-2424). This section then, being in contravention of a valid law of the United States, is wholly void. Ex Parte Anderson, 125 M 331, 238 P 2d 910, 911, 912.

94-4118. (11030) Crime against nature.

Penetration by Mouth

The infamous crime against nature may be committed by penetration of the mouth. (following State v. Hoyt Guerin, 51 M 250, 152 P 747.) State v. Dietz, 135 M 496, 343 P 2d 539, 541.

stayed overnight at defendant's house on several occasions, such evidence was insufficient to sustain the conviction as it does nothing more than show opportunity on the part of defendant to have committed the crime. State v. Gangner, 130 M 533, 305 P 2d 338.

Where Accomplice's Testimony Insufficiently Corroborated

Where the corroborating evidence to the testimony of the accomplice showed that accomplice slept with the defendant and

In action for damages for unlawful arrest which occurred after store manager handed plaintiff's check to officer and plaintiff seized check from officer's hand, arrest

Parole

The granting of a parole to an escape sentence by virtue of the wording of this section did not result in a discharge of the original sentence. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 557.

This section does not deal with paroles and therefore, does not stand for the proposition that an inmate, who has escaped from prison, must serve his entire original sentence in prison plus his escape sentence upon apprehension before being considered for parole. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 557.

The word "discharge" as used in this section does not mean "release on parole." State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 557.

Speedy Trial upon Escape Charge

Petitioner, who was presently confined in the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, applied to the supreme court of Montana for writ of mandate to require the district court of Powell County, Montana, to grant him a speedy trial on an escape charge, averring that a detainer had been filed with that institution by the warden of the Montana state prison to which he had been sentenced to terms of eight years and five years to run concurrently. Since records showed that he had escaped from custody after having served one year, two months and thirteen days of his sentences and he would be returned to the state prison to complete his unexpired sentences, the application was denied by the supreme court. 94-4411. Subversive Organization Registration Law—title of act. This act may be cited as the "Subversive Organization Registration Law."

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 215, L. 1951.

Title of Act

An act providing for the registration of certain societies, corporations, associations, political parties, assemblies, and other bodies and organizations; defining "subversive organizations," and requiring such organizations to file reports, documents and information with the secretary of state, and providing for the making of rules and regulations by the secretary of state; prohibiting the sending and delivery to non-members of letters, leaflets, and other written or printed matter, unless the same bears the name of such organization and the names and addresses of its officers; and providing penalties for violations of this act.

94-4412. Purpose of act. This act is adopted in the exercise of the police power of this state for the protection of the public peace and safety by requiring the registration of subversive organizations which are conceived and exist for the purpose of undermining and eventually destroying the democratic form of government in this state and in the United States.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 215, L. 1951.

94-4413. Subversive organization defined. As used in this title, "subversive organization" means every corporation, association, society, camp, group, political party, assembly, and everybody or organization composed of two [2] or more persons or members, which comes within all or any of the following descriptions:

(a) Which directly or indirectly advocates, advises, teaches, or practices, the duty, necessity, or propriety of controlling, conducting, seizing, or overthrowing the government of the United States, of this state, or of any political subdivision thereof by force or violence;

(b) Which is subject to foreign control as defined in section 4 [94-4414] hereof.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 215, L. 1951.

94-4414. Organization subject to foreign control defined. An organization is "subject to foreign control" if it comes within either of the following descriptions:

(a) It solicits or accepts financial contributions, loans, or support of any kind directly or indirectly from, or is affiliated directly or indirectly with, a foreign government or a political subdivision thereof, an agent, agency, or instrumentality of a foreign government or political subdivision thereof, a political party in a foreign country, or an international political organization;

(b) Its policies, or any of them, are determined by or at the suggestion of, or in collaboration with, a foreign government or a political subdivision thereof, an agent, agency, or instrumentality of a foreign government or a political subdivision thereof, a political party in a foreign country, or an international political organization.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 215, L. 1951.

94-4415. Exceptions from definition of subversive organization. "Subversive organization" does not include any labor union or religious, fraternal, or patriotic organizations, society, or association whose objectives and aims do not contemplate the overthrow of the government of the United States, of this state or of any political subdivision thereof by force or violence.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 215, L. 1951.

94-4416. Organization pursuant to law—no exemption. This act imposes additional requirements upon corporations, associations, or organizations which are subversive organizations. Neither the fact that such a corporation, association, or organization was organized pursuant to law nor that its affairs and activities are in any respect regulated by law exempts it from complying with this title.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 215, L. 1951.

94-4417. Rules and regulations. The secretary of state may adopt and promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this title, and may alter, amend, or repeal such rules and regulations.

94-4419. Amendment of charter, constitution, by-laws or other regulations—filing with secretary of state. Every subversive organization shall within ten (10) days after any revision or amendment of, or other change with respect to, its charter, articles of association, constitution, by-laws, rules, regulations, oath, affirmation, or pledge of membership, or any part thereof, file with the secretary of state a true copy certified by all of its officers of the revised, amended, or changed charter, articles of association, constitution, by-laws, rules, regulations, oath, affirmation, or pledge of membership, or part thereof.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 215, L. 1951.

94-4421. Semiannual statement of members. file with the secretary of state, on such form and in such detail as he may prescribe, each resolution adopted, or the minutes of any meeting held by it, authorizing or providing for concerted action by its officers, members, or a part of its membership, to promote or prevent the passage of any act of legislation by any local, state, or federal legislative body, or to support or defeat any candidate for public office.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 215, L. 1951.

94-4423. Statements filed with secretary of state are public records. All statements or documents filed with the secretary of state under this title [94-4411 to 94-4427] are public records and shall be open to public examination and inspection at all reasonable hours.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 215, L. 1951.

94-4424. Anonymous letters prohibited. A subversive organization shall not send, deliver, mail or transmit, or suffer or permit to be sent, delivered, mailed, or transmitted, to any person in this state who is not a member of the organization any anonymous letter, document, leaflet, or other written or printed matter. All letters, documents, leaflets, or other written or printed matter issued by a subversive organization which are intended to come to the attention of a person who is not a member of the organization shall bear the name of the organization and the name and residences of its officers.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 215, L. 1951.

Separability of Provisions

Section 18 of Ch. 215, L. 1951 read, "If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person, corporation, association, organization, or circumstances, is for any reason held invalid, ineffective, or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this act, or the application of such provision to other persons, corporations, associations, organizations, or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby, and the legislative assembly hereby declares the severability of the several sections and provisions of this act, and that it would have enacted the same without the invalid provisions or the invalid applications, as the case may be, had such invalidity been apparent."

Pleading of Prior Conviction

When a prior conviction is set forth in the information it does not constitute a second prosecution for a public offense for which defendant has once been prosecuted. In re Bean's Petition, 139 M 625, 365 P 2d 936, 937.

Lewd and Lascivious Act upon a Child

Defendant convicted of a lewd and lascivious act upon a child under section 94-4106, which carried a penalty of imprisonment not exceeding 25 years, was properly sentenced to a term of not less than 10 years on a subsequent offense, pursuant to subd. 1 of this section, where the jury found that he had previously been convicted of lewd and lascivious acts upon a child. In re Davis' Petition, 139 M 622, 365 P 2d 948, 949.

Proof of Nature of Crime

When a judgment of prior conviction is offered as evidence the state must prove that the crime involved was a felony within the meaning of this section. State v. Nelson, 130 M 466, 304 P 2d 1110, 1115.

Relator was convicted of the crime of burglary in the first degree. After serving one year and six days he was released from prison pending appeal. The conviction was reversed upon such appeal and a new trial ordered. Upon the new trial he was again convicted and sentenced for the same period as the first, ten years. During his second incarceration he was not entitled to credit against the second sentence for time served under the first sentence. State ex rel. Nelson v. Ellsworth, — M —, 375 P 2d 316, 318.

Where a defendant upon cross-examination admits his prior convictions of felonies it is error for the court to then allow the state to introduce into evidence the judgment record of prior convictions, for it serves no useful purpose since the credibility has already been impeached and it may weigh too heavily against the defendant. State v. Coloff, 125 M 31, 231 P 2d 343, 344.

CHAPTER 48—RIGHTS OF DEFENDANT94-4801. (11606) No person punishable but on legal conviction.

Duty to advise accused as to right to assistance of counsel. 3 ALR 2d 1003.

94-4804. (11609) Parties to a criminal action.Operation and Effect

In a criminal case the state is the opposite party to the defendant, and former section 93-1901-9, relating to calling the opposite party, is not applicable to a criminal proceeding. State v. Moorman, 133 M 148, 321 P 2d 236, 238.

94-4806. (11611) Rights of defendant in a criminal action.Discharge of Court-appointed Counsel

Where court-appointed counsel failed to advise the clerk's office as to what would be required for the record on appeal, as required by section 94-8112, from conviction of burglary and there was no record before the supreme court, defendant had been denied his right to effective representation by counsel on his appeal and the cause was remanded to the district court for revocation of appointment of present counsel and appointment of competent and effective counsel to properly prosecute the appeal. State v. Bubnash, 139 M 517, 366 P 2d 155, 158.

Where defendant charged with burglary was granted the services of court-appointed counsel he did not have the right to discharge such counsel unless he was able to provide counsel at his own expense or desired to undertake his own defense. However, upon a proper showing, such counsel could be discharged by the trial court. Peters v. State, 139 M 634, 366 P 2d 158, 159.

Examination of Witnesses in Open Court

Where defendant pleaded guilty to grand larceny, the extent of his punishment should have been determined under section 94-2706 by the exercise of a sound discretion on the part of the trial judge after the circumstances had been "presented by the testimony of witnesses examined in open court" specifically provided for in sections 94-7813 and 94-7814 subject to the provisions of section 94-7831. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 362.

Impartial Jury

Trial court was in error for refusing to grant the defendant a change of venue where evidence disclosed that local newspaper had fanned the feeling of the community against the defendant, that the local people believed the defendant to be guilty, and that the county officials themselves felt that the feeling against the defendant was so high that they moved him for safety to the state prison. State v. Dryman, 127 M 579, 269 P 2d 796, 800. (Dissenting opinion, 127 M 579, 269 P 2d 796, 801.)

Right to Appear and Defend by Counsel

By section 94-6512 a defendant is guaranteed counsel by appointment of the court, if he cannot himself employ an attorney. It is equally the duty of the court to make the appointment of counsel effective, i. e., to give court-appointed counsel a reasonable time for the preparation of his case after he has been appointed. State v. Blakeslee, 131 M 47, 306 P 2d 1103, 1107. (Dissenting opinion, 131 M 47, 306 P 2d 1103, 1107.)

Where counsel was appointed by the court, after withdrawal of defendant's original counsel, but trial was commenced three days after such appointment, such appointment was made purposeless as it is the duty of the court to make the appointment effective by giving a reasonable time for the preparation of the case. State v. Blakeslee, 131 M 47, 306 P 2d 1103, 1107. (Dissenting opinion, 131 M 47, 306 P 2d 1103, 1107.)

94-4807. (11612) Second prosecution for the same offense, etc.

Pleading of Prior Conviction

When a prior conviction is set forth in the information it does not constitute a second prosecution for a public offense for which defendant has once been prosecuted. In re Bean's Petition, 139 M 625, 365 P 2d 936, 937.

Sufficiency of Facts in Information

Where the motion for leave to file the information disclosed that decedent was shot at close range with a high powered rifle and killed on defendant's farm, that the coroner's jury verdict was that the killing was intentional, that evidence of the commission of the crime and guilt of the defendant was introduced at a habeas corpus hearing, that the county attorney had made a complete investigation, and that as a result he believed the defendant was guilty, the motion was sufficient to grant leave to file information. State v. London, 131 M 410, 310 P 2d 571, 581.

Discretion of Court

Under this section the court may grant leave or require examination, and the latter presupposes the right to grant or deny the application on examination; but the statute does not provide for findings of fact and conclusions of law. The section contemplates a requirement of sufficient evidence to move the court's discretion, but does not contemplate an unlimited discretion with finality of decision that discharges or excuses a defendant from any further proceedings. State ex rel. Harrison v. District Court, 135 M 365, 340 P 2d 544.

Examination before Leave to File

Where a district judge assumed to act upon an application for leave to file an information, he should have directed an examination before himself as magistrate or some other magistrate. State ex rel. Harrison v. District Court, 135 M 365, 340 P 2d 544.

94-6029. Definition. For the purpose of this act, a "temporary roadblock" means any structure, device, or means used by the duly elected or appointed law-enforcement officers of this state, and their deputies, for the purpose of controlling all traffic through a point on the highway whereby all vehicles may be slowed or stopped.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 60, L. 1959.

Title of Act

An act authorizing the establishment of temporary roadblocks on the highways of the state of Montana to identify drivers and apprehend law violators; by defining a temporary roadblock and the purpose for which it may be used; by providing minimum requirements in establishing temporary roadblocks and other matters properly relating thereto; by fixing penalty for violation of act; by repealing all acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith.

94-6030. Authority to establish roadblocks. The duly elected or appointed law-enforcement officers of this state, and their deputies, are hereby authorized to establish, in their respective jurisdictions, or in other jurisdictions within the state, temporary roadblocks on the highways of this state for the purpose of identifying drivers, and apprehending persons wanted for violation of the laws of this state, or of any other state, or of the United States, who are using the highways of this state.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 60, L. 1959.

94-6031. Minimum requirements. For the purpose of warning and protecting the traveling public, the minimum requirements to be met by such officers establishing temporary roadblocks, if time and circumstances allow, are:

1. The temporary roadblock must be established at a point on the highway clearly visible at a distance of not less than one hundred (100) yards, in either direction.

2. At the point of the temporary roadblock, a sign shall be placed on the center line of the highway displaying the word "stop" in letters of sufficient size and luminosity to be readable at a distance of not less than fifty (50) yards, in both directions, either in daytime or darkness.

3. At the same point of the temporary roadblock, at least one red light, which shall be a flashing or intermittent beam of light, must be placed at the side of the roadway clearly visible to the oncoming traffic, at a distance of not less than one hundred (100) yards.

4. At a distance of not less than two hundred (200) yards from the point of the temporary roadblock, warning signs must be placed at the side of the highway, containing any wording of sufficient size and luminosity, to warn the oncoming traffic that a "police stop" lies ahead. A burning beam light, flare, or a lantern must be placed near such signs for the purpose of attracting the attention of approaching drivers during hours of darkness. A red flag may be used for the same purpose during daylight hours.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 60, L. 1959.

94-6032. Existing law preserved. Nothing in this act shall be deemed to limit, or encroach upon the existing authority of Montana law-enforcement officers in the performance of their duties involving traffic control.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 60, L. 1959.

94-6033. Penalty. Any person who shall proceed or travel through a roadblock without subjecting himself to the traffic control so established shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six (6) months, or by both fine and imprisonment.

Operation and Effect

Where court allowed state to amend information charging defendant with incest by changing "fornication" to "adultery" there was no substantial change in the charge and only touched a matter of form. Whether the defendant was married or unmarried at the time is not a material ingredient of the offense. In either event the defendant is guilty, if the intercourse charged is proved. State v. Kuntz, 130 M 126, 295 P 2d 707, 710.

Waiver of Objection

Where, after plea of not guilty, county attorney asked permission to amend information and counsel for defendant stated there was no objection, any objection to the amendment of the information to include a prior conviction was waived. 94-6208. (11805) Indorsement on information.Application

The reason for the statutory requirement that the names of witnesses be indorsed on the information is to safeguard defendant against surprise and unfair advantage. There was no unfair advantage taken of defendant when the county attorney indorsed the name of a witness after impaneling a jury because he did not know of the existence of the witness at the time when the information was filed and gave notice to the defendant's attorney at that time and offered to agree to a reasonable delay in the trial in order that the defendant could examine the witness and secure evidence to meet his testimony. State v. Phillips, 127 M 381, 264 P 2d 1009, 1015.

94-6324. (11829) When and from whom they may ask advice, etc.Special Prosecutor—Appearance Before Grand Jury County attorney cannot delegate to unofficial counsel his right to advise the grand jury, assist them in their investigations and examine witnesses, and an order of the district judges appointing such special prosecutor when the county attorney was present and able to act could not give such authority. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1051.

Porter v. District Court*, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1043.

Failure to Endorse Names—Effect

Where timely motion is made before trial the statute requires the indictment to be set aside when names of witnesses are not endorsed on indictment. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1043.

v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1043.

Fictitious Names

If there were witnesses identified as John Doe and Richard Roe it is indefensible for the prosecution to conceal their identity from accused merely because the prosecutor believes that a disclosure of their true names is not vital or necessary to prepare a defense. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1043.

Operation and Effect

The statute requires the endorsement of names of all witnesses, not merely the names of witnesses the state believes to be important. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1041.

Repeal

This section (Sec. 188, p. 218, Cod. Stat. 1871), prohibiting the charging of more than one offense in the same indictment or information, was repealed by Sec. 3, Ch. 172, Laws 1961.

94-6407.1. Pleadings charging more than one offense—consolidation or separation for trial. An indictment, information, complaint or accusation may charge two or more different offenses connected together in their commission, or different statements of the same offense or two or more different offenses of the same class of crimes or offenses, under separate counts, and if two or more indictments, informations, complaints or accusations are filed in such cases in the same court, the court may order them to be consolidated. The prosecution is not required to elect between the different offenses or counts set forth in the indictment, information, complaint or accusation, but the defendant may be convicted of any number of the offenses charged, and each offense of which the defendant is convicted must be stated in the verdict or the finding of the court; provided, that the court in which the case is triable, in the interests of justice and for good cause shown, may in its discretion order that the different offenses or counts set forth in the indictment, information, complaint and accusation be tried separately or divided into two or more groups and each of said groups tried separately. An acquittal of one or more counts shall not be deemed an acquittal of any other count.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 172, L. 1961.

Title of Act

An act to provide that an indictment, information, complaint or accusation may charge two or more offenses under separate counts; providing for the consolidation of two or more indictments, informations, complaints, or accusations; providing that election by prosecution is not required; providing that conviction may be had on any number of offenses charged; providing for a statement in verdict, and that the court may order trial of different offenses charged separately or in groups; providing for effect of acquittal on part of counts; amending section 94-6703, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, relating to demurrers in criminal cases, by deleting subsection (3) thereof; and repealing section 94-6407, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith.

94-6412. (11852) Indictment or information, when sufficient.

Assault in First Degree

Trial court committed no error in overruling defendant's demurrer to amended information and in overruling his objection to the introduction of evidence and his motion to dismiss the information, where the amended information complied with the requirements of this section and sections 94-6401, 94-6403 to 94-6405. State v. McLeod, 131 M 478, 311 P 2d 400, 406.

Manslaughter

Information for manslaughter in the form prescribed in section 94-6404, which complied with the requirements of sections 94-6403, 94-6405, and met the tests provided in this section, was sufficient. State v. Haley, 132 M 366, 318 P 2d 1084, 1085.

Aiding and Abetting

While the statute defines larceny as the taking of property from the person of another yet it is sufficient to show the defendant's guilt that he aided or abetted in the commission of the crime. State v. Maciel, 130 M 569, 305 P 2d 335, 336.

Instructions

Where a verbal declaration of one co-defendant that he and the other codefendant were partners was given in evidence, it was error for the court to refuse defendant's instruction that such verbal declaration is insufficient to establish a partnership. Although a partnership was immaterial because of this section and section 94-204, yet the jury may have given full consideration to the declaration and found defendant guilty on the strength thereof. State v. Keller, 126 M 142, 246 P 2d 817, 821.

Operation and Effect

Under this section and section 94-204, evidence was sufficient to sustain a conviction of assault in the second degree where defendant was at the scene of the crime and was admittedly a participant therein; it is not necessary to show that he actually fired any one of the guns. State v. Simon, 126 M 218, 247 P 2d 481, 485.

94-6428. (11868) Of what offense a defendant may be convicted.

Verdict for Lesser Offense

Where defendant was charged with murder in the second degree it was permissible for the jury to find him guilty of involuntary manslaughter. State v. Allison, 122 M 120, 199 P 2d 279, 288.

Failure to Endorse True Names of Witnesses on Indictment

If person has gone to trial under indictment on which witnesses names were designated as Richard Roe and John Doe and convicted, the Supreme Court would be required to sustain the conviction if possible and burden would be on defendant to show prejudice. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1043.

CHAPTER 65—ARRAIGNMENT OF DEFENDANT

Section 94-6513. Compensation of attorney for accused.

94-6501. (11875) Defendant must be arraigned in the court, etc.

Admissibility of confession as affected by delay in arraignment of prisoner. 19 ALR 2d 1331.

94-6512. (11886) Right to counsel on arraignment.

Appointment of Counsel

Defendant convicted of forgery on plea of guilty was not entitled to a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that he was not advised by the district court of his legal rights, nor was counsel appointed for him as required by this section, where there was no showing of prejudice such as would overcome the presumption that the district court performed its judicial duty; and a period of more than two years and ten months had elapsed since the arraignment but his petition for the writ was the first time such contention had been made before the supreme court. In re Diserly's Petition, — M —, 370 P 2d 763, 764.

Court Appointed Counsel

Where counsel was appointed by the court, after withdrawal of defendant's original counsel, but trial was commenced three days after such appointment, such appointment was made purposeless as it is the duty of the court to make the appointment effective by giving a reasonable time for the preparation of the case. State v. Blakeslee, 131 M 47, 306 P 2d 1103, 1107. (Dissenting opinion, 131 M 47, 306 P 2d 1103, 1107.)

94-6513. (11887) Compensation of attorney for accused. Whenever, in a criminal action or proceeding in the district court, an attorney-at-law defends a person charged with any offense, by order of the court, on the ground that the accused is unable to procure or employ counsel, the county in which such criminal action or proceeding may have arisen is liable to pay such attorney for his services such sum as the judge certifies to be a reasonable compensation therefor.

Amendment

The 1949 amendment omitted a portion of this section which placed specific limitations on the amount allowed as follows, capital cases not to exceed $100, other felonies not to exceed $50, and in other cases not to exceed $25.

Perfection of Appeal

Where district court appointed counsel for the defendant and ordered preparation of the record for an appeal to the supreme court, all at public expense, defendant having had no voice in the choice, in the interest of justice it was incumbent upon the supreme court to consider the contended errors although court-appointed counsel failed to timely file the notice of appeal. State v. Frodsham, 139 M 222, 362 P 2d 413, 418.

Right to Appoint Counsel

There is no provision in the law for appointment of counsel in the supreme court, such appointments are made by the district courts. In re Pelke's Petition, 139 M 354, 365 P 2d 932, 935; Brown v. State, — M —, 371 P 2d 262, 263.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 38, Laws 1949 repealed all acts or parts of acts in conflict therewith.

CHAPTER 66—SETTING ASIDE THE INDICTMENT OR INFORMATION

94-6601. (11891) Indictment, when set aside on motion.

Failure To Endorse Names on Indictment

Where timely motion is made before trial the statute requires the indictment to be set aside when names of witnesses are not endorsed on indictment. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1043.

Indictment must be set aside where witnesses names on indictment were Richard Roe and John Doe and witnesses real names were not supplied to defendant and if there were no witnesses that fact should be shown by the prosecution either by a verified pleading or under oath. State ex

rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1043. (In this case it was said that if other grounds had not required setting aside of indictment, court would have been disposed to return case to trial court to permit defendant to interrogate prosecutor and grand jury foreman as to whether there were witnesses whose names were not endorsed on indictment.)

If person has gone to trial under indictment on which witnesses names were designated as Richard Roe and John Doe and convicted, the Supreme Court would be required to sustain the conviction if possible and burden would be on defendant to show prejudice. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1043.

Grounds Exclusive

The grounds for setting aside an indictment of a grand jury as set forth in this section are exclusive. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1037.

Presence of Unauthorized Person

Where there has been a violation of subd. 3 of this section the accused need not show prejudice, but the very appearance of an unauthorized person before the grand jury is sufficient to set aside the indictments. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1051, distinguished in 309 P 2d 320.

Presence of Unauthorized Person—Special Prosecutor Before Grand Jury

before the grand jury was ground for setting aside the indictment. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, distinguished in 309 P 2d 320.

The press of business in the office of district attorney does not justify the appointment of a "special prosecutor" to appear before the grand jury. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1051.

Presence While Indictment under Consideration

A case is "under consideration" before the grand jury within the meaning of subsection 3 of this section when witnesses are being examined. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1044, distinguished in 309 P 2d 320.

Amendment of Information

There was no error in permitting information to be amended to allege prior conviction when there was no objection by defendant and defendant's attorney consented to its filing. State ex rel. Treat v. District Court, 122 M 249, 200 P 2d 248.

Operation and Effect

Where district court was ordered to set aside indictment on ground set forth in subd. 3 of section 94-6601, prosecution for the offenses charged was not barred but the cases were ordered resubmitted to the county attorney in accordance with section 94-6604 for the filing of such information as he believes necessary. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1051, distinguished in 309 P 2d 320.

CHAPTER 67—DEMURRER

Section 94-6703. Grounds of demurrer.

94-6701. (11896) Pleading on part of defendant.

Operation and Effect

This section is exclusive and there is 94-6702. (11897) Demurrer on plea, when put in.

Operation and Effect

When a first conviction is set aside the defendant is not precluded upon a remand for a new trial from attacking the indictment or information. State v. Hale, 129 M

94-6703. (11898) Grounds of demurrer. The defendant may demur to the indictment or information, when it appears upon the face thereof, either—

1. If an indictment, that the grand jury by which it was found had no legal authority to inquire into the offense charged, by reason of its not being within the legal jurisdiction of the county; or, if an information, that the court has no jurisdiction of the offense charged therein;

2. That it does not substantially conform to the requirement of sections 94-6403, 94-6404 and 94-6405;

3. That the facts stated do not constitute a public offense;

4. That it contains any matter, which if true, would constitute a legal justification or excuse of the offense charged, or other legal bar to the prosecution.

tana, 1947, is hereby repealed and all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed."

Facts Stated Do Not Constitute a Public Offense

Information charging a violation of section 94-1805 (obtaining money under false pretenses) which only avers that the defendant made a "false" or "fraudulent" representation is not sufficient. It must expressly allege the facts which made the stated pretense false. State v. Hale, 129 M 449, 291 P 2d 229, 232, distinguished in 135 M 449, 453, 340 P 2d 157, 160. Sufficiency of Information

An information which charges defendant with an infamous act against nature and then in describing the manner in which the crime was committed it alleged an assault, it is not open to the charge that it is duplicitous. 94-6803. (11909) Plea of guilty, how put in and when withdrawn.Denial of Motion to Withdraw

Denial of motion to withdraw plea of guilty will not be reversed where chief contention was that he was misled by the erroneous advice of counsel as to his guilt under the law, when from the record of the trial court there was evidence which would have justified a finding of guilty, regardless of the correctness of the counsel's interpretation of the law. State v. Nance, 120 M 152, 184 P 2d 554, 561, distinguished in 194 P 2d 662.

Discretion of Court

The granting or refusal of permission to withdraw a plea of guilty and substitute a plea of not guilty rests in the discretion of the trial court and is subject to review only where an abuse of discretion is shown. State v. Nance, 120 M 152, 184 P 2d 554, 560, distinguished in 194 P 2d 662.

Guilty Plea Under Agreement with Prosecutor

While the supreme court will not encourage the making of bargains with persons charged of crime, where a defendant has changed his plea of not guilty to a plea of guilty on an agreement with the prosecuting attorney as to recommendation for sentences which were carried out, the supreme court, will not, after he obtained the benefits of the agreement, aid him in escaping its obligations, by ordering a withdrawal of the guilty plea. State v. Nance, 120 M 152, 184 P 2d 554, 561, distinguished in 194 P 2d 662.

Motion to Withdraw—Time for Filing

In order to receive favorable consideration an application to withdraw a plea of guilty should be made within a reasonable time. State v. Nance, 120 M 152, 184 P 2d 554, 561, distinguished in 194 P 2d 662.

Waiver of Jury Trial

The entering of a plea of guilty by a defendant waives his right to a jury trial. State v. Peters, — M —, 369 P 2d 418, 419.

When Plea of Guilty may be Withdrawn after Judgment

Where the evidence discloses that there was a grave doubt that the defendant had the mental capacity to appreciate and understand what he was doing and the consequences thereof, when without benefit of counsel, he pleaded guilty to the charge of murder, defendant should have been allowed to withdraw his plea of guilty and enter a plea of not guilty. State v. Dryman, 125 M 500, 241 P 2d 821, distinguished in 308 P 2d 971.

Withdrawal of Plea of Guilty after Judgment

Held, on the facts of the particular case, that where the defendant at the time of entering his plea of guilty thought that he had an understanding as to what his sentence would be; that no direct commitment was made to him by any of the officers but the officers had made statements to others who were in contact with the defendant and upon whose advice he relied, the ends of justice would be best served by permitting the defendant to change his plea. State v. Morgan, 131 M 58, 307 P 2d 244, distinguished in 134 M 301, 304, 330 P 2d 968, 970.

District court did not abuse its discretion in entering order denying defendant's motion to withdraw plea of guilty and substitute plea of not guilty where the record disclosed that defendant entered his plea of "guilty" on December 30, 1960; sentence was pronounced on January 23, 1961; and the motion was not filed in the district court until July 24, 1961, being six months after imposition of the sentence and six months and twenty-four days after entry of the plea. CHAPTER 69—CHANGE OF PLACE OF TRIAL OR JUDGE

Section 94-6913. Disqualification of judge—affidavit—number of changes authorized—calling in of judge to preside.

94-6901. (11916) What petition to contain.Application

Trial court was in error for refusing to grant a change of venue where evidence disclosed that local newspapers had fanned the feeling of the community against the defendant and that county officials themselves felt that feeling against the defendant was so high that they moved him for safety to the state prison. State v. Dryman, 127 M 579, 269 P 2d 796, 800. (Dissenting opinion, 127 M 579, 269 P 2d 796, 801.)

Change of Place of Trial

Where Supreme Court ordered a new trial and that it be had in some county not adjacent to Toole county because of the prejudice of the people in Toole county, trial court erred in directing that the new trial take place in Teton county. Although Teton county is not adjoining Toole county but is separated by some twenty miles, yet the word adjacent has no arbitrary meaning or definition; the term is a relative and not an absolute one, and the exact meaning of which, in any particular case, is determinable principally by the context in which it is used. State ex rel. Dryman v. District Court, 128 M 402, 276 P 2d 969, 970.

An application for a change of place of trial is addressed to the sound discretion of the trial court and a clear abuse of discretion must be shown, or the ruling of the trial court will not be disturbed. State v. Bischert, 131 M 152, 308 P 2d 969, 971; In re Larocque's Petition, 139 M 405, 365 P 2d 950, 951.

In support of an application for change of place of trial a denial of bail could not be claimed as showing prejudice by the trial judge for such is a mere preliminary matter and has nothing to do with the trial on the merits. State v. London, 131 M 410, 310 P 2d 571, 580.

Defendant in a criminal proceeding was not entitled to a change of venue where files did not contain any application for a change of place of trial as required by this section. In re Larocque's Petition, 139 M 405, 365 P 2d 950, 951.

Prejudice of Judge

Action of a judge in refusing to set bond pending appeal from a manslaughter conviction is not an act which prejudices a defendant during a trial. State v. Bischert, 131 M 152, 308 P 2d 969, 971.

94-6913. Disqualification of judge—affidavit—number of changes authorized—calling in of judge to preside. A district judge must not sit or act as such in any criminal action or proceeding when either party makes and files an affidavit, as hereinafter provided, that he has reason to believe, and does believe, he cannot have a fair and impartial hearing or trial before a district judge by reason of the bias and prejudice of such judge. Such affidavit may be made by any party to the criminal action, motion or proceeding, personally, or by his attorney or guardian and shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in which the same may be pending, at least fifteen days prior to the trial of said cause, or any retrial thereof after appeal. Upon the filing of the affidavit, the judge, as to whom said disqualification is averred, shall be without authority to act further in the criminal action, motion or proceeding, but the provisions of this section do not apply to the arrangement of the calendar, the regulation of the order of business, the power of transferring the criminal action or proceeding to some other court, nor to the power of calling in another district judge to sit and act in such criminal action or proceeding, providing that no judge shall so arrange the calendar as to defeat the purposes of this section. Not more than one judge can be disqualified for bias and prejudice, in said criminal action or proceeding, at the instance of the prosecution and not more than one judge at the instance of the defendant or defendants.

If there be more than one judge in any judicial district in which said affidavit is made and filed, another judge residing in the judicial district wherein the affidavit is made and filed must be called in to preside in such criminal action, motion or proceeding; if there be but one judge in the judicial district, then a district judge of another judicial district must be called in to preside in such criminal action, motion or proceeding; when another judge has assumed jurisdiction of a criminal action, motion or proceeding, the clerk of the district court in which the same was pending, shall at once notify the parties or their attorneys of record in the same, either personally or by registered mail, of the name of the judge called in.

If either party in any matter above mentioned shall file the affidavit as herein provided such party may not complain of any reasonable delay as the result thereof.

The provisions of this section shall be inapplicable to any person in any cause involving a direct contempt of court.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 61, L. 1959.

Title of Act

An act to provide for the disqualification of district judges in criminal actions or proceedings; prescribing the grounds and procedure for disqualification; providing for assumption of jurisdiction by other district judges in event of disqualification; and repealing all other acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 61, Laws 1959 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Right to Disqualify Judge

In a criminal proceeding, this section is the proper statute under which a defendant may disqualify a judge. Section 93-901, which applies only to civil cases, is inapplicable. In re Larocque's Petition, 139 M 405, 365 P 2d 950, 951.

The right to disqualify a judge in a criminal proceeding is purely statutory. It has no constitutional nor common-law basis. Therefore, the conditions precedent in this section must be followed. In re Larocque's Petition, 139 M 405, 365 P 2d 950, 951.

Where defendant filed no affidavit for disqualification of judge in criminal proceeding he waived the provisions of this section. In re Larocque's Petition, 139 M 405, 365 P 2d 950, 951.

CHAPTER 71—CHALLENGING THE JURY

94-7101. (11941) Definition and division of challenges.Operation and Effect

Sections 94-7101 to 94-7123 provide the procedure for interposing a challenge to the panel or to an individual juror. State v. Deeds, 130 M 503, 305 P 2d 321, 323.

94-7107. (11947) Exception, if sufficiency of the challenge be denied.Operation and Effect

Where defendant filed a verified, specific and detailed challenge to a jury panel and the county attorney did not deny the sufficiency of the facts alleged and the defendant also filed a timely motion for the issuance of a subpoena to the jury commissioners to appear, the trial court could not presume the jury commissioners had performed their duty in selecting the panel; hence, it was error for the trial court to overrule defendant's motion based on the presumption that the jury commissioners had performed in accordance with the law. State v. Deeds, 130 M 503, 305 P 2d 321, 324.

Trial of Facts Required

If a challenge to the panel alleges facts which, if true, would show a material variation from the statutory procedure in making up the jury list, the court could not, on the basis of a presumption that the jury commissioners had done their duty, summarily deny the challenge, particularly in the absence of an exception by the adverse party. that the jury commissioners have done their duty. State v. Chapman, 139 M 98, 360 P 2d 703.

94-7122. (11962) Causes of challenge, how stated.Challenges for Cause

Where the state challenged three jurors for cause, and the evidence showed that one of the jurors was nearly deaf, and the other two had formed opinions, the court was correct in excusing the jurors for cause. This section is not a limitation upon the power of the court in granting challenges which are warranted. State v. Gates, 131 M 78, 307 P 2d 248.

Purpose

The purpose of this section was to require the ground of challenge to be stated before the challenger is in a position to predicate error on the court's refusal to sustain a challenge. It was not intended as a limitation upon the power of the court in granting challenges which the facts warrant. State v. Gates, 131 M 78, 307 P 2d 248, 249.

94-7127. (11967) Decision of court to be entered.

Overruling Challenge

Where court relied on answers to last two questions and on the assumption that there was a misunderstanding as to the earlier questions in examining a prospective juror for prejudice, the overruling of the challenge would not be disturbed especially where the defendant had three peremptory challenges left at the time and exercised one to discharge such juror, and fact that defendant regarded other jurors as undesirable on which he might have exercised his challenge gave him no right to have such juror excused for bias where there was no showing that such jurors were disqualified. State v. Allison, 122 M 120, 199 P 2d 279, 286.

CHAPTER 72—THE TRIAL

94-7201. (11969) Order of trial.

Instructions

Objections

Objection to instruction that it "is not a correct statement of the law; it is not applicable to the facts in this case" does not comply with this section. State v. Hay, 120 M 573, 194 P 2d 232, 237.

Objection to instruction that "it is repetitious and not a correct statement of the law" does not comply with this section. State v. Hay, 120 M 573, 194 P 2d 232, 237.

Any error in giving instructions is not available to appellants on appeal where the record shows no objections made by the appellants. State v. Holt, 121 M 459, 194 P 2d 651, 654.

Where instructions as finally proposed to be given were not objected to by counsel for defendant, the district court by statute was expressly forbidden to grant a new trial and the Supreme Court is forbidden to reverse the cause, even if error existed in such instructions. State v. Donges, 126 M 341, 251 P 2d 254, 255.

Subd. 1

Failure to Read Information

It is not error to fail to read the information, there being no statutory requirement for such procedure. State v. Gall, 135 M 131, 337 P 2d 932.

Subd. 4

Bill of Exceptions

Where attorney for defendant presented bill of exceptions and prayed that the same be signed, settled and allowed, he could not be heard to complain on appeal that his bill of exceptions was not accurate. State v. Pankow, 134 M 519, 333 P 2d 1017, 1020.

94-7203. (11971) Defendant presumed innocent—reasonable doubt.

Burden of Proof

In criminal cases the burden of proof never shifts, but the burden of the evidence may shift frequently. State v. Moorman, 133 M 148, 321 P 2d 236, 238.

In a prosecution for grand larceny, an instruction which had the effect of placing a burden on the defendant to explain his possession of stolen property was erroneous. Such a burden deprives defendant of his cloak of innocence and forces him to testify. State v. Greeno, 135 M 580, 342 P 2d 1052.

Operation and Effect

In a prosecution for the crime of carrying a concealed weapon; wherein the defendant was found guilty by a jury, it was held on appeal that in view of the uncertainty in the mind of the state's only eyewitness as compared with witnesses for the defendant, coupled with the effect of this section, the evidence was not sufficient to justify a conviction for the crime charged. State v. Gilbert, 125 M 104, 232 P 2d 338, 341.

94-7209. (11977) Rules of evidence in civil actions, etc.Adverse Witness Statute

In a criminal case the state of Montana is the opposite party to the defendant, and former section 93-1901-9, relating to calling the opposite party, is not applicable to a criminal proceeding. State v. Moorman, 133 M 148, 321 P 2d 236, 238.

Inspection of Writings

Even if section 93-8301 [now superseded by sec. 93-2705-9] is made applicable to criminal cases by this section, defendant was not entitled to the inspection of written materials, where there was no showing as to what the material consisted of, whether it was relevant to the defense, or that it was admissible in evidence. State ex rel. Keast v. District Court, 135 M 484, 342 P 2d 1071.

94-7220. (11988) Conviction on testimony of accomplice.Cross-Reference

Child under sixteen not an accomplice to commission of infamous crime against nature, sec. 94-4120.

Corroboration

The evidence which corroborates the testimony of an accomplice could be furnished by the defendant. It could be circumstantial. It need not extend to every fact to which the accomplice testified and need not be sufficient to justify a conviction or establish a prima facie case of guilt: it being sufficient if it tends to connect defendants with the commission of the crime. Whether it tends to do so is a question of law, while its weight—its efficacy to fortify the testimony of the accomplice and render his story trustworthy—is a matter for the consideration of the jury. State v. Donges, 126 M 341, 251 P 2d 254, 257.

In a legal sense corroboration is something which leads an impartial and reasonable mind to believe that material testimony is true; it may also consist of admissions, declarations or conduct of the defendant, writings, or other documentary evidence which tends to show concert of action between the accomplice and the defendant. State v. Harmon, 135 M 227, 340 P 2d 128.

Instructions

Where the defense requested instructions as to the effect of accomplice's testimony and there was evidence in the record from which the jury might have concluded that a deputy sheriff was an accomplice of the defendant, the court should have instructed the jury that if they believed the deputy sheriff was an accomplice then they must weigh his evidence as provided by section 93-2001-1, subd. 4 and also that such evidence must be corroborated as required by this section. State v. Porter, 125 M 503, 242 P 2d 984, 990.

Insufficient Corroboration

In a prosecution for an infamous crime against nature, where the only evidence other than the testimony of the accomplice showed that the accomplice had stayed at the defendant's house over night and slept with the defendant, the corroborating evidence was not sufficient to sustain a conviction as it does nothing more than to show opportunity on the part of defendant to have committed the crime. State v. Gangner, 130 M 533, 305 P 2d 338.

Operation and Effect

In a sodomy case, court should have given the requested instructions of the defendant to the effect that if the jury finds the prosecuting witness was an accomplice, then the jury must acquit the defendant, where the only evidence connecting the defendant with the commission of the crime was the testimony of the prosecuting witness. State v. Searle, 125 M 467, 239 P 2d 995, 998.

Person Making Forged Instrument Not Accomplice of Person Passing Forged Instrument

The testimony of the person who forged the indorsement on a warrant and who was not implicated in the matter of passing or uttering the instrument is corroborating evidence to the testimony of an accomplice of the defendant charged with uttering the forged instrument. The person who forged the indorsement is not an accomplice to the defendant who uttered the instrument as the making of the instrument and the uttering of it are two separate crimes although they both constitute forgery. State v. Phillips, 127 M 381, 264 P 2d 1009, 1014. (See, however, the dissenting opinions in 127 M 381, 264 P 2d 1009, 1016, 1018.)

Sufficiency of Corroborative Evidence

Corroborating evidence need not be direct, but may be circumstantial; it need not be sufficient to justify a conviction, or to establish a prima facie case of guilt;

it need not be sufficient to connect the defendant with the commission of the crime, but it is sufficient if it tends to do so. State v. Harmon, 135 M 227, 340 P 2d 128.

Evidence was sufficient to corroborate the testimony given by alleged accomplice where the record disclosed facts and circumstances which tended to connect the defendant with the commission of burglary in the first degree. State v. Laverdure, — M —, 370 P 2d 489, 491.

Weight Given Corroborative Evidence

If the trial judge is satisfied that the evidence is corroborative, it is his duty to submit the case to the jury to determine what effect should be given to the corroboration and whether it is sufficient to warrant a conviction. State v. Harmon, 135 M 227, 340 P 2d 128.

94-7227. (11995) When evidence on either side is closed, etc.

Directing Jury to Acquit Defendant

Where there is an utter failure or lack of evidence to establish the states case court may direct the jury to return a verdict for the defendant. State v. Widdicombe, 130 M 325, 301 P 2d 1116, 1118.

Operation and Effect

This section is applicable only in cases in which the trial court deems the evidence, although tending to prove every element constituting the crime charged, insufficient in weight to warrant a conviction. State v. Peschon, 131 M 330, 310 P 2d 591, 595.

94-7228. (11996) View of place of offense or property.

Condition of Premises

The fact that the premises to be viewed had accumulated dirt which had been hastily swept away, that doors had been replaced and the view was bleak and morbid furnished no ground for interfering with an order permitting a view of the premises. State v. Allison, 122 M 120, 199 P 2d 279, 292.

Discretion of Court

The matter of permitting the jury to view the premises rests entirely in the discretion of the trial court which will not be interfered with except in case of manifest abuse. State v. Allison, 122 M 120, 199 P 2d 279, 292.

94-7407. (12023) Jury may find upon charge of previous conviction.

Plea of Guilty

This statute contemplated that the answer to charge or allegation of prior conviction should be an admission or denial, but a plea of guilty is an admission of the charge. State ex rel. Treat v. District Court, 122 M 249, 200 P 2d 248, 249.

Plea of Not Guilty

Contention of petitioner for writ of habeas corpus that his confinement was illegal because information was amended before trial to charge a previous conviction of a felony and that while he entered a plea of not guilty to such charge of previous conviction the jury made no reference to it in their verdict, as provided by this section, was completely false, where the verdict of the jury stated that the jury found defendant guilty of the crime of felony, to wit: lewd and lascivious act upon a child, as alleged in the information, and found the charge of previous conviction of felony, to wit: lewd and lascivious acts upon a child as alleged in the information true and left the fixing

Where the county attorney made no objection to the want of notice in the district court and actually stipulated that he had no amendments to offer and that the bill of exceptions as proposed was correct, then this constituted a waiver of formal notice. State v. Nelson, 130 M 466, 304 P 2d 1110, 1112.

94-7508. (12045) Record on appeal in criminal cases.

Dismissal of Appeal

The state's motion to dismiss an appeal will be granted where the defendant, although filing a notice of appeal, did not have settled or allowed a bill of exceptions, and omitted to file a transcript or briefs in the Supreme Court when no extension of time has been granted and no showing that the appellant's failure and omission has been without laches on his part. State v. McDonald, 125 M 201, 232 P 2d 997.

CHAPTER 76—NEW TRIALS

94-7602. (12047) Its effect.

Operation and Effect

A quotient verdict is not a lot verdict. State v. Moorman, 133 M 148, 321 P 2d 236, 243.

Subd. 7

Contradictory Statements by Witness

Where the key witness at the trial in which defendant was convicted of larceny made statements after the trial demonstrating that the testimony he gave was false and perjurious and, at the hearing on defendant's motion for new trial, the witness refused to give any testimony, the requirements for the granting of a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence were met and the defendant should have been granted a new trial. State v. Greeno, 135 M 580, 342 P 2d 1052.

Motion for New Trial after Appeal
Perfected

Once an appeal has been perfected to the Supreme Court the district court loses jurisdiction of the case, except that if a motion for a new trial is then pending the district court retains jurisdiction thereof, with power to rule thereon. State v. Nicks, 131 M 567, 312 P 2d 519, 520.

Where defendant had perfected an appeal to the Supreme Court, and then discovered new evidence, the Supreme Court had no jurisdiction to grant a new trial, but upon defendant's prima facie showing of matters sufficient to warrant consideration, the court would instruct the district court to entertain defendant's motion for a new trial, and would stay further proceedings pending such motion. State v. Nicks, 131 M 567, 312 P 2d 519, 521.

Examination of Witnesses in Open Court

Where defendant pleaded guilty to grand larceny, the extent of his punishment should have been determined under section 94-2706 by the exercise of a sound discretion on the part of the trial judge after the circumstances had been "presented by the testimony of witnesses examined in open court" specifically provided for in this section and section 94-7813 subject to the provisions of section 94-7831. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 351.

If and when the trial judge requests a written report of investigation provided for in section 94-7831, then he must be governed by the provisions of this section and section 94-7814. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 363.

tion and section 94-7813. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 363.

The sentence of a defendant, who pleaded guilty to grand larceny, to four years in the state prison, pursuant to section 94-2706, was reduced to one year by the supreme court where the trial court passed sentence upon receipt of private reports, including one requested by the trial judge as provided in section 94-7831, without allowing defendant or his counsel to learn of the representations in the reports and a hearing to present evidence to refute such representations. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 365.

Report of Investigator

Where trial judge requested report provided for in section 94-7831, unsworn representations and recommendations set forth in investigator's unsigned report privately offered to and privately received and adopted by the trial judge did not measure up to the requirements of this section and were not evidence. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 364.

94-7821. (12078) Court may suspend sentence, when. In all prosecutions for crimes or misdemeanors, except as hereinafter provided, where the defendant has pleaded or been found guilty, or where the court or magistrate has power to sentence such defendant to any penal or other institution in this state, and it appears that the defendant has never before been imprisoned for crime either in this state or elsewhere (but detention in an institution for juvenile delinquents shall not be considered imprisonment), and where it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the character of the defendant and circumstances of the case are such that he is not likely again to engage in an offensive course of conduct, and where it may appear that the public safety does not demand or require that the defendant shall suffer the penalty imposed by law, said court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the defendant on probation in the manner hereinafter provided. Nothing in this act contained shall in any manner affect the laws providing the method of dealing with the juvenile delinquents. Any judge, who has suspended a sentence of imprisonment under this section, or his successor, is authorized thereafter, in his discretion, during the period of such suspended sentence to revoke such suspension and order such person committed, or may, in his discretion, order the prisoner placed under the jurisdiction of the state board of pardons as provided by law, or retain such jurisdiction with his court as is authorized by him or his successor. Prior to such revocation of the order of such suspension, the person affected shall be given a hearing before said judge.

Amendment

The 1955 amendment substituted "state board of pardons" for "state board of prison commissioners."

94-7822. Suspension of sentence—copy of judgment to be mailed to board of pardons and bureau of identification. When any judge has suspended a sentence of imprisonment as provided in section 94-7821, and has not ordered the prisoner placed under the jurisdiction of the state board of pardons, but has retained jurisdiction with the court, the clerk of said court shall nevertheless mail a full copy of the judgment of the court and the order suspending the sentence and certify the same to the state board of pardons, and bureau of identification at the state prison, or if the defendant would have been confined to an institution other than the state prison, then a copy shall be sent to the institution to which said court would have committed the defendant but for the suspending of the sentence.

No defendant convicted of a crime, the punishment for which may include imprisonment in the state prison, shall be sentenced or his case otherwise disposed of, until a written report of investigation by a probation and parole officer shall have been presented to, and considered by, the court, unless the court deems such report unnecessary. The court may, in its discretion, order a pre-sentence investigation for a defendant convicted of any lesser crime or offense. Whenever an investigation is required, the probation and parole officers shall promptly inquire into the circumstances of the offense, the attitude of the complainant, the social history, criminal record, and the present conditions of the defendant and his immediate family. Examination of Witnesses in Open Court

Where defendant pleaded guilty to grand larceny, the extent of his punishment should have been determined under section 94-2706 by the exercise of a sound discretion on the part of the trial judge after the circumstances had been "presented by the testimony of witnesses examined in open court" specifically provided for in sections 94-7813 and 94-7814 subject to the provisions of this section. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 351.

If and when the trial judge requests a written report of investigation provided for in this section, then he must be governed by the provisions of sections 94-7813 and 94-7814. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 363.

The sentence of a defendant, who pleaded guilty to grand larceny, to four years in the state prison, pursuant to section 94-2706, was reduced to one year by the supreme court where trial court passed sentence upon receipt of private reports without allowing defendant or his counsel to learn of the representations in the reports and a hearing to present evidence to refute such representations. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 365.

Report of Investigator

Unsworn representations and recommendations set forth in an investigator's unsigned report privately offered to and privately received and adopted by the trial judge does not measure up to the requirements of section 94-7814. They are not evidence. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 364.

94-7832. Sentence. Whenever any person has been found guilty of a crime or offense upon verdict or plea, the court may adjudge as follows:

(1) Release the defendant on probation, (2) Suspend the imposition or execution of sentence, (3) Impose a fine as provided by law for the offense, (4) Impose any combination of (1), (2), (3), or, (5) Commit the defendant to a correctional institution with or without a fine as provided by law for the offense.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 194, L. 1955.

94-7833. Information from courts. It shall be the duty of the court disposing of any criminal case to cause to be transmitted to the board of pardons statistical data in accordance with regulations issued by the board regarding all dispositions of defendants whether found guilty or discharged.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 194, L. 1955.

94-7834. Effective date—application to persons presently on parole or probation or eligible to be placed thereon. This act shall be in full force and effect from and after April 1, 1955. The provisions of this act are hereby extended to all persons who, at the effective date hereof, may be on probation or parole, or eligible to be placed on probation or parole under existing laws with the same force and effect as if this act had been in operation at the time such persons were placed on probation or parole or became eligible to be placed thereon, as the case may be, provided that no person convicted and sentenced before the effective date shall have his rights and earned good time reduced by the application of this act.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 194, L. 1955.

Separability Clause

Section 8 of Ch. 194, Laws 1955 read "If any clause, sentence, section, paragraph or part of this act shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or inoperative, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this act but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, section, paragraph or part directly adjudged to be invalid or inoperative."

Forfeiture of Good Time Allowance

Under the provision of this section "that no person convicted and sentenced before the effective date shall have his rights and earned good time reduced by the application of this act" which in no matter attempts to prohibit the board of prison commissioners from exercising their discretionary power as to the allowance or forfeiture of good time and their power to make such rules and regulations as are reasonable in connection with this power, the board can deprive a prisoner of his good time for parole violations. In re Pelke's Petition, 139 M 354, 365 P 2d 932, 934; In re Owens' Petition, 139 M 637, 365 P 2d 935.

94-7835. Court to determine type of confinement. A court, after having sentenced a person to confinement in a county jail, may, in its discretion, upon request of the county attorney and sheriff of such county, and with the consent of the convicted person, order that any part of the imprisonment so imposed be served in confinement, with parole during the hours or periods the convicted person is actually employed.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 249, L. 1959.

94-7838. Reduction of sentence. The committing court may, in its discretion, upon request of the county attorney and sheriff of such county, reduce the sentence of the prisoner up to one-fourth of the full term, if, in the opinion of the court, the prisoner's conduct, diligence and general attitude merit such diminution.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 249, L. 1959.

94-7839. Violation. In cases where the convicted person violates the conditions of said sentence, he shall be returned to the court; the court may then require that the balance of his sentence be spent in full confinement and, further, the court may cancel any diminution of sentence granted under this act.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 249, L. 1959.

94-7840. Work arrangement in another county. History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 249, L. 1959.

94-7841. Persons guilty of contempt. The provisions of this act shall extend to a person committed to the county jail by a court of record upon an adjudication of contempt of court.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 249, L. 1959.

Savings Clause

Section 8 of Ch. 249, Laws 1959 read "If any competent court shall find any section or sections of this act to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, such finding shall not affect the validity of all remaining sections of this act, which can be given effect."

Repealing Clause

Section 9 of Ch. 249, Laws 1959 repealed all acts or parts of acts in conflict therewith.

94-8019. Western interstate corrections compact—contents. The western interstate corrections compact as contained herein is hereby enacted into law and entered into on behalf of this state with any and all other states legally joining therein in a form substantially as follows:

1. Purpose and policy. The party states, desiring by common action to improve their institutional facilities and provide programs of sufficiently high quality for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of various types of offenders, declare that it is the policy of each of the party states to provide such facilities and programs on a basis of cooperation with one another, thereby serving the best interests of such offenders and of society. The purpose of this compact is to provide for the development and execution of such programs of cooperation for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of offenders.

2. Definitions. As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(b) "Sending state" means a state party to this compact in which conviction was had.

(c) "Receiving state" means a state party to this compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement other than a state in which conviction was had.

(d) "Inmate" means a male or female offender who is under sentence to or confined in a prison or other correctional institution.

(e) "Institution" means any prison, reformatory or other correctional facility (including but not limited to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally defective) in which inmates may lawfully be confined.

3. Contracts. (a) Each party state may make one or more contracts with any one or more of the other party states for the confinement of inmates on behalf of a sending state in institutions situated within receiving states. Any such contract shall provide for:

1. Its duration.

2. Payments to be made to the receiving state by the sending state for inmate maintenance, extraordinary medical and dental expenses, and any participation in or receipt by inmates of rehabilitative or correctional services, facilities, programs or treatment not reasonably included as part of normal maintenance.

3. Participation in programs of inmate employment, if any; the disposition or crediting of any payments received by inmates on account thereof; and the crediting of proceeds from or disposal of any products resulting therefrom.

4. Delivery and retaking of inmates.

5. Such other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities and rights of the sending and receiving states.

(b) Prior to the construction or completion of construction of any institution or addition thereto by a party state, any other party state or states may contract therewith for the enlargement of the planned capacity of the institution or addition thereto, or for the inclusion therein of particular equipment or structures, and for the reservation of a specific percentum of the capacity of the institution to be kept available for use by inmates of the sending state or states so contracting. Any sending state so contracting may, to the extent that moneys are legally available therefor, pay to the receiving state, a reasonable sum as consideration for such enlargement of capacity, or provision of equipment or structures, and reservation of capacity. Such payment may be in a lump sum or in installments as provided in the contract.

(c) The terms and provisions of this compact shall be a part of any contract entered into by the authority of or pursuant thereto, and nothing in any such contract shall be inconsistent therewith.

4. Procedures and rights. (a) Whenever the duly constituted judicial or administrative authorities in a state party to this compact, and which has entered into a contract pursuant to article III, shall decide that confinement in, or transfer of an inmate to, an institution within the territory of another party state is necessary in order to provide adequate quarters and care or desirable in order to provide an appropriate program of rehabilitation or treatment, said officials may direct that the confinement be within an institution within the territory of said other party state, the receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

(b) The appropriate officials of any state party to this compact shall have access, at all reasonable times, to any institution in which it has a contractual right to confine inmates for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and visiting such of its inmates as may be confined in the institution.

(c) Inmates confined in an institution pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed therefrom for transfer to a prison or other institution within the sending state, for transfer to another institution in which the sending state may have a contractual or other right to confine inmates, for release on probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state; provided that the sending state shall continue to be obligated to such payments as may be required pursuant to the terms of any contract entered into under the terms of article III.

(d) Each receiving state shall provide regular reports to each sending state on the inmates of that sending state in institutions pursuant to this compact including a conduct record of each inmate and certify said record to the official designated by the sending state, in order that each inmate may have the benefit of his or her record in determining and altering the disposition of said inmate in accordance with the law which may obtain in the sending state and in order that the same may be a source of information for the sending state.

(e) All inmates who may be confined in an institution pursuant to the provisions of this compact shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner and shall be cared for and treated equally with such similar inmates of the receiving state as may be confined in the same institution. The fact of confinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any inmate so confined of any legal rights which said inmate would have had if confined in an appropriate institution of the sending state.

(f) Any hearing or hearings to which an inmate confined pursuant to this compact may be entitled by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate authorities of the sending state, or of the receiving state if authorized by the sending state. The receiving state shall provide adequate facilities for such hearings as may be conducted by the appropriate officials of a sending state. In the event such hearing or hearings are had before officials of the receiving state, the governing law shall be that of the sending state and a record of the hearing or hearings as prescribed by the sending state shall be made. Said record together with any recommendations of the hearing officials shall be transmitted forthwith to the official or officials before whom the hearing would have been had if it had taken place in the sending state. In any and all proceedings had pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, the officials of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state and no final determination shall be made in any matter except by the appropriate officials of the sending state. Costs of records made pursuant to this subdivision shall be borne by the sending state.

(g) Any inmate confined pursuant to this compact shall be released within the territory of the sending state unless the inmate, and the sending and receiving states, shall agree upon release in some other place. The sending state shall bear the cost of such return to its territory.

(h) Any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact shall have any and all rights to participate in and derive any benefits or incur or be relieved of any obligations or have such obligations modified or his status changed on account of any action or proceeding in which he could have participated if confined in any appropriate institution of the sending state located within such state.

(i) The parent, guardian, trustee, or other person or persons entitled under the laws of the sending state to act for, advise, or otherwise function with respect to any inmate shall not be deprived of or restricted in his exercise of any power in respect of any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact.

5. Acts not reviewable in receiving state; extradition. (a) Any decision of the sending state in respect of any matter over which it retains jurisdiction pursuant to this compact shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if at the time the sending state seeks to remove an inmate from an institution in the receiving state there is pending against the inmate within such state any criminal charge or if the inmate is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, the inmate shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment or detention for such offense. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport inmates pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact without interference.

(b) An inmate who escapes from an institution in which he is confined pursuant to this compact shall be deemed a fugitive from the sending state and from the state in which the institution is situated. In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the responsibility for institution of extradition proceedings shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee.

6. Federal aid. Any state party to this compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with any institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this compact or any contract pursuant hereto and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this compact may participate in any such federally aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision provided that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor.

7. Entry into force. This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two contiguous states from among the states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington and Wyoming. For the purposes of this article, Alaska and Hawaii shall be deemed contiguous to each other; to any and all of the states of California, Oregon and Washington; and to Guam. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states, or any other state contiguous to at least one party state upon similar action by such state. Guam may become party to this compact by taking action similar to that provided for joinder by any other eligible party state and upon the consent of congress to such joinder. For the purposes of this article, Guam shall be deemed contiguous to Alaska, Hawaii, California, Oregon and Washington.

8. Withdrawal and termination. This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate officials of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until two years after the notices provided in said statute have been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before the effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

9. Other arrangements unaffected. Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a non-party state for the confinement, rehabilitation or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of cooperative institutional arrangements.

10. Construction and severability. The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

cumstance shall, with respect to all severable matters, not be affected thereby."

Repealing Clause

Section 7 of Ch. 236, Laws 1959 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Date

Section 8 of Ch. 236, Laws 1959 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 11, 1959.

CHAPTER 81—APPEALS TO SUPREME COURT—WHEN ALLOWED —HOW TAKEN—EFFECT THEREOF

Appeals from Justice Courts

The Supreme Court does not have appellate jurisdiction to review the judgments or orders of the justice courts of this state. State ex rel. Estes v. Justice Court of Jefferson County, 129 M 136, 284 P 2d 249, 250.

94-8103. (12107) Appeal, when may be taken by the defendant.

Denial of Petition for Writ of Error Coram Nobis

Leave to file an appeal from a denial of petition for a writ of error coram nobis by the district court was denied by the supreme court since no leave to file an appeal is required under the law and if an appeal was available from the district court order, the time therefor had not expired. Brown v. State, — M —, 371 P 2d 262, 263.

Order Denying Petition for Writ of Prohibition

of defendant for writ of prohibition to restrain justice court from further proceedings in criminal action was not a judgment and could not be appealed. State ex rel. Aho v. Justice Court of Laurel Township, 131 M 585, 313 P 2d 542, 543.

94-8104. (12108) In what cases by the state.Appeals Authorized

An appeal by the state from the order of the court directing the jury to find for the defendant is expressly provided for in this section. State v. Rother, 130 M 357, 303 P 2d 393, 394.

Order Sustaining Demurrer to Complaint

An order sustaining a demurrer to a complaint does not fall within any of the provisions of this section and therefore is not an appealable order. State v. Slater, 130 M 630, 302 P 2d 470.

Right to Appeal Limited by This Section

Where defendant was convicted in justice of peace court and appealed to district court in which court the action was dismissed on defendant's motion, state had no right of appeal under this section. State v. McCluskey, 125 M 20, 229 P 2d 169.

A district court's order of dismissal of the complaint following an appeal from a conviction in a justice of the peace court does not fall within the provisions of this section and therefore is not an appealable order. State v. Becko, 125 M 76, 230 P 2d 768, 769.

94-8105. (12109) Appeals, time limitation.Denial of Motion for Mistrial

Part of defendant's appeal claiming that the trial court erred in denying motion of defendant for a mistrial was properly before the supreme court where it was taken within six months after the rendition of the judgment of conviction as prescribed by this section. State v. Tiedemann, 139 M 237, 362 P 2d 529, 530.

Denial of Motion for New Trial

Motion of state to strike defendant's third specification of error, contending that there was no substantial evidence to support the verdict or judgment of conviction, was granted where appeal was not taken within sixty days after the order denying the motion for a new trial. State v. Tiedemann, 139 M 237, 362 P 2d 529, 530.

Excuse for Failure to Take Appeal

In view of the time limit set forth in this section, death of defense counsel nearly a year after the trial and order of commitment was not sufficient showing to justify an original writ of habeas corpus in supreme court. Dryman v. State, 139 M 141, 361 P 2d 959.

Notice of Appeal

Where judgment of conviction had been rendered on October 29, 1959, and defendant did not file his notice of appeal until May 10, 1960, the supreme court lost jurisdiction to entertain the appeal. State v. Frodsham, 139 M 222, 362 P 2d 413, 416.

Operation and Effect

Where person convicted in district court petitioned Supreme Court for writ of mandate to compel district to furnish "copy of trial and court record transcript" for purpose of appeal in forma pauperis, writ was denied where no timely application had been filed in accordance with section 94-8106. State ex rel. Treat v. District Court, 124 M 234, 221 P 2d 436, 437.

94-8106. (12110) Appeal, how taken.Notice of Appeal

Where district court appointed counsel for the defendant and ordered preparation of the record for an appeal to the supreme court, all at public expense, defendant having had no voice in the choice, in the interest of justice it was incumbent upon the supreme court to consider the contended errors although court-appointed counsel failed to timely file the notice of appeal. State v. Frodsham, 139 M 222, 362 P 2d 413, 418.

Oral Request for Appeal Ineffective

Oral request of intention to appeal made orally in open court fails to conform to this section and is wholly ineffectual to give the Supreme Court jurisdiction. State ex rel. Treat v. District Court, 124 M 234, 221 P 2d 436, 437.

References

Brown v. State, — M —, 371 P 2d 262.

94-8109. (12113) Effect of an appeal by the defendant.Certificate of Probable Cause

A certificate of probable cause should be granted by the district court whenever the question of whether or not the conviction will be sustained on appeal is fairly debatable. State ex rel. Nelson v. Ellsworth, — M —, 375 P 2d 316, 319.

94-8112. (12116) Duty of clerks upon appeal.Duty of Defense Counsel

Where court-appointed counsel failed to advise the clerk's office as to what would be required for the record on appeal from conviction of burglary and there was no record before the supreme court, defendant had been denied his right to effective representation by counsel on his appeal and the cause was remanded to the district court with directions to revoke appointment of present counsel and appoint a competent and effective counsel to properly prosecute the appeal. State v. Bubnash, 139 M 517, 366 P 2d 155, 158.

94-8113. (12117) Appeal, when tried.In General

court would refuse appellant's application to vacate the hearing of the appeal. State v. Cockrell, 130 M 552, 305 P 2d 337, 338.

CHAPTER 82—DISMISSING APPEALS FOR IRREGULARITY—ARGUMENT ON APPEAL—JUDGMENT ON APPEAL

94-8207. (12125) Judgment without regard to technical errors.Erroneous Instruction

from which the law imputes prejudice. State v. Straight, 136 M 255, 347 P 2d 482, 488.

Failure to Endorse True Names of Witnesses on Indictment

If person has gone to trial under indictment on which witnesses names were designated as Richard Roe and John Doe and convicted, the Supreme Court would be required to sustain the conviction if possible and burden would be on defendant to show prejudice. State ex rel. Porter v. District Court, 124 M 249, 220 P 2d 1035, 1043.

Transcript of Evidence—Necessity

In order to give effect to this section to determine whether the erroneous instructions were merely technical errors, or affected the substantial rights of the accused, it is necessary that the supreme court have before it a transcript of the evidence. State v. Hay, 120 M 573, 194 P 2d 232, 237.

Waiver of Error

References by county attorney as to the nature of the trial, an appeal from justice court, claimed as prejudicial error in the district court, was waived by counsel for defendant when he approved instructions to be given by the court which included reference to justice court proceedings and thereafter obtained deletion from the instructions of the phrase which read "and was found guilty following a jury trial." State v. Gilbert, 139 M 204, 362 P 2d 221, 224.

Prejudice of Defendant

It is up to the supreme court to decide whether an error affects the substantial rights of the defendant, and the defendant must demonstrate prejudice from the record. State v. Straight, 136 M 255, 347 P 2d 482, 488.

Prejudice in a criminal case will not be presumed, but rather must appear from the denial or invasion of a substantial right

94-8209. (12126) What may be reviewed on an appeal, etc.Denial of Motion for Mistrial

Part of defendant's appeal claiming that the trial court erred in denying motion of defendant for a mistrial was properly before the supreme court where it was taken within six months after the rendition of the judgment of conviction as prescribed by section 94-8105. State v. Tiedemann, 139 M 237, 362 P 2d 529, 530.

94-8210. (12127) May reverse, affirm or modify the judgment and order, etc.Operation and Effect

Where Supreme Court reversed conviction of defendant and remanded cause to district court with directions that if defendant have a new trial the district court should first make inquiry into the defendant's insanity but if the prosecution is dismissed that the district court deliver the defendant to the court of another county which has continuing jurisdiction over the defendant so that the latter court may inquire into his mental condition and make such disposition of the defendant as is required by law; and thereafter the prosecution was dismissed, the trial court then was compelled to deliver the defendant to the other district court and county attorney could not file a new information. The trial court was bound to follow the mandate of the Supreme Court as found in the remittitur and mandamus will lie to require that the district court follow such mandate. State ex rel.

Kitchens v. District Court, 130 M 57, 294 P 2d 907. (Dissenting opinion, 130 M 57, 294 P 2d 907, 911.)

Reduction of Sentence

The sentence of a defendant, who pleaded guilty to grand larceny, to four years in the state prison, pursuant to section 94-2706, was reduced to one year by the supreme court where trial court passed sentence upon receipt of private reports without allowing defendant or his counsel to learn of the representations in the reports and a hearing to present evidence to refute such representations as provided in sections 94-7813 and 94-7814. Kuhl v. District Court, 139 M 536, 366 P 2d 347, 365.

94-8215. (12132) Jurisdiction ceases after judgment remitted.Operation and Effect

Where Supreme Court reversed conviction and the remittitur went down in due course and was filed with the lower court, the Supreme Court at that time lost jurisdiction in the case. Specifically it lost any jurisdiction it may have had theretofore to alter in any particular either the opinion or the mandate which followed upon that opinion, certainly unless the remittitur were first recalled. State ex rel. Kitchens v. District Court, 130 M 57, 294 P 2d 907, 908.

CHAPTER 83—IN WHAT CASES DEFENDANT MAY BE ADMITTED TO BAIL

94-8301. (12133) Admission to bail defined.

Mandamus to compel judge or other officer to grant accused bail or to accept proffered sureties. 23 ALR 2d 803.

Failure to appear, and the like, resulting in forfeiture or conditional forfeiture of bail, as affecting right to second admission to bail in same noncapital criminal case. 29 ALR 2d 945.

94-8303. (12135) Offense not bailable.Discretion of Trial Court

Bail is a matter within the discretion of the trial court and its ruling will not be disturbed unless a clear abuse of discretion appears. State v. London, 131 M 410, 310 P 2d 571, 580.

Denial of bail could not be claimed as showing prejudice by the trial judge for such is a mere preliminary matter and has nothing to do with the trial on the merits. State v. London, 131 M 410, 310 P 2d 571, 580.

94-8305. (12137) When admitted to bail after conviction, etc.Abuse of Discretion

District court did not abuse its discretion when it refused to fix bail on appeal of defendant sentenced to state prison. Bubnash v. State, 139 M 639, 366 P 2d 867.

CHAPTER 85—BAIL ON INDICTMENT OR INFORMATION BEFORE CONVICTION

Section 94-8508. Sureties for guaranteed arrest bond certificates—filing of undertaking—guaranteed arrest bond certificate.

94-8509. Violations of motor vehicle laws—posting of guaranteed arrest bond certificate in lieu of cash.

94-8510. Certification of names of sureties—withdrawal by surety company.

94-8501. (12145) When the offense is not capital.

Discharge, suspension, or remission of bail by reason of imprisonment of principal for a different offense. 4 ALR 2d 443.

94-8506. (12150) Sections applicable to qualifications, etc.Amount of Bail

Court did not err in refusing defendant's motion to reduce bail which was initially set at $25,000, where the person assaulted was in a very precarious condition and it was not known whether he would live or die. When the judge was advised that the victim would probably live, he reduced the bail to $7,500 which was a very reasonable amount. State v. McLeod, 131 M 478, 311 P 2d 400, 407, 408.

The amount of bail which the judge may fix is within his sound legal discretion, and is always to be a reasonable amount.

State v. McLeod, 131 M 478, 311 P 2d 400, 407.

The trial judge in determining the amount of bail to be fixed, should take into consideration the enormity of the crime charged; the maximum penalty which the law authorizes; the pecuniary condition of the defendant; the probability of the defendant's flight to avoid punishment; his general character and reputation; the apparent nature and strength of the proof as bearing upon the probability of his conviction; and other matters bearing upon the particular case. State v. McLeod, 131 M 478, 311 P 2d 400, 407.

94-8508. Sureties for guaranteed arrest bond certificates—filing of undertaking—guaranteed arrest bond certificate. (A) Any domestic or foreign surety company which has qualified to transact surety business in this state may, in any year, become surety in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) with respect to any guaranteed arrest bond certificates issued in such year by an automobile club or association or by an insurance company authorized to write automobile liability insurance within this state, by filing with the commissioner of insurance an undertaking thus to become surety.

(B) Such undertaking shall be in form to be prescribed by the commissioner and shall state the following:

(1) The name and address of the automobile club or clubs, automobile association, or insurance company or companies, or associations with respect to the guaranteed arrest bond certificates of which the surety company undertakes to be surety.

(2) The unqualified obligation of the surety company to pay the fine or forfeiture in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) of any person who, after posting a guaranteed arrest bond certificate with respect to which the surety company has undertaken to be surety, fails to make the appearance to guarantee which the guaranteed arrest bond certificate was posted.

(C) The term, guaranteed arrest bond certificate, means any printed card or other certificate issued by an automobile club, association or insurance company, to any of its members or insureds, which said card or certificate is signed by such member or insured and contains a printed statement that such automobile club, association or insurance company and a surety company, or an insurance company authorized to transact both automobile liability insurance and surety business in the state of Montana, guarantee the appearance of the person whose signature appears on the card or certificate and that they will, in the event of failure of such person to appear in court at the time of trial, pay any fine or forfeiture imposed on such person in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00).

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 39, L. 1957.

Title of Act

An act authorizing qualified surety companies to become surety with respect to guaranteed arrest bond certificates of automobile clubs and associations and insurance companies authorized to write automobile liability insurance within the state of Montana, and requiring the acceptance of such certificates in lieu of cash or property bail in the event of certain violations of motor vehicle laws; providing that all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are repealed.

94-8509. Violations of motor vehicle laws—posting of guaranteed arrest bond certificate in lieu of cash. Any guaranteed arrest bond certificate with respect to which a surety company has become surety or a guaranteed arrest bond certificate issued by an insurance company authorized to transact both automobile liability insurance and surety business within this state, as provided in section 1 [94-8508] hereof, shall, when posted by the person whose signature appears thereon, be accepted in lieu of cash bail in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00), as a bail bond to guarantee the appearance of such person, in any court, including municipal courts, in this state, at such time as may be required by the court, when such person is arrested for violation of any motor vehicle law of this state or ordinance of any municipality in this state (except for the offense of driving while intoxicated or for any felony) committed prior to the date of expiration shown on such guaranteed arrest bond certificate so posted as a bail bond in any court in this state shall be subject to the forfeiture and enforcement provisions with respect to bail bonds posted in criminal cases as provided by law, and that any such guaranteed arrest bond certificate posted as bail bond in any municipal court in this state shall be subject to the forfeiture and enforcement provisions of the chapter or ordinance of the particular municipality pertaining to bail bonds posted.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 39, L. 1957.

94-8510. Certification of names of sureties—withdrawal by surety company. The commissioner of insurance shall certify to each justice of the peace, police magistrate and district judge the names of surety companies who have become sureties with respect to guaranteed arrest bond certificates, and shall likewise immediately notify such official upon the withdrawal of such company as surety. No such withdrawal by any company shall be effective for thirty (30) days after the filing thereof with the state insurance commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 39, L. 1957.

Repealing Clause

Section 4 of Ch. 39, Laws 1957 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

CHAPTER 88—WHO MAY BE WITNESSES IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS

94-8802. (12176) Competency of husband and wife as witnesses.

Operation and Effect

It was error to permit wife to testify against husband in trial for assault by unlawfully threatening another by pointing a loaded revolver in violation of subd. 4 of section 94-602 where no offense against the wife was charged. State v. Storm, 124 M 102, 220 P 2d 674, 675.

94-8803. (12177) When the defendant is not a competent witness, etc.Privilege against Self Incrimination

In a prosecution for grand larceny, an instruction which had the effect of placing a burden on the defendant to explain his possession of stolen property was erroneous. Such a burden deprives defendant of his cloak of innocence and forces him to testify. The cases of State v. Sparks, 40 M 82, 105 P 87 and State v. Willette, 46 M 326, 127 P 1013, to the extent they impose a burden to explain or testify concerning any charge of possessing stolen goods are overruled. State v. Greeno, 135 M 580, 342 P 2d 1052.

CHAPTER 89—COMPELLING ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES—SUBPOENAS94-8904. (4945) Criminal actions not more than six to be subpoenaed, etc.*Operation and Effect

This statute is to control the expenses of the county and is a limitation upon the clerk of the court and not upon the judge. Where the court allows more than six witnesses to testify for the state the defendant is not prejudiced by the absence of an express order made by the court. State v. Cockrell, 131 M 254, 309 P 2d 316, 321.

CHAPTER 90—WITNESSES FROM WITHOUT STATE—HOW SECURED IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

Section 94-9003. Witness from another state summoned to testify in this state.

94-9003. Witness from another state summoned to testify in this state.

(1) If a person in any state, which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons within its borders to attend and testify in criminal prosecutions, or grand jury investigations commenced or about to commence, in this state, is a material witness in a prosecution pending in a court of record in this state, or in a grand jury investigation, which has commenced or is about to commence, a judge of such court may issue a certificate under the seal of the court stating these facts and specifying the number of days the witness will be required. This certificate will be presented to a judge of a court of record in the county in which the witness is found.

(2) If said certificate recommends that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of this state to assure his attendance in this state, such judge may direct that such witness be forthwith brought before him; and the judge being satisfied of the desirability of such custody and delivery, for which such determination said certificate shall be prima facie proof, may order that said witness be forthwith taken into custody and delivered to an officer of this state, which order shall be sufficient authority to such officer to take such witness into custody and hold him unless and until he may be released by bail, recognizance, or order of the judge issuing the certificate.

(3) If the witness is summoned to attend and testify in this state, he shall be tendered the sum of ten cents (10¢) a mile for each mile and five dollars ($5.00) for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness, provided further that in those cases in which the state wherein the witness is found has by statutory enactment required that the summoned witness be paid an amount or amounts in excess of the amount hereinbefore in this paragraph provided, then said witness may be tendered said amount or amounts so required by said state to be tendered though the said amount or amounts so required to be tendered are in excess of the said amounts in this paragraph provided for. A witness who has appeared in accordance with the provisions of the summons shall not be required to remain within this state a longer period of time than the period mentioned in the certificate, unless otherwise ordered by the court. If such witness fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a summons issued from a court of record in this state.

all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Amendment

The 1949 amendment added the proviso to the first sentence of paragraph (3).

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 117, Laws 1949 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 25, 1949.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 117, Laws 1949 repealed

CHAPTER 93—PROCEEDINGS ON INQUIRY AS TO SANITY OF A DEFENDANT

94-9301. (12213) Insane person cannot be tried or punished.

Declaratory of Common Law

This statute is declaratory of the common law as it has existed at least since Blackstone's day. Comparable or similar statutes have been enacted in all but four states of the Union. In these four, it seems the common law without the aid of statute remains in force. State v. Kitchens, 129 M 331, 286 P 2d 1079, 1083.

94-9302. (12214) Doubts as to sanity of defendant, how determined, etc.

Construction

A doubt within the meaning of this section may come from matters which are brought to the attention of the trial judge wholly beyond the common-law record or which although occurring at the trial do not appear in the record, or which although shown in the record are not admissible as evidence bearing upon any issue before the trial court on the merits. The sources of that doubt need not be evidence. It is enough that the doubt comprehended by the statute arises from credible and trustworthy information brought to the attention of the trial court from any source at all. State v. Kitchens, 129 M 331, 286 P 2d 1079, 1083.

The question whether such a doubt is raised in any given case addresses itself directly to the sound judicial discretion of the trial court. But like any other matter thus committed to the discretion of a court or its judge this discretion may not be exercised arbitrarily. Its abuse will be reviewed on appeal, and where an abuse does appear the reviewing court will say as a matter of law a doubt did arise which commanded action, and which therefore works a reversal for the error of the judge below in failing to heed its command. State v. Kitchens, 129 M 331, 286 P 2d 1079, 1083.

The weight of successive adjudications by four different courts and judges, in other proceedings, that the defendant was insane, were sufficient as a matter of law to raise the doubt required by this section. The testimony of a witness that the defendant was sane does not alter the case, for at this stage of the proceedings the court is only concerned with the preliminary question whether there is reason to doubt the defendant's sanity. State v. Kitchens, 129 M 331, 286 P 2d 1079, 1085.

of section 94-2007 restitution is no defense. State v. Johnston, — M —, 367 P 2d 891, 893.

CHAPTER 95—DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION OR OTHER REASONS

94-9501. (12223) When action may be dismissed.Dismissal on Other Grounds

Where district court dismissed information on grounds other than that provided by this section and record failed to show whether this ground was urged at the hearing in the district court or any ruling thereon, the case was reversed and the cause remanded to the district court for further proceedings not inconsistent with the opinion of the Supreme Court. State v. Saginaw, 124 M 225, 220 P 2d 1021, 1025; State v. McRae, 124 M 238, 220 P 2d 1025, 1027, distinguished in 300 P 2d 953.

Interruption of Period

From the six months mentioned in subdivision 2 of this section must be excluded the time elapsing between the date the demurrer to the information was erroneously sustained and the date of the remittitur of the Supreme Court reversing the decision. State v. Israel, 124 M 152, 220 P 2d 1003, 1013.

Operation and Effect

Whether or not motion to dismiss information under this section because of delay in trial should be granted or denied depends on whether or not "good cause" is shown for delay. State v. Saginaw, 124 M 225, 220 P 2d 1021, 1025; State v. McRae, 124 M 238, 220 P 2d 1025, 1027, distinguished in 300 P 2d 953.

In a prosecution for a misdemeanor, where the complaint is dismissed upon request by the state so that a new complaint may be issued which is substantially the same as the first complaint but amends it as to the time the offense was committed, such dismissal is not one under this section which would be a bar to the prosecution under section 94-9507. State ex rel. Borberg v. District Court, 125 M 481, 240 P 2d 854, 859, 860, 861, distinguished in 300 P 2d 953.

Dismissal on Demurrer

Defendant charged with sale of intoxicating liquor to a minor was not placed in former jeopardy in violation of section 18, article III, of the Montana Constitution, by a dismissal of the complaint upon his demurrer in justice court without any further proceedings. State v. Moore, 138 M 379, 357 P 2d 346, 347.

Information or Indictment Required for Bar

This section applies only to offenses where there is a filing of an information or the finding of an indictment. State v. Moore, 138 M 379, 357 P 2d 346, 347.

Operation and Effect

This section applies only to orders of dismissal as provided in section 94-9501. Therefore, in a justice of the peace proceeding where a complaint is dismissed upon request by the state so that a new complaint may be issued which is substantially the same as the first complaint but amends it as to the time the offense was committed, such dismissal is not a bar to the prosecution for the misdemeanor. *State ex rel. Repeal

These sections (Secs. 2630 to 2646, Pen. C. 1895; Secs. 3 to 6, 8 to 12, p. 192, L. 1891; and Secs. 1 to 3, Ch. 95, L. 1907), relating to pardons and paroles, were repealed by Sec. 31, Ch. 153, Laws 1955. For new provisions, see secs. 94-9821 to 94-9851.

94-9821. Act, how cited. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Probation, Parole and Executive Clemency Act.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

Title of Act

An act creating a board of pardons and prescribing the appointment and composition thereof, with power and duty to grant paroles, within restrictions, to supervise probations and suspended sentences, to recommend after duly noticed public hearing that the governor remit fines and forfeitures, grant pardons, absolute or conditional; grant commutations of punishments after conviction and judgment for offenses committed against the criminal laws of this state; providing for a director and a staff to administer the provisions of this act, and defining their duties; requiring records of board proceedings; providing for arrest of parolees or probationers upon violation of conditions of release; providing penalties for parole or probation violators; defining rights of attorneys to hearing before the board; providing the board with power to subpoena witnesses, and make rules and regulations under the provisions of this act; defining governor's power to respite; requiring governor to report acts of executive clemency to the legislative assembly; excluding juveniles; providing a saving clause; repealing sections 94-9801, 94-9802, 94-9803, 94-9804, 94-9805, 94-9806, 94-9807, 94-9808, 94-9809, 94-9810, 94-9811, 94-9812, 94-9813, 94-9814, 94-9815, 94-9816, 94-9817, 94-9818, 94-9819 and 94-9820, Revised Codes of Montana, 1947, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith; and providing an effective date clause.

Good Time Allowance

Under the "new parole laws" (sections 94-9821 to 94-9851) a prisoner retains the right to earn good time under the old good time statutes (sections 80-739, 80-741, repealed by Laws 1955, ch. 117, sec. 2 and section 80-740) and he is subject to forfeiture of this good time. Hill v. State, 139 M 407, 365 P 2d 44, 46.

The "new parole laws" (sections 94-9821 to 94-9851) have nothing to do with the forfeiture of earning of good time. Hill v. State, 139 M 407, 365 P 2d 44, 46.

94-9822. Board of pardons—organization. There is hereby created a state board of pardons, hereinafter referred to as the "board," consisting of three (3) members who shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. The board shall administer the executive clemency, probation and parole system, and shall endeavor to secure the effective application and improvement of such system and the laws upon which it is based. The members of the board shall serve on a per diem basis and shall be paid at the rate of fifteen dollars ($15.00) per day of service, plus actual and necessary expenses, and shall meet at least once each month at the state prison. The members of the board shall serve for terms of six (6) years, and until their successors are duly appointed and qualified, provided, however, that two (2) of those first appointed after this act takes effect, shall serve for terms of two (2) and four (4) years, respectively. The governor shall appoint the members of the board and call a meeting thereof within thirty (30) days of the effective date thereof. The board shall immediately thereafter set up the system herein provided for, and make the necessary appointments of its director, and other employees. Suitable quarters, supplies and equipment shall be provided. The principal office of the board shall be in Deer Lodge, Montana. A vacancy occurring before the expiration of any member's term of office shall be filled in the same manner for the unexpired portion of said term. The governor may at any time, after notice and hearing, remove any member for neglect of duty, malfeasance, misfeasance or nonfeasance in office.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

Powers of Board

The power of the state board of pardons is limited to permitting a convict to leave the enclosure of the state prison after he has served a period of confinement fixed for him by the board in accordance with section 94-9833. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 555.

Neither section 94-9832 nor any other section in the code gives the state board of pardons power to extinguish a former sentence by paroling a man to a subsequent sentence. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 555.

Maximum sentences cannot be changed or altered by the state board of pardons. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 555.

The state board of pardons does not have the right to pardon or commute a sentence as the exclusive power to pardon and commute a sentence rests in the office of the governor under Art. VII, sec. 9 of the Montana Constitution. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 555.

94-9823. Definitions. When used in this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Probation" is the release by the court without imprisonment except as otherwise provided by law, of a defendant found guilty of a crime upon verdict or plea, subject to conditions imposed by the court and subject to the supervision of the board upon direction of the court.

(b) "Parole" is the release to the community of a prisoner by the decision of the board prior to the expiration of his term, subject to conditions imposed by the board and subject to its supervision.

(c) "Executive clemency" refers to the powers of the governor as provided by section 9 of Article VII of the Constitution of the state of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

Effect of Granting of a Parole

A parole releases from confinement a convict who has been committed to an institution, before the expiration of his sentence. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 555.

The granting of a parole to an escape sentence by virtue of the wording of section 94-4203 did not result in a discharge of the original sentence. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 557.

94-9824. Seal, orders, records, annual report. The board shall adopt an official seal of which the courts shall take judicial notice. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum. Decision of the board may be by majority vote. The orders of the board shall not be reviewable except as to compliance of terms of this act. The board shall keep a record of its acts and decisions available to the public, providing, however, that all social records, including the pre-sentence report, the pre-parole report and the supervision history obtained in the discharge of official duty by any member or employee of the board, shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed directly or indirectly to anyone other than the members of the board or a judge; provided, however, that the board or a court may in its discretion, whenever the best interest or welfare of a particular defendant or prisoner makes such action desirable or helpful, permit the inspection of the report or any parts thereof by the prisoner or his attorney. At the close of each fiscal year the board shall submit to the governor, to the board of prison commissioners and to the legislature, a report with statistical data of its work, including research studies which it may make of probation, sentencing, parole or related functions, and a compilation and analysis of dispositions by criminal courts throughout the state.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9825. Director and employees—salaries to be paid monthly—approval and auditing. The board shall appoint a state director of probation and parole, hereinafter referred to as the "director" who shall appoint, with the approval of the board, an assistant director, probation and parole officers and other employees required to administer the provisions of this act. The director shall receive an annual salary of not more than eight thousand four hundred dollars ($8,400) per annum payable monthly, which shall include compensation for all services rendered as interstate compact administrator. All other officers and employees of the board shall receive such compensation for their services as may be fixed by the board. All officers and employees of the board shall hold office at the pleasure of the board and shall perform such duties as are imposed on them by law or by the board.

The salaries of all officers and employees of the board shall be paid monthly after such salaries have been approved by the board upon claims therefor.

Amendments

The 1957 amendment raised the salary of the director from $6,000 to $7,000 per annum.

The 1961 amendment deleted from the end of the section the words "to be audited and approved by the state board of examiners."

The 1963 amendment substituted the provision for a maximum salary of $8,400 for the director for a provision fixing the salary at $7,000; and added to the second sentence the words "which shall include compensation for all services rendered as interstate compact administrator."

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 122, Laws 1957 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Dates

Section 3 of Ch. 122, Laws 1957 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 5, 1957.

Section 11 of Ch. 225, Laws 1963 read "This act shall be effective from and after February 28, 1963."

94-9826. Expenses to be paid. All expenses incurred by the board pursuant to the provisions of this act, including the actual and necessary traveling and other expenses and disbursements of the members thereof, its officers and employees, incurred while on business of the board either within or without the state, shall, unless otherwise provided in this act, be paid from funds appropriated, after being approved by the board upon claims therefor.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 153, L. 1955; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 97, L. 1961.

Amendment

The 1961 amendment deleted from the end of the section the words "to be audited and approved by the state board of examiners."

94-9827. Legal adviser of the board. The board may appoint any qualified attorney or the attorney general to act as its legal adviser and represent it in all proceedings whenever so requested by the board.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9828. Duties of the director. The director shall be the executive officer of the board. He shall be responsible for such investigation and supervision as may be requested by the board or the courts. He shall, subject to the approval of the board, divide the state into districts and assign probation and parole officers to serve in the various districts and courts; he shall obtain office quarters for such staff in each district as may be necessary. He shall assign the secretarial, bookkeeping and accounting work to the clerical employees, including receipt and disbursement of money. He shall direct the work of the probation and parole officers and other employees assigned to him. He shall formulate methods of investigation, supervision, record keeping and reports. He shall conduct training courses for the staff. He shall seek to cooperate with all agencies, public and private, which are concerned with the treatment or welfare of persons on probation or parole. He shall further be charged with the administration of the provisions of the interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9829. Duties of probation and parole officers. Probation and parole officers shall investigate all persons referred to them for investigation by the director of probation and parole or by any court to which they are instructed by the director to serve. They shall furnish to each person released under their supervision a written statement of the conditions of probation or parole and shall instruct him regarding same. They shall keep informed of the conduct and condition of each person released under their supervision and use all suitable methods to aid and encourage him to bring about improvement in his conduct and condition. Probation and parole officers shall keep detailed records of their work. They shall supervise the collection and disbursement of all moneys when so instructed by the director in accordance with the orders of a court. They shall make such reports in writing as the director may require.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9830. Conditions of probation or suspension of sentence. The board may adopt general rules or regulations concerning the conditions of probation or suspension of sentence. Such conditions shall apply in the absence of any specific or inconsistent conditions imposed by a court. Nothing herein contained shall limit the authority of the court to impose or modify any general or specific conditions of probation or of suspension of sentence.

The probation and parole officer may recommend, and by order duly entered, a court may modify any condition of probation or suspension of sentence at any time. Due notice shall be given to the probation and parole officer before any such conditions are modified and he shall be given an opportunity to be heard thereon. The court shall cause a copy of any such order to be delivered to the probation and parole officer and the probationer.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9831. Arrest—subsequent disposition. At any time during probation or suspension of sentence a court may issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant for violation of any of the conditions of release, or a notice to appear to answer to a charge of violation. Such notice shall be personally served upon the defendant. The warrant shall authorize all officers named therein to return such defendant to the custody of the court or to any suitable detention facility designated by the court. Any probation and parole officer may arrest such defendant without a warrant, or may deputize any other officer with power of arrest to do so by giving him a written statement setting forth that the defendant has, in the judgment of said probation and parole officer, violated the conditions of his release. Such written statement delivered with the defendant by the arresting officer to the official in charge of a county jail or other place of detention shall be sufficient warrant for the detention of the defendant. The probation and parole officer, after making an arrest, shall present to the detaining authorities a similar statement of the circumstances of violation. Provisions regarding release on bail of persons charged with crime, shall be applicable to the defendants arrested under these provisions.

Upon such arrest and detention, the probation and parole officer shall immediately notify the court with jurisdiction over such prisoner, and shall submit in writing a report showing in what manner the defendant has violated the conditions of release. Thereupon, or upon an arrest by warrant as herein provided, the court shall cause the defendant to be brought before it without unnecessary delay for a hearing on the violation charged. The hearing may be informal or summary. If the violation is established, the court may continue to revoke the probation or suspension of sentence, and may require him to serve the sentence imposed, or any lesser sentence, and, if imposition of sentence was suspended, may impose any sentence which might originally have been imposed.

A probationer or defendant under suspension of sentence for whose return a warrant has been issued by the court, shall, after the issuance of the warrant, if it is found that such warrant cannot be served, be deemed a fugitive from, or to have fled from, justice. If it shall appear that he has violated the provisions of his release, whether the time from the issuing of such warrant to the date of his arrest, or any part of it, shall be counted as time served on probation or suspended sentence, shall be determined by the court.

94-9832. Parole authority and procedure. The board shall release on parole any person confined in the Montana state prison, except persons under sentence of death, when in its opinion there is reasonable probability that the prisoner can be released without detriment to himself or to the community, provided,

1. That no convict serving a time sentence shall be paroled until he shall have served at least one-quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of his full term, less good time allowances off, as provided in section 80-740; except that any convict serving a time sentence may be paroled after he shall have served, upon his term of sentence, twelve and one-half ($12\frac{1}{2}$) years;

2. No convict, serving a life sentence, shall be paroled until he shall have served twenty-five (25) years, less the good time allowances off, as provided in section 80-740. All paroles shall issue upon order of the board, duly adopted.

Within two (2) months after his admission and at such intervals thereafter as it may determine, the board shall consider all pertinent information regarding each prisoner, including the circumstances of his offense, his previous social history and criminal record, his conduct, employment and attitude in prison, and the reports of such physical and mental examinations as have been made.

Before ordering the parole of any prisoner, the board shall have the prisoner appear before it and shall interview him. A parole shall be ordered only for the best interest of society, not as an award of clemency; it shall not be considered a reduction of sentence or pardon. A prisoner shall be placed on parole only when the board believes that he is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen. Every prisoner while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the institution from which he was released, but shall be subject to the orders of the board.

The board may adopt such other rules not inconsistent with law as it may deem proper or necessary, with respect to the eligibility of prisoners for parole, the conduct of parole hearings or conditions to be imposed upon parolees. Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall recite the conditions thereof.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

Discretion of Board

Since the release of inmates on parole or by virtue of commutation of sentence rests in the discretion of the state board of pardons, their determination is not subject to review by the courts. Goff v. State, 139 M 641, 367 P 2d 557, 558.

Effect of Granting of a Parole

A parole releases from confinement a convict who has been committed to an institution, before the expiration of his sentence. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 555.

The granting of a parole to an escape sentence by virtue of the wording of section 94-4203 did not result in a discharge of the original sentence. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 557.

Hearing

Hearings involving inmates of the state prison are set by the state board of pardons and are entirely within their discretion. The only requirement for a hearing or interview arises when the board is about to order a parole. Goff v. State, 139 M 641, 367 P 2d 557, 558.

In petition for writ of habeas corpus brought by an inmate of the state prison, allegation of bias and prejudice by a member of the state board of pardons was without merit, where the files of the board disclosed that such member had disqualified himself from participating in any hearing involving petitioner. Goff v. State, 139 M 641, 367 P 2d 557, 558.

Power of Board

This section does not give the state board of pardons power to extinguish a former sentence by paroling a man to a subsequent sentence. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 555.

Right to Parole

All inmates confined in the Montana state prison are eligible for parole except those under death sentence. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 556.

In the case of consecutive sentences a prisoner is required to serve a period equivalent to one-fourth of the combined total of each sentence (less good time) before he is eligible for parole although subsequent sentence is for escape. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 557.

A prisoner is not entitled to release as a matter of right until he has completed his maximum sentence. State ex rel. Herman v. Powell, 139 M 583, 367 P 2d 553, 556; Goff v. State, 139 M 641, 367 P 2d 557, 559.

94-9836. Subpoenas. The board shall have the power to issue subpoenas compelling the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such records, books, papers and documents as it may deem necessary for investigation of the case of any person before it. Subpoenas may be signed and oaths administered by the board or any member thereof. Subpoenas so issued may be served by any sheriff, constable, police officer, parole and probation officer, or other law-enforcement officer. In case of contumacy by, or refusal of any person to obey a subpoena issued to such person, any member of the board or duly authorized representative of any of them may make application to any court of record of this state and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the board and there to produce evidence if so ordered, or there to give testimony touching the matter under investigation; any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by said court as a contempt thereof. Any person who shall without just cause fail, or refuse to attend and testify, or to answer any lawful inquiry or to produce records, books, papers and other documents if it is in his power to do so, in obedience to a subpoena of the board or any member thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars ($200) or by imprisonment for not longer than sixty (60) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and each day such violation continues shall be deemed to be a separate offense.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9838. Return of parole violator. At any time during release on parole or conditional release the board may issue a warrant for the arrest of the released prisoner for violations of any of the conditions of release, or a notice to appear to answer to a charge of violation. Such notice shall be served personally upon the prisoner. The warrant shall authorize all officers named therein to return such prisoner to the actual custody of the penal institution from which he was released, or to any other suitable detention facility designated by the board. Any probation and parole officer may arrest such prisoner without a warrant, or may deputize any other officer with power to arrest to do so by giving him a written statement setting forth that the prisoner has, in the judgment of said probation and parole officer, violated the conditions of his release. Such written statement delivered with the prisoner by the arresting officer to the official in charge of the institution from which the prisoner was released or other place of detention, shall be sufficient warrant for the detention of the parolee or conditional releasee. The probation and parole officer, after making an arrest, shall present to the detaining authorities a similar statement of the circumstances of violation. Pending hearing, as hereinafter provided, upon any charge of violation, the prisoner shall remain incarcerated in such institution.

Upon such arrest and detention, the probation and parole officer shall immediately notify the board and shall submit in writing a report showing in what manner the prisoner has violated the conditions of release. Thereupon, or upon an arrest by warrant as herein provided, the board shall cause the prisoner to be promptly brought before it for a hearing on the violation charged, under such rules and regulations as the board may adopt. If the violation is established, the board may continue or revoke the parole or conditional release, or enter such other order as it may see fit.

A prisoner for whose return a warrant has been issued by the board shall, after the issuance of such warrant, if it is found that the warrant cannot be served, be deemed a fugitive or to have fled from justice. If it shall appear that he has violated the provisions of his release, whether the time from the issuing of such warrant to the date of his arrest, or any part of it, shall be counted as time served under the sentence, shall be determined by the board.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9839. Service of term for additional crime. Any prisoner who commits a crime while at large upon parole or conditional release, and who is convicted and sentenced therefor, shall serve such sentence concurrently with the terms under which he was released, unless otherwise ordered by the court in sentencing for the new offense.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9840. Discharge of prisoner, parolee or conditional releasee. The period served on parole or conditional release shall be deemed service of the term of imprisonment, and, subject to the provisions contained in section 18 [94-9838] herein relating to a prisoner who is a fugitive from, or has fled from, justice, the total time served may not exceed the maximum term or sentence. When a prisoner on parole or conditional release has performed the obligations of his release, the board shall make a final order or discharge and issue a certificate of discharge to the prisoner.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9841. Cases of executive clemency. The board shall investigate and report to the governor with respect to all cases of pardons, remissions of fines and forfeitures, and commutations of punishment after conviction and judgment for any offenses committed against the criminal laws of the state. A majority of the board shall advise, investigate, and approve each such case before the action of the governor shall be final. All applications for executive clemency shall be made to the board, which shall cause an investigation to be made of all the circumstances surrounding the crime for which the applicant was convicted, and as to the individual circumstances relating to social conditions of the applicant. If the board, or a majority thereof, approves such application for executive clemency, it shall advise the governor and recommend action to be taken.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9842. Notice of hearing applications for executive clemency. After the board has duly considered an application for executive clemency, and has by majority vote favored a recommendation of executive clemency to the governor, it must pass an order in substance as follows:

"Whereas, the Board of Pardons has officially received an application for Executive Clemency concerning _____, a convict confined in the State Prison (or to one _____, who has been found guilty of an offense committed against the laws of the state), who was convicted of the crime of _____ committed at _____, in the County of _____, State of Montana, on the ____ day of _____, 19____, and sentenced for a term of ____ years.

"Therefore, be it ordered that ____ the ____ day of _____, 19____, be set apart for the consideration of said Executive Clemency matter; and all persons having an interest therein desiring to be heard either for or against the granting of the pardon (or commutation, remission of the fine or forfeiture) are hereby notified to be present at ____ o'clock of said day, at _____.

"Further, ordered that a copy of this order be printed and published in the _____ (here insert name of some newspaper of general circulation in the county where the crime was committed) a daily (or weekly) newspaper printed and published at _____ in the county of _____, once each week for two weeks beginning, _____, 19____, and ending _____."

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9843. Publication of order. The board must cause a copy of such order to be published in the newspaper therein designated, at least once a week for two weeks prior to the hearing, and at the same time cause to be deposited in the postoffice at the seat of government, postpaid, a copy of said order and notice addressed to the district judge, county attorney and sheriff, respectively, of the county where the crime was committed, and in like manner mail a copy of the order to the petitioner and the convict.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9844. Proof of publication. Prior to the time set for hearing, proof of the publication of notice must be made by the publisher or managing agent.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9845. Record of meeting, what to contain. At the hearing the board must cause to be kept a record showing:

1. The name of all persons appearing before the board on behalf of the person pardoned by the governor;
2. The name of all persons appearing before the board in opposition to the granting of the same;
3. The testimony of all persons giving evidence before the board;
4. That the affidavit and return from the printer of the publication of the notice and order of hearing was on file prior to the hearing.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9846. When publication not necessary. No publication need be made as provided in sections 22, 23 and 24 [94-9842, 94-9843 and 94-9844], in the following cases:

1. When there is imminent danger of the death of the person convicted or imprisoned.
2. When the term of imprisonment of the applicant is within ten (10) days of its expiration.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9847. Decision to be made. Within thirty (30) days after the hearing of any case, the board must make a decision in writing, and if such decision be made to recommend executive clemency, the copy of the decision, together with all papers used in each case shall be immediately transmitted to the governor.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9848. Governor may respite. The governor has the power to grant respites after conviction and judgment, for any offenses committed against the criminal laws of the state, for such time as he thinks proper.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9849. Governor to report to legislative assembly. The governor must communicate to the legislative assembly at each regular session, each case of remission of fine or forfeiture, reprieve, commutation, or pardon granted since the last previous report, stating the name of the convict, the crime of which he was convicted, the sentence and its date, the date of remission, commutation, pardon or reprieve, with the reason for granting the same, and the objection, if any, of any of the members of the board made thereto.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 153, L. 1955.

94-9850. Cases of juveniles excluded. The provisions of this act shall not apply to probation in the juvenile courts or to parole from state institutions for juveniles.

94-9851. Effective date—application to persons presently on parole or probation or eligible for. This act shall be in full force and effect from and after April 1, 1955. The provisions of this act are hereby extended to all persons who, at the effective date hereof, may be on probation or parole, or eligible to be placed on probation or parole under existing laws, with the same force and effect as if this act had been in operation at the time such persons were placed on probation or parole or became eligible to be placed thereon as the case may be, provided that no person convicted and sentenced before the effective date hereof shall have his rights and earned good time reduced by the application of this act.

Section 94-100-25. Proceedings on plea of guilty or on conviction.

94-100-1. (12302) Proceedings must be by complaint.

Sufficiency of Complaint

A complaint was sufficient where it stated facts constituting a public offense and charged a violation of the provisions of section 4-414, which was a misdemeanor

(4-439) within the jurisdiction of the justice of the peace court under section 94-4916. State ex rel. Borberg v. District Court, 125 M 481, 240 P 2d 854, 856.

94-100-4. (12305) Plea, how put in.Written "Special Plea in Bar" Not Authorized

Justice of the peace was acting within his jurisdiction and in accordance with the law in overruling the defendant's written "Special Plea in Bar" and ordering the defendant to answer to the complaint in accordance with this section and sections 94-6801 and 94-6802. State ex rel. Borberg v. District Court, 125 M 481, 240 P 2d 854, 857, 859, 861.

94-100-34. (12335) Notice of appeal.Application of Section

This section permitting appeal by notice in open court does not apply to the taking of an appeal to the Supreme Court from a judgment of a district court. State ex rel. Treat v. District Court, 124 M 234, 221 P 2d 436, 437.

94-100-38. (12339) Trial anew.Effect of Payment of Fine after Appeal

Where defendant was convicted in a police court of the violation of a town ordinance and appealed to the district court and served notice of his appeal to the district court while in jail serving a sentence imposed for his nonpayment of the fine, the fact the defendant had paid the fine before the hearing in the district court did not effect an abandonment of his appeal. Town of White Sulphur Springs v. Voise, 136 M 1, 343 P 2d 855, 857.

Operation and Effect

Where an appeal is taken to the district court from a conviction in a police court for a liquor law violation, but neither the city nor the defendant requested the cause be set for trial, the judge of the court could not order the appeal dismissed "for want of prosecution" without giving notice to the defendant. Such an order is void and in excess of jurisdiction. State ex rel. Healy v. District Court, 125 M 77, 230 P 2d 763.

Trial de Novo

The district court does not, on appeal from a police court, sit as a court of review, but it tries the cause de novo. Town of White Sulphur Springs v. Voise, 136 M 1, 343 P 2d 855, 857.

A writ of mandate to compel district court to take action on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus was denied by the supreme court where petitioner did not establish a clear legal right to have the writ of habeas corpus issued. Petition of John J. Tomich, 139 M 624, 365 P 2d 950.

On a hearing of a habeas corpus sued out for the liberation of one who is sought to be extradited for the violation of the criminal laws of another state, upon a warrant of the governor issued upon a requisition of a demanding state, it is not admissible to hear evidence upon, or to inquire into, the motives or purposes of the prosecution. State v. Booth, 134 M 235, 328 P 2d 1104, 1111.

It is sufficient in habeas corpus proceedings to justify holding the petitioner if it is shown in Montana that the governor received from the governor of Oregon a copy of the affidavit made by the prosecuting witness, charging the defendant with a felony and also of the warrant of arrest issued by the judge of a district court of the state of Oregon and duly authenticated. State ex rel. Middlemas v. District Court, 125 M 310, 233 P 2d 1038, 1040.

CHAPTER 801—FINES AND FORFEITURES—DISPOSAL OF

94-801-2. Traffic fines collected from juvenile offenders—disposition.

94-801-1. (12433) Fines, costs, and forfeitures, how disposed of. All fines and forfeitures collected in any court, except police courts, must be applied to the payment of the costs of the case in which the fine is imposed or the forfeiture incurred; and after such costs are paid, the residue must, save as hereinafter provided, be paid to the county treasurer of the county in which the court is held and if not otherwise provided by law, by him credited to the general school fund of said county. If the said fine or forfeiture is paid to the county treasurer at the time of such payment there shall be filed with the county treasurer, a complete statement showing the total of the fine or forfeiture received or incurred with an itemized statement of the costs incurred by the county in such action, which statement shall give the title of the cause and be subscribed by the person or officer making such payment.

Amendment

The 1961 amendment inserted the words "save as hereinafter provided" after "the residue must" in the first sentence; divided the former section into two sentences, the first and third sentences in the amended section; inserted the present second sentence; and, at the beginning of the present third sentence, substituted the words "If the said fine or forfeiture is paid to the county treasurer at the time of such payment" for "at the time of payment of any such fine or forfeiture."

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 92, Laws 1961 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

CHAPTER 1101—INTERSTATE AGREEMENT ON DETAINERS

- Section 94-1101-1. Agreement on detainees adopted—text.
94-1101-2. District courts to act.
94-1101-3. Enforcement and cooperation by public agencies.
94-1101-4. Escape from custody on detainee—penalty.
94-1101-5. Institutional officers to honor agreement.
94-1101-6. Coordinator of agreement—appointment—duties.

94-1101-1. Agreement on detainees adopted—text. The agreement on detainees is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows: The contracting states solemnly agree that:

Article I

The party states find that charges outstanding against a prisoner, detainees based on untried indictments, informations or complaints, and difficulties in securing speedy trial of persons already incarcerated in other jurisdictions, produce uncertainties which obstruct programs of prisoner treatment and rehabilitation. Accordingly, it is the policy of the party states and the purpose of this agreement to encourage the expeditious and orderly disposition of such charges and determination of the proper status of any and all detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints. The party states also find that proceedings with reference to such charges and detainers, when emanating from another jurisdiction, cannot properly be had in the absence of cooperative procedures. It is the further purpose of this agreement to provide such cooperative procedures.

Article II

As used in this agreement:

(a) "State" shall mean a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(b) "Sending state" shall mean a state in which a prisoner is incarcerated at the time that he initiates a request for final disposition pursuant to article III hereof or at the time that a request for custody or availability is initiated pursuant to article IV hereof.

(c) "Receiving state" shall mean the state in which trial is to be had on an indictment, information or complaint pursuant to article III or article IV hereof.

Article III

(a) Whenever a person has entered upon a term of imprisonment in a penal or correctional institution of a party state, and whenever during the continuance of the term of imprisonment there is pending in any other party state any untried indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which a detainer has been lodged against the prisoner, he shall be brought to trial at the next term of court after he shall have caused to be delivered to the prosecuting officer and the appropriate court of the prosecuting officer's jurisdiction written notice of the place of his imprisonment and his request for a final disposition to be made of the indictment, information or complaint; provided that for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance. The request of the prisoner shall be accompanied by a certificate of the appropriate official having custody of the prisoner, stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner.

(b) The written notice and request for final disposition referred to in paragraph (a) hereof shall be given or sent by the prisoner to the warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of him, who shall promptly forward it together with the certificate to the appropriate prosecuting official and court by registered or certified mail, return receipt request[ed].

(c) The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall promptly inform him of the source and contents of any detainer lodged against him and shall also inform him of his right to make a request for final disposition of the indictment, information or complaint on which the detainer is based.

(d) Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph (a) hereof shall operate as a request for final disposition of all untried indictments, informations or complaints on the basis of which detainees have been lodged against the prisoner from the state to whose prosecuting official the request for final disposition is specifically directed. The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall forthwith notify all appropriate prosecuting officers and courts in the several jurisdictions within the state to which the prisoner's request for final disposition is being sent of the proceeding being initiated by the prisoner. Any notification sent pursuant to this paragraph shall be accompanied by copies of the prisoner's written notice, request, and the certificate. If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the return of the prisoner to the original place of imprisonment, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

(e) Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph (a) hereof shall also be deemed to be a waiver of extradition with respect to any charge or proceeding contemplated thereby or included therein by reason of paragraph (d) hereof, and a waiver of extradition to the receiving state to serve any sentence there imposed upon him, after completion of his term of imprisonment in the sending state. The request for final disposition shall also constitute a consent by the prisoner to the production of his body in any court where his presence may be required in order to effectuate the purposes of this agreement and a further consent voluntarily to be returned to the original place of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of this agreement. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the imposition of a concurrent sentence if otherwise permitted by law.

(f) Escape from custody by the prisoner subsequent to his execution of the request for final disposition referred to in paragraph (a) hereof shall void the request.

Article IV

(a) The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prisoner against whom he has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with article V (a) hereof upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of the state in which the prisoner is incarcerated; provided that the court having jurisdiction of such indictment, information or complaint shall have duly approved, recorded and transmitted the request; and provided further that there shall be a period of thirty days after receipt by the appropriate authorities before the request be honored, within which period the governor of the sending state may disapprove the request for temporary custody or availability, either upon his own motion or upon motion of the prisoner.

(b) Upon receipt of the officer's written request as provided in paragraph (a) hereof, the appropriate authorities having the prisoner in custody shall furnish the officer with a certificate stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner. Said authorities simultaneously shall furnish all other officers and appropriate courts in the receiving state who have lodged detainers against the prisoner with similar certificates and with notices informing them of the request for custody or availability and of the reasons therefor.

(c) In respect of any proceeding made possible by this article, trial shall be commenced within one hundred twenty days of the arrival of the prisoner in the receiving state, but for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance.

(b) Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to deprive any prisoner of any right which he may have to contest the legality of his delivery as provided in paragraph (a) hereof, but such delivery may not be opposed or denied on the ground that the executive authority of the sending state has not affirmatively consented to or ordered such delivery.

(e) If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the prisoner's being returned to the original place of imprisonment pursuant to article V (e) hereof, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

Article V

(a) In response to a request made under article III or article IV hereof, the appropriate authority in a sending state shall offer to deliver temporary custody of such prisoner to the appropriate authority in the state where such indictment, information or complaint is pending against such person in order that speedy and efficient prosecution may be had. If the request for final disposition is made by the prisoner, the offer of temporary custody shall accompany the written notice provided for in article III of this agreement. In the case of a federal prisoner, the appropriate authority in the receiving state shall be entitled to temporary custody as provided by this agreement or to the prisoner's presence in federal custody at the place for trial, whichever custodial arrangement may be approved by the custodian.

(b) The officer or other representative of a state accepting an offer of temporary custody shall present the following upon demand:

(1) Proper identification and evidence of his authority to act for the state into whose temporary custody the prisoner is to be given.

(2) A duly certified copy of the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged and on the basis of which the request for temporary custody of the prisoner has been made.

(c) If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged is not brought to trial within the periods provided by this act, the appropriate court of the jurisdiction where the indictment, information or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice, and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be of any force or effect.

(d) The temporary custody referred to in this agreement shall be only for the purpose of permitting prosecution on the charge or charges contained in one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints which form the basis of the detainer or detainers or for prosecution on any other charge or charges arising out of the same transaction. Except for his attendance at court and while being transported to or from any place at which his presence may be required, the prisoner shall be held in a suitable jail or other facility regularly used for persons awaiting prosecution.

(e) At the earliest practicable time consonant with the purposes of this agreement, the prisoner shall be returned to the sending state.

(f) During the continuance of temporary custody or while the prisoner is otherwise being made available for trial as required by this agreement, time being served on the sentence shall continue to run but good time shall be earned by the prisoner only if, and to the extent that, the law and practice of the jurisdiction which imposed the sentence may allow.

(g) For all purposes other than that for which temporary custody as provided in this agreement is exercised, the prisoner shall be deemed to remain in the custody of and subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and any escape from temporary custody may be dealt with in the same manner as an escape from the original place of imprisonment or in any other manner permitted by law.

(h) From the time that a party state receives custody of a prisoner pursuant to this agreement until such prisoner is returned to the territory and custody of the sending state, the state in which the one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints are pending or in which trial is being had shall be responsible for the prisoner and shall also pay all costs of transporting, caring for, keeping and returning the prisoner. The provisions of this paragraph shall govern unless the states concerned shall have entered into a supplementary agreement providing for a different allocation of costs and responsibilities as between or among themselves. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

Article VI

(a) In determining the duration and expiration dates of the time periods provided in articles III and IV of this agreement, the running of said time periods shall be tolled whenever and for as long as the prisoner is unable to stand trial, as determined by the court having jurisdiction of the matter.

(b) No provision of this agreement, and no remedy made available by this agreement, shall apply to any person who is adjudged to be mentally ill.

Article VII

Each state party to this agreement shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this agreement, and who shall provide, within and without the state, information necessary to the effective operation of this agreement.

Article VIII

This agreement shall enter into full force and effect as to a party state when such state has enacted the same into law. A state party to this agreement may withdraw herefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not affect the status of any proceedings already initiated by inmates or by state officers at the time such withdrawal takes effect nor shall it affect their rights in respect thereof.

Article IX

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party hereto, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.
